LEON COUNTY LIBRARY LECTURE SERIES TOPICS THAT ENGAGE AND INSPIRE

Drawing With Whimsy and Magic

The Art of Illustration from First Sketch to Final Image

ELIZABETH LAMPMAN DAVIS
SATURDAY, AUGUST 14 AT 11:00 A.M.
LEON COUNTY MAIN LIBRARY, 200 WEST PARK AVE.
OR ATTEND VIRTUALLY VIA ZOOM

Join Leon County Government as we look inside the whimsical world of illustrator Elizabeth Lampman Davis. Featuring playful scenes with hints of magic, her artwork inspires curiosity and imagination in viewers of every age.

Elizabeth Lampman Davis will discuss her artistic style and the importance of representing children of all backgrounds and abilities in her illustrations. The lecture will include a demonstration of her creative process from the first sketch to the final image.

This Library Lecture kicks off CosmicCon, a week-long event hosted by the Leon County Public Library celebrating our community's love for comics, graphic novels, artwork, fandoms, gaming and pop culture.

Elizabeth Lampman Davis
» Freelance author and illustrator based in Florida
» Awarded first place in the SCBWI Florida 2020 Rising Kite Illustration Contest
» Represented by Elana Roth Parker at Laura Dail Literary Agency

Save money and protect local waterways

Leon County's fertilizer ordinance is in place to protect local waterways from excess fertilizer run-off caused by heavy rain. Look for Fertilizer Rain Delay reminders when there is more than an inch of rain in the forecast for a 24-hour period and save money and the environment by waiting until the weather is clearer to fertilize your lawn or garden.
