Day of Remembrance & Service

Wednesday, September 11 • 11 a.m. • FSU College of Law

In recognition of September 11, Leon County Government will lead several community service housing restoration projects. These projects will culminate in a Day of Service & Remembrance Ceremony at the Florida State University College of Law, located at 425 W. Jefferson St. Attendees of the ceremony will be asked to write encouraging letters to service members overseas.

Beginning at 11 a.m., Leon County Government will lead the third annual Day of Remembrance & Service Ceremony, with County Commission Chairman Nick Maddox scheduled to provide remarks. This year, the ceremony will also include the first annual presentation of Holland & Knight's Glenn J. Winuk Humanitarian Award, presented by Bob Martinez, former Governor of Florida.

September 11 is now the nation's largest single day of charitable engagement. Last year, a record 35 million people observed September 11 by engaging in service projects nationwide. Leon County and its community partners encourage residents and neighbors to remember the service of others by volunteering on this day, and beyond.

Leading up to the Day of Remembrance and Service, Leon County and its community partners encourage citizens to sign up to volunteer for several home rehabilitation projects. Starting on Wednesday, September 4, volunteers can help low-income homeowners by repairing the homes of disabled residents or veterans throughout Leon County.

To volunteer, contact Leon County Volunteer Services at (850) 606-1970 or www.VolunteerLEON.org.

Household Hazardous Waste Collection

Leon County is holding the next household hazardous waste and electronics collection on Saturday, September 7, from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. at the Public Works Operations Center, 2280 Miccosukee Road. It will be open to residents only; businesses must contact the Hazardous Waste Center to make an appointment.

Certain items may not be accepted. For more information, please contact the Leon County Solid Waste Management Division at (850) 606-1803.
