Join the Conversation

Last fall, more than 400 residents enjoyed an evening at The Longest Table. This initiative, designed to build and strengthen relationships, returns this summer with an exciting new approach. On Sunday, June 26, Leon County and the City of Tallahassee are encouraging members of the community to host or attend dinner conversations in homes or at public spaces, such as restaurants.

To get involved in the event and help move our community forward, you can sign up at www.LongestTable.com and host a dinner, or attend a hosted dinner.

Thanks You to Our Local Businesses and Organizations!

On Saturday, May 14, hundreds of citizens explored some of the places that make Leon County a great place to live. Many took to social media to share their family's experiences across the entire County. This success would not have been possible without the following local businesses and organizations:
