Anita L. Davis Preserve at Lake Henrietta Dedication

In recognition of her many years of service to the community, Leon County invites you to attend the dedication of the Anita L. Davis Preserve at Lake Henrietta on Wednesday, October 3, at 10 a.m. at Lake Henrietta Park, 3305 Springhill Rd.

The dedication recognizes Anita L. Davis' many years of service to the community. Elected in 1990, Davis was the first female African-American Leon County Commissioner. On the Board, Commissioner Davis helped restore Lake Henrietta, as well as led the charge to build new ballparks in Woodville, the southside library branch, and the health clinic now located on Old Bainbridge Road, just to name a few accomplishments.
