Report and Discussion

Background:

This item presents the Leon County 2026 Annual Report. Policy No. 11-6, "County Administrator Performance Evaluation and Annual Reporting Process" (Policy), requires the County Administrator to prepare an Annual Report, which provides a detailed analysis, summarizing the state of the County, based upon the prior fiscal year, and present the report for acceptance by the Board at a regularly scheduled Board meeting in September of each year.

The reporting requirements set forth in the Policy are consistent with Section 125.85(1), Florida Statutes, to "Report annually, or more often if necessary, to the board of commissioners and to the citizens on the state of the county, the work of the previous year, recommendations for action or programs for improvement of the county, and the welfare of its residents."

Analysis:

Consistent with County Policy and State statute, the County Administrator has prepared the 2026 Leon County Annual Report. The County's 84-page, full-color Annual Report is a comprehensive accounting of how Leon County Government continues to deliver on the Board of County Commissioners' highest priorities—investing in infrastructure, creating places for people to thrive, and advancing innovation through co-creation—while setting the standard with award-winning performance and fiscal stewardship. It documents significant progress across all County work areas and programs, demonstrates alignment with the County's Strategic Plan at every level, and clearly communicates to the public the value and impact of Leon County Government and its high-quality essential services citizens rely on every day. The Annual Report will be distributed during the Board meeting on September 15, 2026, and a brief presentation has been prepared for the meeting.

CITIZENS TO BE HEARD ON CONSENT AND NON-AGENDAED ITEMS

3-minute limit per speaker; there will not be any discussion by the Commission

- Mr. Nic Zateslo, 3046 Feeney Ct., spoke regarding the development of AI data centers. He noted that data centers are increasingly being constructed near residential areas, emphasizing that this is not solely a rural issue. He described some of the challenges experienced by residents living adjacent to or near these facilities, including concerns related to quality of life and community impacts. He stated that a moratorium on data center development is needed in the short term but emphasized that a permanent solution would require changes to the Land Development Code. He also shared that he has developed and distributed a proposal on this issue to other counties throughout the state for consideration.

- Commissioner Maddox requested that the rules be waived to allow discussion on the matter. He stated that his primary concern regarding data centers is their location, noting that they are often situated in low-income communities. He emphasized that this is an issue the Board needs to address and thanked the speaker for raising it. He further suggested that the Board consider a public education campaign about data centers.
- Chairman Caban shared that he had sent a letter to each Commissioner regarding the issue. He stated that he intends to raise the matter again during his Commissioner Discussion time at the end of the meeting and announced his plan to propose a one-year moratorium on the development of data centers in Leon County.

o Maya Shenefelt, 108 Columbia Dr, spoke in support of the climate emergency resolution contained in Agenda Item No. 12. She noted that she is a member of genCLEO and suggested that repealing the ordinance is not necessary to achieve compliance with the recently enacted legislation.

Item #7- September 11th Day of Remembrance and Service for 2026

County Administrator Long introduced this item. This item seeks Board acceptance of a status report on the planned activities for the annual Leon County 9/11 Day of Remembrance and Service, scheduled for Thursday, September 10, 2026, which include the preparation and delivery of food packages to local Veterans in partnership with Second Harvest of the Big Bend.

- This item was pulled from Consent by Commissioner Proctor.

Commissioner Proctor moved, seconded by Commissioner Cummings, to accept Option #1.

- Commissioner Proctor noted that the County is planning an event at Second Harvest to commemorate the 25th anniversary of 9/11. He further remarked that, with the nation also approaching its 250th anniversary, staff should be encouraged to explore additional commemorative activities that more broadly recognize and celebrate the significance of this historic milestone.
- Commissioner Cummings inquired whether the County has any plans in place to commemorate the 250th anniversary of the United States and expressed support for Commissioner Proctor's recommendation that the County organize celebrations and community events to recognize and honor the significance of the historic milestone.
- County Administrator Long shared that the agenda item pertained to commemorating the anniversary of 9/11 and recognizing service. However, he noted that he understood Commissioner Proctor's interest in identifying ways to celebrate the 250th anniversary of the United States and commented that, if it is the Board's direction, staff would be pleased to develop and bring forward recommendations for events and activities recognizing the nation's semiquincentennial.
- Chairman Caban stated that he believed the suggestions are an excellent idea, noting that the 250th anniversary of the United States is a significant and historic milestone. He expressed support for directing staff to plan a County-sponsored event sometime this summer or later in the year, stating that such a celebration would be an appropriate way to recognize the occasion.

Commissioner Proctor moved, seconded by Commissioner Cummings, to approve Option #1 as amended: Accept the status report on the 9/11 Day of Remembrance and Service for 2026 and direct staff to bring back additional options to celebrate the 250th Anniversary of the United States.

Item #15- Status Report on Recent Inmate Deaths at the Leon County Detention Facility and Related Investigative, Reporting, and Review Processes

County Administrator Long introduced this item. As requested by the Board, this item provides information on recent inmate deaths in the Leon County Detention Facility and an overview of the reporting and investigatory procedures following the death of an inmate.

- This item was pulled from Consent by Commissioner Proctor.

Commissioner Proctor moved, seconded by Commissioner Maddox, to approve Option #1.

- Commissioner Proctor expressed concern regarding the four deaths that occurred at the detention facility and stated that the matter warranted greater attention than its inclusion as a report on the consent agenda. He referenced his personal connection to the detention facility and requested additional information regarding the circumstances surrounding the deaths.
- Ms. Nicki Hatch, Assistant to the County Administrator for Legislative and Strategic Initiatives, highlighted key findings from the report, noting that it focuses on inmate deaths that occurred in 2025, as those investigations have been completed. She explained that the report provides an overview of the Leon County Sheriff's Office's investigative procedures, including both criminal and administrative reviews conducted for every death at the detention facility to determine whether criminal activity, policy violations, or procedural deficiencies were involved. She reported that the five inmate deaths in 2025 consisted of two deaths from natural causes, two accidental drug overdoses, and one accidental self-inflicted injury that resulted in medical complications. In each case, investigators found no evidence of foul play. She further noted that the five deaths represented approximately .07% of the facility's total inmate population in 2025, a rate that is half the national mortality rate for local jails, based on U.S. Department of Justice data. She concluded by noting that as more information becomes available on recent incidents, staff can return to the Board with updates.

- Commissioner Proctor commented that the deaths attributed to drug overdoses were particularly concerning. He also expressed concern regarding the death of a 26-year-old inmate whose cause of death was determined to be accidental severe cerebral edema resulting from self-inflicted head trauma. He noted that the circumstances surrounding the incident raised questions for him and merited closer examination. He indicated that he would like additional information on potential actions available to the Board.
- Commissioner Cummings thanked County Administrator Long and staff for their research and described the report as informative and encouraging. She noted that it provided detailed summaries of the five inmate deaths and the circumstances surrounding each case. She also expressed appreciation for the comprehensive intake screening process, including assessments of inmates' physical health, mental health, and medical needs. She stated that the process reflected the County's commitment to treating incarcerated individuals with dignity and providing appropriate care, and she commended the Sheriff and his staff for their individualized approach to those in their custody.
- Vice-Chairman O'Keefe expressed appreciation to the Sheriff's Office for providing the information contained in the report in a timely manner. He noted that one or more of the reported inmate deaths involved individuals who had participated in the Sheriff's Office hospice program and emphasized the value of making hospice services available to detainees. Echoing Commissioner Cummings' remarks, Vice-Chairman O'Keefe stated that all individuals deserve to be treated with dignity and respect.
- Commissioner Minor thanked County staff, the Sheriff's Office, and personnel at the Leon County Detention Facility for the information contained within the report. He stated that he was also encouraged by the information provided, particularly the fact that inmates receive medical evaluations shortly after intake. He further noted that in the event of an inmate death, the cause of death is determined by the Medical Examiner and is followed by both criminal and administrative investigations to assess whether any criminal conduct occurred and whether applicable policies and procedures were properly followed. He observed that the report found no evidence of foul play in any of the five inmate deaths reported in 2025. He also stated that the mortality rate at the Leon County Detention Facility was reported to be less than half the national average for comparable local detention facilities. While acknowledging that there is always room for improvement, he encouraged interested individuals to review the agenda materials.
- Commissioner Maddox acknowledged the young people who raised concerns at the Board's previous meeting, noting that their advocacy helped bring the matter forward for further discussion. He commended Commissioner Proctor for listening to their concerns and requesting additional review of the issue. Commissioner Maddox expressed confidence in the Sheriff and echoed the sentiments of Commissioners Minor and Cummings regarding the Sheriff's leadership and performance. He stated that the discussion demonstrated Leon County government's responsiveness to its citizens. While recognizing that the detention facility's mortality rate was below the national average, he emphasized that every loss of life in custody is significant and that even one death is one too many.
- Commissioner Proctor agreed with the remarks that the Sheriff is doing an outstanding job. However, he reiterated his concerns regarding the death of a 26-year-old inmate, stating that the circumstances outlined in the report appeared unusual and deserving of additional scrutiny. He expressed skepticism that agency-led investigations always provide complete assurance and questioned whether more information could be obtained about the incident.

He further inquired whether the County has any role or jurisdiction in seeking additional details regarding the death of the 26-year-old inmate.

- County Attorney O'Steen responded that the Sheriff is an independent constitutional officer and that the Commission does not have the authority to direct the Sheriff's operations or investigations. She explained that while the Board may request additional information from the Sheriff's Office, it does not possess oversight authority over the Sheriff's law enforcement functions or investigative processes.

- Commissioner Proctor acknowledged the response and stated that he would follow up directly with the Sheriff on the death of the 26-year-old inmate.

Commissioner Proctor moved, second by Commissioner Maddox, to approve Option #1: Accept the status report on recent inmate deaths at the Leon County Detention Facility and related investigative, reporting, and review processes.

The motion carried 7 – 0.

GENERAL BUSINESS

18. 2026 Legislative Session Final Report

County Administrator Long introduced this item. This item seeks Board acceptance of the 2026 Legislative Session Final Report. Each year, a final report is presented to the Board summarizing significant bills approved during the annual Florida Legislative Session, as well as notable federal policy and appropriations issues arising from the current session of the U.S. Congress. This report provides a comprehensive overview of state and federal legislation impacting the County and identifies measures that may require operational changes or future policy direction from the Board.

County Administrator Long provided an overview of recently enacted legislation placing a proposed property tax amendment on the November ballot. He noted that the proposal advanced through the Legislature within six days of its announcement and could fundamentally affect local government operations and delivery of service. If property taxes are eliminated without replacement funding, Leon County could lose approximately $71 million in annual revenue over the next several years.

He stated that the issue would be central to the upcoming budget workshops and development of the Fiscal Year 2027 budget. Staff would evaluate potential service reductions and alternative revenue sources while prioritizing state-mandated services, public safety, and critical infrastructure. He noted that locally funded services, including libraries, parks and trails, veteran services, emergency medical services, animal control, and programs for vulnerable populations, could be significantly affected. He concluded that additional information would be presented during the budget workshops and thanked the Board for its engagement throughout the legislative session before turning the presentation over to Ms. Nicki Hatch.

- Chairman Caban recognized the presence of constitutional officers and elected officials in attendance, including Tax Collector Doris Maloy, Supervisor of Elections Mark Earley, and School Board Member Darryl Jones.

- Ms. Nicki Hatch summarized key legislation passed during the 2026 legislative session, including SB 1134 concerning the prohibition of diversity, equity, and inclusion initiatives; HB 1217 regarding "Net Zero" preemption; and HB 1329, the Local Government Financial Transparency and Accountability Act. She also highlighted approved state budget requests for local projects, noting that most County funding priorities were expected to be supported through executive agency appropriations and grant programs and that all legislative appropriations remained subject to the Governor's approval. She identified the Governor's property tax reform proposal as the session's most consequential issue because of its potential effect on the County's primary revenue source. She then turned the presentation over to Mr. Ken Morris for further discussion of the proposal and its anticipated fiscal impacts on Leon County.

- Mr. Ken Morris, Assistant County Administrator, began his presentation by highlighting Section 9 of the proposed constitutional amendment. He referenced language from an earlier draft that would have significantly restricted the use of county and municipal property tax revenues to a narrow set of fundamental core services. He explained that this language reflected a broader legislative philosophy favoring reduced reliance on property taxes and increased use of alternative revenue sources. However, he noted that concerns about the restrictive language were addressed during the legislative process, allowing property tax revenues to support a broader range of County operations and constitutional officer functions. He cautioned that, if approved by voters, the constitutional amendment would require difficult governing decisions in the years ahead. He then reviewed the measure's major provisions, including the new homestead exemption, the Full Elimination Plan, Automatic Inflation Growth, the five-year residency requirement, the Non-Homestead Assessment Cap, and the narrowed Millage Rate Ceiling from SB 4F, providing an overview of each provision and its potential impact. He then discussed the projected budgetary effects on the County, noting that only approximately $3.5 million would remain available to support all other County services, compared with the current $74.2 million. He added that the Property Appraiser estimates the amendment would reduce County revenues by approximately $71 million by Fiscal Year 2029. Looking ahead, Mr. Morris stated that staff would begin evaluating options to prepare for the potential fiscal impacts.

Commissioner Proctor moved, seconded by Commissioner Maddox, to approve Option #1.

- Commissioner Proctor expressed concern that the proposed property tax reforms reflected a broader effort by the State to centralize authority and reduce local government autonomy. He questioned the constitutionality of the proposal, arguing that it could significantly reduce County and municipal revenues while limiting local governments' ability to address the resulting fiscal impacts. He suggested that legal action should be considered to challenge the proposal and emphasized that local governments should not passively accept measures that could substantially affect their ability to provide essential services. He cautioned that, if approved by voters, the amendment would force counties to make difficult decisions regarding service reductions and resource allocation. He encouraged the Board to continue evaluating the issue during upcoming budget workshops, including adding an additional workshop day to allow for more in-depth discussion. He concluded by stressing the importance of exploring all available options, including potential legal challenges, to address the amendment's anticipated impacts on County operations and services.
- Vice-Chairman O'Keefe echoed Commissioner Proctor's concerns regarding what he characterized as the State Legislature's increasing hostility toward local governments and home rule. He thanked staff for promptly analyzing the proposed property tax amendment and emphasized the importance of ensuring that voters understand its significant potential effects on County services and community programs. He expressed pride in the County's efficient, cost-effective service delivery, which he stated reflects the priorities and values of Leon County residents. He then asked several questions regarding other legislative matters, including the descheduling of marijuana.
    - Ms. Hatch responded that the President's Executive Order regarding the descheduling of marijuana is focused primarily on medical use but noted that it represents an important first step toward broader policy reform.

- Vice-Chairman O'Keefe inquired whether there had been any recent federal or state developments regarding the regulation of PFAS chemicals.
    - Ms. Hatch responded that she had heard of potential developments over the past several months but did not have any specific updates to provide at that time. She noted that staff could gather additional information and provide a follow-up response.
- Vice-Chairman O'Keefe sought clarification regarding Senate Bill 182 and its provisions regarding the commercial zoning of private schools in unincorporated areas.
    - Ms. Hatch responded that Senate Bill 182, as passed during the 2026 Legislative Session, included a provision added late in the legislative process that allows private schools, regardless of enrollment size, to locate in unincorporated areas by being permitted as commercial or mixed-use without requiring rezoning or approval of a land use amendment.
- Mr. Mark Earley, Leon County Supervisor of Elections, provided an update on election preparations and briefly commented on recent legislation. He stated that he was relieved that the Legislature ultimately included constitutional officers and their budgets among the governmental functions that could continue to be supported by property tax revenues under the proposed constitutional amendment. He also reported that candidate qualifying was underway and that his office was actively informing voters about upcoming election changes, including the requirement that vote-by-mail requests must be renewed each election cycle.
- Commissioner Proctor encouraged Mr. Earley to continue educating voters about the changes to the vote-by-mail process and to help ensure they understand the new ballot request requirements.
    - Mr. Earley responded that many voters remain unaware that vote-by-mail requests are no longer automatically carried over from one election cycle to the next. He reported that Leon County currently has approximately 28,000 active vote-by-mail requests on file, compared to a typical total of approximately 45,000, and noted that his office has undertaken extensive communication outreach efforts to inform citizens of these changes.
- Commissioner Proctor asked about voter registration drives conducted by community organizations and whether any recent changes will affect those efforts.
    - Mr. Earley responded that recent statutory changes have significantly affected third-party voter registration organizations. He stated that these changes have discouraged some organizations from collecting paper voter registration applications and suggested that such groups instead assist individuals in registering through Florida's online voter registration system.
- Commissioner Proctor lastly inquired about voting rights restoration for individuals with felony convictions.
    - Mr. Earley responded that the process remains complex, particularly with respect to resolving legal financial obligations such as fines, fees, and restitution.
- Ms. Doris Maloy, Leon County Tax Collector, shared information regarding recent changes to Florida driver's licenses, specifically changes to driver's license numbers. She stated that constituents have questioned how that change might affect their ability to vote and asked Supervisor Earley if he could provide clarification on the issue.
    - Mr. Earley responded that the upcoming driver's license number changes, along with the citizenship-related changes scheduled for next year, could make it more difficult for people to vote. He said the best advice he could offer is that when individuals visit the Tax Collector's Office to update their driver's license, one of the first questions they will be asked is whether they would like to update their voter registration information. He emphasized that the answer should always be yes.

- Commissioner Proctor asked whether the Supervisor of Elections Office has adequate funding for this cycle to ensure that the election is administered smoothly and efficiently.
    - Mr. Earley responded that his office has the resources necessary to effectively carry out its responsibilities and maintain a high standard of election administration this year and next year. However, he cautioned that circumstances beyond that timeframe remain uncertain and noted that he was limited in what he could say regarding any potential future impacts.
- Commissioner Welch thanked staff for the presentations and stated that, while he generally supports allowing citizens to vote on policy issues through referenda, it is essential that voters have a clear understanding of the implications of the proposed property tax amendment. He requested that staff continue refining the informational materials and, as additional analysis becomes available, provide specific, quantifiable information regarding the potential impacts on County services, programs, facilities, staffing, operations, and overall fiscal sustainability. He also requested clarification regarding the County's authority to communicate information about the proposal through County resources, including its social media platforms.
    - County Attorney O'Steen responded that state law permits the County to provide factual, fair, and impartial information regarding ballot measures, including posting factual information on County websites, responding to public inquiries, and presenting information at public meetings and other public forums. She advised that public funds may not be used to advocate for or against a ballot measure and cautioned that any County communication which could reasonably be construed as advocacy should be avoided. She also noted that using social media in an official capacity to advocate for or against a ballot measure is similarly prohibited.
- Commissioner Welch noted that the proposed property tax amendment is likely to generate significant public interest and prompt numerous questions from residents. He also discussed the possibility that the County may need to consider fee increases and other revenue alternatives as part of its response to potential reductions in property tax revenues.
    - County Attorney O'Steen clarified that elected officials retain their First Amendment rights to speak and express their opinions in their private capacities. However, she advised that officials should clearly distinguish personal advocacy from their official roles. She explained that an elected official who maintains a purely private social media account that is not used for official business may express personal views regarding a ballot measure. She cautioned, however, that officials who use their social media accounts for both personal and official purposes should avoid posting advocacy related to ballot measures on those platforms to minimize the risk of complaints or violations of state law. She emphasized the importance of maintaining a clear separation between personal political expression and official governmental communications.
- Commissioner Maddox acknowledged the financial pressures facing homeowners, including rising housing costs, insurance premiums, and property taxes, and stated that those concerns should not be dismissed. However, he cautioned that policy changes intended to provide property tax relief could have unintended consequences if they significantly reduce local governments' ability to provide essential public services. He emphasized that local governments must balance the goal of affordability for residents with the responsibility to maintain the quality of services, infrastructure, and public facilities upon which communities rely. He urged consideration of how the proposed amendment could affect not only homeowners, but also renters, seniors on fixed incomes, businesses, and future generations. He expressed concern that substantial reductions in local government revenues could necessitate difficult decisions regarding services such as libraries, parks and recreation, mosquito control, and other community programs. He stated that the proposal did not strike an appropriate balance between providing relief for citizens and preserving the financial resources necessary to sustain essential County services and operations.

- Commissioner Cummings thanked County staff, including Ms. Hatch and Mr. Morris, for their analysis and presentation. She noted that the County, Supervisor of Elections, and Tax Collector had expressed similar concerns regarding the proposed property tax amendment. Commissioner Cummings stated that her concerns extended beyond the potential revenue loss to restrictions on the use of remaining ad valorem revenues. She asked whether, if the amendment passed, those revenues would be limited to three specified areas, thereby prohibiting their use for programs such as human services.
    - County Administrator Long responded that earlier versions of the legislation included more restrictive language that limited the categories for which local governments could use property tax revenues. He explained that the final version broadened the allowable uses of those funds; however, the primary concern remains the significant reduction in available revenue rather than the permitted funding categories. He stated that although the legislation provides greater flexibility in how the remaining revenues may be used, the magnitude of the anticipated revenue loss would still present substantial challenges for local governments.
- Commissioner Cummings noted that, although the Legislature had expanded the allowable uses of the funds, she found no provisions specifically addressing human services. She also stated that the previously discussed trust fund to assist disproportionately affected counties was not included in the final proposal. Commissioner Cummings characterized the measure as a challenge to home rule and expressed concern that it would limit the ability of local governments to address their communities' unique needs. She emphasized the importance of preserving local decision-making authority and thanked County staff and the lobbying team for their efforts. She concluded that she looked forward to further discussion of the potential impacts and available options during the upcoming budget workshops.
- Chairman Caban thanked Ms. Hatch and the County's lobbying team for their efforts throughout the Legislative Session. He then asked whether the City of Tallahassee intended to seek renegotiation of the Interlocal Agreement for Sewer Services considering the new utilities surcharge legislation (HB 1451).
    - Ms. Hatch responded that recently enacted legislation would cap the surcharge municipal utility providers may charge customers located outside municipal boundaries. She explained that while municipal utilities are currently authorized to impose a surcharge of up to 50%, the legislation reduces that maximum to 25%. She further explained that municipal utilities using utility revenues to support bond obligations would not be required to comply with the reduced surcharge cap until fiscal year 2029. She stated that the City of Tallahassee had confirmed that its utility revenues are currently pledged to bond obligations and, therefore, the delayed implementation would likely apply.
- Chairman Caban stated that he was very pleased with the legislation, noting that he has long opposed allowing municipal utilities to impose a 50% surcharge on customers residing in unincorporated areas. He acknowledged and appreciated the City's provision of utility services but expressed the view that the surcharge was excessive. He concluded by asking the County Attorney to provide additional context regarding the existing Interlocal Agreement with the City and the City's indication that they intend to renegotiate the agreement.

- County Attorney O'Steen responded that, unlike the previous year, she has not received any correspondence from the City regarding the renegotiation of the Interlocal Agreement. She noted that the City's position may be influenced by the delayed implementation of the reduced utility surcharge cap until fiscal year 2029. She further advised that any renegotiation of the agreement could potentially affect the ability of residents in the unincorporated area to access certain City facilities and services at the same rates currently available.

- Chairman Caban stated that local governments may have benefited from engaging earlier in discussions regarding property tax reform, noting that the Governor and Legislature had expressed interest in the issue for several years.
    - Budget Director Roshaunda Bradley clarified that the County's budget was approximately $280 million in 2020, compared with the proposed $420 million budget for the upcoming fiscal year, reflecting growth generally consistent with inflationary pressures.
- Chairman Caban acknowledged the projected $71 million annual revenue loss but noted that the County's budget would remain above 2020 levels. He characterized the proposal as an opportunity to reevaluate budgeting practices, revenue strategies, reserve policies, and long-term financial planning. While recognizing the potential challenges, he expressed confidence in the County Administrator and staff's ability to adapt and continue delivering services effectively. He thanked the County staff and the County's lobbying team for their work during the legislative session.

Commissioner Proctor moved, seconded by Commissioner Maddox, to approve Option #1: Accept the 2026 Legislative Session Final Report.

The motion carried 7 – 0.

The Board recessed at 5:50 p.m. for evening break and returned at 6:04 p.m. with the start of Public Hearings.

16. Resolution to Place the Leon County Schools Operating Millage Referendum on the 2026 General Election Ballot on behalf of the Leon County School Board

County Administrator Long introduced this item. As requested by the School Board of Leon County (School Board), this item seeks Board adoption of a Resolution to place the question to levy a one mill ad valorem operating millage for Leon County Schools on the 2026 General Election ballot. In accordance with Section 1011.73(2), Florida Statutes (F.S), the Board of County Commissioners must place the referendum on the ballot.

Public Speakers:

- Ms. Lynda Bell, 19690 Crow Lane, spoke in opposition to placing the measure on the ballot, arguing that the district should prioritize reducing administrative expenditures rather than increasing taxes. She stated that the school district employs a substantial number of district- and school-level administrators and noted that its administrative staffing levels are disproportionately high compared with those of similarly sized districts. She further argued that the district should focus on improving educational outcomes and addressing the underlying causes of declining enrollment before seeking additional tax revenue.

Vice Chairman O'Keefe moved, seconded by Commissioner Maddox, to approve Option #1.

- Commissioner Proctor questioned whether the matter was merely a procedural vote, asking whether the Board had any authority to reject the request submitted by the School Board.
    - County Attorney O'Steen responded that applicable case law establishes that the Board's role is purely ministerial and that it has no discretion to decline to place the measure on the ballot.
- Commissioner Proctor stressed that he wanted the public to understand that this proposed millage rate increase referendum originated with the School Board, not the County Commission, emphasizing the importance of making that distinction clear to the public.
- Commissioner Maddox thanked Ms. Bell for attending the meeting and speaking on the issue. He stated that, even if placing the measure on the ballot were not a mandatory ministerial act, he would have supported doing so in order to allow the citizens of Leon County to decide whether to approve the proposed millage rate increase for the operation of Leon County Schools.
- Commissioner Cummings echoed the comments of previous Commissioners, stating that the Board has no legal authority to deny the Leon County School Board's request and clarified that the Board's role is solely to serve as a conduit for placing the measure on the ballot.

Vice-Chairman O'Keefe moved, seconded by Commissioner Maddox, to approve Option #1: Adopt the Resolution directing the placement of the question to levy a one-mill ad valorem operating millage for Leon County Schools on the 2026 General Election ballot.

The motion carried 6 – 1 with Chairman Caban in opposition.

17. Acceptance of the Woodville Sense of Place Plan

County Administrator Long introduced this item. At the January 27, 2025 Board Retreat, the Board added an initiative to the 2022 – 2026 Strategic Plan to develop a Woodville Rural Community Sense of Place Plan to evaluate land uses and guide future improvements in Woodville, which would include a five-year improvement plan for vehicular and pedestrian safety. The Board ratified the initiative at its February 11, 2025 meeting. This item seeks Board acceptance of the proposed Woodville Sense of Place Plan, which includes recommendations for continued community engagement, park improvements, community beautification, economic development, and infrastructure projects in the Woodville area.

- Mr. Mike Alfano, Director of the Tallahassee-Leon County Planning Department, provided a brief presentation on the Woodville Sense of Place Plan. He opened his presentation by highlighting the County's community outreach efforts, which focused on engaging Woodville residents in conversations about their vision for the community's future. He explained that residents identified several guiding principles they wanted reflected in the Woodville Sense of Place Plan, including preserving the community's rural character while attracting more businesses to the area. He then shared the County's approach to maintaining Woodville's small-town feel while supporting thoughtful growth and development. He concluded his presentation by reviewing the key recommendations included in the Woodville Sense of Place Plan.
- Chairman Caban shared that he was very excited about the initiative, noting that it has been a major priority for both him and Commissioner Proctor. He said the plan will provide Woodville with the attention and investment it deserves while preserving its rural character. He added that he believes residents will be pleased with the proposal, stating that it aligns with the community's needs and vision for the future.

Commissioner Proctor moved, seconded by Chairman Caban, to approve Option #1.

- Commissioner Proctor commented that staff have remained steadfast in their engagement with Woodville residents throughout the development of the plan. He also recognized Chairman Caban for the energy and dedication he has brought to the Woodville community. Additionally, he relayed a request from residents for a shade structure to be installed over the basketball court.
- Chairman Caban asked staff if they could evaluate the feasibility of installing a shade structure over the basketball court in Woodville.
    - County Administrator Long responded that, if directed by the Board, staff could include the project in the Board's Capital Improvements Budget. He emphasized that it would be a significant capital project and that it could be included as a budget discussion item during the Board's budget workshop.

Commissioner Proctor amended his motion, which was seconded by Chairman Caban, to approve Option #1, and also have staff include in the Budget Workshop an analysis of installing a shaded cover over the basketball court at J. Lewis Hall, Sr. (Woodville) Park.

- Commissioner Proctor shared concerns expressed by Woodville residents regarding the absence of a grocery store and asked how the County could help attract a grocery store to serve the Woodville community.
    - Mr. Alfano responded that, as part of the updates to the zoning code and land development regulations, staff will ensure there is sufficient commercially zoned property available to support the development of a grocery store in the Woodville community. He added that staff will also explore potential grant opportunities and work with the Office of Economic Vitality (OEV) to identify options for attracting grocery choices to the area.
- Commissioner Proctor asked the County Attorney whether there were any restrictions preventing County staff from engaging with potential grocery store operators or whether business recruitment efforts were limited to the Office of Economic Vitality (OEV).
    - County Attorney O'Steen responded that she believes attracting businesses and encouraging development in underserved areas of the County is the role and responsibility of the OEV.
- Chairman Caban mentioned that an employee-owned grocery store in Woodville recently closed but noted that the vendor is honoring the lease through the end of 2027. He asked whether there are any tools or incentives available to encourage private-sector investment and attract a grocery store to the Woodville community.
    - Mr. Keith Bowers, Director of the OEV, responded that grocery stores are not currently the targeted industry of OEV; however, his office can leverage its relationships with site selectors and consultants to identify any potential interested parties. He also noted the option of conducting a feasibility analysis to determine whether the Woodville community has sufficient demand to support a grocery store in the area.
- Commissioner Proctor mentioned other grocery stores that have closed in and around the community and discussed the impact those closures have had on residents. He reiterated the need for a grocery store to serve the Woodville community.
- Vice-Chairman O'Keefe expressed his support for efforts to bring grocery store options to Woodville for residents. He also suggested considering the inclusion of grocery stores among the strategic industries or target sectors being reviewed by the Blueprint Intergovernmental Agency, allowing this type of industry to be pursued in the future as community needs arise.

Commissioner Proctor moved, seconded by Chairman Caban, to approve Option #1 as amended: Accept the Woodville Sense of Place Plan and also have staff include in the Budget Workshop an analysis on the installation of shaded cover over the basketball court at J. Lewis Hall, Sr. (Woodville) Park.

The motion carried 7 – 0.

- Commissioner Proctor asked staff to prepare an overlay map identifying environmental standards and regulations applicable to the Woodville area so the Board can better understand any differences compared to other areas of Leon County.

Commissioner Proctor moved, seconded by Chairman Caban, directing staff to prepare an overlay map of environmental standards for the Woodville area.

- Mr. Nawfal Ezzagaghi, Assistant County Administrator, shared that the concerns raised by Commissioner Proctor regarding environmental standards throughout Leon County were addressed several years ago. He explained that the County has established standards to protect the aquifer, manage stormwater runoff, and ensure appropriate treatment requirements, resulting in consistent environmental protections for Woodville and other areas of the county.

Commissioner Proctor withdrew his motion.

- Chairman Caban requested a motion directing staff to bring a status report back to the Board exploring ways to incentivize bringing a grocery store to the Woodville area.

Vice-Chairman O'Keefe moved, seconded by Commissioner Proctor, to request a status report exploring ways to incentivize bringing a grocery store to the Woodville area.

County Administrator Long introduced this item. In December 2025, the Leon County Board of County Commissioners and the Tallahassee City Commission each voted to adopt the Land Use and Mobility Elements Update to the Tallahassee Leon County Comprehensive Plan. The State of Florida had no objections, and the Update became effective on January 23, 2026. There were no public speakers for this item.

Commissioner Cummings moved, seconded by Commissioner Maddox, to approve Option #1.

- Commissioner Proctor asked staff to explain the Lake Protection Nodes referenced on page 8 of the agenda materials for Agenda Item #20.
    - Mr. Alfano began by providing a broad overview of the Lake Protection land use category in the Comprehensive Plan. He then discussed the proposed Lake Protection Corridor zoning district, explaining that the district has not yet been created but is intended to apply only to US 27 on North Monroe Street to incentivize development. He also explained the residential density at the Lake Protection Nodes zoning district, stating that the nodes are intended to concentrate non-residential uses and medium- to higher-density development within the Lake Protection land use category. He clarified the Lake Protection Node located at Bannerman Road and Bull Headley Road would remain at a residential density of 8 units per acre.
- Commissioner Proctor inquired about waivers or exceptions to the requirement for central water and sewer service for higher-density residential development.
    - Mr. Alfano responded that properties without access to central water and sewer services would not be eligible for higher residential densities and would instead be limited to the base density of one unit per two acres. Therefore, no exception exists and the allowable densities are established in the Comprehensive Plan.
- Commissioner Minor referenced the Comprehensive Plan rewrite completed last year, highlighting a policy applicable to the unincorporated area that would require any proposed change to a future land use designation within the Rural Lake Protection or Residential Preservation zoning district affecting more than 10 acres to be presented to the Board as an explicit agenda item. He noted that the same requirement would apply to proposed Urban Service Area (USA) expansions of 10 acres or more. He praised the policy change as it ensures any major changes to the USA or land use categories are presented to the Board.

Commissioner Cummings moved, seconded by Commissioner Maddox, to approve Option #1: Conduct the adoption public hearing and adopt the proposed Ordinance, thereby adopting the 2026 Amendment Cycle amendments, Intergovernmental Coordination Element TTA2026 002 (Amendment Process), Land Use and Mobility Element TTA2026 003 (Mahan Gateway Corridor Nodes), and Land Use and Mobility Element TTA2026 004 (Lake Protection Node), to the Tallahassee-Leon County 2050 Comprehensive Plan.

    - County Attorney O'Steen responded that it would not aid the Board in objecting to annexations.
- Chairman Caban clarified his position on why he supports this ballot amendment, explaining that his goal is not to prevent annexation. Rather, he believes that when annexation occurs, the County should retain legislative jurisdiction over the affected properties.

Commissioner Welch moved, seconded by Commissioner Minor, to approve Option #1: Conduct the first and only public hearing and adopt the Ordinance for a Board initiated Charter Amendment providing for County ordinances to prevail over municipal ordinances in the event of conflict, to the extent permitted by law, upon voter approval in the November 3, 2026 General Election.

He requested an agenda item for the July 14th Board meeting to consider a possible one-year moratorium on data center development in Leon County, incorporating the three recommendations previously identified by Vice-Chairman O'Keefe. He stated that a moratorium would provide the Board with sufficient time to thoroughly evaluate the potential impacts of these projects before making long-term policy decisions.

The motion carried 7 – 0.

1. County Administrator's Overview - Fiscal Year 2027 Preliminary Budget Overview

County Administrator Long introduced the Budget Workshop and thanked the Board for its continued guidance throughout the budget process. He explained that the item presented the FY 2027 Preliminary Budget and sought Board direction on immediate measures to strengthen the County's financial position in anticipation of a projected $71 million revenue loss beginning in FY 2028, should voters approve the proposed constitutional amendment in November.

County Administrator Long highlighted the following components of the FY 2027 Preliminary Budget:

- No change to the countywide millage rate for the 15th consecutive year.
- Funding for Constitutional and Judicial Officers, state-mandated services, contractual inflationary increases, human services, and primary healthcare.
- Maintenance of required reserves without the use of General Revenue fund balance.
- Approximately $1 million in identified cost savings and avoidances.
- One new General Revenue-supported position for Northeast Park.
- A new EMS crew funded through the dedicated EMS MSTU.
- An average 3% performance-based pay increase for County employees, ranging from 0% to 5%.

To enhance liquidity and prepare for potential FY 2028 fiscal and organizational restructuring, the County Administrator recommended immediate freezes on hiring, nonessential travel and training, and discretionary community-event sponsorship, subject to specified exceptions. He also recommended inviting Constitutional Officers to implement similar measures and initiating fee-rate studies for stormwater assessments and Development Support and Environmental Management fees.

County Administrator Long advised that a July 14, 2026, workshop would provide a detailed implementation plan and timeline addressing mandatory and discretionary funding, revenue and cost-recovery options, operational efficiencies and consolidation, potential service-level reductions, and a voluntary separation incentive program. He thanked County staff, the Office of Management and Budget, Director Roshaunda Bradley, and the Board for their dedication, policy direction, and leadership.

Fiscal Year 2027 Preliminary Budget Overview

Roshaunda Bradley, Director of the Office of Management and Budget, presented an overview of the FY 2027 Preliminary Budget. She reported approximately $1 million in current-year savings and $100 million in cumulative cost savings and avoidances since 2013. She also reviewed projected General Revenue revenues and expenditures and noted that Leon County maintains the lowest net budget among comparable counties.

Assistant County Administrator Ken Morris presented key findings from the Revenue Diversification Study, noting the County's significant reliance on property taxes, limited service-charge revenues, and lack of impact fees. Recommendations included increasing cost recovery for enterprise programs, modernizing fee schedules, and evaluating longer-term revenue options, including impact fees and local discretionary sales taxes.

The following budget milestones were identified:

- July 1: Receipt of final property values
- July 14: Financial and Organizational Restructuring Budget Workshop
- September 15 and 22: Tentative and final public hearings
- October 1: Beginning of FY 2027

Commissioner Proctor expressed strong appreciation for the high quality of the budget presentation. He asked County Attorney O'Steen whether the County is legally mandated to maintain a balanced budget.

- County Attorney O'Steen cited Section 129.07, Florida Statutes, explaining that expenditures cannot exceed budgeted appropriations, contracts entered into in violation of this requirement are void, and Board members who authorize overspending may be held personally liable.

Commissioner Proctor asked if the TRIM notices set the official cap on expected revenue, legally binding the Board to not exceed that projected budget limit.

- County Administrator Long confirmed that the advertised maximum millage rate establishes the highest rate the Board may adopt during the budget process. The rate may subsequently be reduced but not increased.

Vice-Chairman O'Keefe asked what positions would be considered essential if a hiring freeze was initiated.

- County Administrator Long explained that essential positions generally include those required to meet constitutional or statutory obligations, maintain Board-approved minimum service levels, or support critical County operations.

Vice-Chairman O'Keefe asked if the Supervisor of Elections would still have the capacity to hire seasonal election workers.

- County Administrator Long responded he would.

Vice-Chairman O'Keefe asked about the County's ability to service existing debt if major tax changes occur and what the current outstanding debt service is.

- County Administrator Long stated Leon County carries very little debt. Aggressive debt reduction over the past decade has contributed to strong bond ratings.
- Ms. Bradley stated that approximately $15 million in outstanding debt remains. One debt obligation will be paid off in 2029, and the remaining debt, approximately $13 million, will be retired by 2036.

Vice-Chairman O'Keefe commended current and previous commissions for maintaining a low debt burden. He asked whether the County is already delaying or deferring capital projects in anticipation of potential revenue changes.

- County Administrator Long stated that the proposed budget shifts away from capacity-expansion projects, prioritizing the maintenance of existing infrastructure. This approach preserves flexibility for future Board decisions regarding financial and organizational changes.

Vice-Chairman O'Keefe noted that the Sheriff's budget remains the County's largest expenditure and asked how the increase compares statewide.

- County Administrator Long stated that Leon County maintains a strong collaborative relationship with the Sheriff, and the Sheriff's Office fully participates in the County's budget process.
- Ms. Bradley stated that the Sheriff's Office budget is typically the largest county expenditure statewide. She highlighted that major cost drivers include collective bargaining agreements, salary adjustments, and Florida Retirement System (FRS) special-risk retirement costs.

Vice-Chairman O'Keefe referenced the bankruptcy of YesCare and the transition to CFG Health Systems. He asked whether costs would increase based on the new bid moving forward and how this impacts the budget.

- Mr. Morris stated that the County expects increased costs this fiscal year due to the emergency replacement contract. A budget amendment may be necessary during the current fiscal year, and future budget adjustments will be incorporated into FY 2027 planning.

Vice-Chairman O'Keefe asked whether a significant cost increase might prompt consideration of a different alternative.

- Mr. Morris stated that the current contract is an emergency, short-term solution. The Sheriff's Office may pursue a longer-term competitive procurement process.

Vice-Chairman O'Keefe emphasized evaluating the full financial impact of any reductions to pretrial diversion funding. He stressed the importance of considering both potential savings from reduced diversion program funding and potential increases in jail detention costs if diversion opportunities are reduced. He asked whether efforts to avoid future jail expansion remain protected.

- County Administrator Long stated that avoiding costly jail expansion remains a major priority. The County and Sheriff's Office have successfully managed jail population levels. One full-time position focuses solely on mental health evaluations for diversion eligibility. Approximately a dozen diversion programs and specialty court dockets support reducing detention populations. The Public Safety Coordinating Council (PSCC) continues monitoring detention capacity and population management efforts.

Commissioner Cummings thanked County Administrator Long and staff for the report. She expressed appreciation for staff's proactive planning. She noted that the proposed strategies position the County to better respond if voters approve reductions in ad valorem property taxes. She emphasized the importance of maintaining sufficient revenue to continue providing essential public services. She asked whether the freeze on discretionary funding will begin the new fiscal year.

- County Administrator Long stated that it will be implemented immediately.

Commissioner Cummings discussed the findings of the revenue diversification study, noting that Leon County currently utilizes fewer taxes and fees than many comparable counties.

- County Administrator Long explained that certain revenue options identified in the study would require feasibility studies and, in some cases, voter approval before implementation. However, no such studies or referendums are anticipated in the immediate future.
- Mr. Morris clarified that impact fees require a feasibility study but do not require a referendum. He also explained that Leon County is currently prohibited from adopting new impact fees due to restrictions under Senate Bill 180 (2025), which temporarily suspends new impact fees in areas affected by emergency declarations. As a result, implementation could not occur before Fiscal Year 2028 and may be delayed further depending on future emergency declarations. He indicated they will provide additional information within the next six months regarding the feasibility study process and whether the County will be eligible to pursue impact fees for FY28.

Commissioner Cummings expressed support for the County's proactive planning efforts, noting that evaluating future revenue options will help prepare for potential reductions in ad valorem property tax revenue while maintaining essential public services. She thanked staff for their work on the revenue diversification study and long-term financial planning.

Commissioner Minor recognized Maya Sargent of WTXL for her service to the Tallahassee-Leon County community and coverage of local government over the past three years. He wished her success in her new position in the Tampa Bay area. He thanked OMB Director Roshaunda Bradley and her team for their extensive work preparing the proposed budget during a challenging and transitional year. He stated that the proposal positioned the County for potential revenue reductions and encouraged consideration of reducing General Revenue subsidies, requiring enterprise funds to recover their operational costs, and prioritizing maintenance of existing infrastructure over expansion projects.

Commissioner Minor asked how the County could implement a voluntary separation incentive program without losing critical employees. He emphasized that Leon County's workforce is among the highest-performing public-sector staff he has encountered. He asked what things can be done within the voluntary separation program to achieve the necessary financial savings without losing personnel.

- County Administrator Long explained that a detailed analysis is underway and will be presented at the July budget workshop. He stated the program will include specific eligibility criteria and be designed with clear financial savings goals. The program is expected to focus primarily on employees participating in or nearing the Deferred Retirement Option Program (DROP), as those employees are generally more likely to participate in voluntary separation programs.

Commissioner Minor asked for clarification regarding the County's authority to impose impact fees following the expiration of the current moratorium in 2028.

- County Administrator Long confirmed that Leon County has not had impact fees in place prior to the moratorium. He noted that Leon County's longstanding policy of not imposing impact fees or certain other fees has been a deliberate decision by the Board to encourage economic development and delay additional fees unless they become necessary.

Commissioner Minor commented that many Florida counties rely heavily on impact fees as a significant revenue source but expressed appreciation for Leon County's longstanding policy of not imposing such fees, noting that it supports the local economy. He stated that any future discussion regarding impact fees should occur at a later date.

Commissioner Minor moved, seconded by Commissioner Cummings, to request a proclamation recognizing Ms. Maya Sargent for her three years of service educating the public of Leon County.

The motion carried 7 – 0.

Commissioner Proctor raised questions regarding the County's outstanding debt and asked whether debt could be restructured to provide additional financial flexibility if significant revenue reductions occur.

- County Administrator Long explained that the County regularly evaluates its debt portfolio with the assistance of a financial advisor and monitors market conditions for opportunities to refinance or restructure debt when financially advantageous. He further stated that any restructuring would be undertaken only if it maintained the County's strong credit ratings.

Commissioner Proctor expressed concern regarding staffing levels within the Clerk of Court's Office, referencing previously raised concerns about its performance and actions taken by Chief Judge Allman related to court operations. Although no constitutional officer had requested additional full-time equivalent positions, he asked County staff to consult further with the Clerk to determine whether additional personnel were needed to support efficient court operations, prevent case-processing delays and related jail costs, and ensure adequate staffing. He emphasized that his request was intended to ensure the County had fully evaluated the Clerk's staffing needs.

Commissioner Maddox thanked staff for preparing a challenging but responsible budget and stated that it could be the County's last under its current financial framework due to potential property tax changes. Anticipating voter approval of tax relief measures in November, he emphasized preparing now for possible revenue reductions. He credited staff and the Board with maintaining the County's strong financial position through restrained staffing growth, competitive compensation, operational efficiency, infrastructure investments, and healthy reserves. He also highlighted the County's cooperative relationship with constitutional officers, noting their participation in budget reductions during the Great Recession and the Sheriff's decision to request no new positions in the proposed budget. He stated that longstanding funding practices might need to be reevaluated and that citizens should understand the financial realities facing local government.

Commissioner Proctor raised concerns that even if the County maximized all available fee options, the revenue generated may still be insufficient. He referenced potential revenue from areas such as solid waste fees, environmental permit fees, building permit fees, pretrial probation fees, ambulance fees, and sales tax options.

- Ms. Bradley clarified that the County is still completing its cost recovery analysis. She noted current General Fund subsidies include approximately $3 million for stormwater, $3 million for the DSEM program, $4 million for solid waste, and $4 million for probation. She stated that fee reviews will include benchmarking against other counties and will be brought back as part of a phased process.

Commissioner Proctor asked staff to consider creating or hiring a dedicated team of grant-writing experts. He stated that professional grant writers could help generate outside revenue and potentially offset their own cost through successful grant awards. He requested that this concept be included in a future budget discussion. He requested consideration of a 4.1% employee raise and asked that staff include this option in the next budget iteration before final adoption. He also requested a presentation showing what maximum implementation of available revenue options would look like and asked staff to identify potential revenue sources if the County maximized available options.

Commissioner Cummings asked whether the July workshop would be when the Board specifically votes on raises and percentage adjustments.

- County Administrator Long explained that the directions on changes to the preliminary balanced budget were most useful during the current workshop. The Board would formally adopt the balanced budget in July. Maximum millage rates would also be set as part of the budget process.

Commissioner Cummings moved, seconded by Vice-Chairman O'Keefe, to approve Options #1 through #6:

Option #1: Accept the overview of the FY 2027 Preliminary Budget.

Option #2: Approve the funding of fee rate studies for the Stormwater non-ad valorem assessment and Development Support & Environmental fees as reflected in the Resolution and Budget Amendment.

Option #3: Approve the advance funding of capital projects in FY 2026 as reflected in the Resolution and Budget Amendment.

Option #4: Approve the District Medical Examiner Fees Schedule.

Option #5: Accept the FY 2026 annual status report and recommendations on the Sidewalk Program implementation.

Option #6: Accept the status report on the FY 2022 – FY 2026 Strategic Plan.

In addition, this item seeks any other direction the Board wishes to provide in the development of the FY 2027 Preliminary Budget.

The motion carried 7 – 0.

2. Alternative Structures for Administration of Cultural Programming

   County Administrator Long stated this budget discussion item seeks Board consideration of structural models to administer Leon County's arts and cultural programming, supported by the Tourist Development Tax (TDT) during the Fiscal Year (FY) 2027 budget cycle and beyond. The item presents the historical context, the statutory framework, Leon County's TDT revenue trajectory, and three structural models in use among Florida counties to inform Board discussion and direction. This budget discussion item seeks Board consideration of structural models to administer Leon County's arts and cultural programming, supported by the TDT, during the FY 2027 budget cycle and beyond. The item presents the historical context, the statutory framework, Leon County's TDT revenue trajectory, and three structural models in use among Florida counties to inform Board discussion and direction.

Mathieu Cavell, Director of Community Relations & Resilience, presented three structural models and implementation details. Under all three models, several key considerations remain constant: COCA continues to operate as the independent nonprofit it has been since 1985, including its membership program, public art, arts education, marketing and communications, and its relationships with the City of Tallahassee, state and federal arts agencies, and private donors. COCA retains its Local Arts Agency designation under section 265.32, Florida Statutes. The COCA Executive Director's liaison role to the Tourist Development Council continues. The grant pool to cultural organizations is maintained.

Current grantees remain eligible under a comparable, community-reviewed application process.

1. In-House Model
    - Set by the Board annually through the budget process, up to 20% of estimated TDT collections.
2. Service and Advisory Model
    - Set by the Board annually through the budget process, up to 20% of estimated TDT collections
3. Status Quo Model
    - Fixed by ordinance formula; amount for granting set by COCA

Staff noted that public discussion has often framed the issue as a choice between:

- Keeping COCA, or
- Turning the program over entirely to County government.

Mr. Cavell concluded that COCA's eligibility for National Endowment for the Arts (NEA) funding would not be jeopardized by the Service and Advisory Model. He stated that the Board's decision should focus on governance, financial oversight, and administration of public resources rather than concerns about loss of arts funding. The key policy question is who should set annual funding levels, approve grant guidelines, and maintain custody and oversight of public funds.

Kerri L. Post, Director of the Division of Tourism, presented an overview of the TDT, or "bed tax," explaining that Florida law authorizes counties to levy the tax to fund tourism-related initiatives. One cent ($0.01) is allocated to arts and culture programming and is administered through COCA pursuant to Sec. 11-710 of the Leon County Code of Laws. Four cents ($.04) is allocated for Tourism Division operations, marketing / advertising / digital, sports, visitor information center(s), meetings / conferences, and tourism event grants. She noted that the presentation would focus on how TDT revenues support arts and cultural programming in Leon County.

Mr. Cavell presented information regarding the growth of County TDT Arts and Cultural funding in FY 2025. The County's TDT funding dedicated to arts and cultural programming grew from $997,436 in FY 2015, the first year of the one-cent dedication, to $1,902,634 in FY 2025, an increase of approximately 91%. The COVID-19 decline in FY 2020 reduced collections by approximately 33% ($944,775) before sharp recovery began in FY 2022. He continued by sharing various graphs illustrating the comparison of COCA revenue by source for FY 2014 through FY 2025.

Ms. Post spoke in depth about the three models:

> Model #1: Under the In-House model, the County administers the cultural grant program directly through the Division of Tourism. The County holds the TDT cultural funds; the Board sets the annual funding level through the budget process and adopts the grant guidelines. Division of Tourism staff receive applications and coordinate community-based review panels; the Tourist Development Council approves the awards within the Board-established budget; and the County executes the grant agreements and disburses funds to recipients.
> Model #2: Under the Service & Advisory model, the County retains custody of the TDT cultural funds and retains COCA as its administrator under a service agreement. The Board sets the annual funding level through the budget process, with the recommendation of the Tourist Development Council, and adopts grant guidelines developed collaboratively with COCA.
> Model #3: Under the Status Quo model, the County renews its agreement with COCA on terms substantially consistent with the current contract, including the caps established in 2025. The one cent dedication continues by ordinance formula (20% of TDT, roughly $1.9 million annually), together with $150,000 in General Revenue for program administration. COCA holds the funds, sets the grant guidelines, receives and scores applications, executes the grantee agreements, and disburses funds; the Tourist Development Council approves the awards within the COCA established budget.

Commissioner Cummings moved, seconded by Commissioner Welch, to vote on Option #2 (Service and Advisory Model).

Commissioner Cummings expressed support for Option #2 (Service and Advisory Model), describing it as a balanced approach that preserves COCA's expertise while strengthening County oversight. She stated the model would maintain COCA's leadership in arts and cultural programming, foster greater collaboration between COCA and County staff, and provide increased accountability for public funds through County involvement in budgeting, grant administration, and program priorities. She noted that grant recipients would continue to receive funding through the current process and emphasized staff's conclusion that the model would not affect COCA's eligibility for NEA grants. She characterized the proposal as a collaborative, "win-win" solution that preserves arts funding, maintains COCA's expertise, and enhances transparency and accountability.

Commissioner Welch supported the Service and Advisory Model as a reasonable compromise, while acknowledging COCA's opposition and indicating that he would support the Board's ultimate consensus. He expressed concern that claims the County was "cutting arts funding" or "gutting COCA" were inaccurate, emphasizing that the discussion concerned oversight and accountability for public funds rather than eliminating support for the arts. He questioned whether the current funding structure provided sufficient accountability, including COCA's receipt of interest earned on County funds, and noted that Leon County's allocation of 20% of TDT revenues to COCA was an outlier among comparable jurisdictions. He asked staff to clarify COCA's funding sources.

- Mr. Cavell reported that approximately 89% of COCA's Fiscal Year 2025 revenue was derived from County TDT and General Revenue funds, with approximately $192,000 contributed by the City of Tallahassee. He explained that the remaining revenue consisted of grants and other funding sources, including approximately $109,000 in miscellaneous revenues and for NEA grant funding.

- COCA Executive Director Kathleen Spehar explained that a significant portion of County funding is passed directly through to community arts organizations, with approximately 93–94% of County funds distributed back into the community through grants. She further explained that operational funding includes a combination of public support and external funding, with the proportion varying annually depending on grants and other revenue sources.

Commissioner Welch concluded by observing that COCA's funding remains predominantly governmental despite the organization's mission of leveraging both governmental and private resources to support the arts. He indicated that his questions were intended to better understand the organization's funding structure and inform the Board's policy discussion. He asked for the difference between the Status Quo Model and the compromise (Service and Delivery) model.

- Mr. Cavell stated that under the Status Quo Model, the Board does not establish the funding level for arts and culture programming annually; under the Service and Advisory Model, the Board establishes the funding level annually.

Commissioner Welsh expressed support for Option #2 (Service and Advisory Model).

Commissioner Proctor questioned whether it was legally permissible for a private nonprofit organization to exercise control over public funds with limited County oversight, including the rollover of unspent funds from year to year and the accrual of interest on those funds.

- County Attorney O'Steen responded that, as a charter county, Leon County has broad home rule authority and may contract with private entities to perform governmental functions. She explained that the current arrangement was established through a County ordinance and the delegation of administrative responsibilities to COCA. To her knowledge, the arrangement has not been legally challenged and is lawful on its face. She further noted that the existing agreement has not been reviewed in detail regarding the handling of interest earnings or other specific financial practices. She advised that these issues could be addressed during negotiations for a new agreement, regardless of whether the Board ultimately adopts a Service and Advisory Model or a Status Quo Model, as the current contract expires at the end of the fiscal year.

Commissioner Proctor noted that Leon County's approach is unique among Florida counties and stated that the dedicated TDT allocation to COCA was established approximately 13 years ago through Board policy. He argued that the County should consider aligning its practices more closely with those of other counties, particularly in light of anticipated fiscal challenges that may require stronger oversight and stewardship of public funds. He expressed confidence that County staff could successfully administer arts and cultural funding and praised Tourism Director Kerrie Post for her leadership in tourism promotion, cultural programming, and major community events. He stated that the County has the expertise to manage the program while continuing to support arts organizations.

Commissioner Proctor then offered a substitute motion supporting Option #1 (In-House Model).

Vice-Chairman O'Keefe asked whether the approximately $1.9 million in TDT funding for the arts could ever be used for non-tourism purposes.

- County Administrator Long confirmed that TDT revenues are legally restricted to tourism-related uses regardless of the administrative model selected.

Vice-Chairman O'Keefe also asked whether Option #2 (Service and Advisory Model) addressed COCA's concerns during the Board's May meeting.

- Ms. Spehar responded that COCA views its current relationship with the County as a partnership rather than a vendor arrangement. She stated that the existing structure already includes oversight and contractual safeguards, but under Option #2, COCA's role would shift to that of a service provider. While acknowledging progress, she noted that implementation details remain unresolved and suggested additional discussions to refine the proposal, including consideration of a modified version of Option #2.
- County Administrator Long explained that the amount of TDT funding does not change under the proposed models, and the amount of general revenue in Model #2 going to COCA also does not change.
- Mr. Cavell clarified that under Option #2 (Service and Advisory Model), COCA would continue administering the arts grant program, marketing arts and cultural initiatives, and supporting cultural organizations while receiving compensation for those services. He explained that the primary changes would place TDT funds under County custody, provide the Board with approval authority, and increase County oversight of grant guidelines and program administration.

Vice-Chairman O'Keefe asked to clarify the primary objectives of Model #1, noting that the discussion appeared to focus on either Model #1 or Model #3, with Model #2 serving as an intermediate option.

- Mr. Cavell explained that the main goal of Model #1 is to establish the budget and cost savings.

Vice-Chairman O'Keefe asked whether a specific issue or concern prompted the proposed change.

- Mr. Cavell stated no, the proposal was not the result of any malfeasance or misconduct. Instead, the recommendation arose as part of the County's annual budget development process and the review of an expiring vendor contract.

Commissioner Maddox then asked if the Board has the flexibility to change the percentage they give COCA.

- County Attorney O'Steen stated that the current plan provides 20%, so yes, the Board could change the plan, but without changing the plan, no.

Vice-Chairman O'Keefe then requested additional information regarding the Tourism Division's budget, noting that the FY 2026 tourism budget is approximately $9.7 million, with about $1.9 million currently dedicated to arts and culture through COCA, and asked for further details on tourism marketing expenditures.

- Ms. Post stated that approximately $1 million of the Tourism budget is allocated to advertising-related services.

Vice-Chairman O'Keefe requested a detailed breakdown of the $4.5 million marketing budget item allocated under the TDT program.

- Ms. Post explained that the marketing budget includes a broad range of tourism-related activities, including advertising, meetings and conventions, operation of the visitor center, direct sales efforts, and other tourism promotion initiatives. She further confirmed that approximately $1 million is spent on advertising and noted that the County contracts with Zimmerman Agency, a local marketing firm, to provide advertising and marketing services.

Vice-Chairman O'Keefe questioned the proposal to bring arts grant administration in-house to reduce administrative costs while the County continues to contract with outside firms for tourism marketing. He asked whether tourism marketing services had been evaluated for in-house administration and whether similar cost savings could be achieved.

- Ms. Post responded that the Tourism Division routinely evaluates opportunities to perform services in-house when it can do so more effectively and efficiently. She noted that digital and social media functions have been brought in-house in recent years, although staff did not have precise cost savings available and indicated additional review would be needed.

Vice Chairman expressed opposition to the proposed change, stating that the current program is effective and that the potential savings of approximately $200,000 does not justify the risk of altering a successful program. He questioned why this program was being considered for restructuring when other contracted services with higher costs have not been evaluated for potential in-house delivery. He further noted that the proposed options did not appear to fully achieve both stated objectives of cost savings and increased oversight. He stated that while Option #2 may provide additional review processes, it could also add an additional layer of bureaucracy without achieving significant savings, and that Option #3 would not provide the same cost savings or increased oversight benefits. He emphasized that the County faces numerous significant priorities and that resources should be focused accordingly.

Commissioner Minor reiterated that his priorities were preserving Leon County's arts and culture community and maintaining COCA as a viable organization. He praised COCA's longstanding relationships with local artists and cultural organizations and expressed opposition to Option #1 (In-House Model), stating that shifting grant administration, marketing, and related responsibilities to the County could diminish COCA's role, weaken its connection to the arts community, and threaten its long-term sustainability. He urged the Board to reject Option #1 and continue pursuing alternative approaches.

Commissioner Maddox provided historical context, explaining that the current funding model originated around 2015 when discussions regarding a proposed performing arts center shifted toward development of the Cascades Park Amphitheater. As part of that process, the Board established a dedicated TDT allocation for COCA, replacing prior General Revenue support for arts grants. He also reviewed examples of arts funding models used by other Florida counties, noting that some administer programs in-house, others use a service and advisory model, while Leon County's current arrangement remains unique. He then sought clarification regarding whether Option #2 (Service and Advisory Model) would affect COCA's eligibility for NEA funding.

- Ms. Spehar explained that COCA currently participates in a specialized Local Arts Agency grant program with specific eligibility and matching requirements. She noted that while organizations may remain eligible for other NEA grant opportunities, COCA's concern centers on maintaining eligibility for the Local Arts Agency program. She further explained that those grant funds support arts programs that do not qualify for TDT funding because they lack a direct tourism nexus.

Commissioner Maddox emphasized the importance of preserving Leon County's and COCA's eligibility for NEA funding, stating he would not support any proposal that jeopardized access to federal grants.

- Ms. Spehar explained that Option #2 (Service and Advisory Model) could be structured to maintain eligibility through ordinance amendments, service agreements, required matching funds, and continued designation of COCA as the arts and culture service provider. COCA representatives agreed that additional review would be needed to ensure federal grant requirements were preserved. She characterized Option #2 as the beginning of a collaborative process rather than a final product. She explained that, if approved, staff and COCA would work together to develop ordinance amendments, service agreements, grant administration procedures, funding mechanisms, and protections for continued NEA eligibility before returning those items to the Board for consideration. She further clarified that under Option #2, COCA would remain the designated arts and culture service provider, continue administering the grant program, collaborate with County staff on grant guidelines, and receive funding for grant administration, arts and cultural tourism marketing, approximately $1.9 million in TDT-supported arts funding, and approximately $150,000 in General Revenue support.

Commissioner Maddox stated that while other counties provide useful examples, Leon County should adopt the model that best serves its community rather than simply mirror other jurisdictions. He expressed opposition to Option #1, citing concerns that it would significantly diminish COCA's role and disrupt relationships within the arts community, and to Option #3, concluding that it did not adequately address governance and oversight concerns. He supported Option #2 as a balanced compromise that strengthens County oversight while preserving COCA's expertise, protecting arts funding and grant opportunities, and promoting the long-term stability of the arts community. He emphasized that the discussion centered on governance and accountability rather than reducing arts funding.

Commissioner Cummings shared her support for Option #2 (Service and Advisory Model).

Chairman Caban thanked County staff and COCA for their work and emphasized that the discussion centered on governance, accountability, and stewardship of approximately $2 million in annual arts funding, not on the value of arts and culture, which he stated all Commissioners support. He also asked about COCA's financial reliance on County funding.

- Mr. Cavell explained that approximately $2.3 to $2.4 million of COCA's FY 2025 budget was provided through TDT and General Revenue funding.

Chairman Caban noted that County support has grown significantly over the past decade and now represents the majority of COCA's funding. He questioned COCA's efforts to diversify its revenue sources.

- Ms. Spehar explained that COCA had historically avoided competing with local arts organizations for private donations but had recently expanded its pursuit of grants, foundation support, and other external funding. She reported that COCA receives approximately $30,000 to $40,000 annually in individual donations.

Chairman Caban sought clarification regarding conflicting information about NEA funding. Ms. Spehar clarified that COCA's concern was limited to eligibility for the NEA's Local Arts Agency regranting program, not NEA funding generally, and emphasized COCA's support for additional oversight.

- Mr. Cavell reported that the NEA had advised staff that County custody of funds and Board approval of grant guidelines would not affect eligibility. He added that matching funds did not need to be reflected on COCA's books at the time of application and could be identified through a service agreement.
- County Attorney O'Steen clarified that her office had provided legal guidance concerning differing interpretations of TDT eligibility but had not participated in negotiating or administering the COCA contract.

Chairman Caban expressed concern about a disconnect among stakeholders regarding expectations and oversight.

- Ms. Spehar responded that Option #3 would maintain the existing contract, which already contains substantial oversight provisions, and that additional requirements could be incorporated through amendments. In response to Chairman Caban's question regarding tourism impacts, Ms. Spehar reported that approximately 559,000 people attended grant-supported events in FY 2025, including approximately 129,000 visitors from outside Leon County, across approximately 35 grant recipients. She explained that attendance and visitor information was collected through surveys and grantee reports and analyzed using the Arts & Economic Prosperity economic-impact calculator.
- Ms. Post noted that the County's research consultant, Downs & St. Germain Research, uses visitor-intercept surveys and other recognized methods to measure the economic impact of major tourism events.

Chairman Caban stated that he preferred Option #1 for its increased oversight and reduced administrative costs but recognized that it lacked sufficient Board support. He expressed willingness to support Option #2 with strengthened oversight and accountability, emphasizing that the discussion concerned the responsible administration of public tourism funds rather than reducing arts and cultural funding.

Commissioner Proctor withdrew his substitute motion supporting Option #1 and requested that accountability, transparency, and financial oversight be incorporated into the final governance framework.

- County Administrator Long confirmed that staff had received sufficient direction to prepare the ordinance revisions and service agreement necessary to implement Option #2, including fiduciary oversight, continued COCA participation, and an appropriate governance structure.

Commissioner Maddox emphasized that the Board's action was to establish the framework for Option #2, not to approve every operational detail. He explained that the proposed ordinance and service agreement would be returned to the Board for further review, discussion, and modification. Reiterating his position, he stated that he opposed both Option #1 (In-House Model) and maintaining the current structure unchanged and viewed Option #2 as the most balanced approach.

Commissioner Minor proposed a friendly amendment to Option #2 (Service and Advisory Model) directing staff to structure the agreement to preserve COCA's eligibility for NEA and other external grants, including the use of existing arts funding as matching funds where appropriate.

- Mr. Cavell clarified that no additional County funding would be required and that any matching fund provisions would be addressed through the ordinance and service agreement.

Commissioner Cummings accepted the friendly amendment.

Commissioner Minor also proposed that COCA prepare the initial draft of future grant guidelines before collaborating with County staff.

Commissioner Cummings declined to accept the amendment, stating that her motion already contemplated collaboration and that specific procedures should be addressed during development of the ordinance and service agreement.

Commissioner Proctor noted that COCA's operating costs represented approximately 11.5% of its total funding and that NEA funding comprised only a small portion of its budget compared with County funding.

Commissioner Maddox observed that the administrative cost was within the low-to-middle range for a nonprofit organization.

Commissioner Cummings moved, seconded by Commissioner Maddox, to approve Option #2 (Service and Advisory Model), as amended to direct staff to preserve COCA's eligibility for National Endowment for the Arts (NEA) and other external grants, including appropriate matching fund provisions within existing funding.

The motion carried 6 – 1 with Commissioner Proctor in opposition.

The Board took a recess at 2:03 p.m.

Chairman Caban called the meeting back to order at 2:19 p.m.

3. Establishing the Millage Rates for the FY 2027 Tentative Budget

County Administrator Long stated that, pursuant to Florida Statutes, the Board is required to establish the maximum millage rates for utilization in the Truth in Millage (TRIM) process. Within 35 days of the Property Appraiser providing certified property values to the Board, the Board must notify the Property Appraiser of the proposed millage rate for presentation in the TRIM process. The Property Appraiser provides the certified values to the County on July 1 of each year. Based on the Board's meeting calendar, the last opportunity to establish the proposed FY 2027 millage rate prior to the 35-day deadline is the July 14, 2026, meeting. The ratification for this budget workshop is scheduled for the July 14, 2026, meeting. Once the proposed millage rate is established, it cannot be increased but only decreased at the two required Public Hearings held in September. This item recommends maintaining the current countywide millage rate of 8.3144 and the EMS MSTU at 0.75 mills.

Commissioner Maddox moved, seconded by Commissioner Proctor for Option #1: Establish the maximum countywide millage rate for FY 2027 at 8.3144.

The motion carried 6 – 1 with Chairman Caban in opposition.

Commissioner Maddox moved, seconded by Vice-Chairman O'Keefe, for Option #2: Establish the maximum Emergency Medical Services (EMS) Municipal Services Taxing Unit (MSTU) for FY 2027 at 0.75 mills.

The motion carried 7 – 0.

Commissioner Proctor introduced a motion directing staff to bring back a 4% salary increase for Fiscal Year 2027 employees.

Commissioner Cummings amended the motion to clarify that the proposal should apply to all employees, including those at the top of their pay scale.

Commissioner Maddox further requested that staff also provide information on what a cost-of-living adjustment would look like for comparison purposes.

Vice-Chairman O'Keefe, Commissioner Minor, and Commissioner Welch expressed appreciation for County employees but opposed the proposal, citing fiscal uncertainty, potential future revenue reductions, the recurring nature of salary increases, and the need to preserve flexibility to avoid layoffs or workforce reductions. They also noted that the proposed budget already includes an average 3% merit-based increase.

Commissioner Minor asked how much a 4% increase for all employees in Leon County government would cost.

- Ms. Bradley advised that a 4% across-the-board increase would cost approximately $800,000 more than currently budgeted and would become part of the County's ongoing personnel costs.

Commissioner Minor opposed the 4% increase for all employees in Leon County government.

Commissioner Welch stated he does not support the 4% increase for all employees in Leon County government, noting it can lead to problems.

Commissioner Maddox supported obtaining additional information, emphasizing that employees may soon be expected to do more with fewer resources if staffing reductions occur. He noted the importance of employee retention, competitiveness, and understanding compensation options before future fiscal constraints limit the Board's flexibility.

Chairman Caban stated that he supported directing staff to prepare the requested analysis but cautioned that approving significant salary increases while simultaneously considering workforce reductions could send conflicting fiscal messages. He emphasized that the analysis would inform future decisions rather than commit the Board to a raise.

Commissioner Cummings supported the proposal, stating that employees have earned recognition for their service and that the current budget cycle may represent the best opportunity to address compensation before anticipated fiscal challenges intensify. She cited inflation and rising living costs as additional reasons to invest in the workforce.

Commissioner Proctor urged the Board to support employees through meaningful compensation, arguing that County employees are accountable, perform essential public services, and deserve more than verbal appreciation. He stated that the Board should demonstrate its commitment to employees through tangible action and suggested that evolving fiscal conditions may provide opportunities to offset future budget pressures. He also discussed recent changes affecting minority and women-owned business programs, expressing concern that certain funding reductions could disproportionately impact those businesses. He stated that, despite financial challenges facing the County, he wanted the Commission to demonstrate its commitment to supporting County employees.

Commissioner Proctor revisited concerns regarding staffing within the Clerk of the Court's Office, referencing comments previously made by Chief Judge Frank Allman and the Clerk's original request for an additional position.

- Ms. Bradley explained that the Clerk had initially requested the position but later withdrew the request during budget discussions due to fiscal uncertainty, similar to discussions held with other constitutional officers.

Commissioner Proctor moved, seconded by Commissioner Cummings, to bring back an agenda item analysis regarding what a cost-of-living adjustment would look like for comparison purposes and a 4% raise for all Leon County government employees.

The motion carried 4 – 3 with Commissioner Welch, Commissioner Minor, and Vice-Chairman O'Keefe in opposition.

Commissioner Proctor moved, seconded by Commissioner Maddox, to direct staff to meet with Clerk Gwen Knight, review her original staffing request, and return with recommendations for the Board's consideration.

The motion carried 6 – 1 with Commissioner Welch in opposition.

Commissioner Cummings, moved by Chairman Caban, to request a proclamation recognizing the 50th anniversary of Legal Services of North Florida.

The motion carried 7 – 0.

Chairman Caban thanked County staff, the County Administrator's Office, the Office of Management and Budget, the County Attorney's Office, and all employees who participated in the workshop for their preparation and professionalism. He noted that staff were well prepared, Commissioners' questions were thoroughly addressed, and the workshop provided a productive discussion of challenging fiscal issues.

Adjournment

With no further business before the Board, Chairman Caban adjourned the workshop at 2:48 p.m.

This item has a fiscal impact. All funds authorized for the issuance of these checks have been budgeted.

Staff Recommendation:

Option #1: Approve the payment of bills and vouchers submitted for September 15, 2026, and the pre-approval of payment of bills and vouchers for the period of September 16, 2026, through October 12, 2026.

Report and Discussion

Background:

The Office of Management and Budget (OMB) reviews the bills and vouchers printout, submitted for approval during the September 15th meeting, the morning of Monday, September 14, 2026. If, for any reason, any of these bills are not recommended for approval, OMB will notify the Board.

Analysis:

Since the next regular meeting is scheduled for October 13, 2026, it is advisable for the Board to pre-approve payment of the County's bills for September 16, 2026, through October 12, 2026, so that vendors and service providers will not experience hardship because of delays in payment. In the event the Board meeting is cancelled, the payment of bills/vouchers will be approved until the next scheduled meeting. OMB will continue to review the printouts prior to payment; if for any reason OMB questions payment, then payment will be withheld until an inquiry is made and satisfied, or until the next scheduled Board meeting. Copies of the bills/vouchers printout will be available in OMB for review.

Options:

1. Approve the payment of bills and vouchers submitted for September 15, 2026, and the pre-approval of payment of bills and vouchers for the period of September 16, 2026, through October 12, 2026.
2. Do not approve the payment of bills and vouchers submitted for September 15, 2026, and the pre-approval of payment of bills and vouchers for the period of September 16, 2026, through October 12, 2026.

Option #1: Schedule a Workshop on Fire Rescue Services for October 27, 2026, at 3:00 p.m.

Report and Discussion

Background:

This item seeks Board approval to schedule a workshop on Fire Rescue Services for October 27, 2026, at 3:00 p.m. At the Workshop, the Board will receive a presentation on the report conducted by Fitch & Associates (Fitch) on the delivery of fire rescue services in unincorporated Leon County. This will include findings and recommendations on the current fire rescue services delivery model provided by the City of Tallahassee (City) as well as alternative fire rescue services models and cost-effective options for the unincorporated area. Additionally, the Workshop will present the results of the financial analysis requested by the Board and conducted by Alfred Benesch & Company (Benesch) to determine whether the City under collected, and/or underfunded the Fire Services Fund and/or Fire Services Reserve Fund.

The County and City have a long and mutually beneficial history of partnering for the provision of fire rescue services in the unincorporated area of the County and EMS services countywide. In 1988, the County began contracting with the City for fire rescue services in the unincorporated area through an interlocal agreement. In 2009, the first county-wide fire rescue services assessment and fees rate study was adopted, and in FY 2010 it was implemented by Interlocal Agreement to uniformly charge properties for fire rescue services in both the City and unincorporated areas of the County. Under the Interlocal Agreement, the flat fire assessment and fee rates are imposed for a five-year period to provide consistency and certainty to property owners, and revenue assurances for the provision of high-quality fire rescue services.

In April 2023, the Board and the City Commission each approved the results of the current fire assessment and fees rate study (Third Term Rate Study) which updated the flat rates for residential, commercial, industrial/warehouse, and government properties and was incorporated into the Sixth Amendment to the Interlocal Agreement. The rates went into effect on October 1, 2023, and were based on the City's estimated assessable costs at that time to provide fire rescue services through the current term of five years, ending on September 30, 2028 (FY 2024 – FY 2028).

On January 14, 2025, the City notified the County that the current fire assessment and fees rates were expected to be insufficient to cover increased costs identified by the City for the remaining three years of the study period. The City proposed a 22% increase in the rate. Per the Interlocal Agreement, the Board initiated the dispute resolution process and offered a good faith compromise of a 17% increase which the City rejected.

On August 12, 2025, the Board ultimately voted to maintain the fire rescue services assessment and fees rates at the current levels. At that time, the Board also authorized the County Attorney to retain a financial consultant to conduct a review of records to analyze whether the City under collected, and/or underfunded the Fire Services Fund and/or Fire Services Reserve Fund. Subsequently, the County Attorney engaged Nilgun Kamp, AICP, Director of Public Finance and Infrastructure Planning of Benesch to conduct the review which is further described in the Analysis section.

On September 17, 2025, the City Commission unilaterally voted to increase the rates of the fire rescue services assessment and fees for properties only within City limits. This action by the City was contrary to the Interlocal Agreement which only incorporated the current fire rescue services assessment and fee rates based upon the Third Term Rate Study and requires mutual agreement of the County and City to amend the rates. Additionally, the City Commission voted to terminate the Interlocal Agreement at the end of the current term on September 30, 2028. On September 22, 2025, in a letter sent from the City, the County was provided notice that the City is terminating the Interlocal Agreement Regarding the Provision of Fire and Emergency Medical Services.

As a result, on September 23, 2025, the Board authorized the County Administrator to initiate a competitive solicitation process for contractual services to evaluate alternative models that would provide a comparable level of service to meet the community needs and identify the most cost-effective options for fire rescue services in unincorporated Leon County. Subsequently, a Request for Proposals was issued by the County on October 13, 2025, which closed on November 12, 2025.

At the December 9, 2025 meeting, the Board approved the contract award to Fitch for consulting services to evaluate alternative models and cost-effective options for fire rescue services in unincorporated Leon County.

Analysis:

Fitch is widely-recognized as the premier public safety consulting firm specializing in performance management, organizational optimization, and strategic assessment of fire and EMS services. For the past 10 months Fitch has been engaged in a comprehensive evaluation of the current fire rescue services model and alternative models for unincorporated Leon County. The Workshop will present the results of Fitch's evaluation with analysis, findings, and recommendations that would ensure continuity of fire rescue services in the unincorporated area. This will incorporate an overview and analysis of the current fire rescue services model with potential opportunities for greater efficiencies and the evaluation of alternative models and cost-effective options for fire rescue services that include fiscal impact, response time, and potential impacts on property insurance.

In addition to the Fitch report, the Workshop will incorporate the report by Benesch with an analysis on the implementation of fire rescue assessment and fees rates from the Third Term Rate Study and the impact on the Fire Services Fund and Fire Services Reserve Fund. Over the past year, Benesch has been analyzing various aspects of the fire rescue services assessment and fees including: the methodology used to calculate the fire rescue services assessment and fees rates; the amount of the rates imposed and charged by the City; the amount of billing collections (revenue); the City's budgets; existence of shortfalls in billing collections due to exempt properties, underbilling, or under collection; and whether the City used any other revenue sources to fund said shortfall, such as transfers from other accounts.

The Board calendar states that Tuesday, October 27, 2026, at 3:00 p.m., is available to schedule the workshop.

Options:

1. Schedule a Workshop on Fire Rescue Services for October 27, 2026, at 3:00 p.m.
2. Do not schedule a Workshop on Fire Rescue Services for October 27, 2026, at 3:00 p.m.

Title: Request to Schedule the First and Only Public Hearing to Consider an Ordinance Amending Chapter 8, Article VIII, of the Code of Laws of Leon County, Florida and Approval of the Agreement with the State of Florida Agency for Health Care Administration for Participation in the 2026-2027 Local Provider Participation Fund Program

Review and Approval:	Vincent S. Long, County Administrator
Department / Division Review:	Ken Morris, Assistant County Administrator
Lead Staff / Project Team:	Roshaunda Bradley, Director, Office of Management and Budget

Statement of Issue:

This item seeks Board approval to schedule the first and only public hearing for October 13, 2026, at 6:00 p.m. to consider an Ordinance amending Chapter 8, Article VIII, of the Code of Laws of Leon County, "Local Provider Participation Fund Non-Ad Valorem Assessment", to support local hospital participation in a new managed care quality incentive program. This item also seeks Board authorization to approve and execute an Agreement with the State of Florida Agency for Health Care Administration for participation in the 2026-2027 Local Provider Participation Fund Program on behalf of local hospitals.

Fiscal Impact:

This item has a fiscal impact. If the proposed Ordinance and agreement are approved, local hospitals may be eligible for additional Federal Medicaid funding next fiscal year at no cost to the County.

Staff Recommendation:

Option #1: Schedule the first and only public hearing to consider an ordinance amending Chapter 8, Article VIII, of the Code of Laws of Leon County, Florida, entitled "Local Provider Participation Fund Non-Ad Valorem Assessment", for October 13, 2026.

Option #2: Authorize the County Administrator to approve and execute an agreement with the State of Florida Agency for Health Care Administration, including any modifications, amendments, or associated agreements thereto, all subject to legal review and revision by the County Attorney.

Report and Discussion

Background:

A public hearing is typically held in September to adopt the new non-ad valorem assessment roll levied on local hospitals for the Local Provider Participation Fund (LPPF). However, this year's assessment rate-setting process will occur later than it has in prior years as the State awaits pending Medicaid waivers that will shape the structure of the upcoming assessment rates. In anticipation of these changes and as requested by local hospitals, this item seeks Board approval to schedule the first and only public hearing for October 13, 2026, at 6:00 p.m. to consider an Ordinance amending Chapter 8, Article VIII, of the Code of Laws of Leon County (Code), "Local Provider Participation Fund Non-Ad Valorem Assessment", to support local hospital participation in a new managed care quality incentive program. This item also seeks Board authorization to approve and execute an agreement with the Agency for Health Care Administration (AHCA), in a form approved by the County Attorney, to effectuate the County's intent to participate in the 2026-2027 LPPF program and satisfy the statutory October 1, 2026, timeline.

On September 14, 2021, the Board adopted Ordinance No. 2021-14, subsequently codified in Chapter 8, Article VIII, of the LCC, which established the LPPF to support local hospitals that provide health services to Medicaid beneficiaries. By way of background, the LPPF is an optional method of finance for the County to generate and collect local funding used as a match to draw down additional federal Medicaid dollars. The special assessments are levied on each participating hospital based on their annual net patient revenue. These payments are deposited in a separate account and, less administrative costs, the funds can only be used as the non-federal portion of the Medicaid match to allow hospitals to draw down additional federal dollars.

In 2025, Congress approved the One Big Beautiful Bill Act ("OBBBA"), which affected how states can finance Medicaid programs in the future. Providers are charged health care-related fees/assessments that states place on hospitals, nursing homes, and managed care organizations to help finance the State's share of Medicaid costs and draw down federal matching funds. Florida is now seeking waivers to exempt certain facilities from the provider fees/assessments in 19 local jurisdictions across the state, including Leon County. If the Centers for Medicare & Medicaid (CMS) grants the waivers, the exempt facilities will no longer be subject to the fees and assessments. While the State and CMS continue to negotiate these waivers, local hospitals have requested an amendment to the current LPPF ordinance language to prepare for the possible exemptions.

Further, AHCA is advocating for the Legislature to open the door for a new program to reward managed care plans that meet specific health quality, efficiency, and outcome goals, furthering state quality objectives. Managed care plans often partner with hospitals to achieve designated program goals and objectives. In a managed care quality incentive program ("MCO"), benefits flow to partnering hospitals as managed care plans make payments to hospitals for their contribution to program objectives.

In jurisdictions with an LPPF non-ad valorem assessment, the assessment may generate sufficient dollars to provide an intergovernmental transfer for this new MCO program, in addition to the existing Medicaid payment programs already funded by the assessment. To allow for the opportunity to participate in this new MCO program, participating jurisdictions must amend existing ordinances to ensure that funds may be applied toward the MCO incentive program, in addition to the Medicaid payment programs already funded.

Analysis:

In 2021, representatives of local hospitals requested that the County establish a special assessment program to leverage additional federal Medicaid funding. Leon County has levied this assessment annually to fund Medicaid payments for hospitals who provide services to low income and Medicaid eligible patients. Hospitals pay the assessments to the County, and the County remits the funds to the State to qualify for federal match. Florida is now seeking waivers to exempt certain facilities from the provider taxes in l9 local jurisdictions, including Leon County, and is requesting the County to alter the existing ordinance language to prepare for possible exemptions. The proposed amendment language addresses the exemption of waiver facilities, the new quality incentive program, and clearly identifies the authorized purposes and programs qualifying under the program, consistent with federal changes implemented through the OBBBA.

Local hospitals not included in the waiver request remain supportive of the assessment and understand the assessment obligation will continue to apply. This item recommends scheduling the first and only public hearing for October 13, 2026, at 6:00 p.m., to consider the proposed ordinance change.

2026 – 2027 LPPF Program Participation

A public hearing is required annually to adopt a Resolution and the new non-ad valorem assessment roll for the LPPF. To ensure deadlines established by AHCA are met, a public hearing is typically held in September. However, this year's assessment rate-setting process will occur later than it has in prior years. Florida is currently awaiting CMS decisions on pending Medicaid waivers that will shape the structure of the upcoming assessment rates. Until those federal approvals are received, the State is unable to finalize the payment methodologies needed to calculate assessment rates for 2026 – 2027. In the meantime, AHCA has advised that placeholder Letters of Agreement (LOAs) will be distributed to reflect the County's intent to participate in the 2026 – 2027 program. To satisfy the statutory timeline for AHCA, the County must execute and return the LOA to AHCA no later than October 1, 2026. This item seeks authorization for the County Administrator to execute the agreement, subject to legal review and revision by the County Attorney.

AHCA anticipates the rate setting process to be finalized by the end of the calendar year, at which time an item will be brought back to the Board to approve the associated non-ad valorem assessment roll for participating hospitals for 2026-2027.

Options:

1. Schedule the first and only public hearing to consider an ordinance amending Chapter 8, Article VIII, of the Code of Laws of Leon County, Florida, entitled "Local Provider Participation Fund Non-Ad Valorem Assessment", for October 13, 2026.
2. Authorize the County Administrator to approve and execute an agreement with the State of Florida Agency for Health Care Administration, including any modifications, amendments, or associated agreements thereto, all subject to legal review and revision by the County Attorney.

Statement of Issue:

This item seeks Board approval to nominate 27 eligible applicants to the Governor for consideration of appointment to two seats on the Children's Services Council of Leon County.

Fiscal Impact:

This item has no fiscal impact.

Staff Recommendation:

Option #1: Nominate all 27 eligible applicants to the Governor for consideration of appointment to two seats on the Children's Services Council of Leon County.

Report and Discussion

Background:

This item seeks Board approval to nominate 27 eligible applicants to the Governor for appointment to the Children's Services Council of Leon County (CSC Leon) for two seats which have terms that will expire on December 31, 2026. The incumbents for both seats are seeking reappointment. This agenda item facilitates the required statutory process for the Board to provide nominations to the Governor for appointment.

On June 19, 2018, the Board adopted Ordinance No. 18-13, thereby placing a referendum to establish an independent children's services council on the 2020 general election ballot. During the November 2020 general election, over 65% of the electorate voted in favor of establishing the CSC Leon to provide children with early learning and reading skills, development, treatment, preventative, and other children's services in Leon County. The CSC Leon generates funding for these children's services by annually levying ad valorem taxes, not exceeding the maximum millage rate of one-half (1/2) mill. The CSC Leon is not a citizen committee or division of Leon County Government, and has independent oversight and accountability as required by law. Per Section 125.901(1)(a), Florida Statutes (Attachment #1), and Chapter 8, Article VII, Section 8-184 of the Leon County Code of Laws (Attachment #2), the CSC Leon consists of 10 members, including:

- The Superintendent of Schools;
- A school board member as appointed by the Leon County School Board;
- The Department of Children and Families District Administrator, or his or her designee;
- A judge assigned to juvenile cases as appointed by the Chief Judge;
- A County Commissioner as appointed by the Board of County Commissioners (Commissioner Cummings is serving in this capacity); and
- Five members appointed by the Governor from candidates nominated by the Board of County Commissioners to serve a four-year term.

Per Section 125.901(1)(a), Florida Statutes, the Board is required to submit to the Governor at least three recommendations for each gubernatorial appointment, after soliciting nominations from the public. The statute also requires the Governor to make appointments that represent the demographic diversity of the population of the County, to the extent possible. The Governor has 45 days to make appointments or request a new list of candidates.

Over the past several years, the Board has approached the submission of nominations to the Governor in different ways. In January 2021, the Board nominated the minimum of three eligible applicants for each of the five seats. In January 2023, the Board nominated seven eligible applicants to be considered for two seats, which was just one applicant more than the minimum requirement. In December 2023, the Board received notification from the Governor's Office requesting additional candidates for review. Based on that direction, in January 2024, the Board opted to nominate all 20 eligible applicants for the Governor's consideration to fill three seats. In October 2024, the Board again nominated all 35 eligible applicants for three seats. And most recently in July 2025, the Board nominated all 24 applicants to fill one seat. Accordingly, this item seeks the Board's nomination for all eligible applicants to the Governor for appointment to two seats on the CSC Leon.

COUNTY ORGANIZATION AND INTERGOVERNMENTAL RELATIONS	COUNTY GOVERNMENT

125.901 Children's services; independent special district; council; powers, duties, and functions; public records exemption.—

(1) Each county may by ordinance create an independent special district, as defined in ss. 189.012 and 200.001(8)(e), to provide funding for children's services throughout the county in accordance with this section. The boundaries of such district shall be coterminous with the boundaries of the county. The county governing body shall obtain approval at a general election, as defined in s. 97.021, by a majority vote of those electors voting on the question, to annually levy ad valorem taxes which shall not exceed the maximum millage rate authorized by this section. Any district created pursuant to the provisions of this subsection shall be required to levy and fix millage subject to the provisions of s. 200.065. Once such millage is approved by the electorate, the district shall not be required to seek approval of the electorate in future years to levy the previously approved millage. However, a referendum to increase the millage rate previously approved by the electors must be held at a general election, and the referendum may be held only once during the 48-month period preceding the effective date of the increased millage.

(a) The governing body of the district shall be a council on children's services, which may also be known as a juvenile welfare board or similar name as established in the ordinance by the county governing body. Such council shall consist of 10 members, including the superintendent of schools; a local school board member; the district administrator from the appropriate district of the Department of Children and Families, or his or her designee who is a member of the Senior Management Service or of the Selected Exempt Service; one member of the county governing body; and the judge assigned to juvenile cases who shall sit as a voting member of the board, except that said judge shall not vote or participate in the setting of ad valorem taxes under this section. If there is more than one judge assigned to juvenile cases in a county, the chief judge shall designate one of said juvenile judges to serve on the board. The remaining five members shall be appointed by the Governor, and shall, to the extent possible, represent the demographic diversity of the population of the county. After soliciting recommendations from the public, the county governing body shall submit to the Governor the names of at least three persons for each vacancy occurring among the five members appointed by the Governor, and the Governor shall appoint members to the council from the candidates nominated by the county governing body. The Governor shall make a selection within a 45-day period or request a new list of candidates. All members appointed by the Governor shall have been residents of the county for the previous 24-month period. Such members shall be appointed for 4-year terms, except that the length of the terms of the initial appointees shall be adjusted to stagger the terms. The Governor may remove a member for cause or upon the written petition of the county governing body. If any of the members of the council required to be appointed by the Governor under the provisions of this subsection shall resign, die, or be removed from office, the vacancy thereby created shall, as soon as practicable, be filled by appointment by the Governor, using the same method as the original appointment, and such appointment to fill a vacancy shall be for the unexpired term of the person who resigns, dies, or is removed from office.

(b) However, any county as defined in s. 125.011(1) may instead have a governing body composed of 33 members, including the superintendent of schools, or his or her designee; two representatives of public postsecondary education institutions located in the county; the county manager or the equivalent county officer, or his or her designee; the district administrator from the appropriate district of the Department of Children and Families, or the administrator's designee who is a member of the Senior Management Service or the Selected Exempt Service; the director of the county health department or the director's designee; the state attorney for the county or the state attorney's designee; the chief judge assigned to juvenile cases, or another juvenile judge who is the chief judge's designee and who shall sit as a voting member of the board, except that the judge may not vote or participate in setting ad valorem taxes under this section; an individual who is selected by the board of the local United Way or its equivalent; a member of a locally recognized faith-based coalition, selected by that coalition; a member of the local chamber of commerce, selected by that chamber or, if more than one chamber exists within the county, a person selected by a coalition of the local chambers; a member of the early learning coalition, selected by that coalition; a representative of a labor organization or union active in the county; a member of the local Parent-Teachers Association/Parent-Teacher-Student Association, selected by that association; a youth representative selected by the local school system's student government; a local school board member appointed by the chair of the school board; the mayor of the county or the mayor's designee; one member of the county governing body, appointed by the chair of that body; a member of the state Legislature who represents residents of the county, selected by the chair of the local legislative delegation; an elected official representing the residents of a municipality in the county, selected by the county municipal league; and five members-at-large, appointed to the council by the majority of sitting council members. The remaining seven members shall be appointed by the Governor in accordance with procedures set forth in paragraph (a), except that the Governor may remove a member for cause or upon the written petition of the council. Appointments by the Governor must, to the extent reasonably possible, represent the geographic and demographic makeup of the population of the county. Members appointed to the council by reason of their position are not subject to the length of terms and limits on consecutive terms as provided in this section. The remaining appointed members of the governing body shall be appointed to serve 3-year terms, except that those members appointed by the Governor shall be appointed to serve 4-year terms, and the youth representative and the legislative delegate shall be appointed to serve 1-year terms. A member may be reappointed; however, a member may not serve for more than three consecutive terms. A member is eligible to be appointed again after a 2-year hiatus from the council.

(c) This subsection does not prohibit a county from exercising such power as is provided by general or special law to provide children's services or to create a special district to provide such services.

(2)(a) Each council on children's services shall have all of the following powers and functions:

1. To provide and maintain in the county such preventive, developmental, treatment, and rehabilitative services for children as the council determines are needed for the general welfare of the county.

3. To allocate and provide funds for other agencies in the county which are operated for the benefit of children, provided they are not under the exclusive jurisdiction of the public school system.

4. To collect information and statistical data and to conduct research which will be helpful to the council and the county in deciding the needs of children in the county.

5. To consult and coordinate with other agencies dedicated to the welfare of children to the end that the overlapping of services will be prevented.

6. To lease or buy such real estate, equipment, and personal property and to construct such buildings as are needed to execute the foregoing powers and functions, provided that no such purchases shall be made or building done unless paid for with cash on hand or secured by funds deposited in financial institutions. Nothing in this subparagraph shall be construed to authorize a district to issue bonds of any nature, nor shall a district have the power to require the imposition of any bond by the governing body of the county.

7. To employ, pay, and provide benefits for any part-time or full-time personnel needed to execute the foregoing powers and functions.

(b) Each council on children's services shall:

1. Immediately after the members are appointed, elect a chair and a vice chair from among its members, and elect other officers as deemed necessary by the council.

2. Immediately after the members are appointed and officers are elected, identify and assess the needs of the children in the county served by the council and submit to the governing body of each county a written description of:

a. The activities, services, and opportunities that will be provided to children.

b. The anticipated schedule for providing those activities, services, and opportunities.

e. The manner in which the council will seek and provide funding for unmet needs.

f. The strategy which will be used for interagency coordination to maximize existing human and fiscal resources.

3. Provide training and orientation to all new members sufficient to allow them to perform their duties.

4. Make and adopt bylaws and rules and regulations for the council's guidance, operation, governance, and maintenance, provided such rules and regulations are not inconsistent with federal or state laws or county ordinances.

5. Provide an annual written report, to be presented no later than January 1, to the governing body of the county. The annual report shall contain, but not be limited to, the following information:

a. Information on the effectiveness of activities, services, and programs offered by the council, including cost-effectiveness.

b. A detailed anticipated budget for continuation of activities, services, and programs offered by the council, and a list of all sources of requested funding, both public and private.

c. Procedures used for early identification of at-risk children who need additional or continued services and methods for ensuring that the additional or continued services are received.

d. A description of the degree to which the council's objectives and activities are consistent with the goals of this section.

e. Detailed information on the various programs, services, and activities available to participants and the degree to which the programs, services, and activities have been successfully used by children.

f. Information on programs, services, and activities that should be eliminated; programs, services, and activities that should be continued; and programs, services, and activities that should be added to the basic format of the children's services council.

(c) The council shall maintain minutes of each meeting, including a record of all votes cast, and shall make such minutes available to any interested person.

(d) Members of the council shall serve without compensation, but shall be entitled to receive reimbursement for per diem and travel expenses consistent with the provisions of s. 112.061.

(3)(a) The fiscal year of the district shall be the same as that of the county.

(b) On or before July 1 of each year, the council on children's services shall prepare a tentative annual written budget of the district's expected income and expenditures, including a contingency fund. The council shall, in addition, compute a proposed millage rate within the voter-approved cap necessary to fund the tentative budget and, prior to adopting a final budget, comply with the provisions of s. 200.065, relating to the method of fixing millage, and shall fix the final millage rate by resolution of the council. The adopted budget and final millage rate shall be certified and delivered to the governing body of the county as soon as possible following the council's adoption of the final budget and millage rate pursuant to chapter 200. Included in each certified budget shall be the millage rate, adopted by resolution of the council, necessary to be applied to raise the funds budgeted for district operations and expenditures. In no circumstances, however, shall any district levy millage to exceed a maximum of 0.5 mills of assessed valuation of all properties within the county which are subject to ad valorem county taxes.

(c) The budget of the district so certified and delivered to the governing body of the county shall not be subject to change or modification by the governing body of the county or any other authority.

(d) All tax money collected under this section, as soon after the collection thereof as is reasonably practicable, shall be paid directly to the council on children's services by the tax collector of the county, or the clerk of the circuit court if the clerk collects delinquent taxes.

(e)1. All moneys received by the council on children's services shall be deposited in qualified public depositories, as defined in s. 280.02, with separate and distinguishable accounts established specifically for the council and shall be withdrawn only by checks signed by the chair of the council and countersigned by either one other member of the council on children's services or by a chief executive officer who shall be so authorized by the council.

2. Upon entering the duties of office, the chair and the other member of the council or chief executive officer who signs its checks shall each give a surety bond in the sum of at least $1,000 for each $1 million or portion thereof of the council's annual budget, which bond shall be conditioned that each shall faithfully discharge the duties of his or her office. The premium on such bond may be paid by the district as part of the expense of the council. No other member of the council shall be required to give bond or other security.

3. No funds of the district shall be expended except by check as aforesaid, except expenditures from a petty cash account which shall not at any time exceed $100. All expenditures from petty cash shall be recorded on the books and records of the council on children's services. No funds of the council on children's services, excepting expenditures from petty cash, shall be expended without prior approval of the council, in addition to the budgeting thereof.

(f) Within 10 days, exclusive of weekends and legal holidays, after the expiration of each quarter annual period, the council on children's services shall cause to be prepared and filed with the governing body of the county a financial report which shall include the following:

1. The total expenditures of the council for the quarter annual period.

2. The total receipts of the council during the quarter annual period.

3. A statement of the funds the council has on hand, has invested, or has deposited with qualified public depositories at the end of the quarter annual period.

4. The total administrative costs of the council for the quarter annual period.

(4)(a) Any district created pursuant to this section may be dissolved by a special act of the Legislature, or the county governing body may by ordinance dissolve the district subject to the approval of the electorate.

(b)1.a. Notwithstanding paragraph (a), the governing body of the county shall submit the question of retention or dissolution of a district with voter-approved taxing authority to the electorate in the general election according to the following schedule:

(I) For a district in existence on July 1, 2010, and serving a county with a population of 400,000 or fewer persons as of that date. . . . . 2014.

(II) For a district in existence on July 1, 2010, and serving a county with a population of 2 million or more persons as of that date, unless the governing body of the county has previously submitted such question voluntarily to the electorate for a second time since 2005. . . . . 2020.

b. A referendum by the electorate on or after July 1, 2010, creating a new district with taxing authority may specify that the district is not subject to reauthorization or may specify the number of years for which the initial authorization shall remain effective. If the referendum does not prescribe terms of reauthorization, the governing body of the county shall submit the question of retention or dissolution of the district to the electorate in the general election 12 years after the initial authorization.

2. The governing body of the district may specify, and submit to the governing body of the county no later than 9 months before the scheduled election, that the district is not subsequently subject to reauthorization or may specify the number of years for which a reauthorization under this paragraph shall remain effective. If the governing body of the district makes such specification and submission, the governing body of the county shall include that information in the question submitted to the electorate. If the governing body of the district does not specify and submit such information, the governing body of the county shall resubmit the question of reauthorization to the electorate every 12 years after the year prescribed in subparagraph 1. The governing body of the district may recommend to the governing body of the county language for the question submitted to the electorate.

3. Nothing in this paragraph limits the authority to dissolve a district as provided under paragraph (a).

4. Nothing in this paragraph precludes the governing body of a district from requesting that the governing body of the county submit the question of retention or dissolution of a district with voter-approved taxing authority to the electorate at a date earlier than the year prescribed in subparagraph 1. If the governing body of the county accepts the request and submits the question to the electorate, the governing body satisfies the requirement of that subparagraph.

If any district is dissolved pursuant to this subsection, each county must first obligate itself to assume the debts, liabilities, contracts, and outstanding obligations of the district within the total millage available to the county governing body for all county and municipal purposes as provided for under s. 9, Art. VII of the State Constitution. Any district may also be dissolved pursuant to part VII of chapter 189.

(5) After or during the first year of operation of the council on children's services, the governing body of the county, at its option, may fund in whole or in part the budget of the council on children's services from its own funds.

(6) Any district created pursuant to the provisions of this section shall comply with all other statutory requirements of general application which relate to the filing of any financial reports or compliance reports required under part III of chapter 218, or any other report or documentation required by law, including the requirements of ss. 189.015, 189.016, and 189.08.

(7)(a) Each county may by ordinance create a dependent special district within the boundaries of the county for the purpose of providing preventive, developmental, treatment, and rehabilitative services for children. The district is authorized to seek grants from state, federal, and local agencies and to accept donations from public and private sources, provided that the district complies with the provisions of paragraphs (1)(a) and (2)(b), and provided that the district has a budget that requires approval through an affirmative vote of the governing body of the county or may be vetoed by the governing body of the county.

(b) If the provisions of a county charter relating to the membership of the governing board of a dependent special district conflict with paragraph (1)(a), a county may by ordinance create a dependent special district within the boundaries of the county for the purpose of providing preventive, developmental, treatment, and rehabilitative services for children and the district shall be authorized to seek grants from state, federal, and local agencies and to accept donations from public and private sources, provided that the district complies with the provisions of paragraph (2)(b), and provided that the district has a budget that requires approval through an affirmative vote of the governing body of the county or may be vetoed by the governing body of the county.

(8) It is the intent of the Legislature that the funds collected pursuant to the provisions of this section shall be used to support improvements in children's services and that such funds shall not be used as a substitute for existing resources or for resources that would otherwise be available for children's services.

(9) Two or more councils on children's services may enter into a cooperative agreement to share administrative costs, including, but not limited to, staff and office space, if a more efficient or effective operation will result. The cooperative agreement shall include provisions on apportioning costs between the councils, keeping separate and distinct financial records for each council, and resolving any conflicts that might arise under the cooperative agreement.

(10) Two or more councils on children's services may enter into a cooperative agreement to seek grants, to accept donations, or to jointly fund programs serving multicounty areas. The cooperative agreement shall include provisions for the adequate accounting of separate and joint funds.

(11) Personal identifying information of a child or the parent or guardian of the child, held by a council on children's services, juvenile welfare board, or other similar entity created under this section or by special law, or held by a service provider or researcher under contract with such entity, is exempt from s. 119.07(1) and s. 24(a),

Art. I of the State Constitution. This exemption applies to such information held before, on, or after the effective date of this exemption.

If no resume is available, in the space below briefly describe or list the following: any previous experience on other Committees; your educational background; your skills and experience you could contribute to a Committee; any of your professional licenses and/or designations and indicate how long you have held them and whether they are effective in Leon County; any charitable or community activities in which you participate; and reasons for your choice of the Committee indicated on this Application. I am applying for appointment to the Leon County Children's Services Council because I am deeply committed to improving the mental health, safety, and well-being of children and families in our community. As both a psychologist and a parent raising three children in Leon County, I have a personal and professional investment in ensuring that all children have access to the supports they need to thrive.

I am a Professor in the School Psychology Program at Florida State University, where I train future mental health professionals, conduct research on youth mental health and bullying prevention, and lead community-engaged initiatives that directly serve children and families in Leon County. My work has been recognized through Florida State University's Community Engaged Teaching Award, and I have been elected as a Fellow of the American Psychological Association for my professional contributions.

A central focus of my work is expanding access to mental health services for local youth. I direct the Seminoles ASPIRE and STRIDES programs, which provide school-based and community-based mental health services to approximately 150 children and adolescents each year while training more than 20 graduate students in counseling and school psychology. Through these programs, I work closely with local schools, families, and community partners and have developed a firsthand understanding of both the strengths of our community and the challenges families face in accessing services.

I hold several professional credentials relevant to the Council's mission, including Licensed Psychologist in Florida, Nationally Certified School Psychologist, Certified NASP PREPaRE Crisis Prevention and Intervention Trainer, and Youth Mental Health First Aid Instructor.

Although I have not previously served on a citizen advisory committee, my professional experience includes program development, strategic planning, outcome evaluation, consensus building, and data-informed decision making. I would welcome the opportunity to contribute these skills, along with my expertise in child development and mental health, to help ensure that community resources are invested in programs that make a meaningful difference for children and families throughout Leon County.

Summary

With more than 30 years of experience as a Licensed Practical Nurse and a deep-rooted passion for exceptional student education, I've devoted my career to helping individuals of all abilities reach their fullest potential. As a homeschooling parent of four, I honed my skills in individualized instruction, curriculum design, and fostering genuine engagement — meeting each learner right where they are.

Today, as the founder of Tutor Fish, I specialize in supporting students with exceptionalities through personalized, strengths-based tutoring. My approach combines evidence-based educational strategies with a compassionate understanding of developmental and behavioral needs, empowering students to build confidence, master new skills, and love learning again.

With my Bachelor's in Exceptional Student Education (ESE), I'm focused on integrating my healthcare background with my passion for teaching, mentorship, and community advocacy. My mission is simple: to create inclusive, joyful, and impactful learning experiences — in the classroom, the community, and beyond.

I believe education, like healthcare, is a calling — one that requires empathy, innovation, and an unwavering belief that every learner deserves a chance to thrive.

Notes for Agenda Item #8

Leon County Board of County Commissioners
Agenda Item #8
September 15, 2026

To: Honorable Chairman and Members of the Board

From: Vincent S. Long, County Administrator

Title: Department of Health in Leon County Fiscal Year 2027 Public Health Agreement and Proposed Resolution Amending the Leon County Health Department Fee Schedule

Review and Approval:	Vincent S. Long, County Administrator
Department / Division Review:	Ken Morris, Assistant County Administrator Shington Lamy, Assistant County Administrator Abigail Thomas, Director, Office of Human Services and Community Partnerships
Lead Staff / Project Team:	Shauna Houston, Health Care Services Coordinator

Statement of Issue:

As required by Florida Statutes, this item seeks Board authorization to approve, enter into and execute an agreement with the Department of Health in Leon County to provide state-mandated public health services for Fiscal Year (FY) 2027. Additionally, as requested by the Florida Department of Health in Leon County, the item also seeks Board adoption of a resolution for adjustments in the Leon County Health Department Fee Schedule administered by the Health Department to support ongoing essential public health services. Florida Statutes require Board approval of Health Department Fees.

Fiscal Impact:

This item has a fiscal impact. The FY 2027 Tentative Budget includes $237,345 for the Department of Health in Leon County's provision of state-mandated public health services. The proposed amendments to the Leon County Health Department Fee Schedule are expected to generate approximately $300,000 annually to the Health Department to maintain service levels following a reduction in State revenue and expand eligibility of clinical services to more residents.

Staff Recommendation:

Option #1: Authorize the County Administrator to approve and execute an agreement with the Department of Health in Leon County for the provision of state-mandated public health services for FY 2027, and all necessary documents related to the implementation of the agreement, and approve and execute any necessary modifications, amendments, or associated agreements thereto, all subject to legal review and revision by the County Attorney.

Option #2: Adopt the resolution amending the Leon County Health Department Fee Schedule (Attachment #1).

Report and Discussion

Background:

As required by Florida Statutes, this item seeks Board authorization to approve, enter into and execute an agreement with the Department of Health in Leon County (Health Department) to provide state-mandated public health services for FY 2027. Additionally, as requested by the Florida Department of Health in Leon County, the item also seeks Board adoption of a resolution for adjustments in the Leon County Health Department Fee Schedule that would be administered by the Health Department to support ongoing essential public health services. Florida Statutes require Board approval of Health Department Fees.

The Agreement will advance the following FY 2022 – FY 2026 Strategic Initiative:

- Continue County support of primary healthcare through participation in Carenet in order to increase access to affordable healthcare for those in need. (2022-24)

This particular Strategic Initiative aligns with the Board's Quality of Life Strategic Priority:

- (Q4) Support and promote access to basic healthcare, mental health, affordable housing, and homeless prevention services to our community members most in need.

Section 154.01, Florida Statutes, requires the execution of an annual agreement between the Health Department and Leon County, stipulating the services that will be provided by the county health department. Per Florida Statutes, the county health department is charged by the State with providing the following public health services:

- Communicable disease control services
- Primary care services
- Environmental health services

Consistent with previous years, the County's FY 2027 Tentative Budget includes a $237,345 contribution for the state-mandated public health services for FY 2027 as described later in this item. In addition, as detailed further in the Analysis section, in July 2026, the Health Department requested increases to the Health Department Fee Schedule in order to maintain current service levels to ensure public health following a $300,000 revenue loss resulting from recent actions taken by the Florida Legislature which transferred the Onsite Sewage Program from the Health Department to the Florida Department of Environmental Services.

The proposed adjustments to the fee schedule will help ensure that the Health Department can continue to provide critical environmental and public health services including food safety inspections, testing and monitoring of drinking water, and oversight of biomedical waste disposal. Consistent with other health departments around the state, the amended Health Department Fee Schedule would establish and/or increase application and inspection fees for various services (Attachment #2). Section 154.06, Florida Statutes, authorizes that each county health department may collect fees, provided that a schedule of fees is established by resolution of the Board. Florida Statutes require fees collected to remain with the Health Department for health department services. Additionally, Chapter 8, Article I, Section 8-1, of the Leon County Code of Laws, authorizes the Board to prescribe a schedule for health department fees by resolution. Therefore, a resolution is provided to amend the Health Department Fee Schedule upon Board approval.

Analysis:

The Health Department is a state agency mandated to provide health services. As mentioned earlier, Florida Statutes requires the Health Department to enter and execute an agreement with the County to provide state-mandated public health services. Section 154.01, Florida Statutes, outlines the requirements of the Agreement. Under this Agreement, the Health Department is mandated to provide services in the following three categories of services to ensure a full-time, functional county health department system: communicable disease control, primary care, and environmental health services.

Communicable Disease Control Services

Communicable disease control services are those services that protect the health of the general public through the detection, control, and eradication of diseases that are transmitted primarily by human beings. Such services include but are not limited to, epidemiology, sexually transmissible disease (STD) detection and control, HIV/AIDS, immunization, tuberculosis control and maintenance of vital statistics.

Primary Care Services

Primary care services are acute care and preventive services that are made available to well and sick persons who are unable to obtain such services due to lack of income or other barriers beyond their control. These services are provided to benefit individuals, improve the collective health of the public, and prevent and control the spread of disease. The primary care services offered by the Health Department include family planning, breast and cervical cancer screenings, school health services, supplemental food assistance for Women, Infants, and Children (WIC), and children's dental services.

Environmental Health Services

Environmental health services are those services which are organized and operated to protect the health of the general public by monitoring and regulating activities in the environment which may contribute to the occurrence or transmission of disease. Examples of environmental health services include, but are not limited to, food hygiene, safe drinking water supply, public swimming pools, group care facilities, migrant labor camps, toxic material control, radiological health, occupational health, and entomology. These services make up the Environmental Public Health Program. In addition, the Environmental Public Health Program sets standards and conducts inspections to ensure the safety of drinking water, the operation of public swimming pools, and to monitor water quality at selected beaches and public bathing places.

Similar to previous years, the agreement between the County and the Health Department will be developed by the State of Florida Department of Health and then provided to the County by the local health department which is reviewed by the County Attorney prior to execution. Therefore, it is recommended that the Board authorize the County Administrator to enter and execute the agreement with the Health Department, subject to the legal review and revision of the County Attorney, once it is provided to the County.

Fee Schedule

As previously mentioned, the proposed adjustments to the Health Department fee schedule will ensure that the Health Department maintains the current service levels for critical environmental and public health services required by the State as well as provide cost savings for clinical services to Leon County residents. Therefore, the Health Department is requesting fee adjustments, which include increases to inspection fees for food services, drinking water, and group care to be comparable to other counties; the establishment of application fees for all inspections consistent with neighboring counties including Gadsden, Jefferson, Madison, Taylor and Wakulla; additional inspection requirements for pool maintenance to comply with State law; and establishment of fees for the Health Department's new lead inspection program which will start in early 2027 to monitor lead levels in water and buildings.

According to the Health Department, the fee schedule adjustments are necessary following a $300,000 reduction in annual revenue due to state legislative action that transferred the Onsite Sewage Program from the Health Department to DEP. This funding was utilized by the Health Department to support the operating expenses and all aspects of its Environmental Health Services Program.

The fee adjustments will allow the Health Department to continue to provide the current level of service for critical state-mandated public health activities in the community including food safety inspections to prevent foodborne illness; testing and monitoring for unsafe metals in drinking water to prevent severe and chronic health problems, and oversight of biomedical waste disposal to prevent contamination and the spread of infectious diseases. Additionally, collected funds are also used to support primary care and communicable disease control services.

As reflected in the memorandum provided by the Health Department, the proposed fee adjustments to the Leon County Health Department Fee Schedule (Attachment #2) will generate an estimated $300,000 in annual revenue to maintain public health services, which is equivalent to the Health Department's loss of funding from the realignment of the Onsite Sewage Program to DEP.

Further, the proposed fee adjustments will allow the Health Department to reduce out-of-pocket costs for more citizens for clinical services by increasing the income eligibility for patients from 200% to 250% federal poverty level (FPL). The revisions will also update language that will accurately reflect the Health Department's utilization of Medicaid reimbursement rates rather than Medicare reimbursement rates for services.

Florida Statutes requires Board approval of Health Department Fees. Furthermore, Chapter 8, Article I, Section 8-1, Leon County Code of Laws (Attachment #3) authorizes the Board to prescribe a schedule for health department fees by resolution. The amended fee schedule would take effect on October 1, 2026, upon Board adoption of the resolution.

Options:

1. Authorize the County Administrator to approve and execute an agreement with the Department of Health in Leon County for the provision of state-mandated public health services for FY 2027, and all necessary documents related to the implementation of the agreement, and approve and execute any necessary modifications, amendments, or associated agreements thereto, all subject to legal review and revision by the County Attorney.
2. Adopt the resolution amending the Leon County Health Department Fee Schedule (Attachment #1).
3. Do not authorize the County Administrator to approve and execute an agreement with the Department of Health in Leon County for the provision of state-mandated public health services for FY 2027.
4. Do not adopt the resolution amending the Leon County Health Department Fee Schedule.

Subject: Proposed Local Service Fee and Language Changes

The following information is provided in support of proposed adjustments to existing fees and the introduction of new fees within the Department of Health in Leon County (DOH-Leon) Environmental Public Health program. These changes are intended to strengthen the department's ability to sustain and expand essential public health services. The resulting increase in fee revenue will enhance the Department's capacity to fund service growth and meet evolving community needs.

Additionally, we propose updated language for clinic fees to more accurately reflect the Department's reimbursement structure and the application of a sliding fee scale for individuals and families. This approach ensures that fees are aligned with actual service costs while maintaining affordability and access for residents based on their ability to pay.

Environmental Health Facilities Inspection Fee

The Florida Department of Health in Leon County (DOH-Leon) proposes to revise existing fees and implement new fees within its Environmental Public Health Program. These adjustments are necessary to support the continued delivery of essential services and to help the program become more financially self-sustaining following the transfer of the Onsite Sewage Program (OSP) to the Florida Department of Environmental Protection (DEP).

In 2020, the Florida Legislature enacted the Clean Waterways Act (CWA), which initiated the phased transition of OSP responsibilities from county health departments to DEP. Leon County was included in the first phase of this transition, which became effective on December 30, 2024. Historically, DOH-Leon relied on revenue from the OSP to support a broad range of Environmental Public Health activities. With the loss of this funding stream, the department conducted a comprehensive review of its current fee schedule, and the labor required to deliver services in other program areas, including public swimming pools, biomedical waste, food hygiene, group care facilities, limited use water systems, and tattooing.

Based on this assessment, DOH-Leon has determined that fee increases are warranted at this time (see Attachment I). These changes will help offset the revenue loss and ensure the department can continue to meet regulatory responsibilities and community expectations.
Notably, DOH-Leon is the only county in the region—including Wakulla, Taylor, Madison, Jefferson, and Gadsden—that has not established local fees in several key permit categories. This has placed additional strain on staffing and operations. Additional revenue is essential to retain current personnel and maintain a balanced workload. Furthermore, recent legislative changes related to pool maintenance and permitting are expected to increase inspection demands, creating the need for two additional environmental health inspectors.

The proposed fee adjustments are projected to generate approximately $300,000 in annual revenue. While this will not fully replace the funding lost through the OSP transition, it will significantly reduce the gap and support the sustainability of the Environmental Public Health Program.

Clinic Fees Language Change

The Florida Department of Health in Leon County (DOH-Leon) proposes a revision to the clinic fee language to better reflect current operational practices and ensure alignment with the Department's commitment to accessible, affordable care.

Historically, the Department's clinic fee structure has referenced Medicare reimbursement rates. However, this does not accurately represent the financial model used by DOH-Leon. The Department follows Medicaid reimbursement rates, which are more appropriate given the population we serve and the nature of our public health services. Updating the language to reflect this distinction will provide greater transparency and consistency in how fees are determined and communicated.

Additionally, DOH-Leon proposes to increase the maximum income eligibility threshold for sliding fee scale adjustments from 200% to 250% of the Federal Poverty Level (FPL). This change is intended to expand access to care for working individuals and families who may not qualify for full subsidies but still face financial barriers to receiving essential health services. By raising the threshold, we aim to reduce out-of-pocket costs for more residents and promote preventive care utilization.

The revised language will ensure that clinic fees:

- Accurately reflect the Department's use of Medicaid reimbursement rates
- Align with updated eligibility criteria for income-based discounts
- Support equitable access to care for a broader segment of the community

Strikethrough and updated language are provided in the attached document for reference.

Sincerely,

Brandi Knight

Review and Approval:	Vincent S. Long, County Administrator
Department / Division Review:	Ken Morris, Assistant County Administrator Shington Lamy, Assistant County Administrator Abigail Thomas, Director, Office of Human Services & Community Partnerships
Lead Staff / Project Team:	Shauna Houston, Healthcare Services Coordinator

Statement of Issue:

As requested by the County's primary healthcare partners, this item seeks Board approval to allow Bond Community Health Center, Inc., Neighborhood Medical Center Inc., and Apalachee Center, Inc., to utilize funding already budgeted in the County's FY 2027 tentative budget as the required local match to draw down federal Low Income Pool funding.

Fiscal Impact:

This item has a fiscal impact. Bond Community Health Center, Inc. is requesting up to $158,647 and Neighborhood Medical Center Inc. is requesting up to $158,156 in local match funding ($316,803 in total), which is available in the County's FY 2027 tentative budget for the Leon County Health Care Program Competitive Provider Reimbursement Pool. Apalachee Center, Inc., is requesting a local match for up to $471,834, which is available in the County's FY 2027 tentative budget for Baker and Marchman Acts funds. The local funding match is required to allow the providers to leverage an estimated $994,513 in Low-Income Pool funds from the State of Florida Agency for Health Care Administration.

Staff Recommendation:

Option #1: Approve up to $316,803 in Health Care Competitive Provider Reimbursement Pool funding as a local match for the Low-Income Pool funding for Bond Community Health Center, Inc., in the amount of up to $158,647, and Neighborhood Medical Center Inc., in the amount of up to $158,156.

Option #2: Approve up to $471,834 in Baker Act and Marchman Act funding as a local match for the Low-Income Pool funding for Apalachee Center, Inc.

Option #3: Authorize the County Administrator to execute all necessary documents related to the implementation of the Low-Income Pool funding, and approve and execute any necessary modifications, amendments, or associated agreements, all subject to legal review and revision by the County Attorney.

Report and Discussion

Background:

As requested by the County's healthcare partners, this item seeks Board approval to allow Bond Community Health Center, Inc., (Bond) Neighborhood Medical Center Inc., (NMC) and Apalachee Center, Inc., (Apalachee) to utilize funding already budgeted in the County's FY 2027 tentative budget as required local match to draw down federal Low-Income Pool (LIP) funding. The FY 2027 tentative budget has allocated funding that can be utilized for the local match through the Health Care Program Competitive Provider Reimbursement Pool (Health Care Pool) for Bond and NMC and through Baker and Marchman Acts funds for Apalachee. Leon County's collective local match of $788,637 will secure an additional $994,513 for uninsured and underinsured County residents for primary health and mental health services.

This item advances the following FY 2022 – FY 2026 Strategic Initiative:

- Continue County support of primary healthcare through participation in Carenet in order to increase access to affordable healthcare for those in need. (2022-24)

This particular Strategic Initiative aligns with the Board's Quality of Life Strategic Priority:

- (Q4) Support and promote access to basic healthcare, mental health, affordable housing, and homeless prevention services to our community members most in need.

In Florida, the LIP program provides federal funds to healthcare safety net providers for the costs of care to uninsured and underinsured patients. These funds are available to hospitals, rural health clinics, and federally qualified health centers (FQHCs) like Bond and NMC and behavioral health service providers like Apalachee. In order for health care agencies to receive LIP funding from AHCA, a local match is required. The local match is transferred to the Agency for Health Care Administration (AHCA), and AHCA subsequently distributes the LIP funding and local matches to the health care agencies. To leverage the County's investment and commitment to increasing access to affordable healthcare to residents, the County has consistently provided the required local match on behalf of Bond, NMC, and Apalachee.

During FY 2026, the County allocated a total of $753,290 as the required local match for Bond, NMC, and Apalachee to leverage an additional $1,005,599 in federal funds to provide primary health care and behavioral health services to uninsured and low-income Leon County residents. In August 2026, Apalachee, Bond, and NMC, respectively, requested that the County provide a local match to draw down LIP funding for FY 2027 (Attachments #1, #2, and #3).

Analysis:

AHCA determines the amount of LIP funds available for each healthcare provider based on a formula that includes the amount of uninsured costs incurred by the agency's charity care and the percentage of its privately insured patient care costs. Thus, the LIP funding amount and required local match fluctuates annually. Apalachee, Bond, and NMC are each eligible for Florida's FY 2027 LIP funds as reflected in Table #1. Leon County's collective local match of up to $788,637 will secure up to an additional $994,513 for uninsured County residents for primary and mental health care for a combined total of up to $1,783,150.

Table #1: FY 2027 LIP Funding

Health Care Provider	County Match	AHCA LIP Funds	Total Funds Available for Health Care Services
Bond Community Health Center, Inc.	$158,647	$197,303	$355,950
Neighborhood Medical Center Inc.	$158,156	$196,693	$354,849
Apalachee Center, Inc.	$471,834	$600,517	$1,072,351
Total	$788,637	$994,513	$1,783,150

Each health care provider receives their respective total allocation (local match and LIP funds) directly from AHCA. Upon approval by the Board, the County submits a letter of commitment to AHCA to affirm the County's intent to provide local match funding for each provider. Upon receipt of the letter of commitment, AHCA sends a Letter of Agreement to the County that must be executed before the distribution of funding. Once the Letter of Agreement is executed, the County will transfer the local match to AHCA. When AHCA receives the County funds, AHCA will provide the total allocation, including LIP funds and the local match, to each health care provider.

Similar to previous years, the County's Health Care Pool would be utilized for the local match for Bond and NMC. The County contracts annually with Bond and NMC to provide primary healthcare services to uninsured and indigent residents. Per the agreements, each provider is reimbursed for each healthcare patient visit through the Health Care Pool. Upon adoption of the FY 2027 budget, up to $316,803 of the Health Care Pool would be utilized for the Bond ($158,647) and NMC's ($158,156) required local matches. The FY 2027 agreements with Bond and NMC would stipulate that the funding provided as the LIP match will be treated as advance funding from the Health Care Pool and the respective providers would be required to report visits equivalent to the LIP match prior to any further reimbursements.

The County's Baker Act and Marchman Act funding would be utilized as the local match for Apalachee. Florida Statutes, under the Baker Act and Marchman Act, require the County to fund and contract with Apalachee to provide alcohol and drug detoxification and crisis stabilization services to uninsured County residents. Upon adoption of the FY 2027 budget, up to $471,834 of the funds allocated for Baker Act and Marchman Act services would be used as the local match for Apalachee. The FY 2027 Baker and Marchman Acts Agreement with Apalachee will reflect that a portion of the funds will be provided for the LIP match.

The FY 2027 annual contracts with Bond, NMC, and Apalachee will be presented at a subsequent Board meeting and will include the LIP matching requirements approved by the Board. As previously mentioned, before each health care provider receives their total allocation, a letter of agreement and intergovernmental transfer must be executed between the County and AHCA. Once the letters of agreement are executed with AHCA for each health care provider, the County will transfer its matching funds through invoice to AHCA. After these actions, AHCA will transfer the matching funds along with the LIP funds to the three healthcare providers.

Options:

1. Approve up to $316,803 in Health Care Competitive Provider Reimbursement Pool funding as a local match for the Low-Income Pool funding for Bond Community Health Center, Inc., in the amount of up to $158,647, and Neighborhood Medical Center Inc., in the amount of up to $158,156.
2. Approve up to $471,834 in Baker Act and Marchman Act funding as a local match for the Low-Income Pool funding for Apalachee Center, Inc.
3. Authorize the County Administrator to approve and execute all necessary documents related to the implementation of the Low-Income Pool funding, and any modifications, amendments, or associated agreements, all subject to legal review and revision by the County Attorney.
4. Do not approve up to $316,803 in Health Care Competitive Pool Reimbursement Pool funding as a local match for the Low-Income Pool funding for Bond Community Health Center, Inc., and Neighborhood Medical Center Inc.
5. Do not approve up to $471,834 in Baker and Marchman Acts funding as a local match for the Low-Income Pool funding for Apalachee Center, Inc.

Re: Budget Request for Low Income Pool Funding

To Whom It May Concern:

Apalachee Center, Inc. would like to request Low Income Pool match funding in the amount of $471,834 for the 26/27 fiscal year. This request will not require any additional dollars from the county as the annual Baker/Marchman act funding of $829,598 will be split with the $471,834 being paid directly to ACHA in the name of Apalachee Center and the remaining $357,764 being paid directly to Apalachee Center. This match funding will allow the agency to bring in an additional $600,517 of Medicaid dollars into the community to provide mental health services to uninsured patients.

Abigail Sanders, Director

Mrs. Sanders,

Neighborhood Medical Center (NMC) is a Federally Qualified Health Center in Tallahassee, Florida that provides primary care, maternal health, dental services, case management and mental health services to the residents of the Big Bend Area. NMC has a very productive and collaborative relationship with the Leon County Board of County Commissioners and because of this continued partnership, NMC is asking for continued commitment of providing IGT/local match funds to leverage Low Income Pool Funding through the Agency for Health Care Administration. A commitment of $158,156.00 will allow NMC to draw down a total of $354,849.00 to further our mission of primary care services.

The Low-Income Pool (LIP) is a program operated under Florida's 1115 Medicaid Waiver to ensure continuing support for the safety net providers that furnish uncompensated care to the Medicaid, uninsured and underinsured populations. LIP provides local governments the opportunity to leverage funds to draw down additional matching dollars, which results in even greater resources provided for uncompensated care. Florida's Agency for Health Care Administration oversees the Low-Income Pool and coordinates between local entities, providers, and CMS in securing letters of agreement, invoices, and distribution of funds.

These funds demonstrate a partnership aimed at increasing access to, stabilizing, and strengthening providers that serve uninsured, low-income populations in the community. Neighborhood Medical Center appreciates your continued partnership to help us care for our most vulnerable residents of Leon County. Thank you for your consideration in this matter. Please feel free to contact me if you need any further information.

Title: Community Human Services Partnership Fiscal Year 2027 Agency Funding

Review and Approval:	Vincent S. Long, County Administrator
Department / Division Review:	Ken Morris, Assistant County Administrator Shington Lamy, Assistant County Administrator
Lead Staff / Project Team:	Abigail Thomas, Director, Office of Human Services and Community Partnerships Jackie Fortmann, Human Services Analyst

Statement of Issue:

This item seeks Board approval of the Fiscal Year (FY) 2027 Community Human Services Partnership grant recommendations to local not-for-profit agencies in the amount of $1,445,000. The allocation represents year one of the two-year funding cycle and includes line-item funding in the Homeless Services category for emergency homeless shelters.

Fiscal Impact:

This item has a fiscal impact. A total of $1,445,000 is recommended to be awarded to the service agencies through the Community Human Services Partnership grants and is included in the FY 2027 Tentative Budget.

Staff Recommendation:

Option #1: Approve the FY 2027 funding allocation of $1,445,000 to the Community Human Service Partnership agencies and emergency homeless shelters (Attachment #1).

Option #2: Authorize the County Administrator to approve and execute the agreements and any necessary modifications, amendments, or associated agreements for FY 2027, with the Community Human Service Partnership funded agencies and emergency homeless shelters, all subject to legal review and revision by the County Attorney.

Report and Discussion

Background:

This item seeks Board approval of the Fiscal Year (FY) 2027 Community Human Services Partnership grant recommendations to local not-for-profit agencies in the amount of $1,445,000. The allocation represents year one of the two-year funding cycle and includes line-item funding in the Homeless Services category for emergency homeless shelters.

This status report advances the following FY 2022 – FY 2026 Strategic Initiative:

- Establish and implement line-item funding for local emergency homeless shelters in coordination and collaboration with community stakeholders including the City of Tallahassee and Children's Services Council of Leon County. (2024-72)

This particular Strategic Initiative aligns with the Board's Quality of Life Strategic Priority:

- (Q4) Support and promote access to basic healthcare, mental health, affordable housing, and homeless prevention services to our community members most in need.

For nearly 30 years, the County and the City of Tallahassee (City) have partnered to plan, coordinate, and invest in human services needs through CHSP which utilizes a competitive grant process to fund human services programs delivered by local not-for-profit organizations. Over the past several years, the County, in partnership with the City, has made improvements to CHSP to better address evolving community needs such as the adoption of uniform outcome measures, and the establishment of a Homeless Services Category. Further, the Board established line-item funding for the emergency homeless shelters in partnership with the City through CHSP to reduce the number of individuals and families experiencing homelessness in the community and provide greater local oversight of the shelters policies and operations.

On March 10, 2026, the Board maintained the level of funding for CHSP in the amount of $1,445,000 for FY 2027. FY 2027 represents the first year of the upcoming two-year CHSP funding cycle (FY 2027 and FY 2028). Further, at the April 14, 2026, meeting, the Board ratified the membership of the Citizen Review Teams (CRTs) which are comprised of Leon County residents that evaluate agency CHSP applications and make funding recommendations for the County and City Commissions' considerations.

The following Analysis section provides a summary of the programs and services recommended for funding by the CRTs for CHSP funding for the upcoming two-year funding cycle as well as a summary of the line-item funding provided by the County and City through CHSP for the emergency homeless shelters to reduce homelessness in the community.

Analysis:

FY 2027 CHSP Funding

For FY 2027, the funding allocation to CHSP agencies will total $4.8 million in County and City funding to address the needs of the community ($1,445,000 County). This total funding includes $1.1 million split equally by the County and City to the emergency homeless shelters through line-item funding.

CHSP funding is organized into 12 human services categories reflected in Table #1. One CRT is assigned to each human service category to evaluate agency applications, review agency presentations and make funding recommendations.

Table #1: CHSP Funding Categories

1. Children's Services	2. Community Support
3. Persons with Disabilities	4. Basic Needs and Emergency Services
5. Family Support Services	6. Physical Health Services
7. Senior Services	8. Youth Recreation, Character Building & Mentorship
9. Youth Education, Employment & Training	10. Promise Zone
11. Homeless Services	12. Gun Violence (City-funded Only)

As recommended by the CRTs, CHSP funds will support 44 agencies that provide a total of 78 human services programs for direct services such as food, legal aid, and disaster preparedness. Funds provided by the County and City are distributed across the 12 human services funding categories. Although CHSP utilizes a two-year funding cycle, the agreements with agencies are for one year to align with the Board's consideration of the CHSP funding allocations each fiscal year.

This item proposes funding for the first year of the two-year funding cycle (FY 2027). However, as previously reported to the Board, the Florida Legislature placed on the November ballot a constitutional amendment on property tax that would significantly reduce County revenue beginning in FY 2028. As a result, this could impact the second year of the two-year CHSP funding cycle.

Given the magnitude of the potential revenue reduction that would result from passage of the property tax amendment, staff has begun the systematic process of gathering and evaluating all of the financial, service level, and organizational information necessary to help guide the Board's decision making on the financial and organizational restructuring of County government. Based on the outcome of the property tax referendum, a FY 2028 budget calendar will be presented to the Board for adoption at the November regular meeting. The Board's decision-making process to mitigate the anticipated revenue loss would begin with the Board's annual retreat in January, followed by budget workshops, as necessary, so the Board can provide guidance to staff early in the FY 2028 budget development process on programs and services including CHSP.

Line-Item Funding Agreements with Emergency Homeless Shelters

As previously mentioned, through CHSP the County and City provide line-item funding for shelter operations and case management to the five local emergency homeless shelters in coordination with the Children Services Council of Leon County (CSC Leon). Emergency homeless shelters provide immediate, short-term shelter for individuals and families experiencing homelessness. In addition to housing, the shelters provide meals, showers, and case management to their clients 24 hours a day, seven days a week.

As reflected in Attachment #1, a total of $559,130 in County funding would continue to be utilized to support more than 500 beds at the five emergency homeless shelters. Line-item funding helps ensure that these critical emergency shelter services remain available to individuals and families experiencing homelessness throughout the community. In addition to County funding, the City and CSC Leon have allocated $559,130 and $500,000 respectively, resulting in $1,618,260 total provided to the five emergency homeless shelters. However, CSC Leon does not provide funding to the Kearney Center because it does not provide services for children.

As part of line-item funding, greater oversight of the emergency shelters has been established in coordination with the City, CSC Leon, and the Big Bend Continuum of Care (BBCoC). This includes requirements to enhance their respective operations, policies, and procedures, better engage with unsheltered individuals and families to reduce loitering and homeless encampments; and secure permanent housing for existing shelter clients. As part of these efforts, the unsheltered homeless population decreased from 215 in 2025, to 189 in 2026, according to the annual Point in Time count conducted in January 2026, which is down from a high of 269 in January 2023, prior to line-item funding for emergency homeless shelters. Further, so far in FY 2026, the emergency shelters have connected over 430 clients with permanent housing.

Additionally, to ensure the community is aware of the emergency shelters and available services, the shelters coordinate with hospitals, schools, and other human services. In addition, homeless outreach street teams connect individuals and families who may be living outside or in cars with the emergency homeless shelters to access extensive services, such as case management, to help stabilize individuals and families and eventually connect clients with permanent housing.

Upon Board approval of the FY 2027 allocation, staff will prepare the respective agreements with agencies allocated County funding as reflected in Attachment #1. The agreements will include program descriptions, performance metrics, and reimbursement requirements, and will undergo legal review by the County Attorney's Office and be executed by the County Administrator.

Review and Approval:	Vincent S. Long, County Administrator
Department / Division Review:	Ken Morris, Assistant County Administrator Shington Lamy, Assistant County Administrator Abigail Thomas, Director, Human Services & Community Partnerships
Lead Staff / Project Team:	Jelani Marks, Housing Services Manager

Statement of Issue:

As required by Florida Statutes, this item seeks Board approval of amendments to two Leon County State Housing Initiatives Partnership Local Housing Assistance Plans (previous and current) to establish a new program that will provide relocation and rent lot assistance to income-eligible residents of manufactured homes (i.e., mobile homes). In addition, this item also proposes revisions to the County's existing affordable housing strategies to facilitate greater use of manufactured housing, as allowed by Florida Statutes.

Fiscal Impact:

This item has a fiscal impact. The State Housing Initiatives Partnership (SHIP) is the dedicated and primary funding source for the County's Housing Program and would be utilized to implement the new program and expand existing programs to manufactured home residents and owners.

Staff Recommendations:

Option #1: Adopt the Resolution approving the revised FY 2024 – FY 2026 Leon County State Housing Initiatives Partnership Local Housing Assistance Plan (Attachment #1).

Option #2: Adopt the Resolution approving the revised FY 2027 – FY 2029 Leon County State Housing Initiatives Partnership Local Housing Assistance Plan (Attachment #2).

Report and Discussion

Background:

As required by Florida Statutes, this item seeks Board approval of amendments to the Leon County State Housing Initiatives Partnership Local Housing Assistance Plan (SHIP-LHAP) to establish a new program that will provide relocation and rent lot assistance to income-eligible residents of manufactured homes (i.e., mobile homes). In addition, as recently enacted by the Florida Legislature, this item proposes revisions to the County's existing affordable housing programs to expand assistance to residents of manufactured homes as authorized by Florida Statutes.

The proposed revisions to the County's SHIP-LHAP advance the following FY 2022 – FY 2026 Strategic Initiatives:

- Work with the City of Tallahassee on the development and implementation of the Neighborhood First Program to engage residents and develop plans to address poverty and inequity in targeted neighborhoods including 32304. (2022-33)
- Continue to leverage County funding in partnership with local stakeholders to secure state and federal funding to build affordable rental housing for very low- and low-income families. (2023-61)

These Strategic Initiatives align with the Board's Quality of Life Strategic Priority:

- (Q4) Support and promote access to basic healthcare, mental health, affordable housing, and homeless prevention services to our community members most in need.

SHIP is the dedicated and primary funding source of the County's Housing Programs which include Down Payment Assistance, Rental Development, Emergency Home Repair, Home Rehabilitation, Home Replacement, Disaster Recovery and Homeownership Development. The SHIP Program is funded by the Florida Legislature and administered by the Florida Housing Finance Corporation (FHFC) based on local jurisdiction population size. Per Florida Statutes, in order to participate in SHIP, local governments must maintain an LHAP, which serves as Board policy governing the provision of SHIP funded affordable housing programs. Per the FHFC, a SHIP-LHAP generally covers three fiscal years. The Board recently approved the adoption of the County's SHIP-LHAP for FY 2027 – FY 2029 in April 2026.

During the 2026 session, the Florida Legislature enacted Chapter 2026-173, Laws of Florida (also known as Senate Bill 594), which amended Sections 420.9072 and 420.9075, Florida Statutes, to require local governments receiving SHIP funds to adopt a program in their LHAPs to provide lot rental assistance to owners of manufactured homes, and temporary relocation assistance to households affected by mobile home park closures. According to the FHFC, local governments are required to adopt the new program in their respective SHIP-LHAPs by October 2026. The revisions to Section 420.9075, Florida Statutes, repealed a previous limitation to the amount of SHIP funds that local governments can spend on manufactured housing. As detailed in the Analysis section, the proposed revisions to the County's SHIP-LHAPs will address requirements recently adopted by the Florida Legislature and will allow the County to expand housing assistance to residents of manufactured homes for services such as home rehabilitation, down payment assistance, and rental development.

Analysis:

Leon County is committed to growing and preserving the stock of affordable housing in the community. Utilizing its annual SHIP allocations, the County consistently works to increase the stock of affordable housing through the development of new homes, rental units, and down payment assistance to new homeowners, as well as preserving homes of low-income families through home rehabilitation and replacements.

Traditionally, Florida Statutes has limited the ability of local governments to invest in manufactured homes with SHIP funds due to concerns of the quality and longevity of such housing products. However, according to FHFC, updates to the Florida Building Code have improved quality, safety and resiliency of manufactured homes. As a result, during the 2026 legislative session the Legislature enacted Chapter 2026-173, Laws of Florida, which expands the use of SHIP funds to assist residents of manufactured homes through new programs focused on relocation and rent lot assistance as well as existing housing programs such as home rehabilitation and down payment assistance.

These recommendations will expand assistance to residents, including seniors, who have not previously been eligible for County programs due to the funding restrictions on manufactured homes. In order to address the demand for services by manufactured homeowners, the County has been supportive of changes to SHIP, and it is recommended that the Board approve the updates to the SHIP-LHAP.

Manufactured Housing Assistance Program

Section 420.9075, Florida Statutes, as amended by Chapter 2026-173, Laws of Florida, requires every local government receiving SHIP funding to add a program to address manufactured housing to their LHAP, including relocation assistance for owners/tenants who have been evicted due to a closure of a mobile home park, as well as lot rent assistance to owners of manufactured housing.

In order to meet this requirement, two of the County's SHIP-LHAPs (for years of FY 2024 – FY 2026 and FY 2027 – FY 2029) are recommended to be revised to establish the Manufactured Housing Assistance Program (Program). As proposed, and consistent with Florida Statutes, the Program would provide up to $10,000 in relocation assistance for owners or tenants that have recently been evicted due to a mobile home park closure, or up to $5,000 (not to exceed six months) of lot rental assistance for owners of manufactured homes that have been installed on rented parcels of land. The Program would serve low-income households, at or below 80% of the area median income (AMI), residing in Unincorporated Leon County. In accordance with Section 420.9075, Florida Statutes, as amended by Chapter 2026-173, Laws of Florida, the City of Tallahassee will also provide a similar program for eligible residents within its jurisdiction.

The addition of the Program in the County's SHIP-LHAPs are based on policy guidance provided by the FHC and has been preliminarily approved by FHFC. Applications for the County's Manufactured Housing Assistance Program would be received via the Division of Housing Services webpage, and funds would be awarded to income eligible households as a grant.

Expansion of County Housing Program for Manufactured Home Residents

In addition to establishing the Manufactured Housing Assistance Program, this item also recommends amendments to several of the existing programs in the County's SHIP-LHAPs, in order to expand services to residents of manufactured homes. Prior to the enactment of Chapter 2026-173, Laws of Florida, local governments were limited to expending no more than 20 percent of their annual SHIP allocations on manufactured housing units. However, Chapter 2026-173, Laws of Florida, eliminated the limit on SHIP funding for manufactured homes. As a result, the following existing programs would be updated in the SHIP-LHAP to assist eligible residents of manufactured homes.

- Home Rehabilitation Programs: The County's comprehensive Home Rehabilitation Program covers major repairs including full home replacement for health, safety, resiliency, insurability, and code compliance. Currently, the County's SHIP-LHAPs require that only site-built units can be constructed through the Home Replacement Program. The recommended changes to the County's Home Rehabilitation Program would allow eligible dilapidated manufactured homes to be replaced with brand new manufactured units, rather than requiring eligible manufactured homes to be replaced with site-built units.

- First-Time Homebuyer Programs:
    - The Down Payment Assistance Program provides low- to moderate-income first-time homebuyers with financial assistance for down payment and closing costs associated with the purchase of a home in unincorporated Leon County.
    - The Homeownership Development (HOD) Program awards funding to developers to pay down the development costs associated with the construction of housing units and reduces the purchase cost to low-income first-time homebuyers. The recommended changes to the County's first-time homebuyer programs would allow manufactured homes to be purchased with County SHIP funds through the Down Payment Assistance or HOD Programs, as long as the units are brand new and installed on parcels that are either owned by the buyer, or part of the Tallahassee-Leon County Community Land Trust (CLT). The CLT was established by the County and City through the Tallahassee Lenders' Consortium to construct new single and multifamily homes for low-income households that will remain affordable in perpetuity.

- Rental Development Program: The County's Rental Development Program provides gap financing (funding required to complete a project) to developers to build new affordable rental units for low, very low, and extremely low-income renters. The recommended changes to the County's SHIP-LHAPs include revising the Rental Development Program guidelines to allow the County to award SHIP funding for the purchase and installation of manufactured homes for low, very low and extremely-low-income renters.

In order to effectuate the new Manufactured Housing Assistance Program and the proposed changes to the existing programs highlighted above, the County's SHIP-LHAPs must be amended. This would include the FY 2024 – FY 2026 SHIP-LHAP and the FY 2027 – FY 2029 SHIP-LHAP to ensure current SHIP funds and remaining SHIP funds from previous fiscal years can be utilized to assist residents of manufactured homes (Attachments #1 and #2). The amendments to the two SHIP-LHAPs would be implemented upon the adoption of the resolutions by the Board and those proposed revisions are displayed in the draft versions attached to this item (Attachments #3 and #4). According to FHFC, local governments are required to adopt the new programs in their respective SHIP-LHAPs by October 2026. The proposed revisions have been preliminarily approved by FHFC.

Outreach

Following Board approval, the Division of Housing Services will promote the updates to the County's Housing Program to the public utilizing the County's website and during the annual housing workshops. The workshops are held each fall to provide citizens with information on the available programs, eligibility requirements, and application process. These workshops are publicly noticed in the local newspapers (Tallahassee Democrat and Capital Outlook) with information about the available programs and how to sign up for the workshops. In addition, staff will reach out directly to individuals and families on the housing waitlist to ensure they are aware of the changes to the County's Housing Program and to sign up for a workshop. The Division of Housing Services is also coordinating with local organizations, including the Tallahassee Lenders' Consortium, Legal Services of North Florida, housing developers, and lenders to promote the expansion of the County's Housing Program to residents of manufactured homes.

K. Support Services and Counseling: Support and counseling services are available from various sources in the community. The County will provide Homeownership Counseling (Pre and Post), Credit Counseling, Tenant Counseling, and Foreclosure Counseling through referral to qualified HUD approved agencies, which includes, but is not limited to, Tallahassee Lenders' Consortium. The County will provide title clearing and estate planning services through referral to qualified legal aid agencies.

L. Purchase Price Limits: The sales price or value of new or existing eligible housing may not exceed 90% of the average area purchase price in the statistical area in which the eligible housing is located. Such average area purchase price may be that calculated for any 12-month period beginning not earlier than the fourth calendar year prior to the year in which the award occurs. The methodology used is:

U.S. Treasury Department	X
Local HFA Numbers

M. Income Limits, Rent Limits and Affordability: The Income and Rent Limits used in the SHIP Program are updated annually by the Department of Housing and Urban Development and posted at www.floridahousing.org.

"Affordable" means that monthly rents or mortgage payments including taxes and insurance do not exceed 30 percent of that amount which represents the percentage of the median annual gross income for the households as indicated in Sections 420.9071, Florida Statutes. However, it is not the intent to limit an individual household's ability to devote more than 30% of its income for housing, and housing for which a household devotes more than 30% of its income shall be deemed Affordable if the first institutional mortgage lender is satisfied that the household can afford mortgage payments in excess of the 30% benchmark and in the case of rental housing does not exceed those rental limits adjusted for bedroom size.

N. Welfare Transition Program: Should an eligible sponsor be used, a qualification system and selection criteria for applications for Awards to eligible sponsors shall be developed, which includes a description that demonstrates how eligible sponsors that employ personnel from the Welfare Transition Program will be given preference in the selection process.

O. Monitoring and First Right of Refusal: In the case of rental housing, the staff and any entity that has administrative authority for implementing the local housing assistance plan assisting rental developments shall annually monitor and determine tenant eligibility or, to the extent another governmental entity provides periodic monitoring and determination, a municipality, county or local housing financing authority may rely on such monitoring and determination of tenant eligibility. However, any loan or grant in the original amount of $10,000 or less shall not be subject to these annual monitoring and determination of tenant eligibility requirements. Tenant eligibility will be monitored annually for no less than 15 years or the term of assistance whichever is longer, when required as specified above.

Eligible sponsors that offer rental housing for sale before 15 years or that have remaining mortgages funded under this program must give a first right of refusal to eligible non-profit organizations for purchase at the current market value for continued occupancy by eligible persons.

P. Administrative Budget: A line-item budget of proposed Administrative Expenditures is attached as Exhibit A. Leon County finds that the moneys deposited in the local housing assistance trust fund are necessary to administer and implement the local housing assistance plan.

Section 420.9075(7), Florida Statutes states: "A county or an eligible municipality may not exceed the 5 percent limitation on administrative costs, unless its governing body finds, by resolution, that 5 percent of the local housing distribution plus 5 percent of program income is insufficient to adequately pay the necessary costs of administering the local housing assistance plan."

Section 420.9075(7) Florida Statutes further states: "The cost of administering the program may not exceed 10 percent of the local housing distribution plus 5 percent of program income deposited into the trust fund, except that small counties, as defined in s. 120.52(19), and eligible municipalities receiving a local housing distribution of up to $350,000 may use up to 10 percent of program income for administrative costs."

The applicable local jurisdiction has adopted the above findings in the resolution attached as Exhibit E.

Q. Program Administration: Administration of the local housing assistance plan will be performed by:

Entity	Duties	Admin. Fee Percentage
Local Government	All Strategies Other than Down Payment Assistance	8%
Third Party Entity/Sub-recipient	Down Payment Assistance Program Strategies	2%

R. First-time Homebuyer Definition: For any strategies designed for first-time homebuyers, the following definition will apply: An individual who has had no ownership in a principal residence during the 3-year period ending on the date of purchase of the property. This includes a spouse (if either meets the above test, they are considered first-time homebuyers). A single parent who has only owned a home with a former spouse while married. An individual who is a displaced homemaker and has only owned with a spouse. An individual who has only owned a principal residence not permanently affixed to a permanent foundation in accordance with applicable regulations. An individual who has only owned a property that was not in compliance with state, local or model building codes and which cannot be brought into compliance for less than the cost of constructing a permanent structure.

S. Project Delivery Costs: The County will charge a reasonable project delivery cost that will not exceed three percent (3%) of the contracted SHIP award and will be included in the amount of the recorded mortgage and note.

1. Title Search
2. Recordation Fee
3. The County will utilize a contractor to assess the appropriate level of housing rehabilitation necessary to improve accessibility and enhance independence for participating households having special needs.
4. The County may utilize a contractor to assess home(s) and provide a professional Home Inspection Report to be used to generate a scope of work.
5. To determine post-Home Replacement or post-Home Rehabilitation (when livable square footage is added to the home), the County may:
    i. contract with a Real Estate Agent/Realtor to provide a Broker Price Opinion and/or
    ii. contract with a Certified Residential Appraiser to provide an appraisal.

T. Essential Service Personnel Definition (ESP): ESP includes teachers and educators, other school district, community college, and university employees, police and fire personnel, health care personnel, skilled building trades personnel and active U.S. Armed Forces Service Members.

The County will utilize a contractor to identify ways to improve the accessibility of homes and enhance independence for participating households having special needs through the Home Rehabilitation and Home Replacement program strategies.

W. Describe efforts to reduce homelessness: The County will collaborate with the Big Bend Continuum of Care and other agencies serving the target population to assist in rapid rehousing and to prevent homelessness primarily through the Rental Subsidy program strategy, the Leon County Direct Emergency Assistance Program (DEAP) and the Leon County Veteran Emergency Assistance Program (VEAP). Section III. LHAP Incentive Strategies

In addition to the required Incentive Strategy A and Strategy B, include all adopted incentives with the policies and procedures used for implementation as provided in Section 420.9076, Florida Statutes.:

A. Expedited Permitting

Permits as defined in Section 163.3177(6)(f)(3), Florida Statutes, for affordable housing projects are expedited to a greater degree than other projects.

The procedures used to implement this strategy are as follows:

- Leon County expedites permitting of affordable housing projects by administrative direction, close coordination and teamwork. Specific processes that have been established include:

1) Using pre-permitting review to determine project status, identify and resolve potential legal problems that might preempt permitting, and otherwise expedite affordable housing.
2) Obtain assistance and cross-training from Building Inspection with the initial inspection of rehabilitation projects to ensure all code compliance issues are addressed in write-ups and permit applications. This expedites plan review and minimizes changes that delay permitting and project completion.
3) The Director of the Office of Human Services & Community Partnerships and the staff are the designated liaisons with the Affordable Housing Program and assists with the resolution of difficult permitting issues.

These processes will promote a reduction in building permitting time for affordable housing projects by 50% from the average of ten (10) days to an average of five (5) days.

B. Ongoing Review Process

An ongoing process for review of local policies, ordinances, regulations and plan provisions that increase the cost of housing prior to their adoption.

The procedures used to implement this strategy:

- By administrative direction, all Local Comprehensive Plan and Land Development Regulations (LDR) with the potential to impact the cost of affordable housing are referred to the Leon County Division of Housing Services. Any of these Plan or LDR amendments potentially affecting affordable housing costs can be brought up to a meeting of the Department of Development Support and Environmental Management, the Planning Department, and the Division of Housing Services for modification and transmittal to the Board of County Commissioners or other appropriate review or approval entities.

C. Flexibility in Densities

The allowance of flexibility in densities for affordable housing.

The procedures used to implement this strategy:

- The Land Development Code (LDC) provides incentives for affordable housing regarding the required review level. For example, projects with 50% or more affordable housing units can have their review threshold increased by 50% thereby potentially allowing a lower review level leading to potentially lower permitting costs. [Section 10-7.402(4)(h) of the LDC]

D. Modification of Impact Fee Requirements

The modification of impact-fee requirements, including reduction or waiver of fees and alternative methods of fee payment for affordable housing.

The procedures used to implement this strategy:

- The County eliminated its transportation impact fee in 1995; therefore, housing developers do not pay any county impact fees. The Public Works Department supports affordable housing by waiving landfill dumping (tipping) fees for disposal of construction debris by the County's affordable housing contractors.

E. Allowance of Accessory Dwelling Units

The allowance of affordable accessory residential units in residential zoning districts.

The procedures used to implement this strategy:

- The LDC allows accessory dwelling units in conjunction with the following principal structures: single-family detached dwellings; retail establishments; offices; and principal industrial structures. [Section 10-6.803(b) of the LDC]

F. Inventory of Public Lands Suitable for Affordable Housing

The preparation of a printed inventory of locally owned public lands suitable for affordable housing.

The procedures used to implement this strategy:

- County staff prepares, and makes available to the public, a printable inventory of County-owned lands suitable for affordable housing.

EXHIBIT F
Community Land Trust Additional Instructions and Information

General Standards for Community Land Trusts

To qualify, homes must be purchased from a County-approved community land trust (CLT). The CLT will execute a 99-year ground lease with the homebuyer. A memorandum of that ground lease is recorded in the public records immediately following the deed. The terms of the ground lease restrict the resale of the property to an income eligible household and provide a right of repurchase to the CLT in the event of default. The CLT must approve the subsequent homebuyer. In the event of a default, the CLT must notify the County whether it intends to exercise its right of repurchase. In the event the CLT is not willing or able to exercise its right of repurchase, it shall transfer its right of repurchase to County, giving County the right, but not the obligation to purchase the property.

The assistance shall be treated as a development cost pay-down to further reduce the sales price to the homebuyer. The assistance amount shall be excluded from the Base Price and Formula Price as defined in the ground lease. The balance of the assistance must be included in the Purchase Option Price as defined in the ground lease to repay the funds to the County in the event of default.

Down Payment Assistance for Homes in a Community Land Trust

If the maximum subsidy was not provided to the first homebuyer, the County may provide additional assistance to a subsequent buyer to ensure that the property remains affordable, up to the amount of the maximum subsidy allowable at the time of subsequent purchase minus the original subsidy amount provided to the first homebuyer. Any additional SHIP investment will extend the original loan term. At the end of the loan term, the loan will be forgiven, and the lien released. However, the CLT ground lease will remain in effect and the requirements for residency, resale price, and subsequent buyer's income eligibility will continue. The CLT may request satisfaction of a loan and release of the lien during the term of the loan on behalf of a homeowner or seller, and under certain defined circumstances, with approval granted by the County on a case-by-case basis.

Sale of Community Land Trust Homes

When selling a CLT home, the seller must notify the CLT. The CLT will then enter into a purchase and sale agreement with the seller, that will get assigned to the subsequent homebuyer. The Purchase Option Price for the CLT will be calculated as follows:

Purchase Option Price = Formula Price + Payoff Amount of Deferred Payment Loans

The Formula Price is calculated using a Base Price calculated by subtracting the amount of all SHIP subsidies from the purchase price. For example:

Purchase Price:	$185,000
MINUS Assistance Provided (maximum):	- $55,000
EQUALS Base Price (sales price) for first buyer:	$130,000

Base price is the amount the buyer would need to finance (plus transaction costs) and is used to calculate the Formula Price in the ground lease.

Suppose the Formula (re-sale) Price in the ground lease is calculated by a 1% annual increase to the Base Price, compounded. Suppose the home is sold after 5 years. To calculate the Purchase Option Price (price that will go in the purchase and sale agreement between the CLT and the seller), first calculate the Formula Price:

Formula Price = Base Price x Compound Rate

Calculated as follows:

Year 1 = $130,100 x 1.01 = $131,300
Year 2 = $131,300 x 1.01 = $132,613
Year 3 = $131,613 x 1.01 = $133,939
Year 4 = $133,939 x 1.01 = $135,379
Year 5 = $135,379 x 1.01 = $136,631

Formula Price = $136,631

Purchase Option Price = $136,631 + $55,000 = $191,631

The price to the subsequent buyer equals the Purchase Option price minus the total of SHIP subsidies:

Purchase Option Price:	$191,631
Total Subsidy Assumed:	- $55,000
Sales price for subsequent buyer:	$136,631 (New Base Price for Formula Price)

The new price should be affordable to the subsequent buyer without additional subsidy.

At the end of the loan term, the value of the Purchase Option Price will be equal to the Formula Price.

Cities and Counties must be in compliance with these applicable statutes, rules and any additional requirements as established through the Legislative process.

E. Local Housing Partnership: The SHIP Program encourages building active partnerships between government, lending institutions, builders and developers, not-for-profit and community-based housing providers and service organizations, providers of professional services related to affordable housing, advocates for low-income persons, real estate professionals, persons or entities that can provide housing or support services and lead agencies of the local continuums of care.

F. Leveraging: The Plan is intended to increase the availability of affordable residential units by combining local resources and cost saving measures into a local housing partnership and using public and private funds to reduce the cost of housing. SHIP funds may be leveraged with or used to supplement other Florida Housing Finance Corporation programs and to provide local match to obtain federal housing grants or programs.

G. Public Input: Public input was solicited via advertising of public meetings and the Public Hearing for the Affordable Housing Advisory Committee to adopt their Report of Recommendations. Public input was also obtained through meetings with housing providers, social service providers, local lenders, neighborhood associations and Affordable Housing Advisory Committee meetings.

H. Advertising and Outreach: SHIP funding availability shall be advertised in a newspaper of general circulation and periodicals serving ethnic and diverse neighborhoods, at least 30 days before the beginning of the application period. If no funding is available due to a waiting list, no notice of funding availability is required.

Priorities: The following priorities for funding described/listed here apply to all strategies unless otherwise stated in an individual strategy in Section II: The County will accept applications during the advertised "Application Period" which will be at least 30 days. Once the application period ends, eligible applications will be categorized based on the most appropriate program strategy to address their needs and prioritized based upon the following ranking priority:

1. Special Needs Households

    b. Low
    c. Moderate (If Applicable)
2. Essential Services Personnel
    a. Very low

    b. Low
    c. Moderate (If Applicable)

J. Discrimination: In accordance with the provisions of Section 760.20-760.37 Fla. Stat., it is unlawful to discriminate on the basis of race, color, religion, sex, national origin, age, handicap, or marital status in the award application process for eligible housing.

The County will provide Homeownership Counseling (Pre and Post), Credit Counseling, Tenant Counseling, and Foreclosure Counseling through referral to qualified HUD approved agencies, which includes, but is not limited to, Tallahassee Lenders' Consortium. The County will provide title clearing and estate planning services through referral to qualified legal aid agencies.

L. Purchase Price Limits: The sales price or value of new or existing eligible housing may not exceed 90% of the average area purchase price in the statistical area in which the eligible housing is located. Such average area purchase price may be that calculated for any 12-month period beginning not earlier than the fourth calendar year prior to the year in which the award occurs. The sales price of new and existing units, which can be lower but may not exceed 90% of the median area purchase price established by the U.S. Treasury Department or as described above.

The methodology used is:

U.S. Treasury Department	X
Local HFA Numbers

M. Income Limits, Rent Limits and Affordability: The Income and Rent Limits used in the SHIP Program are updated annually by the Department of Housing and Urban Development and posted at www.floridahousing.org.

"Affordable" means that monthly rents or mortgage payments including taxes and insurance do not exceed 30 percent of that amount which represents the percentage of the median annual gross income for the households as indicated in Sections 420.9071, Florida Statutes. However, it is not the intent to limit an individual household's ability to devote more than 30% of its income for housing, and housing for which a household devotes more than 30% of its income shall be deemed Affordable if the first institutional mortgage lender is satisfied that the household can afford mortgage payments in excess of the 30% benchmark and in the case of rental housing does not exceed those rental limits adjusted for bedroom size.

N. Welfare Transition Program: Should an eligible sponsor be used, a qualification system and selection criteria for applications for Awards to eligible sponsors shall be developed, which includes a description that demonstrates how eligible sponsors that employ personnel from the Welfare Transition Program will be given preference in the selection process.

O. Monitoring and First Right of Refusal: In the case of rental housing, the staff and any entity that has administrative authority for implementing the local housing assistance plan assisting rental developments shall annually monitor and determine tenant eligibility or, to the extent another governmental entity provides periodic monitoring and determination, a municipality, county or local housing financing authority may rely on such monitoring and determination of tenant eligibility. However, any loan or grant in the original amount of $10,000 or less shall not be subject to these annual monitoring and determination of tenant eligibility requirements. Tenant eligibility will be monitored annually for no less than 15 years or the term of assistance whichever is longer, when required as specified above.

Eligible sponsors that offer rental housing for sale before 15 years or that have remaining mortgages funded under this program must give a first right of refusal to eligible non-profit organizations for purchase at the current market value for continued occupancy by eligible persons.

P. Administrative Budget: A line-item budget of proposed Administrative Expenditures is attached as Exhibit A. Leon County finds that the moneys deposited in the local housing assistance trust fund are necessary to administer and implement the local housing assistance plan.

Section 420.9075(7), Florida Statutes states: "A county or an eligible municipality may not exceed the 5 percent limitation on administrative costs, unless its governing body finds, by resolution, that 5 percent of the local housing distribution plus 5 percent of program income is insufficient to adequately pay the necessary costs of administering the local housing assistance plan."

Section 420.9075(7) Florida Statutes further states: "The cost of administering the program may not exceed 10 percent of the local housing distribution plus 5 percent of program income deposited into the trust fund, except that small counties, as defined in s. 120.52(19), and eligible municipalities receiving a local housing distribution of up to $350,000 may use up to 10 percent of program income for administrative costs."

The applicable local jurisdiction has adopted the above findings in the resolution attached as Exhibit E.

Q. Program Administration: Administration of the local housing assistance plan will be performed by:

Entity	Duties	Admin. Fee Percentage
Local Government	All Strategies Other than Down Payment Assistance	8%
Third Party Entity/Sub-recipient	Down Payment Assistance Program Strategies	2%

R. This includes a spouse (if either meets the above test, they are considered first-time homebuyers). A single parent who has only owned a home with a former spouse while married. An individual who is a displaced homemaker and has only owned with a spouse. S.* Project Delivery Costs: The County will charge a reasonable project delivery cost that will not exceed three percent (3%) of the contracted SHIP award and will be included in the amount of the recorded mortgage and note.

1. Title Search
2. Recordation Fee
3. The County will utilize a contractor to assess the appropriate level of housing rehabilitation necessary to improve accessibility and enhance independence for participating households having special needs.

T. Essential Service Personnel Definition (ESP): ESP includes teachers and educators, other school district, community college, and university employees, police and fire personnel, health care personnel, skilled building trades personnel and active U.S. Armed Forces Service Members.

The findings of the audit will be used to incorporate repairs into a cost-effective scope of work that are intended to increase the energy efficiency of the home and possibly lead to lower heating and cooling costs.

Additionally, the County and/or sponsors will, when economically feasible, employ the following Green Building requirements on Home Rehabilitation, Home Replacement, Emergency Repairs & Disaster Resilience, Homeownership Development or Rental Development:

Section II. LHAP Strategies:

A. Down Payment Assistance	Code 1, 2

a. Summary: Funds will be awarded to First Time Homebuyers for down payment and closing costs for new and existing homes, including homes purchased from a community land trust (CLT).

b. Fiscal Years Covered: 2026 – 2027, 2027 – 2028, 2028 – 2029

c. Income Categories to be served: Very low, low and moderate (Moderate not eligible for purchase in CLT)

d. Maximum award:

Income Category	Existing Homes not Rehabilitated OR not in a CLT	CLT Homes	Newly Constructed or Rehabilitated Homes
Very Low	$10,000	$20,000	$25,000
Low	$10,000	$20,000	$25,000
Moderate	$7,500	N/A	$20,000

- Newly constructed homes are defined as homes that have never been occupied; and have obtained a certificate of occupancy within the 12-months preceding the purchase; or were built as a model home.
- Rehabilitated homes are defined as existing homes that receive repairs or rehabilitation needed for safe or sanitary habitation, correction of substantial code violations, the creation of additional living space or other repairs approved by the Leon County Division of Housing Services and are paid by the seller, the buyer or another source. Proof that the repair or rehabilitation was completed within the 12-months preceding purchase must be provided prior to closing unless a first mortgage renovation loan (FHA 203k, Freddie Mac, Fannie Mae or similar lender managed renovation purchase and renovation loan) is used to pay for the rehabilitation. When a first mortgage renovation loan is used, the project must be completed, including proof of payment, and the home must be occupied within six months of closing.

e. Terms:

1. Repayment loan/deferred loan/grant: Funds will be awarded as a deferred subordinate loan secured by a recorded subordinate mortgage and note.
2. Interest Rate: 0%
3. Years in loan term: 10 years for Fee Simple; 30 years for CLT
4. Forgiveness: If the loan remains in good standing, assistance will be forgiven at the end of the loan term.
5. Repayment: Not required as long as the loan is in good standing.
6. Default: The loan will be determined to be in default if any of the following occurs:
   - Homeowner sells, transfers or disposes of the assisted unit (by either sale, transfer, bankruptcy or foreclosure, etc.). If sold in a CLT, the loan will not be determined to be in default if the sale is approved by the CLT and provision is made for the subsequent income eligible purchaser to assume the loan to ensure homes remain affordable;
   - Homeowner no longer occupies the unit as his/her principal residence or qualifies for Homestead Property Tax Exemption;
   - Homeowner dies, or if a married couple, the survivor dies. However, the loan may be assumed by a SHIP eligible heir who will occupy the home as a primary residence. If the legal heir is not SHIP eligible or chooses not to occupy the home, the outstanding balance of the loan will be due and payable.

- Homeowner fails to maintain homeowner's insurance.
- Homeowner refinances the assisted unit. However, refinancing is allowed under the following conditions:
  - purpose of preventing foreclosure;
  - lowering the interest rate that results in a minimum monthly mortgage payment reduction of at least seventy-five ($75.00) dollars per month or to change from an adjustable-rate mortgage (ARM) to a fixed rate mortgage;
  - for payment of outstanding bills with no cash out to the homeowner unless the funds are to finance repairs needed to resolve a threat to the health and safety of the occupants or to prevent further damage to the structure.

If a superior mortgage holder accelerates the loan or forecloses upon the home, the County will attempt to obtain repayment of funds via the legal process if the County determines that adequate funds may be available to justify pursuing repayment.

f. Recipient Selection Criteria:
- Applications will be ranked for assistance based on a first-qualified, first-ready-to-close basis.
- A recipient must secure a first mortgage by an approved lender.
- A recipient must be able to contribute five hundred dollars ($500.00) towards the transaction but their total liquid assets (liquid assets include all assets that can be accessed without penalty) may not exceed Thirty Thousand Dollars ($30,000). However, the asset limitation will be suspended during recovery from a disaster that is declared by an Executive Order of the President of the United States or the Florida Governor and to expend SHIP Disaster Recovery funds.
- Homebuyer Education
  - Fee Simple homebuyers must complete an approved homebuyer education class from a HUD certified agency and obtain a certificate of completion.
  - CLT homebuyers must complete a homebuyer education class from a HUD certified agency that contains a community land trust component and/or session with the CLT in addition to a homebuyer education class that requires CLT buyers to demonstrate and attest to a clear understanding of the terms of community land trust homeownership and obtain a certificate of completion.

g. Sponsor Selection Criteria: N/A

III. LHAP Incentive Strategies

In addition to the required Incentive Strategy A and Strategy B, include all adopted incentives with the policies and procedures used for implementation as provided in Section 420.9076, Florida Statutes.:

A. Expedited Permitting

Permits as defined in Section 163.3177(6)(f)(3), Florida Statutes, for affordable housing projects are expedited to a greater degree than other projects.

The procedures used to implement this strategy are as follows:

Leon County expedites permitting of affordable housing projects by administrative direction, close coordination and teamwork. Specific processes that have been established include:

1) Using pre-permitting review to determine project status, identify and resolve potential legal problems that might preempt permitting, and otherwise expedite affordable housing.

2) Obtain assistance and cross-training from Building Inspection with the initial inspection of rehabilitation projects to ensure all code compliance issues are addressed in write-ups and permit applications. This expedites plan review and minimizes changes that delay permitting and project completion.

3) The Director of the Office of Human Services & Community Partnerships and the staff are the designated liaisons with the Affordable Housing Program and assists with the resolution of difficult permitting issues.

These processes will promote a reduction in building permitting time for affordable housing projects by 50% from the average of ten (10) days to an average of five (5) days.

B. Ongoing Review Process

An ongoing process for review of local policies, ordinances, regulations and plan provisions that increase the cost of housing prior to their adoption.

The procedures used to implement this strategy:

By administrative direction, all Local Comprehensive Plan and Land Development Regulations (LDR) with the potential to impact the cost of affordable housing are referred to the Leon County Division of Housing Services. Any of these Plan or LDR amendments potentially affecting affordable housing costs can be brought up to a meeting of the Department of Development Support and Environmental Management, the Planning Department, and the Division of Housing Services for modification and transmittal to the Board of County Commissioners or other appropriate review or approval entities.

C. Flexibility in Densities

The allowance of flexibility in densities for affordable housing.

The procedures used to implement this strategy:

The Land Development Code (LDC) provides incentives for affordable housing regarding the required review level. For example, projects with 50% or more affordable housing units can have their review threshold increased by 50% thereby potentially allowing a lower review level leading to potentially lower permitting costs. [Section 10-7.402(4)(h) of the LDC]

D. Modification of Impact Fee Requirements

The modification of impact-fee requirements, including reduction or waiver of fees and alternative methods of fee payment for affordable housing.

The procedures used to implement this strategy:

The County eliminated its transportation impact fee in 1995; therefore, housing developers do not pay any county impact fees. The Public Works Department supports affordable housing by waiving landfill dumping (tipping) fees for disposal of construction debris by the County's affordable housing contractors.

E. Allowance of Accessory Dwelling Units

The allowance of affordable accessory residential units in residential zoning districts.

The procedures used to implement this strategy:

The LDC allows accessory dwelling units in conjunction with the following principal structures: single-family detached dwellings; retail establishments; offices; and principal industrial structures. [Section 10-6.803(b) of the LDC]

F. Inventory of Public Lands Suitable for Affordable Housing

The preparation of a printed inventory of locally owned public lands suitable for affordable housing.

The procedures used to implement this strategy:

County staff prepares, and makes available to the public, a printable inventory of County-owned lands suitable for affordable housing.

GROUND LEASE AGREEMENT

THIS GROUND LEASE AGREEMENT (the "Lease") entered into this _____ day of _____, 2025, by and between Tallahassee Lenders' Consortium, a Florida non-profit, having an office at 224 Office Plaza Drive, Tallahassee, FL 32301 ("TLC" or "CLT"), and NAME_("Homeowner").

RECITALS

A. TLC is organized exclusively for charitable purposes, including the purpose of providing homeownership opportunities for low-and-moderate income people who would otherwise be unable to afford homeownership.

B. A goal of TLC is to preserve affordable homeownership opportunities through the long-term leasing of land under owner-occupied homes.

C. The Leased Land described in this Lease has been acquired and is being leased by TLC in furtherance of this goal.

D. The Homeowner shares the purposes of TLC and has agreed to enter into this Lease not only to obtain the benefits of homeownership, but also to further the charitable purposes of TLC.

E. Homeowner and TLC recognize the special nature of the terms of this Lease, and each of them accepts these terms, including those terms that affect the marketing and resale price of the property now being purchased by the Homeowner.

F. Homeowner and TLC agree that the terms of this Lease further their shared goals over an extended period of time and through a succession of owners.

DRAFT

NOW THEREFORE, Homeowner and TLC agree on all of the terms and conditions of this Lease as set forth below.

DEFINITIONS: Homeowner and TLC agree on the following definitions of key terms used in this Lease.

Leased Land: the parcel of land, described in Exhibit: LEASED LAND, that is leased to the Homeowner.

Home: the residential structure and other permanent improvements located on the Leased Land and owned by the Homeowner, including both the original Home described in Exhibit: DEED, and all permanent improvements added thereafter by Homeowner at Homeowner's expense.

Base Price: the total price that is paid for the Home by the Homeowner (including the amount provided by a first mortgage loan but not including subsidy in the form of deferred loans to the Homeowner).

Purchase Option Price: the maximum price the Homeowner is allowed to receive for the sale of the Home and the Homeowner's right to possess, occupy and use the Leased Land, as defined in Article 10 of this Lease.

Lease Fee: The monthly fee that the Homeowner pays to the CLT for the continuing use of the Leased Land and any additional amounts that the CLT charges to the Homeowner for reasons permitted by this Lease.

Permitted Mortgage: A mortgage or deed of trust on the Home and the Homeowner's right to possess, occupy and use the Leased Land granted to a lender by the Homeowner with the CLT's Permission. The Homeowner may not mortgage the CLT's interest in the Leased Land and may not grant any mortgage or deed of trust without CLT's Permission.

Event of Default: Any violation of the terms of the Lease unless it has been corrected ("cured") by Homeowner or the holder of a Permitted Mortgage in the specified period of time after a written Notice of Default has been given by CLT.

Due Date: With respect to: (a) Lease Fee the date on which such Lease Fee is due as provided in this Lease; and (b) any Imposition, the last date on which such Imposition can be paid without any fine, penalty, interest or cost being added thereto or imposed by Law for the non-payment thereof. The time cutoff is 5:00 p.m. Eastern time for all Due Dates.

ARTICLE 1: Homeowner's Letter of Agreement is attached as Exhibit.

Attached as Exhibit HOMEOWNER'S LETTER OF AGREEMENT made part of this Lease by reference is a Letter of Agreement from the Homeowner, describing the Homeowner's understanding and acceptance of this Lease (including the parts of the Lease that affect the resale of the Home).

ARTICLE 2: Leasing of Rights to the Land

2.1 CLT LEASES THE LAND TO HOMEOWNER: The CLT hereby leases to the Homeowner, and Homeowner hereby accepts, the right to possess, occupy and use the Leased Land (described in the attached Exhibit LEASED LAND) in accordance with the terms of this Lease. CLT has furnished to Homeowner a copy of the most current title report, if any, obtained by CLT for the Leased Land, and Homeowner accepts title to the Leased Land in its condition "as is" as of the signing of this Lease.

2.2 MINERAL RIGHTS NOT LEASED TO HOMEOWNER: CLT does not lease to the Homeowner the right to remove from the Leased Land any minerals lying beneath the Leased Land's surface. Ownership of such minerals remains with the CLT, but the CLT shall not remove any such minerals from the Leased Land without the Homeowner's written permission.

DRAFT

ARTICLE 3: Term of Lease, Change of Land Owner

3.1 TERM OF LEASE IS 99 YEARS: This Lease shall remain in effect for 99 years, beginning on the ___ day of _____, 20__, and ending on the _____ day of _____, 20___, unless ended sooner or renewed as provided below.

3.2 HOMEOWNER CAN RENEW LEASE FOR ANOTHER 99 YEARS: Homeowner may renew this Lease for one additional period of 99 years. The CLT may change the terms of the Lease for the renewal period prior to the beginning of the renewal period but only if these changes do not materially and adversely interfere with the rights possessed by the Homeowner under the Lease. Not more than 365 nor less than 180 days before the last day of the first 99-year period, CLT shall give Homeowner a written notice that states the date of the expiration of the first 99-year period and the conditions for renewal as set forth in the following paragraph ("the Expiration Notice"). The Expiration Notice shall also describe any changes that CLT intends to make in the Lease for the renewal period as permitted above.

The Homeowner shall then have the right to renew the Lease only if the following conditions are met: (a) within 60 days of receipt of the Expiration Notice, the Homeowner shall give CLT written notice stating the Homeowner's desire to renew ("the Renewal Notice"); (b) this Lease shall be in effect on the last day of the original 99-year term, and (c) the Homeowner is not in default under this Lease or under any Permitted Mortgage on the last day of the original 99-year term.

When the Homeowner has exercised the option to renew, Homeowner and TLC shall sign a memorandum stating that the option has been exercised. The memorandum shall comply with the requirements for a notice of lease as stated in Section 14.12 below. TLC shall record this memorandum in accordance with the requirements of law promptly after the beginning of the renewal period.

3.3 WHAT HAPPENS IF CLT DECIDES TO SELL THE LEASED LAND: If ownership of the Leased Land is ever transferred by TLC (whether voluntarily or involuntarily) to any other person or institution, this Lease shall not cease but shall remain binding on the new land-owner as well as the Homeowner. If TLC agrees to transfer the Leased Land to any person or institution other than a non-profit corporation, charitable trust, government agency or other similar institution sharing the goals described in the Recitals above, the Homeowner shall have a right of first refusal to purchase the Leased Land. The details of this right shall be stated in the attached Exhibit FIRST REFUSAL. Any sale or other transfer contrary to Section 3.3 shall be null and void.

ARTICLE 4: Use of Leased Land

4.1 HOMEOWNER MAY USE THE HOME ONLY FOR RESIDENTIAL AND RELATED PURPOSES: Homeowner shall use, and allow others to use, the Home and Leased Land only for residential purposes and any activities related to residential use that were permitted by local zoning law when the Lease was signed and any and all applicable Homeowner and Neighborhood Association covenants and restrictions as indicated in the attached Exhibit ZONING.

DRAFT

[To be added when needed: Use of the Leased Land shall be further limited by the restrictions described in the attached Exhibit RESTRICTIONS.]

4.2 HOMEOWNER MUST USE THE HOME AND LEASED LAND RESPONSIBILY AND IN COMPLIANCE WITH THE LAW: Homeowner shall use the Home and Leased Land in a way that will not cause harm to others or create any public nuisance. Homeowner shall dispose of all waste in a safe and sanitary manner. Homeowner shall maintain all parts of the Home and Leased Land in safe, sound and habitable condition, in full compliance with all laws and regulations, and in the condition that is required to maintain the insurance coverage required by Section 9.4 of this Lease.

4.3 HOMEOWNER IS RESPONSIBLE FOR USE BY OTHERS: Homeowner shall be responsible for the use of the Home and Leased Land by all residents and visitors and anyone else using the Leased Land with Homeowner's permission and shall make all such people aware of the restrictions on use set forth in this Lease.

4.4 THE CLT HOME MUST BE THE HOMEOWNER'S PRIMARY RESIDENCE. HOMEOWNER MUST OCCUPY THE HOME FOR AT LEAST 10 MONTHS EACH YEAR: The Homeowner shall occupy the Home for at least 10 months of each year of this Lease, unless otherwise agreed by CLT. Occupancy by Homeowner's child, spouse, domestic partner, or other persons approved in writing by CLT shall be considered occupancy by Homeowner. Neither compliance with the occupancy requirement nor CLT's permission for an extended period of non-occupancy constitutes permission to sublease the Leased Land and Home, which is addressed in Section 4.5 below.

4.5 LEASED LAND MAY NOT BE SUBLEASED, WITHOUT EXCEPTION Homeowner shall not sublease, sell or otherwise convey any of Homeowner's rights under this Lease, for any period of time. The homeowner agrees that CLT shall have the right to withhold such consent in order to further the purposes of this Lease.

4.6 CLT HAS A RIGHT TO INSPECT THE LEASED LAND: The CLT may inspect any part of the Leased Land except the interiors of fully enclosed buildings, at any reasonable time, after notifying the Homeowner at least 24 hours before the planned inspection. No more than 4 regular inspections may be carried out in a single year, except in the case of an emergency. In an emergency, the CLT may inspect any part of the Leased Land except the interiors of fully enclosed buildings, after making reasonable efforts to inform the Homeowner before the inspection.

If the CLT has received an Intent-To-Sell Notice (as described in Section 10.4 below), then the CLT has the right to inspect the interiors of all fully enclosed buildings to determine their condition prior to the sale. The CLT must notify the Homeowner at least 24 hours before carrying out such inspection.

4.7 HOMEOWNER HAS A RIGHT TO QUIET ENJOYMENT: Homeowner has the right to quiet enjoyment of the Leased Land. The CLT has no desire or intention to interfere with the personal lives, associations, expressions, or actions of the Homeowner in any way not permitted by this Lease.

DRAFT

ARTICLE 5: Lease Fee

5.1 AMOUNT OF LEASE FEE: The Homeowner shall pay a monthly Lease Fee in an amount equal to the sum of Lease Fee of $25.00 to be paid in return for the continuing right to possess, occupy and use the Leased Land.

5.2 WHEN THE LEASE FEE IS TO BE PAID: The Lease Fee shall be payable to CLT on the first day of each month for as long as this Lease remains in effect, unless the Lease Fee is to be escrowed and paid by a Permitted Mortgagee, in which case payment shall be made as directed by that Mortgagee.

5.3 HOW THE AMOUNT OF THE LEASE FEE HAS BEEN DETERMINED: The amount of the Lease Fee stated in Section 5.1 above has been determined as follows. First, the approximate monthly fair rental value of the Leased Land has been established, as of the beginning of the Lease term, recognizing that use of the Leased Premises is restricted by certain provisions imposed by the Lease. Then the affordability of this monthly amount, for the Homeowner has been analyzed and, if necessary, the Lease Fee has been reduced to an amount considered to be affordable for Homeowner.

5.4 CLT MAY REDUCE OR SUSPEND THE LEASE FEE TO IMPROVE AFFORDABILITY: CLT may reduce or suspend the total amount of the Lease Fee for a period of time for the purpose of improving the affordability of the Homeowner's monthly housing costs. Any such reduction or suspension must be in writing and signed by CLT.

5.5 FEES MAY BE INCREASED FROM TIME TO TIME: The CLT may increase the amount of the Lease Fee and/or the Repair Reserve Fee from time to time, but not more often than once every 5 years. Each time such amounts are increased, the total percentage of increase since the date this Lease was signed shall not be greater than the percentage of increase, over the same period of time, in the Consumer Price Index for urban wage earners and clerical workers for the urban area in which the Leased Land is located, or, if none, for urban areas the size of Tallahassee, Florida.

5.6 LEASE FEE WILL BE INCREASED IF RESTRICTIONS ARE REMOVED: If, for any reason, the provisions of Article 10 regarding transfers of the Home or Sections 4.4 and 4.5 regarding occupancy and subleasing are suspended or invalidated for any period of time, then during that time the Lease Fee shall be increased to an amount calculated by CLT to equal the fair rental value of the Leased Land for use not restricted by the suspended provisions, but initially an amount not exceeding $100.00 dollars. Such increase shall become effective upon CLT's written notice to Homeowner. Thereafter, for so long as these restrictions are not reinstated in the Lease, the CLT may, from time to time, further increase the amount of such Lease Fee, provided that the amount of the Lease Fee does not exceed the fair rental value of the property, and provided that such increases do not occur more often than once in every 5 years.

5.7 IF PAYMENT IS LATE, INTEREST CAN BE CHARGED: If the CLT has not received any monthly installment of the Lease Fee on or before the date on which the such installment first becomes payable under this Lease (the "Due Date"), the CLT may require Homeowner to pay interest on the unpaid amount from the Due Date through and including the date such payment or installment is received by CLT, at a rate not to exceed . The late fee is 5% of the amount owed to the CLT. Such interest shall be deemed additional Lease Fee and shall be paid by Homeowner to CLT upon demand; provided, however, that CLT shall waive any such interest that would otherwise be payable to CLT if such payment of the Lease Fee is received by CLT on or before the thirtieth (30th) day after the Due Date.

5.8 CLT CAN COLLECT UNPAID FEES WHEN HOME IS SOLD: In the event that any amount of payable Lease Fee remains unpaid when the Home is sold, the outstanding amount of payable Lease Fee, including any interest as provided above, shall be paid to CLT out of any proceeds from the sale that would otherwise be due to Homeowner. The CLT shall have, and the Homeowner hereby consents to, a lien upon the Home for any unpaid Lease Fee. Such lien shall be prior to all other liens and encumbrances on the Home except (a) liens and encumbrances recorded before the recording of this Lease, (b) Permitted Mortgages as defined in section 8.1 below; and (c) liens for real property taxes and other governmental assessments or charges against the Home.

ARTICLE 6: Taxes and Assessments

6.1 HOMEOWNER IS RESPONSIBLE FOR PAYING ALL TAXES AND ASSESSMENTS: Homeowner shall pay directly, when due, all taxes, governmental and/or other assessments that relate to the Home and the Leased Land (including any taxes relating to the CLT's interest in the Leased Land).

6.2 CLT WILL PASS ON ANY TAX BILLS IT RECEIVES TO HOMEOWNER: In the event that the local taxing authority bills CLT for any portion of the taxes on the Home or Leased Land, CLT shall pass the bill to Homeowner and Homeowner shall promptly pay this bill.

6.3 HOMEOWNER HAS A RIGHT TO CONTEST TAXES: Homeowner shall have the right to contest the amount or validity of any taxes relating to the Home and Leased Land. Upon receiving a reasonable request from Homeowner for assistance in this matter, CLT may join in contesting such taxes. All costs of such proceedings shall be paid by Homeowner.

6.4 IF HOMEOWNER FAILS TO PAY TAXES, CLT MAY INCREASE LEASE FEE: In the event that Homeowner fails to pay the taxes or other charges described in Section 6.1 above, CLT may increase Homeowner's Lease Fee to offset the amount of taxes and other charges owed by Homeowner. Upon collecting any such amount, CLT shall pay the amount collected to the taxing authority in a timely manner.

6.5 PARTY THAT PAYS TAXES MUST SHOW PROOF: When either party pays taxes relating to the Home or Leased Land, that party shall furnish satisfactory evidence of the payment to the other party. A photocopy of a receipt shall be the usual method of furnishing such evidence.

ARTICLE 7: The Home

7.1 HOMEOWNER OWNS THE HOUSE AND ALL OTHER IMPROVEMENTS ON THE LEASED LAND: All structures, including the house, fixtures, and other improvements purchased, constructed, or installed by the Homeowner on any part of the Leased Land at any time during the term of this Lease (collectively, the "Home") shall be property of the Homeowner. Title to the Home shall be and remain vested in the Homeowner. However, Homeowner's rights of ownership are limited by certain provisions of this Lease, including provisions regarding the sale or leasing of the Home by the Homeowner and the CLT's option to purchase the Home. In addition, Homeowner shall not remove any part of the Home from the Leased Land without CLT's prior written consent.

7.2 HOMEOWNER PURCHASES HOME WHEN SIGNING LEASE: Upon the signing of this Lease, Homeowner is simultaneously purchasing the Home located at that time on the Leased Land, as described in the Deed, a copy of which is attached to this Lease as Exhibit: DEED.

7.3 CONSTRUCTION CARRIED OUT BY HOMEOWNER MUST COMPLY WITH CERTAIN REQUIREMENTS: Any construction in connection with the Home is permitted only if the following requirements are met: (a) all costs shall be paid for by the Homeowner; (b) all construction shall be performed in a professional manner and shall comply with all applicable laws and regulations; (c) all changes in the Home shall be consistent with the permitted uses described in Article 4; (d) the footprint, square-footage, or height of the house shall not be increased and additional structures shall not be built or installed on the Leased Land without the prior written consent of CLT. Inground swimming pools are not permitted.

Accessory structures such as storage buildings, tool room, workshop, above-ground swimming pools, cabanas and the like shall be submitted to and approved by the CLT. Homeowners are required to show proof that the insurance company has been notified about above-ground swimming pools. Mechanical equipment for the operation of swimming pools, hot tubs and the like shall be concealed from view by passers-by and neighboring lots.

For any construction requiring CLT's prior written consent, Homeowner shall submit a written request to the CLT. Such request shall include:

a) a written statement of the reasons for undertaking the construction.
b) a set of drawings (floor plan and elevations) showing the dimensions of the proposed construction.
c) a list of the necessary materials, with quantities needed.
d) a statement of who will do the work.

If the CLT finds it needs additional information it shall request such information from the Homeowner within two weeks of receipt of Homeowner's request. The CLT then, within two weeks of receiving all necessary information (including any additional information it may have requested) shall give the Homeowner either its written consent or a written statement of its reasons for not consenting. Before construction can begin,

DRAFT

Homeowner shall provide CLT with copies of all necessary building permits, if not previously provided.

7.4 HOMEOWNER MAY NOT ALLOW STATUTORY LIENS TO REMAIN AGAINST LEASED LAND OR HOME: No lien of any type shall attach to the CLT's title to the Leased Land. The homeowner shall not permit any statutory or similar lien to be filed against the Leased Land or the Home which remains more than 60 days after it has been filed. Homeowner shall take action to discharge such lien, whether by means of payment, deposit, bond, court order, or other means permitted by law. If the Homeowner fails to discharge such lien within the 60-day period, then Homeowner shall immediately notify CLT of such failure. CLT shall have the right to discharge the lien by paying the amount in question. Homeowner may, at Homeowner's expense, contest the validity of any such asserted lien, provided Homeowner has furnished a bond or other acceptable surety in an amount sufficient to release the Leased Land from such lien. Any amounts paid by CLT to discharge such liens shall be treated as an additional Lease Fee payable by Homeowner upon demand.

7.5 HOMEOWNER IS RESPONSIBLE FOR SERVICES, MAINTENANCE AND REPAIRS: Homeowner hereby assumes responsibility for furnishing all services or facilities on the Leased Land, including but not limited to heat, electricity, air conditioning and water. CLT shall not be required to furnish any services or facilities or to make any repairs to the Home. Homeowner shall maintain the Home and Leased Land as required by Section 4.2 above and shall see that all necessary repairs and replacements are accomplished when needed.

7.6 A REPAIR RESERVE FUND IS ESTABISHED TO SUPPORT FUTURE REPAIRS: Not applicable.

7.7 WHEN THE LEASE ENDS, OWNERSHIP REVERTS TO CLT, WHICH SHALL REIMBURSE HOMEOWNER: Upon the expiration or termination of this Lease, ownership of the Home shall revert to CLT. Upon thus assuming title to the Home, CLT shall promptly pay Homeowner and Permitted Mortgagee(s), as follows:

FIRST, CLT shall pay any Permitted Mortgagee(s) the full amount owed to such mortgagee(s) by Homeowner;

SECOND, CLT shall pay the Homeowner the balance of the Purchase Option Price calculated in accordance with Article 10 below, as of the time of reversion of ownership, less the total amount of any unpaid Lease Fee and any other amounts owed to the CLT under the terms of this Lease. The Homeowner shall be responsible for any costs necessary to clear any additional liens or other charges related to the Home which may be assessed against the Home. If the Homeowner fails to clear such liens or charges, the balance due the Homeowner shall also be reduced by the amount necessary to release such liens or charges, including reasonable attorney's fees incurred by the CLT.

ARTICLE 8: Financing

8.1 HOMEOWNER CANNOT MORTGAGE THE HOME WITHOUT CLT's PERMISSION: The Homeowner may mortgage the Home only with the written permission of CLT. Any mortgage or deed of trust permitted in writing by the CLT is defined as a Permitted Mortgage, and the holder of such a mortgage or deed of trust is defined as a Permitted Mortgagee.

8.2 BY SIGNING LEASE, CLT GIVES PERMISSION FOR ORIGINAL MORTGAGE. By signing this Lease, CLT gives written permission for any mortgage or deed of trust signed by the Homeowner effective on the day this Lease is signed for the purpose of financing Homeowner's purchase of the Home.

8.3 HOMEOWNER MUST GET SPECIFIC PERMISSION FOR REFINANCING OR OTHER SUBSEQUENT MORTGAGES. If, at any time subsequent to the purchase of the Home and signing of the Lease, the Homeowner seeks a loan that is to be secured by a mortgage on the Home (to refinance an existing Permitted Mortgage or to finance home repairs or for any other purpose), Homeowner must inform CLT, in writing, of the proposed terms and conditions of such mortgage loan at least 15 business days prior to the expected closing of the loan. The information to be provided to the CLT must include:

a. the name of the proposed lender;
b. Homeowner's reason for requesting the loan;
c. the principal amount of the proposed loan and the total mortgage debt that will result from the combination of the loan and existing mortgage debt, if any;
d. expected closing costs;
e. the rate of interest;
f. the repayment schedule;
g. a copy of the appraisal commissioned in connection with the loan request.

CLT may also require Homeowner to submit additional information. CLT will not permit such a mortgage loan if the loan increases Homeowner's total mortgage debt to an amount greater than 90% of the then current Purchase Option Price, calculated in accordance with Article 10 below, or if the terms of the transaction otherwise threaten the interests of either the Homeowner or the CLT.

8.4 CLT IS REQUIRED TO PERMIT A "STANDARD PERMITTED MORTGAGE." The CLT shall be required to permit any mortgage for which the mortgagee has signed a "Standard Permitted Mortgage Agreement" as set forth in "Exhibit: Permitted Mortgages, Part C," and for which the loan secured thereby does not increase Homeowner's total mortgage debt to an amount greater than 90% of the then current Purchase Option Price, calculated in accordance with Article 10 below.

8.5 A PERMITTED MORTGAGEE HAS CERTAIN OBLIGATIONS UNDER THE LEASE. Any Permitted Mortgagee shall be bound by each of the requirements stated in "Exhibit: Permitted Mortgages, Part A, Obligations of Permitted Mortgagee," which is made a part of this Lease by reference, unless the particular requirement is removed, contradicted or modified by a Rider to this Lease signed by the Homeowner and the CLT to modify the terms of the Lease during the term of the Permitted Mortgage.

8.6 A PERMITTED MORTGAGEE HAS CERTAIN RIGHTS UNDER THE LEASE. Any Permitted Mortgagee shall have all of the rights and protections stated in "Exhibit:

DRAFT

Permitted Mortgages, Part B, Rights of Permitted Mortgagee," which is made a part of this Lease by reference.

8.7 IN THE EVENT OF FORECLOSURE, ANY PROCEEDS IN EXCESS OF THE PURCHASE OPTION PRICE WILL GO TO CLT. Homeowner and CLT recognize that it would be contrary to the purposes of this agreement if the Homeowner could receive more than the Purchase Option Price as the result of the foreclosure of a mortgage. Therefore, Homeowner hereby irrevocably assigns to CLT all net proceeds of sale of the Home that would otherwise have been payable to Homeowner and that exceed the amount of net proceeds that Homeowner would have received if the property had been sold for the Purchase Option Price, calculated as described in Section 10.10 below. Homeowner authorizes and instructs the Permitted Mortgagee, or any party conducting any sale, to pay such excess amount directly to CLT. If, for any reason, such excess amount is paid to Homeowner, Homeowner hereby agrees to promptly pay such amount to CLT.

ARTICLE 9: Liability, Insurance, Damage and Destruction, Eminent Domain

9.1 HOMEOWNER ASSUMES ALL LIABILITY. Homeowner assumes all responsibility and liability related to Homeowner's possession, occupancy and use of the Leased Land.

9.2 HOMEOWNER MUST DEFEND CLT AGAINST ALL CLAIMS OF LIABILITY. Homeowner shall defend, indemnify and hold CLT harmless against all liability and claims of liability for injury or damage to person or property from any cause on or about the Leased Land. Homeowner waives all claims against CLT for injury or damage on or about the Leased Land. However, CLT shall remain liable for injury or damage due to the grossly negligent or intentional acts or omissions of CLT or CLT's agents or employees.

9.3 HOMEOWNER MUST REIMBURSE CLT. In the event that the CLT shall be required to pay any sum that is the Homeowner's responsibility or liability, the Homeowner shall reimburse the CLT for such payment and for reasonable expenses caused thereby.

9.4 HOMEOWNER MUST INSURE THE HOME AGAINST LOSS AND MUST MAINTAIN LIABILITY INSURANCE ON HOME AND LEASED LAND. Homeowner shall, at Homeowner's expense, keep the Home continuously insured against "all risks" of physical loss, using Insurance Services Office (ISO) Form HO 00 03, or its equivalent, for the full replacement value of the Home, and in any event in an amount that will not incur a coinsurance penalty. The amount of such insured replacement value must be approved by the CLT prior to the commencement of the Lease. Thereafter, if the CLT determines that the replacement value to be insured should be increased, the CLT shall inform the Homeowner of such required increase at least 30 days prior to the next date on which the insurance policy is to be renewed, and the Homeowner shall assure that the renewal includes such change. If Homeowner wishes to decrease the amount of replacement value to be insured, Homeowner shall inform the CLT of the proposed change at least 30 days prior to the time such change would take effect. The change shall not take effect without CLT's approval.

DRAFT

Should the Home lie in a flood hazard zone as defined by the National Flood Insurance Plan, the Homeowner shall keep in full force and effect flood insurance in the maximum amount available.

The Homeowner shall also, at its sole expense, maintain in full force and effect public liability insurance using ISO Form HO 00 03 or its equivalent in the amount of $ 200,000 per occurrence and in the aggregate. The CLT shall be named as an additional insured using ISO Form HO 04 41 or its equivalent, and certificates of insurance shall be delivered to the CLT prior to the commencement of the Lease and at each anniversary date thereof.

The dollar amounts of such coverage may be increased from time to time at the CLT's request but not more often than once in any one-year period. CLT shall inform the Homeowner of such required increase in coverage at least 30 days prior to the next date on which the insurance policy is to be renewed, and the Homeowner shall assure that the renewal includes such change. The amount of such increase in coverage shall be based on current trends in homeowner's liability insurance coverage in the area in which the Home is located.

9.5 WHAT HAPPENS IF HOME IS DAMAGED OR DESTROYED. Except as provided below, in the event of fire or other damage to the Home, Homeowner shall take all steps necessary to assure the repair of such damage and the restoration of the Home to its condition immediately prior to the damage. All such repairs and restoration shall be completed as promptly as possible. Homeowner shall also promptly take all steps necessary to assure that the Leased Land is safe and that the damaged Home does not constitute a danger to persons or property.

If Homeowner, based on professional estimates, determines either (a) that full repair and restoration is physically impossible, or (b) that the available insurance proceeds will pay for less than the full cost of necessary repairs and that Homeowner cannot otherwise afford to cover the balance of the cost of repairs, then Homeowner shall notify CLT of this problem, and CLT may then help to resolve the problem. Methods used to resolve the problem may include efforts to increase the available insurance proceeds, efforts to reduce the cost of necessary repairs, efforts to arrange affordable financing covering the costs of repair not covered by insurance proceeds, and any other methods agreed upon by both Homeowner and CLT.

If Homeowner and CLT cannot agree on a way of restoring the Home in the absence of adequate insurance proceeds, then Homeowner may give CLT written notice of intent to terminate the Lease. The date of actual termination shall be no less than 60 days after the date of Homeowner's notice of intent to terminate. Upon termination, any insurance proceeds payable to Homeowner for damage to the Home shall be paid as follows.

FIRST, to the expenses of their collection;
SECOND, to any Permitted Mortgagee(s), to the extent required by the Permitted Mortgage(s);
THIRD, to the expenses of enclosing or razing the remains of the Home and clearing debris;
FOURTH, to the CLT for any amounts owed under this Lease;

DRAFT

FIFTH, to the Homeowner, up to an amount equal to the Purchase Option Price, as of the day prior to the loss, less any amounts paid with respect to the second, third, and fourth clauses above;
SIXTH, the balance, if any, to the CLT.

9.6 WHAT HAPPENS IF SOME OR ALL OF THE LAND IS TAKEN FOR PUBLIC USE. If all of the Leased Land is taken by eminent domain or otherwise for public purposes, or if so much of the Leased Land is taken that the Home is lost or damaged beyond repair, the Lease shall terminate as of the date when Homeowner is required to give up possession of the Leased Land. Upon such termination, the entire amount of any award(s) paid shall be allocated in the way described in Section 9.5 above for insurance proceeds.

In the event of a taking of a portion of the Leased Land that does not result in damage to the Home or significant reduction in the usefulness or desirability of the Leased Land for residential purposes, then any monetary compensation for such taking shall be allocated entirely to CLT.

In the event of a taking of a portion of the Leased Land that results in damage to the Home only to such an extent that the Home can reasonably be restored to a residential use consistent with this Lease, then the damage shall be treated as damage is treated in Section 9.5 above, and monetary compensation shall be allocated as insurance proceeds are to be allocated under Section 9.5.

9.7 IF PART OF THE LAND IS TAKEN, THE LEASE FEE MAY BE REDUCED. In the event of any taking that reduces the size of the Leased Land but does not result in the termination of the Lease, CLT shall reassess the fair rental value of the remaining Land and shall adjust the Lease Fee if necessary to assure that the monthly fee does not exceed the monthly fair rental value of the Land for use as restricted by the Lease.

9.8 IF LEASE IS TERMINATED BY DAMAGE, DESTRUCTION OR TAKING, CLT WILL TRY TO HELP HOMEOWNER BUY ANOTHER CLT HOME. If this Lease is terminated as a result of damage, destruction or taking, CLT shall take reasonable steps to allow Homeowner to purchase another home on another parcel of leased land owned by CLT if such home can reasonably be made available. If Homeowner purchases such a home, Homeowner agrees to apply any proceeds or award received by Homeowner to the purchase of the home. Homeowner understands that there are numerous reasons why it may not be possible to make such a home available, and shall have no claim against CLT if such a home is not made available.

ARTICLE 10: Transfer of the Home

Version 1For situations in which:

the Homeowner has no absolute right to identify a buyer and can only recommend a buyer;

a) an "improvements-only appraisal-based formula" is used; and
b) the original base price is not greater than the original appraised value of the Home.

10.1 INTENT OF THIS ARTICLE IS TO PRESERVE AFFORDABILITY: Homeowner and CLT agree that the provisions of this Article 10 are intended to preserve the affordability of the Home for lower income households and expand access to homeownership opportunities for such households.

10.2 HOMEOWNER MAY TRANSFER HOME ONLY TO CLT OR QUALIFIED PERSONS: Homeowner may transfer the Home only to the CLT or an Income-Qualified Person as defined below or otherwise only as explicitly permitted by the provisions of this Article 10. All such transfers are to be completed only in strict compliance with this Article 10. Any purported transfer that does not follow the procedures set forth below, except in the case of a transfer to a Permitted Mortgagee in lieu of foreclosure, shall be null and void.

"Income-Qualified Person" shall mean a person or group of persons whose household income does not exceed 80 percent (80%) of the median household income for the applicable Standard Metropolitan Statistical Area or County as calculated and adjusted for household size from time to time by the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) or any successor.

10.3 THE HOME MAY BE TRANSFERRED TO CERTAIN HEIRS OF HOMEOWNER: If Homeowner dies (or if the last surviving co-owner of the Home dies), the executor or personal representative of Homeowner's estate shall notify CLT within ninety 30 days of the date of the death. Upon receiving such notice, and consistent with Orders of the Probate Court and/or agreements between the heirs, CLT shall consent to a transfer of the Home and Homeowner's rights to the Leased Land to one or more of the possible heirs of Homeowner listed below as "a," "b," or "c," provided that a Letter of Agreement (as described in Article 1 above) are submitted to CLT to be attached to the Lease when it is transferred to the heirs.

a) the spouse of the Homeowner; or
b) the child or children of the Homeowner; or
c) member(s) of the Homeowner's household who have resided in the Home for at least one year immediately prior to Homeowner's death.

Any other heirs, legatees or devisees of Homeowner, in addition to submitting Letters of Agreement and Attorney's Acknowledgment as provided above, must demonstrate to CLT's satisfaction that they are Income-Qualified Persons as defined above. If they cannot demonstrate that they are Income-Qualified Persons, they shall not be entitled to possession of the Home but must transfer the Home in accordance with the provisions of this Article 10.

10.4 HOMEOWNER'S NOTICE OF INTENT TO SELL: In the event that Homeowner wishes to sell Homeowner's Property, Homeowner shall notify CLT in writing of such wish (the Intent-to-Sell Notice). This Notice shall include a statement as to whether Homeowner wishes to recommend a prospective buyer as of the date of the Notice. Homeowner shall notify CLT prior to taking any action to sell the Home.

10.5 AFTER RECEIVING NOTICE, CLT SHALL COMMISSION AN APPRAISAL: No later than ten (10) days after CLT's receipt of Homeowner's Intent-to-Sell Notice, CLT shall commission a market valuation of the Leased Land and the Home (The Appraisal) to be performed by a duly licensed appraiser who is acceptable to CLT and Homeowner. The Homeowner shall pay the cost of such Appraisal. Appraisals shall be ordered by the CLT and carried out via the CLT's rotation of approved appraisers. The Appraisal shall be conducted by analysis and comparison of comparable properties as though title to Leased Land and Home were held in fee simple absolute by a single party, disregarding all of the restrictions of this Lease on the use, occupancy and transfer of the property. The Appraisal shall state the values contributed by the Leased Land and by the Home (consisting of improvements only) as separate amounts. Copies of the Appraisal are to be provided to both CLT and Homeowner.

10.6 CLT HAS AN OPTION TO PURCHASE THE HOME. Upon receipt of an Intent-to-Sell Notice from Homeowner, CLT shall have the option to purchase the Home at the Purchase Option Price calculated as set forth below. The Purchase Option is designed to further the purpose of preserving the affordability of the Home for succeeding Income-Qualified Persons while taking fair account of the investment by the Homeowner.

If CLT elects to purchase the Home, CLT shall exercise the Purchase Option by notifying Homeowner, in writing, of such election (the Notice of Exercise of Option) within forty-five (45) days of the receipt of the Appraisal, or the Option shall expire. Having given such notice, CLT may either proceed to purchase the Home directly or may assign the Purchase Option to an Income-Qualified Person.

The purchase (by CLT or CLT's assignee) must be completed within sixty (60) days of CLT's Notice of Exercise of Option, or Homeowner may sell the Home and Homeowner's rights to the Leased Land as provided in Section 10.7 below. The time permitted for the completion of the purchase may be extended by mutual agreement of CLT and Homeowner.

Homeowner may recommend to CLT a prospective buyer who is an Income-Qualified Person and is prepared to submit Letters of Agreement and Attorney's Acknowledgement indicating informed acceptance of the terms of this Lease. CLT shall make reasonable efforts to arrange for the assignment of the Purchase Option to such person, unless CLT determines that its charitable mission is better served by retaining the Home for another purpose or transferring the Home to another party.

10.7 IF PURCHASE OPTION EXPIRES, HOMEOWNER MAY SELL ON CERTAIN TERMS: If the Purchase Option has expired or if CLT has failed to complete the purchase within the sixty-day period allowed by Section 10.6 above, Homeowner may sell the Home to any Income-Qualified Person for not more than the then applicable Purchase Option Price. If Homeowner has made diligent efforts to sell the Home for at least six months after the expiration of the Purchase Option (or six months after the expiration of such sixty-day period) and the Home still has not been sold, Homeowner may then sell the Home, for a price no greater than the then applicable Purchase Option Price, to any party regardless of whether that party is an Income-Qualified Person.

10.8 AFTER ONE YEAR CLT SHALL HAVE POWER OF ATTORNEY TO CONDUCT SALE: If CLT does not exercise its option and complete the purchase of Homeowner's Property as described above, and if Homeowner (a) is not then residing in the Home and (b) continues to hold Homeowner's Property out for sale but is unable to locate a buyer and execute a binding purchase and sale agreement within one year of the date of the Intent to Sell Notice, Homeowner does hereby appoint CLT its attorney in fact to seek a buyer, negotiate a reasonable price that furthers the purposes of this Lease, sell the property, and pay to the Homeowner the proceeds of sale, minus CLT's costs of sale and any other sums owed CLT by Homeowner.

10.9 PURCHASE OPTION PRICE EQUALS LESSER OF APPRAISED VALUE OR FORMULA PRICE: In no event may the Home be sold for a price that exceeds the Purchase Option Price. The Purchase Option Price shall be the lesser of (a) the value of the Home (consisting of improvements only) as determined by the Appraisal commissioned and conducted as provided in 10.5 above or (b) the price calculated in accordance with the formula described below (the Formula Price).

10.10 HOW THE FORMULA PRICE IS CALCULATED: The Formula Price shall be equal to Homeowner's Base $115,000 Price, as stated below, plus a percentage of the increase in market value of the Home, if any, calculated in the way described below.

Homeowner's Base Price: The parties agree that the Homeowner's Base Price for Homeowner's Property as of the signing of this Lease is $115,000

Initial Appraised Value: The parties agree that the appraised value of the Home at the time of Homeowner's purchase (the Initial Appraised Value) is $225,000, as documented by the appraiser's report attached to this Lease as Exhibit INITIAL APPRAISAL.

Increase in Market Value: The increase in market value of the Home equals the appraised value of the Home at time of sale, calculated according to Section 10.5 above, minus the Initial Appraised Value.

Homeowner's share of Increase in Market Value: Homeowner's share of the increase in the market value of the Home equals a percentage of the increase in market value of the Home as calculated below.

Summary of Formula Price: The Formula Price Equals Homeowner's Base Price plus Homeowner's Share of Increase in Market Value.

The Homeowner's share in the increase in the market value of the Home is tied to their length of ownership as follows:

- If the property is sold within the 1st or 2nd year, they are entitled to 5%.
- If the property is sold within the 3rd or 5th year, they are entitled to 10%.

DRAFT

- If the property is sold within the 6th to 10th year, they are entitled to 15%.
- If the property is sold any time after the 11th year, they are entitled to 25%.

10.11 QUALIFIED PURCHASER SHALL RECEIVE NEW LEASE: The CLT shall issue a new lease to any person who purchases the Home in accordance with the terms of this Article 10. The terms of such lease shall be the same as those of new leases issued to homebuyers at that time for land not previously leased by the CLT.

10.12 PURCHASER MAY BE CHARGED A TRANSFER FEE. In the event that Homeowner sells the home to a party other than the CLT (whether directly to such party or as a result of CLT's assignment of its Purchase Option to such party), the price to be paid by such purchaser shall include in addition to the Purchase Option Price, at the discretion of the CLT, a transfer fee to compensate the CLT for carrying out its responsibilities with regard to the transaction. The amount of the transfer fee shall be no more than 1% of the Purchase Option Price.

10.13 HOMEOWNER REQUIRED TO MAKE NECESSARY REPAIRS AT TRANSFER: The Homeowner is required to make necessary repairs when she voluntarily transfers the Home as follows:

a) The person purchasing the Home ("Buyer") shall, prior to purchasing the Home, hire at their sole expense a building inspector with a current Home Inspector license from the State of Florida to assess the condition of the Home and prepare a written report of the condition ("Inspection Report"). The Homeowner shall cooperate fully with the inspection.
b) The Buyer shall provide a copy of the Inspection Report to Buyer's lender (if any), the Homeowner, and the CLT within 10 days after receiving the Inspection Report.
c) Homeowner shall repair specific reported defects or conditions necessary to bring the Home into full compliance with Sections 4.2 and 7.5 above prior to transferring the Home.
d) Homeowner shall bear the full cost of the necessary repairs and replacements. However, upon Homeowner's written request, the CLT may allow the Homeowner to pay all or a portion of the repair costs after transfer, from Homeowner's proceeds of sale, if Homeowner cannot afford to pay such costs prior to the transfer. In such event, either (i) 150% of the unpaid estimated cost of repairs or (ii) 100% of the unpaid cost of completed repairs shall be withheld from Homeowner's proceeds of sale in a CLT-approved escrow account.
e) Homeowner shall allow CLT, Buyer, and Buyer's building inspector and lender's representative to inspect the repairs prior to closing to determine that the repairs have been satisfactorily completed.
f) Upon sale or other transfer, Homeowner shall either (i) transfer the Home with all originally purchased appliances or replacements in the Home in good working order or (ii) reduce the Purchase Option Price by the market value of any such appliances that are not left with the Home in good working order.

ARTICLE 12: DEFAULT

12.1 WHAT HAPPENS IF HOMEOWNER FAILS TO MAKE PAYMENTS TO THE CLT THAT ARE REQUIRED BY THE LEASE: It shall be an event of default if Homeowner fails to pay the Lease Fee or other charges required by the terms of this Lease and such failure is not cured by Homeowner or a Permitted Mortgagee within thirty (30) days after notice of such failure is given by CLT to Homeowner and Permitted Mortgagee. However, if Homeowner makes a good faith partial payment of at least two-thirds (2/3) of the amount owed during the 30-day cure period, then the cure period shall be extended by an additional 30 days.

12.2 WHAT HAPPENS IF HOMEOWNER VIOLATES OTHER (NONMONETARY) TERMS OF THE LEASE: It shall be an event of default if Homeowner fails to abide by any other requirement or restriction stated in this Lease, and such failure is not cured by Homeowner or a Permitted Mortgagee within sixty (60) days after notice of such failure is given by CLT to Homeowner and Permitted Mortgagee. However, if Homeowner or Permitted Mortgagee has begun to cure such default within the 60-day cure period and is continuing such cure with due diligence but cannot complete the cure within the 60-day cure period, the cure period shall be extended for as much additional time as may be reasonably required to complete the cure.

12.3 WHAT HAPPENS IF HOMEOWNER DEFAULTS AS A RESULT OF JUDICIAL PROCESS: It shall be an event of default if the estate hereby created is taken on execution or by other process of law, or if Homeowner is judicially declared bankrupt or insolvent according to law, or if any assignment is made of the property of Homeowner for the benefit of creditors, or if a receiver, trustee in involuntary bankruptcy or other similar officer is appointed to take charge of any substantial part of the Home or Homeowner's interest in the Leased Land by a court of competent jurisdiction, or if a petition is filed for the reorganization of Homeowner under any provisions of the Bankruptcy Act now or hereafter enacted, or if Homeowner files a petition for such reorganization, or for arrangements under any provision of the Bankruptcy Act now or hereafter enacted and providing a plan for a debtor to settle, satisfy or extend the time for payment of debts.

12.4 A DEFAULT (UNCURED VIOLATION) GIVES CLT THE RIGHT TO TERMINATE THE LEASE OR EXERCISE ITS PURCHASE OPTION:

a) TERMINATION: In the case of any of the events of default described above, CLT may terminate this lease and initiate summary proceedings under applicable law against Homeowner, and CLT shall have all the rights and remedies consistent with such laws and resulting court orders to enter the Leased Land and Home and repossess the entire Leased Land and Home, and expel Homeowner and those claiming rights through Homeowner. In addition, CLT shall have such additional rights and remedies to recover from Homeowner arrears of rent and damages from any preceding breach of any covenant of this Lease. If this Lease is terminated by CLT pursuant to an Event of Default, then, as provided in Section 7.7 above, upon thus assuming title to the Home, CLT shall pay to Homeowner and any Permitted Mortgagee an amount equal to the Purchase Option Price calculated in accordance with Section 10.9 above, as of the time of reversion of ownership, less the total amount of any unpaid Lease Fee and any other amounts owed to the CLT under the terms of this Lease and all reasonable costs (including reasonable attorneys' fees) incurred by CLT in pursuit of its remedies under this Lease.

If CLT elects to terminate the Lease, then the Permitted Mortgagee shall have the right (subject to Article 8 above and the attached Exhibit: Permitted Mortgages) to postpone and extend the specified date for the termination of the Lease for a period sufficient to enable the Permitted Mortgagee or its designee to acquire Homeowner's interest in the Home and the Leased Land by foreclosure of its mortgage or otherwise.

b) EXERCISE OF OPTION: In the case of any of the events of default described above, Homeowner hereby grants to the CLT (or its assignee) the option to purchase the Home for the Purchase Option Price as such price is defined in Article 10 above. Within thirty (30) days after the expiration of any applicable cure period as established in Sections 12.1 or 12.2 above or within 30 days after any of the events constituting an Event of Default under Section 12.3 above, CLT shall notify the Homeowner and the Permitted Mortgagee(s) of its decision to exercise its option to purchase under this Section 12.4(b). Not later than ninety (90) days after the CLT gives notice to the Homeowner of the CLT's intent to exercise its option under this Section 12.4(a), the CLT or its assignee shall purchase the Home for the Purchase Option Price.

12.5 WHAT HAPPENS IF CLT DEFAULTS: CLT shall in no event be in default in the performance of any of its obligations under the Lease unless and until CLT has failed to perform such obligations within sixty (60) days, or such additional time as is reasonably required to correct any default, after notice by Homeowner to CLT properly specifying CLT's failure to perform any such obligation.

ARTICLE 13: Arbitration

13.1 All claims and disputes arising under or relating to this Agreement are to be settled by binding arbitration in the state of Florida unless another location is mutually agreeable to the parties. The arbitration shall be conducted on a confidential basis pursuant to the Commercial Arbitration Rules of the American Arbitration Association. Any decision or award as a result of any such arbitration proceeding shall be in writing and shall provide an explanation for all conclusions of law and fact and shall include the assessment of costs, expenses, and reasonable attorneys' fees. Any such arbitration shall be conducted by an arbitrator experienced in real estate and shall include a written record of the arbitration hearing. The parties reserve the right to object to any individual who shall be employed by or affiliated with a competing organization or entity. An award of arbitration may be confirmed in a court of competent jurisdiction.

13.2 Homeowner and CLT shall each pay one half (50%) of any costs incurred in carrying out mediation or arbitration in which the parties have agreed to engage.

ARTICLE 14: GENERAL PROVISIONS

14.1 HOMEOWNER'S MEMBERSHIP IN CLT: The Homeowner under this Lease shall automatically be a regular voting member of, or, select representation to the CLT Resident Advisory Committee. Participation in CLT meetings will be rescinded for Homeowners in default until the matter is resolved.

14.2 NOTICES: Whenever this Lease requires either party to give notice to the other, the notice shall be given in writing and delivered in person or mailed, by certified or registered mail, return receipt requested, to the party at the address set forth below, or such other address designated by like written notice:

If to CLT: Tallahassee Lenders' Consortium
224 Office Plaza Drive
Tallahassee, FL 32301

with a copy to Susan Thompson, 3520 Thomasville Rd. 4th Floor, Tallahassee, FL 32303 (CLT's attorney and address). If to Homeowner: NAME & ADDRESS

All notices, demands and requests shall be effective upon being deposited in the United States Mail or, in the case of personal delivery, upon actual receipt.

14.3 NO BROKERAGE: Homeowner warrants that it has not dealt with any real estate broker other than TLC in connection with the purchase of the Home. If any claim is made against CLT regarding dealings with brokers other than TLC, the Homeowner shall defend CLT against such claim with counsel of CLT's selection and shall reimburse CLT for any loss, cost or damage which may result from such claim.

14.4 SEVERABILITY AND DURATION OF LEASE: If any part of this Lease is unenforceable or invalid, such material shall be read out of this Lease and shall not affect the validity of any other part of this Lease or give rise to any cause of action of Homeowner or CLT against the other, and the remainder of this Lease shall be valid and enforced to the fullest extent permitted by law. It is the intention of the parties that CLT's option to purchase and all other rights of both parties under this Lease shall continue in effect for the full term of this Lease and any renewal thereof, and shall be considered to be coupled with an interest. In the event any such option or right shall be construed to be subject to any rule of law limiting the duration of such option or right, the time period for the exercising of such option or right shall be construed to expire twenty (20) years after the death of the last survivor of the following persons:

NOTE: List an identifiable group of small children, e.g., the children living as of the date of this Lease of any of the directors or employees of a specified corporation.

14.5 RIGHT OF FIRST REFUSAL IN LIEU OF OPTION: If the provisions of the purchase option set forth in Article 10 of this Lease shall, for any reason, become unenforceable, CLT shall nevertheless have a right of first refusal to purchase the Home at the highest documented bona fide purchase price offer made to Homeowner. Such right shall be as specified in Exhibit FIRST REFUSAL. Any sale or transfer contrary to this Section, when applicable, shall be null and void.

14.6 WAIVER: The waiver by CLT at any time of any requirement or restriction in this Lease, or the failure of CLT to take action with respect to any breach of any such requirement or restriction, shall not be deemed to be a waiver of such requirement or restriction with regard to any subsequent breach of such requirement or restriction, or of any other requirement or restriction in the Lease. CLT may grant waivers in the terms of this Lease, but such waivers must be in writing and signed by CLT before being effective.

The subsequent acceptance of Lease Fee payments by CLT shall not be deemed to be a waiver of any preceding breach by Homeowner of any requirement or restriction in this Lease, other than the failure of the Homeowner to pay the particular Lease Fee so accepted, regardless of CLT's knowledge of such preceding breach at the time of acceptance of such Lease Fee payment.

14.7 CLT'S RIGHT TO PROSECUTE OR DEFEND: CLT shall have the right, but shall have no obligation, to prosecute or defend, in its own or the Homeowner's name, any actions or proceedings appropriate to the protection of its own or Homeowner's interest in the Leased Land. Whenever requested by CLT, the Homeowner shall give CLT all reasonable aid in any such action or proceeding.

14.8 CONSTRUCTION: Whenever in this Lease a pronoun is used it shall be construed to represent either the singular or the plural, masculine or feminine, as the case shall demand.

14.9 HEADINGS AND TABLE OF CONTENTS: The headings, subheadings and table of contents appearing in this Lease are for convenience only, and are not a part of this Lease and do not in any way limit or amplify the terms or conditions of this Lease.

14.10 PARTIES BOUND: This Lease sets forth the entire agreement between CLT and Homeowner with respect to the leasing of the Land; it is binding upon and inures to the benefit of these parties and, in accordance with the provisions of this Lease, their respective successors in interest. This Lease may be altered or amended only by written notice executed by CLT and Homeowner or their legal representatives or, in accordance with the provisions of this Lease, their successors in interest. No oral or unsigned statement made by any party that conflicts with any provision of this Lease shall be binding or enforceable upon such party.

14.11 GOVERNING LAW: This Lease shall be interpreted in accordance with and governed by the laws of Florida. The language in all parts of this Lease shall be, in all cases, construed according to its fair meaning and not strictly for or against CLT or Homeowner.

14.12 RECORDING: The parties agree, as an alternative to the recording of this Lease, to execute a so-called Notice of Lease or Short Form Lease in form recordable and complying with applicable law and reasonably satisfactory to CLT's attorneys. In no

Exhibit: PERMITTED MORTGAGES

The rights and provisions set forth in this Exhibit shall be understood to be provisions of 8.1 of the Lease. All terminology used in this Exhibit shall have the meaning assigned to it in the Lease.

A. OBLIGATIONS OF PERMITTED MORTGAGEE. Any Permitted Mortgagee shall be bound by each of the following requirements unless the particular requirement is removed, contradicted or modified by a rider to this Lease signed by the Homeowner and the CLT to modify the terms of the Lease during the term of the Permitted Mortgage.

1. If Permitted Mortgagee sends a notice of default to the Homeowner because the Homeowner has failed to comply with the terms of the Permitted Mortgage, the Permitted Mortgagee shall, at the same time, send a copy of that notice to the CLT. Upon receiving a copy of the notice of default and within that period of time in which the Homeowner has a right to cure such default (the "cure period"), the CLT shall have the right to cure the default on the Homeowner's behalf.

2. If, after the cure period has expired, the Permitted Mortgagee intends to accelerate the note secured by the Permitted Mortgage or begin foreclosure proceedings under the Permitted Mortgage, the Permitted Mortgagee shall first notify CLT of its intention to do so, and CLT shall then have the right, upon notifying the Permitted Mortgagee within thirty (30) days of receipt of such notice, to acquire the Permitted Mortgage by paying off the debt secured by the Permitted Mortgage.

3. If the Permitted Mortgagee acquires title to the Home through foreclosure or acceptance of a deed in lieu of foreclosure, the Permitted Mortgagee shall give CLT written notice of such acquisition and CLT shall then have an option to purchase the Home from the Permitted Mortgagee for the full amount owing to the Permitted Mortgagee under the Permitted Mortgage. To exercise this option to purchase, CLT must give written notice to the Permitted Mortgagee of CLT's intent to purchase the Home within thirty (30) days following CLT's receipt of the Permitted Mortgagee's notice. CLT must then complete the purchase of the Home within sixty (60) days of having given written notice of its intent to purchase. If CLT does not complete the purchase within this 60-day period, the Permitted Mortgagee shall be free to sell the Home to another person.

4. Nothing in the Permitted Mortgage or related documents shall be construed as giving Permitted Mortgagee a claim on CLT's interest in the Leased Land, or as assigning any form of liability to the CLT with regard to the Leased Land, the Home, or the Permitted Mortgage.

5. Nothing in the Permitted Mortgage or related documents shall be construed as rendering CLT or any subsequent Mortgagee of CLT's interest in this Lease, or their respective heirs, executors, successors or assigns, personally liable for the payment of the debt secured by the Permitted Mortgage or any part thereof.

6. The Permitted Mortgagee shall not look to CLT or CLT's interest in the Leased Land, but will look solely to Homeowner, Homeowner's interest in the Leased Land, and the Home for the payment of the debt secured thereby or any part thereof. (It is the intention of the parties hereto that CLT's consent to such the Permitted Mortgage shall be without any liability on the part of CLT for any deficiency judgment.)

7. In the event any part of the Security is taken in condemnation or by right of eminent domain, the proceeds of the award shall be paid over to the Permitted Mortgagee in accordance with the provisions of ARTICLE 9 hereof.

8. CLT shall not be obligated to execute an assignment of the Lease Fee or other rent payable by Homeowner under the terms of this Lease.

B. RIGHTS OF PERMITTED MORTGAGEE. The rights of a Permitted Mortgagee as referenced under Section 8.6 of the Lease to which this Exhibit is attached shall be as set forth below.

1. Any Permitted Mortgagee shall, without further consent by CLT, have the right to (a) cure any default under this Lease, and perform any obligation required under this Lease, such cure or performance being effective as if it had been performed by Homeowner; (b) acquire and convey, assign, transfer and exercise any right, remedy or privilege granted to Homeowner by this Lease or otherwise by law, subject to the provisions, if any, in the Permitted Mortgage, which may limit any exercise of any such right, remedy or privilege; and (c) rely upon and enforce any provisions of the Lease to the extent that such provisions are for the benefit of a Permitted Mortgagee.

2. A Permitted Mortgagee shall not be required, as a condition to the exercise of its rights under the Lease, to assume personal liability for the payment and performance of the obligations of the Homeowner under the Lease. Any such payment or performance or other act by Permitted Mortgagee under the Lease shall not be construed as an agreement by Permitted Mortgagee to assume such personal liability except to the extent Permitted Mortgagee actually takes possession of the Home and Leased Land. In the event Permitted Mortgagee does take possession of the Home and Leased Land and thereupon transfers such property, any such transferee shall be required to enter into a written agreement assuming such personal liability and upon any such assumption the Permitted Mortgagee shall automatically be released from personal liability under the Lease.

3. In the event that title to the estates of both CLT and Homeowner are acquired at any time by the same person or persons, no merger of these estates shall occur without the prior written declaration of merger by Permitted Mortgagee, so long as Permitted Mortgagee owns any interest in the Security or in a Permitted Mortgage.

4. If the Lease is terminated for any reason, or in the event of the rejection or disaffirmance of the Lease pursuant to bankruptcy law or other law affecting creditors' rights, CLT shall enter into a new lease for the Leased Land with the Permitted Mortgagee (or with any party designated by the Permitted Mortgagee, subject to CLT's approval, which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld), not more than thirty (30) days after the request of the Permitted Mortgagee. Such lease shall be for the remainder of the term of the Lease, effective as of the date of such termination, rejection or disaffirmance, and upon all the terms and provisions contained in the Lease. However, the Permitted Mortgagee shall make a written request to CLT for such new lease within sixty (60) days after the effective date of such termination, rejection or disaffirmance, as the case may be. Such written request shall be accompanied by a copy of such new lease, duly executed and acknowledged by the Permitted Mortgagee or the party designated by the Permitted Mortgagee to be the Homeowner thereunder. Any new lease made pursuant to this Section shall have the same priority with respect to other interests in the Land as the Lease. The provisions of this Section shall survive the termination, rejection or disaffirmance of the Lease and shall continue in full effect thereafter to the same extent as if this Section were independent and an independent contract made by CLT, Homeowner and the Permitted Mortgagee.

5. The CLT shall have no right to terminate the Lease during such time as the Permitted Mortgagee has commenced foreclosure in accordance with the provisions of the Lease and is diligently pursuing the same.

6. In the event that CLT sends a notice of default under the Lease to Homeowner, CLT shall also send a notice of Homeowner's default to Permitted Mortgagee. Such notice shall be given in the manner set forth in Section 14.2 of the Lease to the Permitted Mortgagee at the address which has been given by the Permitted Mortgagee to CLT by a written notice to CLT sent in the manner set forth in said Section 14.2 of the Lease.

DRAFT

7. In the event of foreclosure sale by a Permitted Mortgagee or the delivery of a deed to a Permitted Mortgagee in lieu of foreclosure in accordance with the provisions of the Lease, at the election of the Permitted Mortgagee the provisions of Article 10, Sections 10.1 through 10.11 shall be deleted and thereupon shall be of no further force or effect as to only so much of the Security so foreclosed upon or transferred.

8. Before becoming effective, any amendments to this Lease must be approved in writing by Permitted Mortgagee, which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld. If Permitted Mortgagee has neither approved nor rejected a proposed amendment within 60 days of its submission to Permitted Mortgagee, then the proposed amendment shall be deemed to be approved.

C. STANDARD PERMITTED MORTGAGE AGREEMENT. A Standard Permitted Mortgage Agreement, as identified in Section 8.4 of this Lease, shall be written as follows, and shall be signed by Mortgagee and Homeowner.

This Agreement is made by and among:

Tallahassee Lenders' Consortium, Inc. (Mortgagee) and

BUYER'S NAME ("Homeowner"),

Whereas:*

a) Tallahassee Lenders' Consortium CLT (the "CLT") and Homeowner have entered, or are entering, into a ground lease ("the Lease"), conveying to Homeowner a leasehold interest in the Land located at ADDRESS OF PROPERTY ("the Leased Land"); and Homeowner has purchased, or is purchasing, the Home located on the Leased Land ("the Home").

b) The Mortgagee has been asked to provide certain financing to the Homeowner, and is being granted concurrently herewith a mortgage and security interest (the "Mortgage") in the Leased Land and Home, all as more particularly set forth in the Mortgage, attached hereto as Schedule A.

c) The Ground Lease states that the Homeowner may mortgage the Leased Land only with the written consent of CLT. The Ground Lease further provides that CLT is required to give such consent only if the Mortgagee signs this Standard Permitted Mortgage Agreement and thereby agrees to certain conditions that are stipulated herein ("the Stipulated Conditions").

Now, therefore, the Homeowner/Mortgagor and the Mortgagee hereby agree that the terms and conditions of the Mortgage shall include the Stipulated Conditions stated below.

DRAFT

Stipulated Conditions:

1) If Mortgagee sends a notice of default to the Homeowner because the Homeowner has failed to comply with the terms of the Mortgage, the Mortgagee shall, at the same time, send a copy of that notice to the CLT. Upon receiving a copy of the notice of default and within that period of time in which the Homeowner has a right to cure such default (the "cure period"), the CLT shall have the right to cure the default on the Homeowner's behalf, provided that all current payments due the Permitted Mortgagee since the notice of default was given are made to the Mortgagee.

2) If, after such cure period, the Mortgagee intends to accelerate the note secured by the Mortgage or initiate foreclosure proceedings under the Mortgage, in accordance with the provisions of the Lease, the Mortgagee shall first notify CLT of its intention to do so and CLT shall have the right, but not the obligation, upon notifying the Mortgagee within thirty (30) days of receipt of said notice, to purchase the Mortgagee loans and to take assignment of the Mortgage.

3) If the Mortgagee acquires title to the Home and Homeowner's interest in the Leased Land through foreclosure or acceptance of a deed in lieu of foreclosure, the Mortgagee shall give the CLT written notice of such acquisition and the CLT shall have an option to purchase the Home and Homeowner's interest in the Leased Land from the Mortgagee for the full amount owing to the Mortgagee; provided, however, that the CLT notifies the Mortgagee in writing of the CLT's intent to make such purchase within thirty (30) days following the CLT's receipt of the Mortgagee's notice of such acquisition of the Home and Homeowner's interest in the Leased Land; further provided that CLT shall complete such purchase within sixty (60) days of having given written notice of its intent to purchase; and provided that, if the CLT does not complete the purchase within such period, the Mortgagee shall be free to sell the Home and Homeowner's interest in the Leased Land to another person;

4) Nothing in the Mortgage or related documents shall be construed as giving the Mortgagee a claim on CLT's interest in the Leased Land, or as assigning any form of liability to the CLT with regard to the Leased Land, the Home, or the Mortgage.

5) Nothing in the Mortgage shall be construed as rendering CLT or any subsequent holder of the CLT's interest in and to the Lease, or their respective heirs, executors, successors or assigns, personally liable for the payment of the debt evidenced by such note and such Mortgage or any part thereof.

6) The Mortgagee shall not look to CLT or CLT's interest in the Leased Land, but will look solely to Homeowner and Homeowner's interest in the Leased Land and the Home for the payment of the debt secured by the Mortgage. (It is the intention of the parties hereto that CLT's consent to the Mortgage shall be without any liability on the part of CLT for any deficiency judgment.)

7) In the event that any part of the Leased Land is taken in condemnation or by right of eminent domain, the proceeds of the award shall be paid over to the Mortgagee in accordance with the provisions of Article 9 of the Lease.

8) Nothing in the Mortgage shall obligate CLT to execute an assignment of the Lease Fee or other rent payable by Homeowner under the terms of this Lease.

Exhibit FIRST REFUSAL

Whenever any party under the Lease shall have a right of first refusal as to certain property, the following procedures shall apply. If the owner of the property offering it for sale ("Offering Party") shall within the term of the Lease receive a bona fide third party offer to purchase the property which such Offering Party is willing to accept, the holder of the right of first refusal (the "Holder") shall have the following rights:

a) Offering Party shall give written notice of such offer ("the Notice of Offer") to Holder setting forth (a) the name and address of the prospective purchaser of the property, (b) the purchase price offered by the prospective purchaser and (c) all other terms and conditions of the sale. Holder shall have a period of forty-five (45) days after the receipt of the Notice of Offer ("the Election Period") within which to exercise the right of first refusal by giving notice of intent to purchase the property ("the Notice of Intent to Purchase") for the same price and on the same terms and conditions set forth in the Notice of Offer. Such Notice of Intent to Purchase shall be given in writing to the Offering Party within the Election Period.

b) If Holder exercises the right to purchase the property, such purchase shall be completed within sixty (60) days after the Notice of Intent to Purchase is given by Holder (or if the Notice of Offer shall specify a later date for closing, such date) by performance of the terms and conditions of the Notice of Offer, including payment of the purchase price provided therein.

c) Should Holder fail to exercise the right of first refusal within the Election Period, then the Offering Party shall have the right (subject to any other applicable restrictions in the Lease) to go forward with the sale which the Offering Party desires to accept, and to sell the property within one (1) year following the expiration of the Election Period on terms and conditions which are not materially more favorable to the purchaser than those set forth in the Notice. If the sale is not consummated within such one-year period, the Offering Party's right so to sell shall end, and all of the foregoing provisions of this section shall be applied again to any future offer, all as aforesaid. If a sale is consummated within such one-year period, the purchaser shall purchase subject to the Holder having a renewed right of first refusal in said property.

Exhibit: LETTER OF AGREEMENT

Letter of Agreement

To Tallahassee Lender's Consortium Community Land Trust ("the CLT")

Date: _____

This letter is given to the CLT to become an exhibit to a Lease between the CLT and me. I will be leasing a parcel of land from the CLT and will be buying the home that sits on that parcel of land. I will therefore become what is described in the Lease as a "the Homeowner."

My legal counsel, _____, has explained to me the terms and conditions of the Lease and other legal documents that are part of this transaction. I understand the way these terms and conditions will affect my rights as a CLT homeowner, now and in the future.

In particular I understand and agree with the following points.

One of the goals of the CLT is to keep CLT homes affordable for lower income households from one CLT homeowner to the next. I support this goal as a CLT homeowner and as a member of the CLT.

The terms and conditions of my Lease will keep my home affordable for future "income-qualified persons" (as defined in the Lease). If and when I want to sell my home, the lease requires that I sell it either to the CLT or to another income-qualified person. The terms and conditions of the lease also limit the price for which I can sell the home, in order to keep it affordable for such income-qualified persons.

It is also a goal of the CLT to promote resident ownership of CLT homes. For this reason, my Lease requires that, if I and my family move out of our home permanently, we must sell it. We cannot continue to own it as absentee owners.

I understand that I can leave my home to my child or children or other members of my household and that, after my death, they can own the home for as long as they want to live in it and abide by the terms of the Lease, or they can sell it on the terms permitted by the Lease.

As a CLT homeowner and a member of the CLT, it is my desire to see the terms of the Lease and related documents honored. I consider these terms fair to me and others.

Sincerely

If yes, name of other local government(s)	N/A

B. Purpose of the program:

- To meet the housing needs of the very low, low and moderate-income households;
- To expand production of and preserve affordable housing; and
- To further the housing element of the local government comprehensive plan specific to affordable housing.

C. Fiscal years covered by the Plan: 2023 – 2024, 2024 – 2025, 2025 – 2026

D. Governance: The SHIP Program is established in accordance with Section 420.907-9079, Florida Statutes and Chapter 67-37, Florida Administrative Code. Cities and Counties must be in compliance with these applicable statutes, rules and any additional requirements as established through the Legislative process.

E. Local Housing Partnership: The SHIP Program encourages building active partnerships between government, lending institutions, builders and developers, not-for-profit and community-based housing providers and service organizations, providers of professional services related to affordable housing, advocates for low-income persons, real estate professionals, persons or entities that can provide housing or support services and lead agencies of the local continuums of care.

F. Leveraging: The Plan is intended to increase the availability of affordable residential units by combining local resources and cost saving measures into a local housing partnership and using public and private funds to reduce the cost of housing. SHIP funds may be leveraged with or used to supplement other Florida Housing Finance Corporation programs and to provide local match to obtain federal housing grants or programs.

G. Public Input: Public input was solicited via advertising of public meetings and the Public Hearing for the Affordable Housing Advisory Committee to adopt their Report of Recommendations. Public input was also obtained through meetings with housing providers, social service providers, local lenders, neighborhood associations and Affordable Housing Advisory Committee meetings.

H. Advertising and Outreach: SHIP funding availability shall be advertised in a newspaper of general circulation and periodicals serving ethnic and diverse neighborhoods, at least 30 days before the beginning of the application period. If no funding is available due to a waiting list, no notice of funding availability is required.

I. Waiting List/Priorities: A waiting list will not be established when there are eligible applicants for strategies that no longer have funding available.

Priorities: The following priorities for funding described/listed here apply to all strategies unless otherwise stated in an individual strategy in Section II: The County will accept applications during the advertised "Application Period" which will be at least 30 days. Once the application period ends, eligible applications will be categorized based on the most appropriate program strategy to address their needs and prioritized based upon the following ranking priority:

   b. Low
   c. Moderate (If Applicable)
2. Essential Services Personnel

   c. Moderate (If Applicable)
3. Non-Special Needs and Non-ESP
   a. Very Low
   b. Low
   c. Moderate (If Applicable)

If funds are available after applications are categorized and set asides have been met, funds will be expended on a first qualified first served basis.

J. Discrimination: In accordance with the provisions of Section 760.20-760.37 Fla. Stat., it is unlawful to discriminate on the basis of race, color, religion, sex, national origin, age, handicap, or marital status in the award application process for eligible housing.

K. Support Services and Counseling: Support and counseling services are available from various sources in the community. The County will provide Homeownership Counseling (Pre and Post), Credit Counseling, Tenant Counseling, and Foreclosure Counseling through referral to qualified HUD approved agencies, which includes, but is not limited to, Tallahassee Lenders' Consortium. The County will provide title clearing and estate planning services through referral to qualified legal aid agencies.

L. Purchase Price Limits: The sales price or value of new or existing eligible housing may not exceed 90% of the average area purchase price in the statistical area in which the eligible housing is located. Such average area purchase price may be that calculated for any 12-month period beginning not earlier than the fourth calendar year prior to the year in which the award occurs. The sales price of new and existing units, which can be lower but may not exceed 90% of the median area purchase price established by the U.S. Treasury Department or as described above.

The methodology used is:

U.S. Treasury Department	X
Local HFA Numbers

M. Income Limits, Rent Limits and Affordability: The Income and Rent Limits used in the SHIP Program are updated annually by the Department of Housing and Urban Development and posted at www.floridahousing.org.

"Affordable" means that monthly rents or mortgage payments including taxes and insurance do not exceed 30 percent of that amount which represents the percentage of the median annual gross income for the households as indicated in Sections 420.9071, Florida Statutes. However, it is not the intent to limit an individual household's ability to devote more than 30% of its income for housing, and housing for which a household devotes more than 30% of its income shall be deemed Affordable if the first institutional mortgage lender is satisfied that the household can afford mortgage payments in excess of the 30% benchmark and in the case of rental housing does not exceed those rental limits adjusted for bedroom size.

N. Welfare Transition Program: Should an eligible sponsor be used, a qualification system and selection criteria for applications for Awards to eligible sponsors shall be developed, which includes a description that demonstrates how eligible sponsors that employ personnel from the Welfare Transition Program will be given preference in the selection process.

O. Monitoring and First Right of Refusal: In the case of rental housing, the staff and any entity that has administrative authority for implementing the local housing assistance plan assisting rental developments shall annually monitor and determine tenant eligibility or, to the extent another governmental entity provides periodic monitoring and determination, a municipality, county or local housing financing authority may rely on such monitoring and determination of tenant eligibility. However, any loan or grant in the original amount of $10,000 or less shall not be subject to these annual monitoring and determination of tenant eligibility requirements. Tenant eligibility will be monitored annually for no less than 15 years or the term of assistance whichever is longer, when required as specified above.

Eligible sponsors that offer rental housing for sale before 15 years or that have remaining mortgages funded under this program must give a first right of refusal to eligible non-profit organizations for purchase at the current market value for continued occupancy by eligible persons.

P. Administrative Budget: A line-item budget of proposed Administrative Expenditures is attached as Exhibit A. Leon County finds that the moneys deposited in the local housing assistance trust fund are necessary to administer and implement the local housing assistance plan.

Section 420.9075(7), Florida Statutes states: "A county or an eligible municipality may not exceed the 5 percent limitation on administrative costs, unless its governing body finds, by resolution, that 5 percent of the local housing distribution plus 5 percent of program income is insufficient to adequately pay the necessary costs of administering the local housing assistance plan."

Section 420.9075(7) Florida Statutes further states: "The cost of administering the program may not exceed 10 percent of the local housing distribution plus 5 percent of program income deposited into the trust fund, except that small counties, as defined in s. 120.52(19), and eligible municipalities receiving a local housing distribution of up to $350,000 may use up to 10 percent of program income for administrative costs."

The applicable local jurisdiction has adopted the above findings in the resolution attached as Exhibit E.

Q. Program Administration: Administration of the local housing assistance plan will be performed by:

Entity	Duties	Admin. Fee Percentage
Local Government	All Strategies Other than Down Payment Assistance	8%
Third Party Entity/Sub-recipient	Down Payment Assistance Program Strategies	2%

R. First-time Homebuyer Definition: For any strategies designed for first-time homebuyers, the following definition will apply: An individual who has had no ownership in a principal residence during the 3-year period ending on the date of purchase of the property. This includes a spouse (if either meets the above test, they are considered first-time homebuyers). A single parent who has only owned a home with a former spouse while married. An individual who is a displaced homemaker and has only owned with a spouse. An individual who has only owned a principal residence not permanently affixed to a permanent foundation in accordance with applicable regulations. An individual who has only owned a property that was not in compliance with state, local or model building codes and which cannot be brought into compliance for less than the cost of constructing a permanent structure.

S. Project Delivery Costs: The County will charge a reasonable project delivery cost that will not exceed three percent (3%) of the contracted SHIP award and will be included in the amount of the recorded mortgage and note.

1. Title Search
2. Recordation Fee
3. The County will utilize a contractor to assess the appropriate level of housing rehabilitation necessary to improve accessibility and enhance independence for participating households having special needs.
4. The County may utilize a contractor to assess home(s) and provide a professional Home Inspection Report to be used to generate a scope of work.
5. To determine post-Home Replacement or post-Home Rehabilitation (when livable square footage is added to the home), the County may:
   i. contract with a Real Estate Agent/Realtor to provide a Broker Price Opinion and/or
   ii. contract with a Certified Residential Appraiser to provide an appraisal.

T. Essential Service Personnel Definition (ESP): ESP includes teachers and educators, other school district, community college, and university employees, police and fire personnel, health care personnel, skilled building trades personnel and active U.S. Armed Forces Service Members.

U. Describe efforts to incorporate Green Building and Energy Saving products and processes: The County will require participating homeowners to obtain a Home Energy Audit from their electric service provider if they are eligible for Home Rehabilitation and/or whenever a Heating, Ventilation and Cooling unit is being considered for replacement. The findings of the audit will be used to incorporate repairs into a cost-effective scope of work that are intended to increase the energy efficiency of the home and possibly lead to lower heating and cooling costs.

Additionally, the County and/or sponsors will, when economically feasible, employ the following Green Building requirements on Home Rehabilitation, Home Replacement, Emergency Repairs & Disaster Resilience, Homeownership Development or Rental Development:

1. Low-flow water fixtures in bathrooms—WaterSense labeled products or the following specifications:
   a. Toilets: 1.4 gallons/flush or less;
   b. Faucets: 1.5 gallons/minute or less;
   c. Showerheads: 2.0 gallons/minute or less;
2. Energy Star certified exhaust/ventilation fans in all bathrooms;
3. Energy Star certified water heater minimum efficiency specifications;
4. Energy Star certified lighting and ceiling fans with lighting;
5. Energy Star certified Air Conditioning unit(s) with minimum SEER of 15 (or 14.3 SEER2). Packaged units are allowed in studios and one-bedroom units with a minimum of 14 SEER (or 13.4 SEER2);
6. Low or No-VOC paint for all interior walls (Low-VOC means 50 grams per liter or less for flat paint; 150 grams per liter or less for non-flat paint);
7. Energy Star certified refrigerator;
8. Energy Star certified dishwasher, if provided;
9. Energy Star certified washing machine, if provided in units.

V. Describe efforts to meet the 20% Special Needs set-aside: The County will continue to obtain referrals from partner social service agencies serving the targeted population to achieve the goal of the special needs set-aside. The goal will be met through Housing Rehabilitation, Home Replacement, Down Payment Assistance, Emergency Housing Repair & Housing Resilience, Homeownership Development, Rental Development, and Rental Assistance program strategies. The County will utilize a contractor to identify ways to improve the accessibility of homes and enhance independence for participating households having special needs through the Home Rehabilitation and Home Replacement program strategies.

W. Describe efforts to reduce homelessness: The County will collaborate with the Big Bend Continuum of Care and other agencies serving the target population to assist in rapid rehousing and to prevent homelessness primarily through the Rental Subsidy program strategy, the Leon County Direct Emergency Assistance Program (DEAP) and the Leon County Veteran Emergency Assistance Program (VEAP). When funding is available, Leon County may use SHIP funds to place this target population in rental or transitional housing for the purpose of providing a stable housing situation pursuant to applicable program strategies herein.

Section II. LHAP Strategies:

A.	Down Payment Assistance	Code 1, 2

a. Summary: Funds will be awarded to First Time Homebuyers for down payment and closing costs for new and existing homes, including homes purchased from a community land trust (CLT).

b. Fiscal Years Covered: 2023 – 2024, 2024 – 2025, 2025 – 2026

c. Income Categories to be served: Very low, low and moderate (Moderate not eligible for purchase in CLT)

d. Maximum award:

Income Category	Existing Homes not Rehabilitated OR not in a CLT	CLT Homes	Newly Constructed or Rehabilitated Homes
Very Low	$10,000	$20,000	$25,000
Low	$10,000	$20,000	$25,000
Moderate	$7,500	N/A	$20,000

- Newly constructed homes are defined as homes that have never been occupied; and have obtained a certificate of occupancy within the 12-months preceding the purchase; or was built as a model home.
- Rehabilitated homes are defined as existing homes that receive repairs or rehabilitation needed for safe or sanitary habitation, correction of substantial code violations, the creation of additional living space or other repairs approved by the Leon County Division of Housing Services and are paid by the seller, the buyer or another source. Proof that the repair or rehabilitation was completed within the 12-months preceding purchase must be provided prior to closing unless a first mortgage renovation loan (FHA 203k, Freddie Mac, Fannie Mae or similar lender managed renovation purchase and renovation loan) is used to pay for the rehabilitation. When a first mortgage renovation loan is used, the project must be completed, including proof of payment, and the home must be occupied within six months of closing.

e. Terms:

1. Repayment loan/deferred loan/grant: Funds will be awarded as a deferred subordinate loan secured by a recorded subordinate mortgage and note.
2. Interest Rate: 0%
3. Years in loan term: 10 years for Fee Simple; 30 years for CLT
4. Forgiveness: If the loan remains in good standing, assistance will be forgiven at the end of the loan term.
5. Repayment: Not required as long as the loan is in good standing.
6. Default: The loan will be determined to be in default if any of the following occurs:
   - Homeowner sells, transfers or disposes of the assisted unit (by either sale, transfer, bankruptcy or foreclosure, etc.). If sold in a CLT, the loan will not be determined to be in default if the sale is approved by the CLT and provision is made for the subsequent income eligible purchaser to assume the loan to ensure homes remain affordable;
   - Homeowner no longer occupies the unit as his/her principal residence or qualifies for Homestead Property Tax Exemption;
   - Homeowner dies, or if a married couple, the survivor dies. However, the loan may be assumed by a SHIP eligible heir who will occupy the home as a primary residence. If the legal heir is not SHIP eligible or chooses not to occupy the home, the outstanding balance of the loan will be due and payable.

- Homeowner fails to maintain homeowner's insurance.
- Homeowner refinances the assisted unit. However, refinancing is allowed under the following conditions:
  - purpose of preventing foreclosure;
  - lowering the interest rate that results in a minimum monthly mortgage payment reduction of at least seventy-five ($75.00) dollars per month or to change from an adjustable rate mortgage (ARM) to a fixed rate mortgage;
  - for payment of outstanding bills with no cash out to the homeowner unless the funds are to finance repairs needed to resolve a threat to the health and safety of the occupants or to prevent further damage to the structure.

If a superior mortgage holder accelerates the loan or forecloses upon the home, the County will attempt to obtain repayment of funds via the legal process if the County determines that adequate funds may be available to justify pursuing repayment.

f. Recipient Selection Criteria:

- Applications will be ranked for assistance based on a first-qualified, first-ready-to-close basis.
- A recipient must secure a first mortgage by an approved lender.
- A recipient must be able to contribute five hundred dollars ($500.00) towards the transaction but their total liquid assets (liquid assets include all assets that can be accessed without penalty) may not exceed Thirty Thousand Dollars ($30,000). - Recipients who have homeowner's insurance in place may be required to submit a claim to the insurer and use proceeds for repairs if the needed repairs are related to an event reasonably believed to be insurable.
- Additional retrofitting activities that are eligible include, but are not limited to: waterproofing, elevating structures, elevating water heaters and heating/cooling units in flood prone areas; demolition; replacement; removal of trees and limbs which represent a hazard during high wind events; and other approved improvements.
- As established in the Interlocal agreement between the County and the City of Tallahassee, the County may, in its discretion, administer its Disaster Recovery Program in coordination with the City and, as a result, may align its program rules with the City for equitable administration.
- SHIP funds may be used alone or in conjunction with CDBG and any other Housing funds to cover the cost of repairs described under this strategy.

Section III. LHAP Incentive Strategies

In addition to the required Incentive Strategy A and Strategy B, include all adopted incentives with the policies and procedures used for implementation as provided in Section 420.9076, Florida Statutes.:

A. Expedited Permitting

Permits as defined in Section 163.3177(6)(f)(3), Florida Statutes, for affordable housing projects are expedited to a greater degree than other projects.

The procedures used to implement this strategy are as follows:

- Leon County expedites permitting of affordable housing projects by administrative direction, close coordination and teamwork. Specific processes that have been established include:

1) Using pre-permitting review to determine project status, identify and resolve potential legal problems that might preempt permitting, and otherwise expedite affordable housing.
2) Obtain assistance and cross-training from Building Inspection with the initial inspection of rehabilitation projects to ensure all code compliance issues are addressed in write-ups and permit applications. This expedites plan review and minimizes changes that delay permitting and project completion.
3) The Director of the Office of Human Services & Community Partnerships and the staff are the designated liaisons with the Affordable Housing Program and assists with the resolution of difficult permitting issues.

These processes will promote a reduction in building permitting time for affordable housing projects by 50% from the average of ten (10) days to an average of five (5) days.

B. Ongoing Review Process

An ongoing process for review of local policies, ordinances, regulations and plan provisions that increase the cost of housing prior to their adoption.

The procedures used to implement this strategy:

- By administrative direction, all Local Comprehensive Plan and Land Development Regulations (LDR) with the potential to impact the cost of affordable housing are referred to the Leon County Division of Housing Services. Any of these Plan or LDR amendments potentially affecting affordable housing costs can be brought up to a meeting of the Department of Development Support and Environmental Management, the Planning Department, and the Division of Housing Services for modification and transmittal to the Board of County Commissioners or other appropriate review or approval entities.

C. Flexibility in Densities

The allowance of flexibility in densities for affordable housing.

The procedures used to implement this strategy:

- The Land Development Code (LDC) provides incentives for affordable housing regarding the required review level. For example, projects with 50% or more affordable housing units can have their review threshold increased by 50% thereby potentially allowing a lower review level leading to potentially lower permitting costs. [Section 10-7.402(4)(h) of the LDC]

D. Modification of Impact Fee Requirements

The modification of impact-fee requirements, including reduction or waiver of fees and alternative methods of fee payment for affordable housing.

The procedures used to implement this strategy:

- The County eliminated its transportation impact fee in 1995; therefore, housing developers do not pay any county impact fees. The Public Works Department supports affordable housing by waiving landfill dumping (tipping) fees for disposal of construction debris by the County's affordable housing contractors.

E. Allowance of Accessory Dwelling Units

The allowance of affordable accessory residential units in residential zoning districts.

The procedures used to implement this strategy:

- The LDC allows accessory dwelling units in conjunction with the following principal structures: single-family detached dwellings; retail establishments; offices; and principal industrial structures. [Section 10-6.803(b) of the LDC]

F. Inventory of Public Lands Suitable for Affordable Housing

The preparation of a printed inventory of locally owned public lands suitable for affordable housing.

The procedures used to implement this strategy:

- County staff prepares, and makes available to the public, a printable inventory of County-owned lands suitable for affordable housing.

SHIP funds may be leveraged with or used to supplement other Florida Housing Finance Corporation programs and to provide local match to obtain federal housing grants or programs.

G. Public Input: Public input was solicited via advertising of public meetings and the Public Hearing for the Affordable Housing Advisory Committee to adopt their Report of Recommendations. Priorities: The following priorities for funding described/listed here apply to all strategies unless otherwise stated in an individual strategy in Section II: The County will accept applications during the advertised "Application Period" which will be at least 30 days. Such average area purchase price may be that calculated for any 12-month period beginning not earlier than the fourth calendar year prior to the year in which the award occurs. The sales price of new and existing units, which can be lower but may not exceed 90% of the median area purchase price established by the U.S. Treasury Department or as described above.

The methodology used is:

U.S. Treasury Department	X
Local HFA Numbers

M. Income Limits, Rent Limits and Affordability: The Income and Rent Limits used in the SHIP Program are updated annually by the Department of Housing and Urban Development and posted at www.floridahousing.org.

"Affordable" means that monthly rents or mortgage payments including taxes and insurance do not exceed 30 percent of that amount which represents the percentage of the median annual gross income for the households as indicated in Sections 420.9071, Florida Statutes. However, it is not the intent to limit an individual household's ability to devote more than 30% of its income for housing, and housing for which a household devotes more than 30% of its income shall be deemed Affordable if the first institutional mortgage lender is satisfied that the household can afford mortgage payments in excess of the 30% benchmark and in the case of rental housing does not exceed those rental limits adjusted for bedroom size.

N. Welfare Transition Program: Should an eligible sponsor be used, a qualification system and selection criteria for applications for Awards to eligible sponsors shall be developed, which includes a description that demonstrates how eligible sponsors that employ personnel from the Welfare Transition Program will be given preference in the selection process.

O. Monitoring and First Right of Refusal: In the case of rental housing, the staff and any entity that has administrative authority for implementing the local housing assistance plan assisting rental developments shall annually monitor and determine tenant eligibility or, to the extent another governmental entity provides periodic monitoring and determination, a municipality, county or local housing financing authority may rely on such monitoring and determination of tenant eligibility. However, any loan or grant in the original amount of $10,000 or less shall not be subject to these annual monitoring and determination of tenant eligibility requirements. Tenant eligibility will be monitored annually for no less than 15 years or the term of assistance whichever is longer, when required as specified above.

Eligible sponsors that offer rental housing for sale before 15 years or that have remaining mortgages funded under this program must give a first right of refusal to eligible non-profit organizations for purchase at the current market value for continued occupancy by eligible persons.

P. Administrative Budget: A line-item budget of proposed Administrative Expenditures is attached as Exhibit A. Leon County finds that the moneys deposited in the local housing assistance trust fund are necessary to administer and implement the local housing assistance plan.

Section 420.9075(7), Florida Statutes states: "A county or an eligible municipality may not exceed the 5 percent limitation on administrative costs, unless its governing body finds, by resolution, that 5 percent of the local housing distribution plus 5 percent of program income is insufficient to adequately pay the necessary costs of administering the local housing assistance plan."

Section 420.9075(7) Florida Statutes further states: "The cost of administering the program may not exceed 10 percent of the local housing distribution plus 5 percent of program income deposited into the trust fund, except that small counties, as defined in s. 120.52(19), and eligible municipalities receiving a local housing distribution of up to $350,000 may use up to 10 percent of program income for administrative costs."

The applicable local jurisdiction has adopted the above findings in the resolution attached as Exhibit E.

Q. Program Administration: Administration of the local housing assistance plan will be performed by:

Entity	Duties	Admin. Fee Percentage
Local Government	All Strategies Other than Down Payment Assistance	8%
Third Party Entity/Sub-recipient	Down Payment Assistance Program Strategies	2%

R. First-time Homebuyer Definition: For any strategies designed for first-time homebuyers, the following definition will apply: An individual who has had no ownership in a principal residence during the 3-year period ending on the date of purchase of the property. This includes a spouse (if either meets the above test, they are considered first-time homebuyers). A single parent who has only owned a home with a former spouse while married. An individual who is a displaced homemaker and has only owned with a spouse. An individual who has only owned a principal residence not permanently affixed to a permanent foundation in accordance with applicable regulations. An individual who has only owned a property that was not in compliance with state, local or model building codes and which cannot be brought into compliance for less than the cost of constructing a permanent structure.

S.* Project Delivery Costs: The County will charge a reasonable project delivery cost that will not exceed three percent (3%) of the contracted SHIP award and will be included in the amount of the recorded mortgage and note.

1. Title Search
2. Recordation Fee
3. The County will utilize a contractor to assess the appropriate level of housing rehabilitation necessary to improve accessibility and enhance independence for participating households having special needs.
4. The County may utilize a contractor to assess home(s) and provide a professional Home Inspection Report to be used to generate a scope of work.
5. To determine post-Home Replacement or post-Home Rehabilitation (when livable square footage is added to the home), the County may:
    i. contract with a Real Estate Agent/Realtor to provide a Broker Price Opinion and/or

T. Essential Service Personnel Definition (ESP): ESP includes teachers and educators, other school district, community college, and university employees, police and fire personnel, health care personnel, skilled building trades personnel and active U.S. Armed Forces Service Members.

The findings of the audit will be used to incorporate repairs into a cost-effective scope of work that are intended to increase the energy efficiency of the home and possibly lead to lower heating and cooling costs.

When funding is available, Leon County may use SHIP funds to place this target population in rental or transitional housing for the purpose of providing a stable housing situation pursuant to applicable program strategies herein.

III. LHAP Incentive Strategies

In addition to the required Incentive Strategy A and Strategy B, include all adopted incentives with the policies and procedures used for implementation as provided in Section 420.9076, Florida Statutes.:

A. Expedited Permitting

Permits as defined in Section 163.3177(6)(f)(3), Florida Statutes, for affordable housing projects are expedited to a greater degree than other projects.

The procedures used to implement this strategy are as follows:

Leon County expedites permitting of affordable housing projects by administrative direction, close coordination and teamwork. Specific processes that have been established include:

1) Using pre-permitting review to determine project status, identify and resolve potential legal problems that might preempt permitting, and otherwise expedite affordable housing.

2) Obtain assistance and cross-training from Building Inspection with the initial inspection of rehabilitation projects to ensure all code compliance issues are addressed in write-ups and permit applications. This expedites plan review and minimizes changes that delay permitting and project completion.

3) The Director of the Office of Human Services & Community Partnerships and the staff are the designated liaisons with the Affordable Housing Program and assists with the resolution of difficult permitting issues.

These processes will promote a reduction in building permitting time for affordable housing projects by 50% from the average of ten (10) days to an average of five (5) days.

B. Ongoing Review Process

An ongoing process for review of local policies, ordinances, regulations and plan provisions that increase the cost of housing prior to their adoption.

The procedures used to implement this strategy:

By administrative direction, all Local Comprehensive Plan and Land Development Regulations (LDR) with the potential to impact the cost of affordable housing are referred to the Leon County Division of Housing Services. Any of these Plan or LDR amendments potentially affecting affordable housing costs can be brought up to a meeting of the Department of Development Support and Environmental Management, the Planning Department, and the Division of Housing Services for modification and transmittal to the Board of County Commissioners or other appropriate review or approval entities.

C. Flexibility in Densities

The allowance of flexibility in densities for affordable housing.

The procedures used to implement this strategy:

The Land Development Code (LDC) provides incentives for affordable housing regarding the required review level. For example, projects with 50% or more affordable housing units can have their review threshold increased by 50% thereby potentially allowing a lower review level leading to potentially lower permitting costs. [Section 10-7.402(4)(h) of the LDC]

D. Modification of Impact Fee Requirements

The modification of impact-fee requirements, including reduction or waiver of fees and alternative methods of fee payment for affordable housing.

The procedures used to implement this strategy:

The County eliminated its transportation impact fee in 1995; therefore, housing developers do not pay any county impact fees. The Public Works Department supports affordable housing by waiving landfill dumping (tipping) fees for disposal of construction debris by the County's affordable housing contractors.

E. Allowance of Accessory Dwelling Units

The allowance of affordable accessory residential units in residential zoning districts.

The procedures used to implement this strategy:

The LDC allows accessory dwelling units in conjunction with the following principal structures: single-family detached dwellings; retail establishments; offices; and principal industrial structures. [Section 10-6.803(b) of the LDC]

F. Inventory of Public Lands Suitable for Affordable Housing

The preparation of a printed inventory of locally owned public lands suitable for affordable housing.

The procedures used to implement this strategy:

County staff prepares, and makes available to the public, a printable inventory of County-owned lands suitable for affordable housing.

Title: Ratification of Support for the Leon County Sheriff's Office Application for the Model Cities Initiative Federal Grant

Review and Approval:	Vincent S. Long, County Administrator
Department / Division Review:	Ken Morris, Assistant County Administrator Shington Lamy, Assistant County Administrator
Lead Staff / Project Team:	Teresa Broxton, Director, Office of Intervention and Detention Alternatives Eryn Calabro, Principal Budget and Grants Coordinator, Office of Management and Budget

Statement of Issue:

As requested by the Leon County Sheriff's Office, this item seeks Board ratification of Leon County's support for the Leon County Sheriff's Office's Fiscal Year (FY) 2026 Model Cities Initiative Grant application, which was submitted to the U.S. Department of Justice on September 1, 2026.

Fiscal Impact:

This item has no fiscal impact. The Leon County Sheriff's Office applied for U.S. Department of Justice Model Cities Initiative Grant in the amount of $167.2 million, which does not require a local match. If awarded, an agenda item will be presented to the Board for consideration to accept the funds.

Staff Recommendation:

Option #1: Ratify Leon County's support for the Leon County Sheriff's Office Model Cities Initiative Grant application.

Report and Discussion

Background:

This item seeks Board ratification of Leon County's support for the Leon County Sheriff's Office's (LCSO) FY 2026 Model Cities Initiative Grant application, which LCSO submitted to the U.S. Department of Justice (DOJ) on September 1, 2026.

This agenda item advances the following FY 2022 – FY 2026 Strategic Initiative:

- Identify and evaluate pretrial alternatives to incarceration for low level and non-violent offenders and support reentry through regional partnerships and state and national efforts. (2022 – 23)

This particular Strategic Initiative aligns with the Board's Quality of Life Strategic Priority:

- (Q3) Provide essential public safety infrastructure and services while supporting early intervention and prevention strategies.

On June 3, 2026, DOJ released the Model Cities Initiative (MCI) Grant solicitation to identify model cities that will implement comprehensive and innovative strategies to reduce crime and restore law and order that can serve as a national blueprint for crime reduction. For the highly competitive grant, DOJ plans to award roughly $300 million across two to four chosen cities/communities. To qualify, an applicant's jurisdiction must have at least 100,000 residents. As part of their application, an applicant must also secure the signatures of specific local partners (i.e., the Board of County Commissioners, Director of Health and Human Services, Community Supervision Executive, Mayor, City Manager, State Attorney, and Sheriff) on an associated form to demonstrate community support of the grant request. The application submission deadline was September 1, 2026.

On July 17, 2026, Sheriff Walt McNeil convened a meeting with community partners to express LCSO's intent to apply for the MCI Grant and discuss the application requirements. During the meeting, LCSO shared that the proposed application would be provided to partners prior to the request for signatures. On August 31, 2026, LCSO provided a draft application to community partners and requested signatures for the required form to demonstrate community support.

As a result, the County Administrator executed the required form on behalf of the Board to ensure LCSO could meet the submission deadline. Additionally, County staff provided the required signatures for Director of Health and Human Services (Assistant County Administrator Shington Lamy) and Community Supervision Executive (Office of Intervention & Detention Alternative Director Teresa Broxton). Signatures were also provided by the Tallahassee Mayor, City Manager, and State Attorney as required. On September 1, 2026, LCSO submitted the MCI Grant. The following Analysis provides a summary of the LCSO's grant application.

Analysis:

The LCSO submitted an MCI grant application in the amount of $167.2 million for law enforcement personnel training and certification programs; programs and services for inmates, parolees, and at-risk youth; the consolidation of existing services into a single facility including the Capital Region Real Time Crime Center and National Integrated Ballistic Information Network; and mental health services that would include the expansion of the Leon County Detention Facility to establish a mental health wing (Attachment #1). It is important to note that LCSO shared that its grant application does not request funding for the purchase, installation, or operation of license plate readers. Additionally, there is no request for funding related to immigration enforcement activities. No local match was required.

DOJ utilizes a two-phase application process for the MCI Grant. Phase 1 closed on September 1, 2026 with the submittal of applications. For Phase 2, the DOJ will select a small pool of finalists to deliver presentations. Ultimately, two to four communities will be selected as awardees. At that stage, the DOJ will work with the chosen communities to finalize project specifics, budgets, metrics, and implementation plans. Initial award decisions are expected in late 2026. If LCSO's application is awarded, an agenda item will be brought to the Board to consider acceptance of the grant funds.

Options:

1. Ratify Leon County's support for the Leon County Sheriff's Office Model Cities Initiative Grant application.
2. Board direction.

Report and Discussion

Background:

This item seeks Board approval of a Memorandum of Understanding (MOU) between the School Board of Leon County (School Board), the County , Florida District 20 Little League, Inc. (Little League), Tallahassee/Leon Babe Ruth (Babe Ruth), and Big Bend Pop Warner, Inc (Pop Warner), to establish a coordinated framework that outlines how County parks and Leon County Schools (LCS) school athletic fields, will be collaboratively scheduled, maintained, and made available for use (Attachment #1). This framework is designed to maximize the use of existing athletic fields by outlining shared scheduling, access, and maintenance responsibilities across County parks and LCS facilities. This MOU is increasingly necessary as participation in youth sports continues to grow while the availability of suitable fields remains limited. By formalizing collaboration among the County, the School Board, and local youth sports providers, the MOU helps ensure that community athletic needs can be met through more efficient use of public resources.

The County previously maintained a similar agreement with the School Board beginning in 1997, with the most recent version expiring in 2017. At the time, renewal was not pursued because there was no active need for County assistance in facilitating organized youth sports on LCS properties. However, increased demand across multiple sports has created a renewed need for a formal partnership to support youth sports programming and expand access to athletic facilities countywide. It is important to note that, should voters approve the proposed property tax amendment in November, the funding and maintenance expenses associated with all recreational facilities will be evaluated as part of the broader financial and organizational restructuring process anticipated during the Fiscal Year 2028 budget development cycle.

Participation in Babe Ruth and Little League baseball has continued to grow, increasing demand for additional 60/90 baseball fields to support both practices and league play. This need becomes more acute in the fall, when Pop Warner Football also utilizes baseball outfields for practice. The MOU expands the pool of available practice fields for Pop Warner programming.

Several County athletic facilities, including Apalachee Regional Park (ARP), are used by LCS for practices and sporting events.

The proposed MOU was presented to and approved by the School Board at its August 25, 2026, meeting. This approval underscores the shared recognition of the growing needs of youth sports organizations and the importance of expanding access to athletic fields across the community. The MOU will support consistent scheduling, maintenance, and facility planning practices, ensuring that local leagues and families benefit from a coordinated and reliable system.

Analysis:

Similar to the previous agreement between the School Board and the County, the proposed MOU establishes a coordinated framework between the County, the School Board, and several youth sports providers. This collaboration is necessary to address increasing demand for athletic fields across multiple sports and the limited availability of suitable facilities.

The MOU enables the County and LCS to maximize available field capacity by providing access to facilities. Under the agreement, LCS may continue to utilize County-managed recreational facilities for school athletics and activities, while the County and multiple youth sports providers may utilize designated LCS athletic fields. Once executed by all Parties, the MOU will remain in effect through September 30, 2029, establishing a stable, multi-year structure for coordinated scheduling, field use, and maintenance. This arrangement expands available practice and game locations, provides scheduling flexibility, and ensures reliable access to fields during peak seasons.

Of the various sports providers, Babe Ruth has relied heavily on the five public high school baseball fields during both fall and spring seasons to meet regulation field-size requirements. Fall scheduling grows more complex when Pop Warner Football also uses baseball outfields for practice. The MOU expands the pool of County fields available to these providers, allowing the County to distribute scheduling demand across the facilities and to absorb continued growth in youth baseball. Several County athletic fields are also utilized by LCS. Apalachee Regional Park (ARP), for example, hosts numerous middle and high school cross-country meets throughout the year. With the recent addition of middle school baseball, the County has increasingly supported LCS by accommodating practices and rescheduled games when high school fields are unavailable.

This MOU is the instrument that puts this shared-use arrangement into effect by establishing the access rights, scheduling procedures, responsibilities, and protections that govern use of County and LCS facilities. Specifically, the MOU provides for:

- Reciprocal access to defined facilities;
- Scheduling priority and advance notice of changes;
- Mandatory background screening;
- Insurance coverage;
- Indemnification and responsibility for damage;
- Maintenance and cleanup obligations;
- Preservation of the County's legal position;
- Statutory compliance safeguards; and
- Defined coordination and exit provisions.

Taken together, these provisions confirm what was previewed at the beginning of this item: the MOU expands the inventory of athletic fields practically available to youth leagues and to Leon County Schools, and it does so under terms that place the cost of insurance, indemnification, damage repair, and routine field preparation on the Sport Providers rather than on the County, while requiring background screening for every adult who may come into contact with students.

Under the MOU, the County and its youth sports partners gain access to designated LCS athletic fields for practices and games, while LCS gains continued access to County-managed recreational facilities for school athletics. Once executed, the agreement remains in effect through September 30, 2029, giving both parties a stable, multi-year framework for scheduling and maintaining shared fields. By maximizing shared use of existing public facilities, the MOU increases usable field capacity across the County.

The County shall retain full authority to schedule, reschedule, condition, or deny use of County Premises as necessary to ensure compatibility with County operations.

2. Cleanup and Restoration. Following each use of the School Premises, the County shall be responsible for routine cleanup of all areas utilized and shall leave the School Premises in substantially the same condition as existed prior to use, ordinary wear and tear excepted.

3. Priority Use. Subject to County programs, maintenance, and other prior committed uses, School Board activities approved pursuant to this Agreement shall be afforded scheduling priority over other non-County uses of the County Premises.

The County shall promptly notify the School Board of any County use, other prior committed uses, or condition that creates a scheduling conflict with previously approved School Board uses of the County Premises.

4. Preparation of County Premises. The County shall provide reasonable maintenance of, and resources for, the County Premises in periods during which such County Premises are being used by the School Board pursuant to this Agreement for approved recreational, athletic, and community uses, including but not limited to the availability of parking in designated areas only, so that the County Premises:

a. Appear attractive and inviting to the public for approved uses;

b. Are reasonably safe for their intended use; and

c. Meet routine and annual maintenance needs associated with green space utilized under this Agreement.

5. Coordination with Sport Providers. The County shall serve as the primary point of coordination between the School Board and the Sport Providers regarding scheduling, permitted uses, and compliance with applicable School Board policies and site-specific requirements related to use of School Premises; provided, however, that the School Board acknowledges and agrees that the County exercises no control, oversight, or authority over the Sport Providers other than as provided in the separate agreements that the County may enter into with the Sport Providers for use of County Premises.

7. No Guarantee of Availability. Nothing in this Agreement shall be construed as a guarantee of the availability, condition, or suitability of any County Premises for any particular use at any particular time. All use of County Premises is subject to County operational needs, safety considerations, prior approved uses, and the terms of this Agreement.

8. License Agreements. The use of County-owned parks and facilities by Sport Providers shall be governed by the terms and conditions of the applicable license agreements between the County and the Sport Providers. Nothing in this Agreement shall be construed to modify or supersede such license agreements.

The Superintendent of Leon County Schools, hereinafter called the "Superintendent," or designee, in coordination with the principal of each applicable School Premises, shall determine which School Premises are suitable and available for such use by the County and Sport Providers. The School Board retains the right to amend or modify the list of available School Premises (Exhibit 1) during the term of this Agreement based on operational needs, scheduling considerations, or conditions of the School Premises; provided, however, that any such amendment or modification made for reasons other than unplanned, emergency, or safety-related circumstances shall require not less than forty-five (45) days' prior written notice to the Parties.

2. Priority Use. Use of the School Premises shall at all times be subordinate to School Board instructional, curricular, co-curricular, extracurricular, and other School Board programs and activities. Subject to such School Board uses, approved recreational and athletic uses, including use by the County and Sport Providers pursuant to this Agreement, shall be afforded scheduling priority at the applicable School Premises. Fiscal Impact:

This item has a fiscal impact. Adequate funding for the UF/IFAS Cooperative Extension Services in Leon County Memorandum of Understanding is included in the Tentative Fiscal Year (FY) 2027 budget. For FY 2027, the County has budgeted $539,189 and UF will contribute $588,400, for a combined total of $1,127,589 to cover salaries of staff position. Should voters approve the proposed property tax amendment in November, funding for this program will be evaluated as part of the broader financial and organizational restructuring process anticipated during the FY 2028 budget development cycle.

Staff Recommendation:

Option #1: Approve and authorize the County Administrator to execute the Memorandum of Understanding with the University of Florida Board of Trustees for Cooperative Extension Services (Attachment #1), and approve and execute any modifications, amendments, or associated agreements thereto, all subject to legal review and revision by the County Attorney.

Report and Discussion

Background:

This item seeks Board approval of a Memorandum of Understanding with UF for the UF/IFAS Cooperative Extension Services in Leon County for FY 2027 (Attachment #1), succeeding the current agreement which expires on September 30, 2026.

The UF/IFAS Cooperative Extension Service in Leon County (UF/IFAS Extension Service), located at 615 E. Paul Russell Road, is a partnership between Leon County and the UF/IFAS. UF and IFAS operate cooperative extension services in all 67 counties across Florida and provide research-based educational programs and community outreach designed to improve residents' quality of life. Locally, programs focus on agriculture and horticulture, family and consumer sciences, natural resources, and youth development through the 4-H program. These services provide practical education and resources on topics such as nutrition, gardening, financial literacy, and leadership development.

The statewide UF/IFAS Cooperative Extension Service was established through federal and state legislation to "extend" the educational resources of land-grant universities to communities throughout the state. In Leon County, UF/IFAS provides extension services through an agreement with the County, in place since 1983 and periodically updated to reflect the evolving partnership.

In 2015, the agreement was revised to streamline the partnership. All staff providing extension services to the County became UF employees, with salary, benefits, and personnel management being issued through UF. The County provides funding that covers a portion of salaries, benefits, and operating expenses such as travel, publications, training, materials and supplies, to UF through quarterly reimbursements based on an annually agreed-upon budget. The current cost-sharing amounts are detailed in the Analysis section below.

In 2019, the Office of Human Services and Community Partnerships (HSCP) relocated to the County-owned facility at 615 E. Paul Russel Road. The building was fully renovated to support the expanded use and co-location of services. This approach enhanced service delivery by allowing residents to access related County and Extension services at a single location.

Analysis:

The current five-year agreement, executed in 2021, expires on September 30, 2026. At the request of UF, the proposed Memorandum of Understanding (MOU) (Attachment #1) maintains the current partnership structure, however, amends the term from a five-year to a one-year term, to be renewed annually, upon agreement of the parties. The MOU provides for quarterly reimbursements to UF. Also, under the MOU, it is UF's responsibility for staffing, benefits, and personnel management — and does not alter the scope or nature of services provided. By continuing this partnership, Leon County provides residents with direct access to specialized services that support economic stability, environmental stewardship, and youth development.

Key extension services provided by UF/IFAS staff as benefits to the citizens include:

- Youth Development through 4-H: Provides local youth with hands-on learning in leadership, citizenship, and life skills.
- Family and Consumer Sciences: Offers education in financial literacy, nutrition, and wellness.
- Agricultural and Natural Resources Support: Delivers science-backed guidance on sustainable gardening, land management, and food systems to farmers and homeowners.

To sustain these community-benefiting programs, the MOU utilizes a cost-sharing structure between Leon County and UF. For FY 2027, the County has budgeted $539,189 and UF will contribute $588,400, for a combined total of $1,127,589. Should voters approve the proposed property tax amendment in November, funding for this program will be evaluated as part of the broader financial and organizational restructuring process anticipated during the FY 2028 budget development cycle. This arrangement allows the County to partner with UF/IFAS to provide a broad range of extension services reaching youth, families, homeowners, and agriculture producers, by leveraging state-level research and personnel.

Approval of the proposed MOU maintains the current service model for a one-year term through September 30, 2027.

Options:

1. Approve and authorize the County Administrator to execute the Memorandum of Understanding with the University of Florida Board of Trustees for Cooperative Extension Services (Attachment #1), and approve and execute any modifications, amendments, or associated agreements thereto, all subject to legal review and revision by the County Attorney.
2. Do not approve the Memorandum of Understanding with the University of Florida Board of Trustees for Cooperative Extension Services.
3. Board direction.

Recommendation:

Title: Approval for the Purchase of Backup Power Equipment for the Leon County Detention Facility

Review and Approval:	Vincent S. Long, County Administrator
Department / Division Review:	Ken Morris, Assistant County Administrator Nawfal Ezzagaghi, Assistant County Administrator Maggie Theriot, Director, Office of Resource Stewardship Melanie Hooley, Director, Purchasing Department
Lead Staff / Project Team:	Michael Boland, Facilities Director

Statement of Issue:

This item seeks Board approval to replace backup power equipment at the Leon County Detention Facility to upgrade aging electrical infrastructure and maintain operational reliability. Upon approval, the County will issue a Purchase Order to Joe Powell & Associates, Inc., for the purchase and installation of six replacement uninterruptible power supply (UPS) units for a total cost of $385,142.

Fiscal Impact:

This item has a fiscal impact. Adequate funding is available in the Fiscal Year 2026 Capital Improvement Program budget for the replacement of six UPS units at the Leon County Detention Facility in the amount of $385,142.

Staff Recommendation:

Option #1: Approve the purchase and installation of six replacement uninterruptible power supply units at the Leon County Detention Facility from Joe Powell & Associates, Inc., in an amount of $385,142 and authorize the County Administrator to execute any amendments or associated agreements thereto, subject to legal review and revision by the County Attorney.

Report and Discussion

Background:

This item seeks Board approval to replace backup power equipment – six uninterruptible power supply (UPS) units – at the Leon County Detention Facility through a purchase with Joe Powell & Associates, Inc., for a total amount of $385,142 (Attachment #1).

The Detention Facility relies on backup power systems to maintain facility safety and security. When utility power is interrupted, a brief gap occurs before generators activate. The six UPS units bridge this gap by maintaining power to security equipment, door locks, electrical breakers, and inmate housing areas during the transfer to generator power. Uninterrupted power during this transfer is essential to the safe and secure operation of the facility.

The existing UPS equipment is more than 15 years old, has exceeded its operational lifespan, and is no longer supported by the manufacturer as replacement parts are unavailable. Continued operation of the existing units increases the risk of failure during power transfers, which could interrupt critical systems and compromise the safe operations of the facility.

Analysis:

Routine maintenance inspections and manufacturer assessments at the Detention Facility identified that the existing UPS units have reached the end of their service life, showing age-related wear. Replacement parts are also no longer manufactured or available. The Detention Facility is divided into six power zones, each supported by a dedicated UPS unit. Replacement of the UPS units is being pursued to maintain continuity of operations and obtain current manufacturer support.

The existing UPS infrastructure at the Detention Facility consists of Liebert brand equipment. Replacement UPS units must integrate and communicate with the current Liebert UPS controls system. Procuring equipment from an alternative manufacturer would require significant modifications to the existing electrical and monitoring infrastructure, including replacement of six control panels at an estimated cost of $125,000.

In accordance with Purchasing Policy 96-1, Section 6.04(A), Joe Powell & Associates, Inc has been designated a single source provider as the only practical source of supply for the six replacement UPS units. As the sole authorized Liebert/Vertiv representative for this region, Joe Powell & Associates, Inc. provides the County with direct access to manufacturer-trained technicians, factory-authorized installation, and proprietary diagnostic tools specific to Liebert equipment. This authorization ensures that warranty coverage remains intact, as Vertiv warranties are contingent upon installation and service being performed by an authorized representative. Additionally, Joe Powell & Associates, Inc. provides ongoing service support after installation, ensuring the County has a qualified local resource for maintenance and troubleshooting throughout the life of the equipment. These factors, combined with the compatibility requirements of the existing infrastructure, make Joe Powell & Associates, Inc. the only practical and most advantageous source for this procurement. Joe Powell & Associates, Inc. is the only authorized UPS equipment representative in this region for both the equipment and installation services required for this project (Attachment #2).

Adequate funding in the amount of $385,142 is available in the Fiscal Year 2026 Capital Improvement Program budget for the replacement of six UPS units at the Leon County Detention Facility.

Options:

1. Approve the purchase and installation of six replacement uninterruptible power supply units at the Leon County Detention Facility from Joe Powell & Associates, Inc., in an amount of $385,142 and authorize the County Administrator to execute any amendments or associated agreements thereto, subject to legal review and revision by the County Attorney.
2. Do not approve the purchase and installation of six replacement uninterruptible power supply units at the Leon County Detention Facility.
3. Board direction.

Report and Discussion

Background:

This item seeks Board approval of an Agreement with Sentinel Offender Services, LLC (Sentinel) for the electronic monitoring services for the supervision of individuals on probation or pretrial release.

This agenda item advances the following FY 2022 – FY 2026 Strategic Initiative:

- Identify and evaluate pretrial alternatives to incarceration for low level and non-violent offenders and support reentry through regional partnerships and state and national efforts. (2022-23)

This particular Strategic Initiative aligns with the Board's Quality of Life Strategic Priority:

- (Q3) Provide essential public safety infrastructure and services while supporting early intervention and prevention strategies.

On July 9 2024, the Board approved the current agreement with Sentinel under the National Association of State Procurement Officials (NASPO) master agreement with the State of Connecticut for five (5) years (through 2029). The County's Purchasing Policy No. 96-1, Section 6.06(D), authorizes the County to purchase goods or services from authorized vendors listed on eligible contracts for other governmental entities through a process known as "piggybacking." Piggybacking can reduce transaction and administrative costs and purchasing processing time.

However, the following year, Connecticut notified NASPO that it would not exercise the available extension options under the master agreement. As a result, the master agreement with Connecticut is scheduled to expire on November 30, 2026, which will also terminate the County's current agreement with Sentinel on that date. In anticipation of the expiration, County staff monitored NASPO's procurement for a successor master agreement. On June 1, 2026, the State of Nevada, acting as the lead procurement entity for NASPO, competitively procured and awarded a new master agreement with Sentinel (Master Agreement - MA #99SWC-NV26-29619). The Nevada Master Agreement is consistent with the original terms and conditions of the 2024 Agreement approved by the Board. Therefore, it is recommended that the Board approve the proposed Agreement with Sentinel under the NASPO Master Agreement with Nevada.

Analysis:

The Leon County Office of Intervention and Detention Alternatives (OIDA) provides pre- and post-sentence alternatives to incarceration to safely reduce the jail population through the Supervised Pretrial Release, Probation, and Drug and Alcohol Testing Divisions. For more than 23 years, the County has offered electronic monitoring services to the courts as a cost-effective alternative to incarceration for people arrested and charged with criminal offense(s). As determined by the courts, individuals can be released with special conditions of Global Positioning Satellite (GPS) for location tracking, Secure Continuous Remote Alcohol Monitoring (SCRAM) through a transdermal alcohol device (TAD), or Breath Alcohol/Real Time (BA/RT) through remote breathalyzers for alcohol detection.

GPS offers the tools and technology needed to track the movement of defendants in the community who have been ordered to avoid contact with a victim(s), co-defendant(s), and others, or a specific location(s). SCRAM and BA/RT devices provide remote detection of alcohol for those court-ordered to abstain from alcohol. These tools are available to the courts for both pre-sentence and post-sentence monitoring.

In 2001, OIDA implemented its electronic monitoring program with GPS technology. In subsequent years, the program was expanded to include alcohol detection technology which provides 24/7 alcohol detection through an electronic bracelet and remote breathalyzer devices. These technologies provide cost-effective alternatives to incarceration while maintaining public safety.

An effective electronic monitoring program requires 24/7 tracking, alert resolution, participant enrollments, deactivations, equipment maintenance and inventory, and active case management. Every day, more than 150 individuals are supervised by OIDA through electronic monitoring by GPS or alcohol detection. As of June 2026, the electronic monitoring program has diverted 41,287 jail bed days from the Leon County Detention Facility for a year-to-date cost savings of $4.7 million.

Sentinel was selected as the most qualified and competitive vendor through procurement processes in 2011, 2014, and 2019. Throughout these consecutive solicitations, Sentinel remained the sole vendor that designs, manufactures, and leases the GPS and BA/RT devices and provides TAD equipment. Additionally, Sentinel provides four (4) dedicated, on-site staff members housed at OIDA 24 hours a day. The personnel manage inventory, conduct weekly maintenance and diagnostics, and physically affix and remove monitoring hardware. Additionally, they monitor real-time alerts to ensure participants are compliant with court-ordered "no-contact" or "no-alcohol" conditions.

As mentioned earlier, the County's Purchasing Policy No. 96-1, Section 6.06(D), authorizes the County to purchase goods or services from authorized vendors listed on eligible contracts for other governmental entities through a process known as "piggybacking." Piggybacking can reduce transaction and administrative costs and purchasing processing time. The County also benefits from the combined buying power of multiple agencies from the procured contract, thereby reducing costs. NASPO's new master agreement with the State of Nevada (MA #99SWC-NV26-29619) contains cooperative purchasing language allowing the County to utilize the Agreement via a Participating Addendum.

As previously stated, in 2024, the Board approved a contract with Sentinel by piggybacking on the State of Connecticut Master Agreement Number 22PSX0021. Since that time, Connecticut announced that it would not exercise the existing renewals terminating its agreement with NASPO effective November 1, 2026. As a result, The State of Nevada issued a national Request for Proposal (RFP) in conjunction with NASPO for electronic monitoring which was awarded to Sentinel. On June 1, 2026, Nevada executed Master Agreement Number MA #99SWC-NV26-29619 with Sentinel which runs through May 31, 2028, with an option to renew annually through May 31, 2032.

The new County agreement with Sentinel, if approved, will include the same pricing/cost, and terms and conditions of the July 2024 agreement such as equipment leasing, 24/7 monitoring responses, and 24/7 staff for enrollment and equipment maintenance. Additionally, in alignment with the Nevada Master Areement, the County Agreement will be effective October 1, 2026, through May 31, 2028, and include four annual extensions available through May 31, 2032.

Options:

1. Authorize the County Administrator to approve and execute the Agreement (Attachment #1) with Sentinel Offender Services, LLC, for electronic monitoring services and any amendments and/or associated agreements thereto, subject to legal review by the County Attorney.
2. Do not approve the contract with Sentinel Offender Services, LLC, for electronic monitoring services.
3. Board direction.

County's monthly invoice would never go beyond $40,000 unless of course, County's program's active in-use population grew, in which case, the $3600 stipend would not be applied.

Option #1: Approve the three-year Licensing Enterprise Agreement with Microsoft (Attachment #1), and authorize the County Administrator to execute the agreement, and any amendments thereto, subject to legal review by the County Attorney.

Report and Discussion

Background:

This item seeks Board approval of a three-year Licensing Enterprise Agreement with Microsoft (Attachment #1) and the associated purchase orders through Microsoft's partner and reseller, SHI International Corp., in the amount of $4,983,060 for the continued use of Microsoft Office 365 (O365) products and critical licenses.

In 2017, the Board directed and approved a migration from the County's Groupwise email platform to Microsoft Outlook as included in the County's FY 2017 – FY 2021 Strategic Plan. Microsoft Office tools such as Word, Excel, and PowerPoint were already being utilized and adding the O365 suite to the collection allowed the advantage of interconnectivity with the entire suite of products. Microsoft products are the standard used in most businesses. Additionally, Microsoft's O365 suite of products allowed the smooth transition for some employees to work-from-home, as necessitated by the COVID-19 pandemic. Moreover, TEAMS, a collaboration tool within the O365 suite, enables departments to create common work and meeting areas enhancing remote collaboration, OneDrive allows documents to be easily accessible at work or at home on almost any device, and Outlook allows easy access to email from work, home, or while mobile.

The County's Purchasing Policy No. 96-1, Section 6.06, authorizes the County to purchase goods or services from authorized vendors listed on eligible contracts of cooperative purchasing organizations. Cooperative purchasing contracts utilized by the County must have been awarded through full and open competition, including use of source selection methods equivalent to those required by the County's Purchasing Policy. Cooperative purchasing allows participating governmental entities to utilize competitively solicited contracts, which can reduce procurement processing time and administrative costs. The County also benefits from the volume purchasing and pricing established through the cooperative contract.

The Microsoft licensing required by the County is available through OMNIA Partners Contract No. 2024056-02 for "Information Technology Solutions Products and Services" with SHI International Corp. The contract is a competitively procured cooperative contract, with the City of Mesa, Arizona, serving as the lead public agency. The contract contains cooperative purchasing provisions that allow the County to utilize the contract through OMNIA Partners. The Office of Information Technology and Purchasing Division have determined that utilizing the OMNIA Partners contract is the most cost-effective and efficient method for procuring the necessary Microsoft software licenses.

Analysis:

Microsoft transitioned to a subscription model in June 2011 with the launch of O365. Subscription licenses cover three years and include the Microsoft Office desktop suite. Leon County's enterprise licensing provides desktop automation to Leon County Government and all Constitutional offices. Currently, there is a need for 3,100 user licenses, with 992 for Leon County Government, 930 for the Sheriff's Office, and the balance is for the judiciary and other constitutional offices. License growth is added through yearly true-up audits. OIT manages the licenses and provides yearly required license audits to Microsoft. Microsoft requires a yearly audit to determine if additional licenses are needed and, if so, these are acquired through an additional separate purchase order and added to total number going forward.

In addition to the individual user licenses, licensing for other enterprise software is included, covering Windows licenses for computers, laptops, and servers, licenses for specialized desktop software not included in the Office Suite, licenses for Co-Pilot writing tools, and licenses for tools used for cybersecurity. Many of the third-party applications are used throughout the County and are integrated with Microsoft for single sign-on security authentication purposes. Ultimately, the goal is to have all applications use Microsoft multifactor authentication. This will allow for streamlined addition and termination of accounts, which greatly enhances the County's security posture.

This item recommends the Board approve the utilization of cooperative purchasing for the purchase of a three-year Microsoft Licensing Enterprise Agreement from SHI International Corp. in the amount of $4,983,060.(Attachment #2) SHI International Corp. pricing reflects a 18.77% discount over nationally advertised retail pricing. The Office of Information Technology and Purchasing Division have determined that utilizing the OMNIA Partners contract is the most cost-effective and efficient method for procuring the necessary Microsoft software licenses.

Options:

1. Approve the three-year Licensing Enterprise Agreement with Microsoft (Attachment #1), and authorize the County Administrator to execute the agreement, and any amendments thereto, subject to legal review by the County Attorney.
2. Authorize the County Administrator to execute the Agreement with SHI International Corp. (Attachment #2), and any amendments or associated agreements thereto, subject to legal review by the County Attorney.
3. Do not approve the three-year Licensing Enterprise Agreement with Microsoft.
4. Board direction.

"Qualified Device" means any device that is used by or for the benefit of Enrolled Affiliate's Enterprise and is: (1) a personal desktop computer, portable computer, workstation, or similar device capable of running Windows Pro locally (in a physical or virtual operating system environment), or (2) a device used to access a virtual desktop infrastructure ("VDI"). Qualified Devices do not include any device that is: (1) designated as a server and not used as a personal computer, (2) an Industry Device, or (3) not a Managed Device. At its option, the Enrolled Affiliate may designate any device excluded above (e.g., Industry Device) that is used by or for the benefit of the Enrolled Affiliate's Enterprise as a Qualified Device for all or a subset of Enterprise Products or Online Services the Enrolled Affiliate has selected.

"Qualified User" means a person (e.g., employee, consultant, contingent staff) who: (1) is a user of a Qualified Device, or (2) accesses any server software requiring an Enterprise Product Client Access License or any Enterprise Online Service. It does not include a person who accesses server software or an Online Service solely under a License identified in the Qualified User exemptions in the Product Terms.

"Reseller" means an entity authorized by Microsoft to resell Licenses under this program and engaged by an Enrolled Affiliate to provide pre- and post-transaction assistance related to this agreement;

"Reserved License" means for an Online Service identified as eligible for true-ups in the Product Terms, the License reserved by Enrolled Affiliate prior to use and for which Microsoft will make the Online Service available for activation.

"State/Local Entity" means (1) any agency of a state or local government in the United States, or (2) any United States county, borough, commonwealth, city, municipality, town, township, special purpose district, or other similar type of governmental instrumentality established by the laws of Customer's state and located within Customer's state's jurisdiction and geographic boundaries.

"Tribal Entity" means a federally recognized tribal entity performing tribal governmental functions and eligible for funding and services from the U.S. Department of Interior by virtue of its status as an Indian tribe.

"Use Rights" means, with respect to any licensing program, the use rights or terms of service for each Product and version published for that licensing program at the Volume Licensing Site and updated from time to time. The Use Rights include the Product-Specific License Terms, the License Model terms, the Universal License Terms, the Data Protection Terms, and the Other Legal Terms. The Use Rights supersede the terms of any end user license agreement (on-screen or otherwise) that accompanies a Product.

"Volume Licensing Site" means http://www.microsoft.com/licensing/contracts or a successor site.

2. Order requirements.

a. Minimum order requirements. Enrolled Affiliate's Enterprise must have a minimum of 250 Qualified Users or Qualified Devices. The initial order must include at least 250 Licenses for Enterprise Products or Enterprise Online Services.

(i) Enterprise commitment. Enrolled Affiliate must order enough Licenses to cover all Qualified Users or Qualified Devices, depending on the License Type, with one or more Enterprise Products or a mix of Enterprise Products and the corresponding Enterprise Online Services (as long as all Qualified Devices not covered by a License are only used by users covered with a user License).

(ii) Enterprise Online Services only. If no Enterprise Product is ordered, then Enrolled Affiliate need only maintain at least 250 Subscription Licenses for Enterprise Online Services.

b. Additional Products. Upon satisfying the minimum order requirements above, Enrolled Affiliate may order Additional Products.

c. Use Rights for Enterprise Products. For Enterprise Products, if a new Product version has more restrictive use rights than the version that is current at the start of the applicable initial or renewal term of the Enrollment, those more restrictive use rights will not apply to Enrolled Affiliate's use of that Product during that term.

d. Country of usage. Enrolled Affiliate must specify the countries where Licenses will be used on its initial order and on any additional orders.

e. Resellers. Enrolled Affiliate must choose and maintain a Reseller authorized in the United States. Enrolled Affiliate will acquire its Licenses through its chosen Reseller. Orders must be submitted to the Reseller who will transmit the order to Microsoft. The Reseller and Enrolled Affiliate determine pricing and payment terms as between them, and Microsoft will invoice the Reseller based on those terms. Throughout this Agreement the term "price" refers to reference price. Resellers and other third parties do not have authority to bind or impose any obligation or liability on Microsoft.

f. Adding Products.

(i) Adding new Products not previously ordered. New Enterprise Products or Enterprise Online Services may be added at any time by contacting a Microsoft Account Manager or Reseller. New Additional Products, other than Online Services, may be used if an order is placed in the month the Product is first used. For Additional Products that are Online Services, an initial order for the Online Service is required prior to use.

Electronically Submitted

(ii) Adding Licenses for previously ordered Products. Additional Licenses for previously ordered Products other than Online Services may be added at any time but must be included in the next true-up order. Additional Licenses for Online Services must be ordered prior to use, unless the Online Services are (1) identified as eligible for true-up in the Product Terms or (2) included as part of other Licenses.

g. True-up requirements. Enrolled Affiliate must submit an annual true-up order that accounts for any changes since the initial order or last order. If there are no changes, then an update statement must be submitted instead of a true-up order.

(i) Enterprise Products. For Enterprise Products, Enrolled Affiliate must determine the number of Qualified Devices and Qualified Users (if ordering user-based Licenses) at the time the true-up order is placed and must order additional Licenses for all Qualified Devices and Qualified Users that are not already covered by existing Licenses, including any Enterprise Online Services.

(ii) Additional Products. For Additional Products that have been previously ordered under this Enrollment, Enrolled Affiliate must determine the maximum number of Additional Products used since the latter of the initial order, the last true-up order, or the prior anniversary date and submit a true-up order that accounts for any increase.

(iii) Online Services. For Online Services identified as eligible for true-up in the Product Terms, Enrolled Affiliate may place a reservation order for the additional Licenses prior to use and payment may be deferred until the next true-up order. Microsoft will provide a report of Reserved Licenses ordered but not yet invoiced to Enrolled Affiliate and its Reseller. Reserved Licenses will be invoiced retrospectively to the month in which they were ordered.

(iv) Subscription License reductions. Enrolled Affiliate may reduce the quantity of Subscription Licenses at the Enrollment anniversary date on a prospective basis if permitted in the Product Terms, as follows:

1) For Subscription Licenses that are part of an Enterprise-wide purchase, Licenses may be reduced as long as (a) the initial order minimum requirements are maintained and (b) the total quantity of Licenses and Software Assurance for an applicable group meets or exceeds the quantity of Qualified Devices and Qualified Users (if ordering user-based Licenses) identified on the Product Selection Form, and includes any additional Qualified Devices and Qualified Users added in any prior true-up orders. Step-up Licenses do not count towards this total count.

2) For Enterprise Online Services in a given Product pool that are not a part of an Enterprise-wide purchase, Licenses can be reduced as long as (a) the initial order minimum requirements are maintained and (b) all then-active users of each Online Service are included the total quantity of Licenses remaining after the reduction. An Enrolled Affiliate may reduce Licenses for Online Services on or before the Enrollment anniversary date and place a reservation order for such licenses within 90 days after the anniversary date; however, any licenses ordered as described in this section will be invoiced to the Enrolled Affiliate for the time period the licenses were made available. Subscription Licenses ordered upfront may not be reduced.

3) For Additional Products available as Subscription Licenses, Enrolled Affiliate may reduce the Licenses. If the License count is reduced to zero, then Enrolled Affiliate's use of the applicable Subscription License will be cancelled.

Invoices will be adjusted to reflect any reductions in Subscription Licenses at the true-up order Enrollment anniversary date and effective as of such date.

(v) Update statement. An update statement must be submitted instead of a true-up order if, since the initial order or last true-up order, Enrolled Affiliate's Enterprise: (1) has not changed the number of Qualified Devices and Qualified Users licensed with Enterprise Products or Enterprise Online Services; and (2) has not increased its usage of Additional

Products. This update statement must be signed by Enrolled Affiliate's authorized representative.

(vi) True-up order period. The true-up order or update statement must be received by Microsoft between 60 and 30 days prior to each Enrollment anniversary date. The last true-up order or update statement during an Enrollment term is due within 30 days prior to the Expiration Date, and any license reservations within this 30-day period will not be accepted. Enrolled Affiliate may submit true-up orders more often to account for increases in Product usage, but an annual true-up order or update statement must still be submitted during the annual order period.

(vii) Late true-up order. If the true-up order or update statement is not received when due, Microsoft may invoice Reseller for all Reserved Licenses not previously invoiced and Subscription License reductions cannot be reported until the following Enrollment anniversary date (or at Enrollment renewal, as applicable).

h. Step-up Licenses. For Licenses eligible for a step-up under this Enrollment, Enrolled Affiliate may step-up to a higher edition or suite as follows:

(i) For step-up Licenses included on an initial order, Enrolled Affiliate may order according to the true-up process.

(ii) If step-up Licenses are not included on an initial order, Enrolled Affiliate may step-up initially by following the process described in the Section titled "Adding new Products not previously ordered," then for additional step-up Licenses, by following the true-up order process.

i. Clerical errors. Microsoft may correct clerical errors in this Enrollment, and any documents submitted with or under this Enrollment, by providing notice by email and a reasonable opportunity for Enrolled Affiliate to object to the correction. Clerical errors include minor mistakes, unintentional additions and omissions. This provision does not apply to material terms, such as the identity, quantity or price of a Product ordered.

j. Verifying compliance. Microsoft may, in its discretion and at its expense, verify compliance with this Enrollment as set forth in the Enterprise Agreement.

3. Pricing.

a. Price Levels. For both the initial and any renewal term Enrolled Affiliate's Price Level for all Products ordered under this Enrollment will be Level "D" throughout the term of the Enrollment.

b. Setting Prices. Unless otherwise expressly agreed to by the parties and except for Online Services designated in the Product Terms as being exempt from fixed pricing, Enrolled Affiliate's prices for each Product or Service will be established by its Reseller. As long as Enrolled Affiliate continues to qualify for the same price level, Microsoft's prices for Resellers for each Product or Service ordered will be fixed throughout the applicable initial or renewal Enrollment term. Microsoft's prices to Resellers are reestablished at the beginning of the renewal term.

4. Payment terms.

For the initial or renewal order, Microsoft will invoice Enrolled Affiliate's Reseller in three equal annual installments. The first installment will be invoiced upon Microsoft's acceptance of this Enrollment and remaining installments will be invoiced on each subsequent Enrollment anniversary date. Subsequent orders are invoiced upon acceptance of the order and Enrolled Affiliate may elect to pay annually or upfront for Online Services and upfront for all other Licenses.

Electronically Submitted

5. End of Enrollment term and termination.

a. General. At the Expiration Date, Enrolled Affiliate must immediately order and pay for Licenses for Products it has used but has not previously submitted an order, except as otherwise provided in this Enrollment.

b. Renewal option. At the Expiration Date of the initial term, Enrolled Affiliate may request to renew Products and Services under this Enrollment for one additional 36-month term. Microsoft may make changes to this program that will make it necessary for Customer and its Enrolled Affiliates to enter into new agreements or Enrollments in order to renew. In order for a renewal request to be considered, Microsoft must receive a Renewal Form, Product Selection Form, and renewal request prior to or at the Expiration Date. Microsoft will review a renewal request made under this section in good faith and may accept or reject such request in its sole discretion.

c. If Enrolled Affiliate elects not to renew.

(i) Software Assurance. If Enrolled Affiliate elects not to renew Software Assurance for any Product under its Enrollment, then Enrolled Affiliate will not be permitted to order Software Assurance later without first acquiring a new License with Software Assurance.

(ii) Online Services eligible for an Extended Term. For Online Services identified as eligible for an Extended Term in the Product Terms, the following options are available at the end of the Enrollment initial or renewal term.

1) Extended Term. Licenses for Online Services will automatically expire in accordance with the terms of the Enrollment. An extended term option that allows Online Services to continue month-to-month ("Extended Term") is available. During the Extended Term, Online Services will be invoiced monthly at the then-current published price as of the Expiration Date plus a 3% administrative fee for up to one year. If Enrolled Affiliate wants an Extended Term, Enrolled Affiliate must submit a request to Microsoft at least 30 days prior to the Expiration Date.

2) Cancellation during Extended Term. At any time during the first twelve months of the Extended Term, Enrolled Affiliate may terminate the Extended Term by submitting a notice of cancellation to Microsoft for each Online Service. Thereafter, Microsoft may condition the continued use of each Online Service on the acceptance of new terms by the Enrolled Affiliate. Enrolled Affiliate will be notified in writing of any new terms at least 60 days before any such changes take effect. Enrolled Affiliate acknowledges and agrees that after the notice described in this section, its continued use of each Online Service after the effective date provided in the notice will constitute its acceptance of the new terms. If Enrolled Affiliate does not agree to the new terms, it must stop using the Online Services and terminate the Extended Term as provided in this section. Enrolled Affiliate's termination under this section will be effective at the end of the month following 30 days after Microsoft has received the notice.

(iii) Subscription Licenses and Online Services not eligible for an Extended Term. If Enrolled Affiliate elects not to renew, the Licenses will be cancelled and will terminate as of the Expiration Date. Any associated media must be uninstalled and destroyed and Enrolled Affiliate's Enterprise must discontinue use. Microsoft may request written certification to verify compliance.

d. Termination for cause. Any termination for cause of this Enrollment will be subject to the "Termination for cause" section of the Agreement. In addition, it shall be a breach of this Enrollment if Enrolled Affiliate or any Affiliate in the Enterprise that uses Government Community Cloud Services fails to meet and maintain the conditions of membership in the definition of Community.

e. Early termination. Any early termination of this Enrollment will be subject to the "Early Termination" Section of the Enterprise Agreement.

Electronically Submitted

For Subscription Licenses, in the event of a breach by Microsoft, or if Microsoft terminates an Online Service for regulatory reasons, Microsoft will issue Reseller a credit for any amount paid in advance for the period after termination.

6. Government Community Cloud.

a. Community requirements. If Enrolled Affiliate purchases Government Community Cloud Services, Enrolled Affiliate certifies that it is a member of the Community and agrees to use Government Community Cloud Services solely in its capacity as a member of the Community and, for eligible Government Community Cloud Services, for the benefit of end users that are members of the Community. Use of Government Community Cloud Services by an entity that is not a member of the Community or to provide services to non-Community members is strictly prohibited and could result in termination of Enrolled Affiliate's license(s) for Government Community Cloud Services without notice. Enrolled Affiliate acknowledges that only Community members may use Government Community Cloud Services.

b. All terms and conditions applicable to non-Government Community Cloud Services also apply to their corresponding Government Community Cloud Services, except as otherwise noted in the Use Rights, Product Terms, and this Enrollment.

c. Enrolled Affiliate may not deploy or use Government Community Cloud Services and corresponding non-Government Community Cloud Services in the same domain.

d. Use Rights for Government Community Cloud Services. For Government Community Cloud Services, notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Use Rights:

(i) Government Community Cloud Services will be offered only within the United States.

(ii) Additional European Terms, as set forth in the Use Rights, will not apply.

(iii) References to geographic areas in the Use Rights with respect to the location of Customer Data at rest, as set forth in the Use Rights, refer only to the United States.

Discount Details

For this enrollment, Microsoft provided the Customer's Partner a discount off of the Partner's Net Price. The Partner is required, by Microsoft, to pass on the discount to the Customer by reducing the Microsoft Product resale price by an amount equal to or greater than the discount.

Listed on this form is the maximum price the Partner may charge for the Microsoft Products to be ordered under this enrollment based on the provided discount, shown on the first page at the aggregate level, and at a product level in the following pages.

The requirement to pass through the discount does not mean that Microsoft is setting the Customer's actual price. Partners remain free to set the price charged for Microsoft Products at any point equal to or below MRP. The Customer's actual price will be established by a separate agreement between Customer and its Partner. Note that the MRP listed on this form does not include fees for non-Microsoft products, partner services or normal transaction costs. Normal transaction costs include taxes or other fees assessed by a local or federal government.

Notes for Agenda Item #18

Leon County Board of County Commissioners

Agenda Item #18

September 15, 2026

To: Honorable Chairman and Members of the Board

From: Vincent S. Long, County Administrator

Title: Status Report on Coordination with the Tallahassee – Leon County Commission on the Status of Women and Girls to Ensure Compliance with Senate Bill 1134

Review and Approval:	Vincent S. Long, County Administrator Chasity H. O'Steen, County Attorney
Department / Division Review:	Ken Morris, Assistant County Administrator
Lead Staff / Project Team:	Nicki Hatch, Assistant to the County Administrator for Legislative and Strategic Initiatives Emily Norton, Deputy County Attorney

Statement of Issue:

This item seeks authorization to extend the County's contract with the Oasis Center for Women & Girls for administrative support of the Tallahassee – Leon County Commission on the Status of Women and Girls (CSWG) through December 31, 2026. The proposed three-month extension will provide additional time for the County, City of Tallahassee, and CSWG to develop and approve a revised charge and service delivery approach that complies with Senate Bill (SB) 1134 before the law takes effect on January 1, 2027. This item also recommends the extension of term end dates for seven CSWG members to coincide with the extension of the contract through December 31, 2026.

Fiscal Impact:

This item has a fiscal impact. Funding for the three-month contract extension, totaling approximately $17,188, is available in the Fiscal Year 2027 tentative budget. Should voters approve the proposed property tax amendment in November, funding for this program will be evaluated as part of the broader financial and organizational restructuring process anticipated during the FY 2028 budget development cycle.

Staff Recommendation:

Option #1: Authorize the County Administrator to execute a three-month extension of the County's contract for administrative support provided to the CSWG through December 31, 2026.

Option #2: Extend the term end date of seven CSWG members, Janel Robinson, Tiffany Martin, Micheala Denny, Amanda Leighty, Ashley Gilley, Melanie Andrade, and Kiosha Forston, to coincide with the extension of the contract through December 31, 2026.

Report and Discussion

Background:

This item seeks authorization to extend the County's contract with the Oasis Center for Women & Girls for administrative support of the Tallahassee – Leon County Commission on the Status of Women and Girls (CSWG) through December 31, 2026. The proposed three-month extension will provide additional time for the County, City of Tallahassee (City), and CSWG to develop and approve a revised charge and service delivery approach that complies with Senate Bill (SB) 1134 before the law takes effect on January 1, 2027. This item also recommends the extension of term end dates for seven CSWG members to coincide with the extension of the contract through December 31, 2026.

Tallahassee-Leon County Commission on the Status of Women and Girls (CSWG)

In 2010, the County adopted an Enabling Resolution establishing the Leon County Commission on the Status of Women and Girls to promote awareness of issues affecting women and girls in the community. Subsequently, in 2013, and again in 2015, the County and City Commissions adopted a joint Enabling Resolution establishing the Tallahassee-Leon County Commission on the Status of Women and Girls (CSWG). The Oasis Center for Women & Girls (Oasis), a local organization that provides programs and services addressing issues affecting women and girls, provides administrative support to the CSWG. The County and City each provide $68,750 annually for these services, for a combined annual funding amount of $137,500. Oasis also receives separate funding through the Community Human Services Partnership (CHSP) process for other specific programs and services.

Senate Bill 1134

On April 22, 2026, the Governor signed SB 1134, entitled Official Actions of Local Governments (Chapter 2026-43, Laws of Florida), which takes effect January 1, 2027. The legislation prohibits local governments from funding or promoting, directly or indirectly, or taking official action related to diversity, equity, and inclusion (DEI), as defined by the act. Local governments are also prohibited from adopting or enforcing ordinances, resolutions, rules, regulations, programs, or policies related to DEI.

SB 1134 defines "DEI" as any effort to: (1) manipulate or otherwise influence the composition of employees with reference to race, color, sex, ethnicity, gender identity, or sexual orientation, other than to ensure compliance with state and federal antidiscrimination laws; (2) promote or provide preferential treatment or special benefits to a person or group based on those characteristics; or (3) promote or adopt training, programming, or activities designed or implemented with reference to those categories. The definition does not include equal opportunity or equal employment opportunity materials designed to inform individuals about prohibitions against discrimination under state or federal law.

SB 1134 further provides that any existing local government ordinance, resolution, rule, regulation, program, or policy that conflicts with the act will be void as of January 1, 2027. Upon review by the County Attorney's Office, it has been determined that the current charge and responsibility of the CSWG, as set forth under the joint Enabling Resolution, is in violation of SB 1134 and will be void January 1, 2027. Similarly, the County's current funding agreement with Oasis to provide administrative support for the CSWG in carrying out the charge established by the existing Enabling Resolution would be in violation of SB 1134.

In response, the County and the City are actively working with the CSWG to explore alternative service delivery options and develop a revised charge which complies with the restrictions established by SB 1134 while preserving opportunities to address community needs in a manner authorized by law. To support this effort, this item seeks authorization to extend the County's current contract with Oasis through December 31, 2026. The three-month extension of the contract, which is currently set to expire on September 30, 2026, will provide sufficient time for the CSWG to redevelop its charge and service delivery approach and receive the necessary approvals (County, City, and CSWG Board) prior to January 1, 2027. It is important to note that should voters approve the proposed property tax amendment in November, funding for this program will be evaluated as part of the broader financial and organizational restructuring process anticipated during the FY 2028 budget development cycle.

Proposed Term Extensions

This item also recommends the extension of term end dates for seven CSWG members to coincide with the extension of the contract through December 31, 2026. The terms of CSWG members Janel Robinson, Tiffany Martin, Micheala Denny, Amanda Leighty, Ashley Gilley, Melanie Andrade and Kiosha Forston are set to expire on September 30, 2026. These term extensions will provide CSWG the opportunity to focus on redeveloping its charge and service delivery approach prior to the January 1, 2027 deadline.

Analysis:

As detailed previously, SB 1134, which takes effect January 1st, prohibits local governments from funding or promoting, directly or indirectly, or taking official action related to diversity, equity, and inclusion (DEI). Local governments are also prohibited from adopting or enforcing ordinances, resolutions, rules, regulations, programs, or policies related to DEI. Any existing local government ordinance, resolution, rule, regulation, program, or policy that conflicts with the act will be void as of January 1, 2027. As defined under SB 1134, DEI, includes – in part – any effort to promote or provide preferential treatment or special benefits to a person or group based on that person's or group's sex or gender identity. Additionally, DEI is defined to include any effort to promote or adopt training, programing, or activities designed or implemented with reference to sex or gender identity.

As set forth under the Enabling Resolution, the CSWG currently serves as an advisory committee to the County and the City that has "as its goal the promotion of awareness on issues that affect women and girls in the community, including, but not limited to discrimination, disparate experiences of diverse women and girls, employment, education, services, health, economic security, access to justice, freedom from violence, and more" (Attachment #1). Upon review, the County Attorney's Office has determined that the CSWG's current charge and responsibilities, as established by the joint Enabling Resolution, is in violation of SB 1134 and will be void January

1, 2027. Specifically, the CSWG is established, authorized, and funded by the County and City to conduct activities focused on a population defined by sex—women and girls, which is one of the classifications expressly identified and prohibited under SB 1134. Accordingly, the CSWG cannot continue operating under its existing charge, to the extent it conflicts with SB 1134, upon the January 1st effective date of section 125.595, Florida Statutes.

As noted previously, the County is actively working with the CSWG to explore alternative service delivery options and develop a revised charge which complies with the restrictions established by SB 1134 while preserving opportunities to address community needs. To support this effort, this item seeks authorization to extend the County's current contract with Oasis through December 31, 2026. The three-month extension of the contract, which is currently set to expire on September 30, 2026, will provide sufficient time for the CSWG to redevelop its charge and service delivery approach, and receive the necessary approvals (County, City, and CSWG Board), prior to January 1, 2027. As of the publication of this agenda item, the proposed contract extension is anticipated to be considered by the City Commission at its September 23, 2026 meeting.

An update on these efforts will be brought back for consideration at the Board's December 8, 2026 meeting.

Options:

1. Authorize the County Administrator to execute a three-month extension of the County's contract for administrative and programming support provided to the CSWG through December 31, 2026.
2. Extend the term end dates of seven CSWG members, Janel Robinson, Tiffany Martin, Micheala Denny, Amanda Leighty, Ashley Gilley, Melanie Andrade and Kiosha Forston, to coincide with the extension of the contract through December 31, 2026.
3. Do not authorize the County Administrator to execute a three-month extension of the County's contract for administrative and programming support provided to the CSWG through December 31, 2026.
4. Board direction.

As requested by the Board, this item provides a status report on Leon County procedures and legal requirements related to dilapidated and/or damaged mobile homes.

Fiscal Impact:

This item has no fiscal impact.

Staff Recommendation:

Option #1: Accept the status report on County authority and procedures for addressing dilapidated and/or damaged mobile homes.

Report and Discussion

Background:

This item provides a status report on Leon County's Code Enforcement procedures and legal requirements related to dilapidated and/or damaged mobile homes as requested by the Board on August 17, 2026. Specifically, this item answers four questions as it relates to dilapidated and/or damaged mobile homes: (1) what is the County's authority; (2) what is the code enforcement process; (3) when can the County intervene to require a structure to be repaired, removed, or demolished; and (4) why may a case require an extended period of time, even when a structure appears visibly deteriorated.

Mobile homes, like other residential structures, may become damaged by severe weather, deteriorate with age, or fall into disrepair when they are vacant or not adequately maintained. When these conditions rise to the level of a County Code violation, Leon County has established enforcement procedures to address the condition, first seeking voluntary compliance whenever possible and, when necessary, using formal enforcement and abatement procedures. These processes are designed to address unsafe and deteriorated conditions while protecting private property rights and providing the notice, hearing, and appeal rights required by law.

These procedures are applied to mobile homes in the same manner as to other residential structures, and the County's recent caseload reflects how they function in practice. Last fiscal year, Leon County Code Compliance received 607 code enforcement complaints, 24 of which involved mobile homes. Sixteen were resolved administratively, and eight were referred to the Code Enforcement Board (CEB). None required elevation to the Leon County Nuisance Abatement Board (NAB).

As set forth in this item, the County has enforcement tools available to address outstanding dilapidated structures and certain property conditions, including an order by the Code Enforcement Board (CEB) requiring correction of a condition that violates the Leon County Code of Laws (LCC), abatement by the property owner, County-performed abatement authorized by the Nuisance Abatement Board (NAB), and emergency abatement.

Chapters 6 and 14, LCC, establish two boards with distinct enforcement authority. The CEB is an independent quasi-judicial body that determines whether specified County code violations exist and upon a finding of a violation, may enter compliance orders, that provide for fines and liens. The NAB is composed of the CEB members; however, it exercises a separate authority: it determines whether unresolved violations of certain sections of the LCC exist and present a serious and continuing danger and, when the required findings are made, may authorize the County to abate the condition at the property owner's expense.

Structure of the County's Enforcement Authority

Leon County's Code Enforcement authority is longstanding and authorized in Chapter 162, Florida Statutes (F.S.). The legislative history of Chapter 6 of the Leon County Code of Laws (LCC), which establishes the CEB, traces from the 1980 Code and its 1992 recodification. Nuisance abatement of dilapidated structures has been used by the County since at least 1996, when the Board adopted Ordinance No. 96-07, which initially was overseen by the CEB under Chapter 14, LCC. On March 7, 2017, the Board adopted Ordinance No. 17-04, which revised Chapter 14, LCC, to provide a streamlined nuisance abatement process. The NAB was created and is composed of the same members as the CEB. For the NAB to have jurisdiction, the CEB must first have found a property in violation of one of the following LCC provisions: Second, the violation must not have been corrected by the time period specified in the CEB Code Compliance Order.

On January 28, 2025, the Board adopted Ordinance No. 2025-01, which further revised the CEB hearing, fine, lien, and NAB appeal procedures to provide additional procedural protections for alleged violators to closely align the local process with Chapter 162, F.S., and align the timeframe for appeals of NAB orders with the Florida Rules of Appellate Procedure, to 30 days. The amendments in Ordinance No. 2025-01 also removed the ability for code enforcement liens to attach to real and personal property other than the property that had the violation owned by the violator.

As previously stated, Chapter 162, F.S., authorizes the County to enact its CEB, which it has through Chapter 6, LCC. Over time, the County has refined and improved how the authority is administered. The current framework provides a progression process from voluntary compliance to CEB enforcement. Once the CEB finds that violations of the LCC occurred but remain unresolved, the case proceeds to the NAB-authorized abatement. Exceptions to the abatement process are reserved for emergency conditions which present imminent peril or immediate danger that cannot safely await the ordinary process.

Governing Law and Required Property-Right Protections

Leon County's authority to address dilapidated mobile homes derives from state statutes and is implemented through several sections of the Leon County Code, as follows:

- Chapter 162, F.S. (Attachment #1) – Authorizes local code enforcement boards and establishes requirements for notice, hearings, orders, fines, liens, and appeals.
- Chapter 6, LCC (Attachment #2) – Establishes the Code Enforcement Board (CEB) and largely mirrors Chapter 162, F.S.
- Chapter 14, LCC (Attachment #3) – Establishes property-safety requirements and the Nuisance Abatement Board (NAB).
- Chapter 5, Article IV, LCC (Attachment #4) – Contains the County's Property Maintenance Code standards for existing structures and premises.

Code violation cases come before either board only after Code Compliance staff document a violation in the field. The Department of Development Support & Environmental Management (DSEM) conducts these inspections visually from a lawful location, generally the public right-of-way, without entering private property. An inspector within the Code Compliance Services Division therefore begins each initial inspection by determining whether the alleged violation can be observed from that vantage point. The practice promotes the safety of Code Compliance staff and respects the rights of owners who have not consented to entry onto their property.

The practice also governs how properties are treated relative to one another. Obtaining access to a neighboring private property in some cases, while relying on right-of-way observations in others, would subject similarly situated properties to different levels of inspection. That inconsistency could provide a basis for a claim of selective enforcement or unequal treatment under the Equal Protection Clause of the Fourteenth Amendment of the U.S. Constitution. A uniform right-of-way practice evaluates every property under the same protocols and provides a consistent, legally defensible basis for code enforcement.

Analysis:

As indicated in the Background, this analysis examines the standards and enforcement procedures Leon County applies in determining whether a dilapidated mobile home constitutes a violation of Chapter 5, Article IV, LCC, or Chapter 14, Article II, Section 14-21, LCC. This item first identifies the enforcement steps supported by the specific property condition; then addresses the CEB process and lien foreclosure, NAB-authorized abatement, and emergency abatement; and finally, summarizes the typical approximate time associated with each path. Together, these sections identify the County's enforcement authority and the circumstances under which immediate demolition is not the legally available response.

Table #1: County Enforcement Steps for Dilapidated or Damaged Mobile Homes

Enforcement Step	When It Applies	Steps To Follow
Initial code enforcement	A lawful visual inspection of a complaint determines validity and documents an applicable code violation.	Notice and opportunity to comply; Referral to CEB; CEB order; authorized fines and lien; possible foreclosure in an appropriate non-homestead case.
Nuisance abatement	A qualifying unresolved violation and CEB order remains uncorrected, and the condition presents a serious and continuing danger to public health, safety, and welfare.	NAB order requiring correction and deadline; if the owner still does not comply, County-performed repair, removal, or demolition at the owner's expense.
Emergency abatement	The condition presents imminent peril to public health or general welfare, or immediate danger to life or safety.	Immediate action authorized by the County Administrator or designee before a NAB hearing, subject to the emergency documentation and hearing requirements.

Step 1. Complaint and Lawful Initial Inspection

Potential violations are commonly identified through citizen complaints, although a code inspector may also observe a violation during the course of normal business. Section 162.06(1)(b), F.S., and Section 6-30(a)(2), LCC, require a person reporting a potential violation to provide a name and address before an enforcement proceeding may begin. An exception to this requirement exists when the inspector has reason to believe the condition presents an imminent threat to public health, safety, or welfare, or imminent destruction of habitat or sensitive resources.

When a potential violation is reported, the initial inspection is conducted within 48 to 72 hours. An inspector within the Code Compliance Services Division first determines whether the alleged violation can be observed from a lawful location, generally the public right-of-way (ROW). Consistent with Attorney General Opinion 2002-27, code enforcement officers are not authorized to enter onto any private, commercial, or residential property to conduct any inspections without the consent of the owner or the operator or occupant of such premises, or without an administrative inspection warrant. This limitation arises from the U.S. and Florida Constitutions, which protect against unreasonable governmental searches. Florida law provides for administrative inspection warrants under Sections 933.20–933.30, F.S., although such a warrant is not permitted for any owner-occupied family residence. This means the County would be required to obtain a search warrant or the owner's prior consent before conducting a search on those residences.

Consistent with these legal limitations, Code Compliance Services has maintained a long-standing practice of conducting visual inspections from the ROW and not entering private property to conduct the inspection. As previously noted, this practice promotes the safety of inspection staff and consistency by ensuring that properties are evaluated under the same basic conditions and that inspectors rely on observations made from locations where they have a lawful right to be present. It also establishes a clear and defensible record of what the inspector personally observed and the location from which the observation was made. In other words, such visual inspections conducted from the ROW are not considered "searches" under the Fourth Amendment of the U.S. Constitution and therefore would not be considered an unreasonable search. If the County were to change this practice and begin conducting inspections where possible from private property, then it could face a potential selective enforcement claim, which could be a violation of the Equal Protection Clause of the Fourteenth Amendment of the U.S. Constitution. Allowing access to a neighboring property in some cases, while relying solely on observations from the public ROW in others when permission is not granted by an adjoining property owner, could result in similarly situated properties being subjected to different levels of inspection. Such inconsistent treatment could potentially provide a basis for a claim of selective enforcement or unequal treatment under the Equal Protection Clause of the Fourteenth Amendment.

Step 2. Notice of Violation and Opportunity for Voluntary Compliance

If the inspection confirms a violation, Section 162.06(2), F.S., and Section 6-30(2), LCC, require notice to the violator and a reasonable period to correct the condition. Under Section 6-36, LCC, the Notice of Violation (NOV) is provided by certified mail, return receipt requested, or by an authorized hand-delivery method. If certified-mail service is not signed as received within 30 days, notice may be completed through the posting procedures specified in the LCC, including posting at the property and at the Leon County Courthouse.

The NOV identifies the section(s) of code which is (are) violated and the amount of time to comply (Voluntary Compliance Deadline). The amount of time for compliance varies and is according to the type and severity of the violation but is generally between 14 and 30 days for most cases. For example, a property owner with a dilapidated structure such as a mobile home is typically provided 30 days to correct the violation voluntarily (before the case is sent to CEB); if a mobile home is to be demolished to correct the code violation, the demolition will require a permit from DSEM.

Step 3. Code Enforcement Board Hearing, Compliance Order, Fines, and Liens

If the violation remains after the voluntary compliance deadline, the matter is scheduled for a public hearing before the CEB. The owner receives a separate Notice of Hearing in accordance with Section 162.12, F.S., and Section 6-36, LCC. At the hearing, the CEB considers testimony, photographs, and other evidence and determines whether a violation of the LCC exists. If a violation is found, the CEB issues a Code Compliance Order that states what must be corrected and establishes a compliance deadline. The order is recorded with the Clerk of Courts in the Official Records, and an aggrieved party may appeal the Code Compliance Order to Circuit Court within 30 days of rendition.

If the property owner does not comply with the CEB order, the County sends a notice of noncompliance stating that daily fines and a lien may be imposed. The property owner then has 20 days to request a compliance review hearing to contest the finding of noncompliance, the fine, or the imposition of alien. If no timely hearing is requested, the CEB Chair may enter an Order Imposing a Fine based on the code inspector's affidavit of noncompliance.

Under Section 162.09, F.S., and Section 6-34, LCC, the fine may be up to $250 per day for a first violation and up to $500 per day for a repeat violation. A repeat violation is a subsequent violation of the same code provision within five years by the same owner and is not entitled to the same reasonable correction period before referral to the CEB. An unpaid fine may be recorded as a lien against the subject property. These remedies are intended to compel compliance; they do not, by themselves, authorize the County to enter the property and demolish the structure.

Step 4. Foreclosure Consideration

Section 162.09(3), F.S., and Section 6-34, LCC, permit foreclosure to be considered after a code enforcement lien has remained unpaid for three months. The three-month period identifies when foreclosure becomes legally available; it does not require the County to file a foreclosure action or establish an automatic foreclosure deadline. A code enforcement lien may not be foreclosed against real property that is protected homestead under Article X, Section 4 of the Florida Constitution.

There is no specific fine amount, number of days in violation, or other internal threshold that automatically triggers foreclosure. Foreclosure is evaluated on a case-by-case basis and is initiated sparingly. The County Attorney's Office assists in the County’s evaluation of whether foreclosure is in the best interest of the County. Relevant considerations may include the severity and duration of the violation, whether the property is protected homestead, the property's value and potential future use of the property, the anticipated cost of the foreclosure lawsuit, subsequent abatement, and the existence and priority of superior mortgages, liens, or other encumbrances.

For a non-homestead property, the statutory three-month period is the earliest point at which foreclosure becomes an available option; it is a minimum, not a deadline or an automatic next step. Because a code enforcement lien remains enforceable for up to 20 years, the County's timeline is not driven by the three-month mark.

The time necessary to pursue foreclosure can extend substantially beyond three months, as additional evaluation, CEB action, title and lien research, and further legal review may be necessary. Foreclosure is therefore a potential tool in some non-homestead cases; it is not a primary or immediate remedy for every dilapidated mobile home.

Step 5. Nuisance Abatement Board and County-Performed Abatement

For properties presenting more serious conditions, including but not limited to, severely dilapidated structures, nuisance abatement may be considered. The County's practice is to prioritize severely dilapidated structures and conditions presenting serious hazards. Under Chapter 14, LCC, and specifically, Section 14-51, LCC, the NAB is intended to address conditions that constitute a serious and continuing danger to the public and/or occupants.

The code inspector's inspection findings are reviewed by the Code Compliance Supervisor and Director of Code Compliance Services to determine the appropriate enforcement action. A nuisance abatement case follows the existing code enforcement process in regard to notice, hearings, and the opportunity to appeal decisions. The property owner is provided written certified mail notice of the nuisance and a reasonable period to voluntarily correct the condition. If the alleged nuisance remains, the matter may be referred to the NAB for a public hearing.

At the hearing, the NAB considers evidence, makes a determination on whether the violation rises to the level of a nuisance, and issues an order establishing a deadline for compliance (compliance period), if a nuisance is determined to exist. The NAB's order typically authorizes the County to undertake the necessary abatement work if the property owner fails to comply. Following expiration of the compliance period, the County may obtain bids from independent contractors and arrange for the authorized abatement of the property. The property owner is responsible for the cost of the work performed to abate the nuisance conditions. If the associated costs are unpaid by the property owner, the costs become an additional lien against the property.

Emergency Nuisance Abatement

Chapter 14, LCC, also provides a separate mechanism for emergency nuisance conditions. If a nuisance condition on a property presents imminent peril to the public health or general welfare or immediate danger to life or safety, Section 14-55, LCC, authorizes the County Administrator or designee to inspect the property, determine the emergency action required to make the property safe, including demolition (abate the nuisance), before a NAB hearing is held. For emergency action, the County Administrator or designee and the building official inspect the property and document the findings in a written report with photographs when feasible. If time permits, notice of the intended abatement action is provided to the owner, occupant, and lienholders. The property owner remains responsible for the County's emergency inspection and abatement costs. If no notice could be provided before the work, the NAB must hear the matter within a reasonable period after the abatement. This heightened process preserves the County's ability to address a true emergency while limiting immediate governmental entry and demolition to extraordinary circumstances (conditions that present an immediate threat to public health or safety). This provision is intended for extraordinary circumstances involving an immediate threat and is distinct from the ordinary nuisance abatement process.

Compliance Timeframes

The time required to resolve a case depends on the enforcement steps required, the owner's responsiveness, the severity of the condition, successful service of notice, hearing schedules, ordered compliance periods, appeals, title and lien research, and, where County work is authorized, contractor procurement. The following table identifies the principal drivers. Except in rare circumstances that qualify for emergency abatement, the steps outlined below are sequenced. Nuisance abatement is available after all attempts to obtain compliance are exhausted, including an order by the CEB. Foreclosure is a subsequent process which may be considered after a lien has remained unpaid after three months.

Table #2: Typical Enforcement Stages and Time Drivers

Stage	Typical or Required Timing	What May Extend the Stage
Initial inspection	Generally, within 48 to 72 hours.	Ability to lawfully observe and document the condition; ownership research; need for another lawful basis of access.
NOV and voluntary compliance	Generally, 14 to 30 days after notice; dilapidated structures typically receive 30 days.	Unsuccessful attempts at certified-mail delivery service after 30 days can require posting; good-faith progress may support additional time.
CEB hearing and order	Scheduled after required hearing notice; the order sets a case-specific compliance period; Orders are subject to a 30-day appeal period.	Board calendar, continuances, the corrective work required, and an appeal or requested stay.
Fine and lien	20-day period to request a compliance-review hearing after Notice of Noncompliance. If no compliance, lien is imposed.	Requested hearing, renewed compliance efforts, or additional inspections.
Foreclosure	May be considered after a lien remains unpaid for three months.	Homestead review, title and lien research, property value, approvals, litigation, and sale process. Cost of pursuing foreclosure may exceed the market value of the property.
NAB and County abatement	Separate notice, hearing, compliance, and appeal steps.	Notice to lienholders, title research, ordered compliance period, appeal, contractor quotes, permitting, and scheduling.
Emergency abatement	May proceed immediately when the emergency standard is satisfied.	Documentation and any notice that can safely be provided; post-action hearing if prior notice was not possible.

A case that does not achieve voluntary compliance can therefore require at least several months before the County may directly abate the property, and additional time may be necessary for appeals, additional notices, inspections, scheduling of hearings, contractor procurement, or complex demolition work. The passage of time reflects the statutory and constitutional process applicable to private property; it is not an administrative delay or a lack of County authority.

Conclusion

This status report provides an overview of the County's procedures and legal requirements related to dilapidated and/or damaged mobile homes. The County has authority in place to address these conditions. Chapter 162, F.S., and Chapters 6 and 14, LCC, provide for inspection, notice of violation, hearing, and abatement of structures that threaten public health, safety, and welfare. These provisions are applied as violations are identified through complaints and field observation, and cases of this type are addressed as part of ongoing code enforcement operations.

Of those complaints, cases involving dilapidated mobile homes are a small share of the County's overall code enforcement complaints – 24 of 607 in Fiscal Year 2024/2025. Most are resolved through corrective action by the property owner without NAB proceedings or County-performed abatement.

The steps and timelines described in this status report reflect the procedural protections afforded to property owners under state law and the LCC, including legal notice, an opportunity to be heard, and a defined period in which to correct a violation. These requirements govern the sequence and pace at which a case advances. Each case is carried through that sequence until the violation is corrected, or the available remedies are exhausted. These requirements are intended to ensure that the County can address conditions that threaten public health, safety, and welfare while providing property owners with legal notice, opportunity to be heard, and other procedural protections afforded by law.

162.05 Local government code enforcement boards; organization.—

(1) The local governing body may appoint one or more code enforcement boards and legal counsel for the enforcement boards. The local governing body of a county or a municipality that has a population of less than 5,000 persons may appoint five-member or seven-member code enforcement boards. The local governing body of a county or a municipality that has a population equal to or greater than 5,000 persons must appoint seven-member code enforcement boards. The local governing body may appoint up to two alternate members for each code enforcement board to serve on the board in the absence of board members.

(2) Members of the enforcement boards shall be residents of the municipality, in the case of municipal enforcement boards, or residents of the county, in the case of county enforcement boards. Appointments shall be made in accordance with applicable law and ordinances on the basis of experience or interest in the subject matter jurisdiction of the respective code enforcement board, in the sole discretion of the local governing body. The membership of each enforcement board shall, whenever possible, include an architect, a businessperson, an engineer, a general contractor, a subcontractor, and a realtor.

(3)(a) The initial appointments to a seven-member code enforcement board shall be as follows:

1. Two members appointed for a term of 1 year each.
2. Three members appointed for a term of 2 years each.
3. Two members appointed for a term of 3 years each.

(b) The initial appointments to a five-member code enforcement board shall be as follows:

1. One member appointed for a term of 1 year.
2. Two members appointed for a term of 2 years each.
3. Two members appointed for a term of 3 years each.

Thereafter, any appointment shall be made for a term of 3 years.

(c) The local governing body of a county or a municipality that has a population of less than 5,000 persons may reduce a seven-member code enforcement board to five members upon the simultaneous expiration of the terms of office of two members of the board.

(d) A member may be reappointed upon approval of the local governing body.

(e) An appointment to fill any vacancy on an enforcement board shall be for the remainder of the unexpired term of office. If any member fails to attend two of three successive meetings without cause and without prior approval of the chair, the enforcement board shall declare the member's office vacant, and the local governing body shall promptly fill such vacancy.

(f) The members shall serve in accordance with ordinances of the local governing body and may be suspended and removed for cause as provided in such ordinances for removal of members of boards.

(4) The members of an enforcement board shall elect a chair, who shall be a voting member, from among the members of the board. The presence of four or more members shall constitute a quorum of any seven-member enforcement board, and the presence of three or more members shall constitute a quorum of any five-member enforcement board. Members shall serve without compensation, but may be reimbursed for such travel, mileage, and per diem expenses as may be authorized by the local governing body or as are otherwise provided by law.

(5) The local governing body attorney shall either be counsel to an enforcement board or shall represent the municipality or county by presenting cases before the enforcement board, but in no case shall the local governing body attorney serve in both capacities.

History.—s. 1, ch. 80-300; s. 5, ch. 82-37; s. 4, ch. 86-201; s. 2, ch. 87-129; s. 4, ch. 89-268; s. 1, ch. 94-291; s. 1441, ch. 95-147.

Note.—Former s. 166.055.

162.06 Enforcement procedure.—

(1)(a) It shall be the duty of the code inspector to initiate enforcement proceedings of the various codes; however, no member of a board shall have the power to initiate such enforcement proceedings.

(b) A code inspector may not initiate enforcement proceedings for a potential violation of a duly enacted code or ordinance by way of an anonymous complaint. A person who reports a potential violation of a code or an ordinance must provide his or her name and address to the respective local government before an enforcement proceeding may occur. This paragraph does not apply if the code inspector has reason to believe that the violation presents an imminent threat to public health, safety, or welfare or imminent destruction of habitat or sensitive resources.

(2) Except as provided in subsections (3) and (4), if a violation of the codes is found, the code inspector shall notify the violator and give him or her a reasonable time to correct the violation. Should the violation continue beyond the time specified for correction, the code inspector shall notify an enforcement board and request a hearing. The code enforcement board, through its clerical staff, shall schedule a hearing, and written notice of such hearing shall be hand delivered or mailed as provided in s. 162.12 to said violator. At the option of the code enforcement board, notice may additionally be served by publication or posting as provided in s. 162.12. If the violation is corrected and then recurs or if the violation is not corrected by the time specified for correction by the code inspector, the case may be presented to the enforcement board even if the violation has been corrected prior to the board hearing, and the notice shall so state.

(3) If a repeat violation is found, the code inspector shall notify the violator but is not required to give the violator a reasonable time to correct the violation. The code inspector, upon notifying the violator of a repeat violation, shall notify an enforcement board and request a hearing. The code enforcement board, through its clerical staff, shall schedule a hearing and shall provide notice pursuant to s. 162.12. The case may be presented to the enforcement board even if the repeat violation has been corrected prior to the board hearing, and the notice shall so state. If the repeat violation has been corrected, the code enforcement board retains the right to schedule a hearing to determine costs and impose the payment of reasonable enforcement fees upon the repeat violator. The repeat violator may choose to waive his or her rights to this hearing and pay said costs as determined by the code enforcement board.

(4) If the code inspector has reason to believe a violation or the condition causing the violation presents a serious threat to the public health, safety, and welfare or if the violation is irreparable or irreversible in nature, the code inspector shall make a reasonable effort to notify the violator and may immediately notify the enforcement board and request a hearing.

(5) If the owner of property that is subject to an enforcement proceeding before an enforcement board, special magistrate, or court transfers ownership of such property between the time the initial pleading was served and the time of the hearing, such owner shall:

(a) Disclose, in writing, the existence and the nature of the proceeding to the prospective transferee.

(b) Deliver to the prospective transferee a copy of the pleadings, notices, and other materials relating to the code enforcement proceeding received by the transferor.

(c) Disclose, in writing, to the prospective transferee that the new owner will be responsible for compliance with the applicable code and with orders issued in the code enforcement proceeding.

(d) File a notice with the code enforcement official of the transfer of the property, with the identity and address of the new owner and copies of the disclosures made to the new owner, within 5 days after the date of the transfer.

A failure to make the disclosures described in paragraphs (a), (b), and (c) before the transfer creates a rebuttable presumption of fraud. If the property is transferred before the hearing, the proceeding shall not be dismissed, but the new owner shall be provided a reasonable period of time to correct the violation before the hearing is held.

162.07 Conduct of hearing.—

(1) Upon request of the code inspector, or at such other times as may be necessary, the chair of an enforcement board may call a hearing of an enforcement board; a hearing also may be called by written notice signed by at least three members of a seven-member enforcement board or signed by at least two members of a five-member enforcement board. Minutes shall be kept of all hearings by each enforcement board, and all hearings and proceedings shall be open to the public. The local governing body shall provide clerical and administrative personnel as may be reasonably required by each enforcement board for the proper performance of its duties.

(2) Each case before an enforcement board shall be presented by the local governing body attorney or by a member of the administrative staff of the local governing body. If the local governing body prevails in prosecuting a case before the enforcement board, it shall be entitled to recover all costs incurred in prosecuting the case before the board and such costs may be included in the lien authorized under s. 162.09(3).

(3) An enforcement board shall proceed to hear the cases on the agenda for that day. All testimony shall be under oath and shall be recorded. The enforcement board shall take testimony from the code inspector and alleged violator. Formal rules of evidence shall not apply, but fundamental due process shall be observed and shall govern the proceedings.

(4) At the conclusion of the hearing, the enforcement board shall issue findings of fact, based on evidence of record and conclusions of law, and shall issue an order affording the proper relief consistent with powers granted herein. The finding shall be by motion approved by a majority of those members present and voting, except that at least four members of a seven-member enforcement board, or three members of a five-member enforcement board, must vote in order for the action to be official. The order may include a notice that it must be complied with by a specified date and that a fine may be imposed and, under the conditions specified in s. 162.09(1), the cost of repairs may be included along with the fine if the order is not complied with by said date. A certified copy of such order may be recorded in the public records of the county and shall constitute notice to any subsequent purchasers, successors in interest, or assigns if the violation concerns real property, and the findings therein shall be binding upon the violator and, if the violation concerns real property, any subsequent purchasers, successors in interest, or assigns. If an order is recorded in the public records pursuant to this subsection and the order is complied with by the date specified in the order, the enforcement board shall issue an order acknowledging compliance that shall be recorded in the public records. A hearing is not required to issue such an order acknowledging compliance.

Note.—Former s. 166.057.

162.08 Powers of enforcement boards.—Each enforcement board shall have the power to:

(1) Adopt rules for the conduct of its hearings.

(2) Subpoena alleged violators and witnesses to its hearings. Subpoenas may be served by the sheriff of the county or police department of the municipality.

(3) Subpoena evidence to its hearings.

(4) Take testimony under oath.

(5) Issue orders having the force of law to command whatever steps are necessary to bring a violation into compliance.

History.—s. 1, ch. 80-300; s. 7, ch. 82-37; s. 7, ch. 86-201; s. 7, ch. 89-268.

Note.—Former s. 166.058.

162.09 Administrative fines; costs of repair; liens.—

(1) An enforcement board, upon notification by the code inspector that an order of the enforcement board has not been complied with by the set time or upon finding that a repeat violation has been committed, may order the violator to pay a fine in an amount specified in this section for each day the violation continues past the date set by the enforcement board for compliance or, in the case of a repeat violation, for each day the repeat violation continues, beginning with the date the repeat violation is found to have occurred by the code inspector. In addition, if the violation is a violation described in s. 162.06(4), the enforcement board shall notify the local governing body, which may make all reasonable repairs which are required to bring the property into compliance and charge the violator with the reasonable cost of the repairs along with the fine imposed pursuant to this section. Making such repairs does not create a continuing obligation on the part of the local governing body to make further repairs or to maintain the property and does not create any liability against the local governing body for any damages to the property if such repairs were completed in good faith. If a finding of a violation or a repeat violation has been made as provided in this part, a hearing shall not be necessary for issuance of the order imposing the fine. If, after due notice and hearing, a code enforcement board finds a violation to be irreparable or irreversible in nature, it may order the violator to pay a fine as specified in paragraph (2)(a).

(2)(a) A fine imposed pursuant to this section shall not exceed $250 per day for a first violation and shall not exceed $500 per day for a repeat violation, and, in addition, may include all costs of repairs pursuant to subsection (1). However, if a code enforcement board finds the violation to be irreparable or irreversible in nature, it may impose a fine not to exceed $5,000 per violation.

(b) In determining the amount of the fine, if any, the enforcement board shall consider the following factors:

1. The gravity of the violation;

2. Any actions taken by the violator to correct the violation; and

3. Any previous violations committed by the violator.

(c) An enforcement board may reduce a fine imposed pursuant to this section.

(d) A county or a municipality having a population equal to or greater than 50,000 may adopt, by a vote of at least a majority plus one of the entire governing body of the county or municipality, an ordinance that gives code enforcement boards or special magistrates, or both, authority to impose fines in excess of the limits set forth in paragraph (a). Such fines shall not exceed $1,000 per day per violation for a first violation, $5,000 per day per violation for a repeat violation, and up to $15,000 per violation if the code enforcement board or special magistrate finds the violation to be irreparable or irreversible in nature. In addition to such fines, a code enforcement board or special magistrate may impose additional fines to cover all costs incurred by the local government in enforcing its codes and all costs of repairs pursuant to subsection (1). Any ordinance imposing such fines shall include criteria to be considered by the code enforcement board or special magistrate in determining the amount of the fines, including, but not limited to, those factors set forth in paragraph (b).

(e) For the demolition of a building or structure that is individually listed in the National Register of Historic Places as defined in s. 267.021 or is a contributing resource to a National Register-listed district, a code enforcement board or special magistrate may impose a fine that exceeds the limits of this subsection if the code enforcement board or special magistrate finds, based on competent substantial evidence, that the demolition of the building or structure was knowing and willful and was not permitted or the result of a natural disaster. A fine imposed pursuant to this paragraph may not exceed 20 percent of the fair or just market valuation of the property before demolition of the building or structure, as determined by the property appraiser.

(3) A certified copy of an order imposing a fine, or a fine plus repair costs, may be recorded in the public records and thereafter shall constitute a lien against the land on which the violation exists and upon any other real or personal property owned by the violator. Upon petition to the circuit court, such order shall be enforceable in the same manner as a court judgment by the sheriffs of this state, including execution and levy against the personal property of the violator, but such order shall not be deemed to be a court judgment except for enforcement purposes. A fine imposed pursuant to this part shall continue to accrue until the violator comes into compliance or until judgment is rendered in a suit filed pursuant to this section, whichever occurs first. A lien arising from a fine imposed pursuant to this section runs in favor of the local governing body, and the local governing body may execute a satisfaction or release of lien entered pursuant to this section. After 3 months from the filing of any such lien which remains unpaid, the enforcement board may authorize the local governing body attorney to foreclose on the lien or to sue to recover a money judgment for the amount of the lien plus accrued interest. No lien created pursuant to the provisions of this part may be foreclosed on real property which is a homestead under s. 4, Art. X of the State Constitution. The money judgment provisions of this section shall not apply to real property or personal property which is covered under s. 4(a), Art. X of the State Constitution.

Note.—Former s. 166.059.

162.10 Duration of lien.—No lien provided under the Local Government Code Enforcement Boards Act shall continue for a period longer than 20 years after the certified copy of an order imposing a fine has been recorded, unless within that time an action is commenced pursuant to s. 162.09(3) in a court of competent jurisdiction. In an action to foreclose on a lien or for a money judgment, the prevailing party is entitled to recover all costs, including a reasonable attorney's fee, that it incurs in the action. The local governing body shall be entitled to collect all costs incurred in recording and satisfying a valid lien. The continuation of the lien effected by the commencement of the action shall not be good against creditors or subsequent purchasers for valuable consideration without notice, unless a notice of lis pendens is recorded.

162.11 Appeals.—An aggrieved party, including the local governing body, may appeal a final administrative order of an enforcement board to the circuit court. Such an appeal shall not be a hearing de novo but shall be limited to appellate review of the record created before the enforcement board. An appeal shall be filed within 30 days of the execution of the order to be appealed.

162.12 Notices.—

(1) All notices required by this part must be provided to the alleged violator by:

(a) Certified mail, and at the option of the local government return receipt requested, to the address listed in the tax collector's office for tax notices or to the address listed in the county property appraiser's database. The local government may also provide an additional notice to any other address it may find for the property owner. For property owned by a corporation, notices may be provided by certified mail to the registered agent of the corporation. If any notice sent by certified mail is not signed as received within 30 days after the postmarked date of mailing, notice may be provided by posting as described in subparagraphs (2)(b)1. and 2.;

(b) Hand delivery by the sheriff or other law enforcement officer, code inspector, or other person designated by the local governing body;

(c) Leaving the notice at the violator's usual place of residence with any person residing therein who is above 15 years of age and informing such person of the contents of the notice; or

(d) In the case of commercial premises, leaving the notice with the manager or other person in charge.

(2) In addition to providing notice as set forth in subsection (1), at the option of the code enforcement board or the local government, notice may be served by publication or posting, as follows:

(a)1. Such notice shall be published in print in a newspaper or on a publicly accessible website as provided in s. 50.0311 for 4 consecutive weeks. If published in print, the notice shall be published once during each week for 4 consecutive weeks (four publications being sufficient) in a newspaper in the county where the code enforcement board is located. The newspaper shall meet such requirements as are prescribed under chapter 50 for legal and official advertisements.

2. Proof of publication shall be made as provided in ss. 50.041 and 50.051.

(b)1. In lieu of publication as described in paragraph (a), such notice may be posted at least 10 days prior to the hearing, or prior to the expiration of any deadline contained in the notice, in at least two locations, one of which shall be the property upon which the violation is alleged to exist and the other of which shall be, in the case of municipalities, at the primary municipal government office, and in the case of counties, at the front door of the courthouse or the main county governmental center in said county.

2. Proof of posting shall be by affidavit of the person posting the notice, which affidavit shall include a copy of the notice posted and the date and places of its posting.

(c) Notice by publication or posting may run concurrently with, or may follow, an attempt or attempts to provide notice by hand delivery or by mail as required under subsection (1).

(3) Evidence that an attempt has been made to hand deliver or mail notice as provided in subsection (1), together with proof of publication or posting as provided in subsection (2), shall be sufficient to show that the notice requirements of this part have been met, without regard to whether or not the alleged violator actually received such notice.

162.13 Provisions of act supplemental.—It is the legislative intent of ss. 162.01-162.12 to provide an additional or supplemental means of obtaining compliance with local codes. Except as provided in s. 162.06(1)(b), nothing contained in ss. 162.01-162.12 shall prohibit a local governing body from enforcing its codes by any other means.

PART II
SUPPLEMENTAL COUNTY OR MUNICIPAL CODE OR ORDINANCE ENFORCEMENT PROCEDURES

162.21 Enforcement of county or municipal codes or ordinances; penalties.
162.22 Designation of enforcement methods and penalties for violation of municipal ordinances.
162.23 Notice to appear.
162.30 Civil actions to enforce county and municipal ordinances.
162.41 Code inspector body cameras; policies and procedures.

162.21 Enforcement of county or municipal codes or ordinances; penalties.—

(1) As used in this section, "code enforcement officer" means any designated employee or agent of a county or municipality whose duty it is to enforce codes and ordinances enacted by the county or municipality.

(2) A county or a municipality may designate certain of its employees or agents as code enforcement officers. The training and qualifications of the employees or agents for such designation shall be determined by the county or the municipality. Employees or agents who may be designated as code enforcement officers may include, but are not limited to, code inspectors, law enforcement officers, animal control officers, or firesafety inspectors. Designation as a code enforcement officer does not provide the code enforcement officer with the power of arrest or subject the code enforcement officer to the provisions of ss. 943.085-943.255. Nothing in this section amends, alters, or contravenes the provisions of any state-administered retirement system or any state-supported retirement system established by general law.

(3)(a) A code enforcement officer is authorized to issue a citation to a person when, based upon personal investigation, the officer has reasonable cause to believe that the person has committed a civil infraction in violation of a duly enacted code or ordinance and that the county court will hear the charge.

(b) A code enforcement officer may not initiate an investigation of a potential violation of a duly enacted code or ordinance by way of an anonymous complaint. A person who reports a potential violation of a code or an ordinance must provide his or her name and address to the respective local government before an investigation may occur. This paragraph does not apply if the code enforcement officer has reason to believe that the violation presents an imminent threat to public health, safety, or welfare or imminent destruction of habitat or sensitive resources.

(c) Prior to issuing a citation, a code enforcement officer shall provide notice to the person that the person has committed a violation of a code or ordinance and shall establish a reasonable time period within which the person must correct the violation. Such time period shall be no more than 30 days. If, upon personal investigation, a code enforcement officer finds that the person has not corrected the violation within the time period, a code enforcement officer may issue a citation to the person who has committed the violation. A code enforcement officer does not have to provide the person with a reasonable time period to correct the violation prior to issuing a citation and may immediately issue a citation if a repeat violation is found or if the code enforcement officer has reason to believe that the violation presents a serious threat to the public health, safety, or welfare, or if the violation is irreparable or irreversible.

(d) A citation issued by a code enforcement officer shall be in a form prescribed by the county or the municipality and shall contain:

1. The date and time of issuance.
2. The name and address of the person to whom the citation is issued.
3. The date and time the civil infraction was committed.
4. The facts constituting reasonable cause.
5. The number or section of the code or ordinance violated.
6. The name and authority of the code enforcement officer.
7. The procedure for the person to follow in order to pay the civil penalty or to contest the citation.
8. The applicable civil penalty if the person elects to contest the citation.
9. The applicable civil penalty if the person elects not to contest the citation.
10. A conspicuous statement that if the person fails to pay the civil penalty within the time allowed, or fails to appear in court to contest the citation, the person shall be deemed to have waived his or her right to contest the citation and that, in such case, judgment may be entered against the person for an amount up to the maximum civil penalty.

(4) After issuing a citation to an alleged violator, a code enforcement officer shall deposit the original citation and one copy of the citation with the county court.

(5) A county or a municipality is authorized to enforce codes and ordinances under the provisions of this section and may enact an ordinance establishing procedures for the implementation of such provisions, including a schedule of violations and penalties to be assessed by code enforcement officers. If a county or municipality chooses to enforce codes or ordinances under the provisions of this section, each code or ordinance or the ordinance enacted by the county or municipality establishing procedures for implementation of this section shall provide:

(a) That a violation of a code or an ordinance is a civil infraction.

(b) A maximum civil penalty not to exceed $500.

(c) A civil penalty of less than the maximum civil penalty if the person who has committed the civil infraction does not contest the citation.

(d) For the issuance of a citation by a code enforcement officer who has reasonable cause to believe that a person has committed an act in violation of a code or an ordinance.

(e) For the contesting of a citation in county court.

(f) Such procedures and provisions as are necessary to provide for the enforcement of a code or an ordinance under the provisions of this section.

(6) Any person who willfully refuses to sign and accept a citation issued by a code enforcement officer shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083.

(7) The provisions of this part shall not apply to the enforcement pursuant to ss. 553.79 and 553.80 of the Florida Building Code adopted pursuant to s. 553.73 as applied to construction, provided that a building permit is either not required or has been issued by the county or the municipality.

(8) The provisions of this section are additional and supplemental means of enforcing county or municipal codes or ordinances and may be used for the enforcement of any code or ordinance, or for the enforcement of all codes and ordinances. Except as provided in paragraph (3)(b), nothing contained in this section shall prohibit a county or municipality from enforcing its codes or ordinances by any other means.

History.—s. 11, ch. 89-268; s. 7, ch. 94-291; s. 1444, ch. 95-147; s. 3, ch. 96-385; s. 4, ch. 98-287; s. 115, ch. 2000-141; s. 35, ch. 2001-186; s. 4, ch. 2001-372; s. 4, ch. 2021-167.

162.22 Designation of enforcement methods and penalties for violation of municipal ordinances.—The governing body of a municipality may designate the enforcement methods and penalties to be imposed for the violation of ordinances adopted by the municipality. These enforcement methods may include, but are not limited to, the issuance of a citation, a summons, or a notice to appear in county court or arrest for violation of municipal ordinances as provided for in chapter 901. Unless otherwise specifically authorized and provided for by law, a person convicted of violating a municipal ordinance may be sentenced to pay a fine, not to exceed $500, and may be sentenced to a definite term of imprisonment, not to exceed 60 days, in a municipal detention facility or other facility as authorized by law.

History.—s. 1, ch. 94-255.

162.23 Notice to appear.—

(1) Notwithstanding s. 34.07, a code enforcement officer, designated pursuant to s. 162.21(1) and (2), may issue a notice to appear at any hearing conducted by a county court if the officer, based upon personal investigation, has reasonable cause to believe that the person has violated a code or ordinance. A notice to appear means a written order issued by a code enforcement officer in lieu of physical arrest requiring a person accused of violating the law to appear in a designated court or governmental office at a specified date and time. If a person issued a notice to appear under this section refuses to sign such notice, the code enforcement officer has no authority to arrest such person.

(2) Prior to issuing a notice to appear, a code enforcement officer shall provide written notice to the person that the person has committed a violation of a code or ordinance and shall establish a reasonable time period within which the person must correct the violation. Such time period shall be no fewer than 5 days and no more than 30 days. If, upon personal investigation, a code enforcement officer finds that the person has not corrected the violation within the prescribed time period, a code enforcement officer may issue a notice to appear to the person who has committed the violation. A code enforcement officer is not required to provide the person with a reasonable time period to correct the violation prior to issuing a notice to appear and may immediately issue a notice to appear if a repeat violation is found, or if the code enforcement officer has reason to believe that the violation presents a serious threat to the public health, safety, or welfare or that the violator is engaged in violations of an itinerant or transient nature, as defined by local code or ordinance within the jurisdiction, or if the violation is irreparable or irreversible.

History.—s. 1, ch. 96-385; s. 7, ch. 99-360.

162.30 Civil actions to enforce county and municipal ordinances.—In addition to other provisions of law authorizing the enforcement of county and municipal codes and ordinances, a county or municipality may enforce any violation of a county or municipal code or ordinance by filing a civil action in the same manner as instituting a civil action. The action shall be brought in county or circuit court, whichever is appropriate depending upon the relief sought. Counties and municipalities are authorized and required to pay any counsel appointed by the court to represent a private party in such action if the provision of counsel at public expense is required by the Constitution of the United States or the Constitution of the State of Florida and if the party is indigent as established pursuant to s. 27.52. The county or municipality shall bear all court fees and costs of any such action, and may, if it prevails, recover the court fees and costs and expense of the court-appointed counsel as part of its judgment. The state shall bear no expense of actions brought under this section except those that it would bear in an ordinary civil action between private parties in county court.

History.—s. 87, ch. 2003-402.

162.41 Code inspector body cameras; policies and procedures.—

(1) As used in this section, the term:

(a) "Body camera" means a portable electronic recording device worn on a code inspector's person which records audio and video data of the code inspector's encounters and activities.

(b) "Code inspector" has the same meaning as in s. 162.04(2).

(2) A governmental entity that permits its code inspectors to wear body cameras shall establish policies and procedures addressing the proper use, maintenance, and storage of body cameras and the data recorded by body cameras. The policies and procedures must include all of the following:

(a) General guidelines for the proper use, maintenance, and storage of body cameras.

(b) Any limitation on which code inspectors are permitted to wear body cameras.

(c) Any limitation on code enforcement-related encounters and activities in which code inspectors are permitted to wear body cameras. A code inspector must be permitted to use a body camera to record any encounter with a member of the public which occurs while the inspector is performing his or her duties.

(d) General guidelines for the proper storage, retention, and release of audio and video data recorded by body cameras.

(3) A governmental entity that permits its code inspectors to wear body cameras shall do all of the following:

(a) Ensure that all personnel who wear, use, maintain, or store body cameras are trained in the governmental entity's body camera policies and procedures.

(b) Ensure that all personnel who use, maintain, store, or release audio or video data recorded by body cameras are trained in the governmental entity's policies and procedures.

(c) Retain audio and video data recorded by body cameras in accordance with the requirements of s. 119.021, except as otherwise provided by law.

(d) Perform a periodic review of actual body camera practices to ensure conformity with the governmental entity's body camera policies and procedures.

(4) Chapter 934 does not apply to body camera recordings made by code inspectors who elect to use body cameras.

Sec. 6-30. Enforcement procedure.

(a) (1) It shall be the duty of the code inspector to initiate enforcement proceedings of the various codes; however, no member of the code enforcement board shall have the power to initiate such enforcement proceedings.

(2) The code inspector may not initiate enforcement proceedings for a potential violation of the codes by way of an anonymous complaint. A person who reports a potential violation of a code must provide his or her name and address to the County's Department of Development Support and Environmental Management before an enforcement proceeding may occur. This paragraph does not apply if the code inspector has reason to believe that the violation presents an imminent threat to public health, safety, or welfare or imminent destruction of habitat or sensitive resources.

(b) Except as provided in subsections (c) and (d) of this section, if a violation of the codes is found, the code inspector shall notify the violator and give him a reasonable time to correct the violation. Should the violation continue beyond the time specified for correction, the code inspector shall notify the code enforcement board and request a hearing. The code enforcement board, through its clerical staff, shall schedule a hearing, and written notice of such hearing shall be hand delivered or mailed as provided in section 6-36 to the violator. At the option of the code enforcement board, notice may additionally be served by publication or posting as provided in section 6-36. If the violation is corrected and then recurs or if the violation is not corrected by the time specified for correction by the code inspector, the case may be presented to the code enforcement board even if the violation has been corrected prior to the code enforcement board hearing, and the notice shall so state.

(c) If a repeat violation is found, the code inspector shall notify the violator but is not required to give the violator a reasonable time to correct the violation. The code inspector, upon notifying the violator of a repeat violation, shall notify the code enforcement board and request a hearing. The code enforcement board, through its clerical staff, shall schedule a hearing and shall provide notice pursuant to section 6-36. The case may be presented to the code enforcement board even if the repeat violation has been corrected prior to the code enforcement board hearing, and the notice shall so state.

(d) If the code inspector has reason to believe a violation presents a serious threat to the public health, safety, and welfare or if the violation is irreparable or irreversible in nature, the code inspector shall make a reasonable effort to notify the violator and may immediately notify the code enforcement board and request a hearing.

(e) The burden is on the county to show, by preponderance of the evidence that a violation has occurred.

(6) Any provision of the Leon County Code of Laws which the code enforcement board is specifically granted enforcement jurisdiction.

(Code 1980, § 2-143(a); Code 1992, § 6-31; Ord. No. 94-3, § 1, 2-22-1994; Ord. No. 9607, § 3, 7-16-1996; Ord. No. 98-19, § 1, 11-10-1998; Ord. No. 00-08, § 2, 2-22-2000; Ord. Sec. 6-32. Hearing procedure.

(a) The board administrator may call code enforcement board hearings. The code enforcement board may, at any hearing, set a future hearing date.

(b) The code enforcement board shall conduct a code compliance hearing at least once every two months, but may convene more often as caseload demands dictate.

(c) Minutes shall be kept of all hearings held by the code enforcement board, and all such hearings shall be open to the public.

(d) The County Administrator shall provide clerical and administrative personnel as may be required to assist the code enforcement board in the proper performance of its duties.

(e) Each case before the code enforcement board shall be presented by a representative of the county.

(f) The county will provide counsel to the code enforcement board, and in no case shall the County Attorney's staff present a case and represent the code enforcement board in the same case.

(g) Cases scheduled for a particular day shall be heard. All testimony shall be under oath and shall be recorded. At the code compliance hearing, the code enforcement board shall take testimony from the code inspector, the alleged violator and any other person familiar with the case or having knowledge about the case. The code enforcement board shall not be bound by any formal rules of evidence; however, it shall act to ensure fundamental due process in each case brought before the code enforcement board.

(h) At the conclusion of the code compliance hearing, the code enforcement board shall issue a code compliance order, including findings of fact based on evidence of record, conclusions of law, and an order requiring compliance and affording the proper relief consistent with powers granted herein. The terms of the code compliance order shall be adopted by motion, approved by a majority of those members present and voting, except that at least four members of the seven-member code enforcement board must vote in order for the action to be official. The code compliance order will include a notice that it must be complied with by a specified date, that a fine will be imposed if the order is not complied with by such date, specifying how the fine will be calculated, and that a lien will be imposed on the property. If the violation was corrected after scheduling of the code compliance hearing but before such hearing, the code enforcement board may enter a code compliance order finding that the violation occurred and has been resolved, and order closing of the file. The code enforcement board shall provide the code compliance order by certified mail to the violator. A certified copy of such order may be recorded in the public records of the county and shall constitute notice to any subsequent purchasers, successors in interest, or assigns if the violation concerns real property, and the terms therein shall be binding upon the violator and, if the violation concerns real property, any subsequent purchasers, successors in interest, or assigns. If a code compliance order is recorded in the public records pursuant to this subsection and the order is complied with by the date specified in the order, the code enforcement board shall issue an order acknowledging code compliance that shall be recorded in the public records. A hearing is not required to issue such an order acknowledging compliance. The code enforcement board may at the time of the code compliance hearing authorize the chair to enter the order imposing fine and lien described in subsection 6-32(j) in the event the violator fails to comply with any one or more of the requirements set forth in the code compliance order.

(i) If the violator fails to comply with any one or more of the requirements set forth in the code compliance order issued by the code enforcement board by the corresponding compliance deadline, the county will send notice by certified mail to the violator advising that the violator has failed to comply with the code compliance order and will be subject to penalties in the form of a fine per day for each day that the violator remains out of compliance with the code compliance order, and that a lien as determined will be imposed on the property. The violator shall have 20 days from the date of the notice of noncompliance to file a request for a compliance review hearing before the code enforcement board to challenge the determination of noncompliance with the code compliance order, validity of the fine amount, or the imposition of the lien. Such request for a compliance review hearing shall be filed with the board administrator, who will notice the case for hearing. Failure to timely file a request for a compliance review hearing will be deemed a waiver of the right to challenge the determination of noncompliance in the code compliance order, validity of the fine amount, or the imposition of a lien.

(j) If the violator fails to timely file a request for a compliance review hearing, the county will submit an affidavit of noncompliance to the chair of the code enforcement board. Upon receipt of the affidavit of noncompliance, and confirmation that the violator waived the right to request a hearing to contest noncompliance, validity of the fine amount, or the imposition of a lien, the chair may execute an order imposing a fine, which will be filed against the violator immediately and a fine shall be assessed for the days the violator is out of compliance. The fines established by the order imposing fine shall constitute a lien against the property.

(k) Any case may be continued by the code enforcement board for good cause shown. If the code enforcement board's consideration of a case has already been publicly noticed, the code enforcement board's counsel may grant a continuance prior to the meeting at which a case is to be heard, provided that the request is unopposed by all parties. The continuance shall be announced during the publicly noticed hearing.

(Code 1980, § 2-146; Code 1992, § 6-32; Ord. No. 11-09, § 2, 5-24-2011; Ord. No. 17-04, § 12, 3-7-2017; Ord. No. 25-01, § 1, 1-28-2025)

State law reference(s)—Presentation of cases, F.S. § 162.05(5); conduct of hearing, F.S. § 162.07.

Sec. 6-33. Powers, generally.

The code enforcement board shall have the power to:

(1) Adopt rules for the conduct of the hearings it holds pursuant to section 6-32.

(2) Subpoena alleged violators and witnesses to its hearings. Subpoenas may be served by the county sheriff.

(3) Subpoena evidence.

(4) Take testimony under oath.

(5) Issue orders following a hearing, which orders shall have the force of law and shall set forth the steps necessary to be accomplished in order to bring a violation into compliance with the code that has been violated.

(6) Access administrative fines and impose liens on real and personal property pursuant to F.S. chs. 162 and 125.

(Code 1980, § 2-147; Code 1992, § 6-33; Ord. No. 17-04, § 12, 3-7-2017)

State law reference(s)—Similar provisions, F.S. § 162.08.

Sec. 6-34. Administrative fines; liens.

(a) As set forth above in section 6-32, when a code compliance order has not been complied with by the set time or, upon finding that a repeat violation has been committed, the violator may be ordered to pay a fine in an amount specified in this section for each day the violation continues past the date set by the code compliance order or, in the case of a repeat violation, for each day the repeat violation continues, beginning with the date the repeat violation is found to have occurred by the code inspector. Where a finding of a violation or a repeat violation has been made at a code compliance hearing and the violator has failed to timely request a compliance review hearing as provided in subsection 6-32(i), a hearing shall not be necessary for issuance of the order imposing the fine.

(b) A fine imposed pursuant to this chapter shall not exceed $250.00 per day for a first violation and shall not exceed $500.00 per day for a repeat violation. If, at the code compliance hearing, the code enforcement board finds the violation to be irreparable or irreversible in nature, it may impose a one-time fine not to exceed $5,000.00 per violation in the code compliance order. In determining the amount of the fine, if any, the code enforcement board shall consider the following factors:

(1) The gravity of the violation.

(2) Any actions taken by the violator to correct the violation.

(3) Any previous violations committed by the violator.

(c) The code enforcement board may reduce a fine imposed pursuant to this chapter upon request after the violation has been corrected.

(d) A lien for a violation of section 14-31 or 14-41 has a maximum lien threshold of $10,000.00 and shall cease accruing once the lien reaches $10,000.00. Violations that are found to be repeat violations, regardless of the violation, and violations of other sections of the Code other than sections 14-31 and 14-41 do not have a maximum lien threshold, unless otherwise stated.

(e) A certified copy of an order imposing a fine shall be recorded in the public records and, thereafter, shall constitute a lien against the land on which the violation exists. Upon petition to the circuit court, such order may be enforced in the same manner as a court judgment by the sheriffs of the state, but such order shall not be deemed to be a court judgment except for enforcement purposes. A fine imposed pursuant to this section shall continue to accrue until the violator comes into compliance or until judgment is rendered in a suit to foreclose on a lien filed pursuant to this chapter, whichever occurs first. After three months from the filing of any such lien which remains unpaid, the code enforcement board may authorize the County Attorney to foreclose on the lien. No lien created pursuant to the provisions of this chapter may be foreclosed on real property which is a homestead under Fla. Const. art. X, § 4. A lien arising from a fine imposed pursuant to this Chapter runs in favor of the county, and the county may execute a satisfaction or release of lien entered pursuant to this chapter.

(Code 1980, § 2-148; Code 1992, § 6-34; Ord. No. 89-8, § 2, 3-28-1989; Ord. No. 17-04, § 12, 3-7-2017; Ord. No. 25-01, § 1, 1-28-2025)

State law reference(s)—Similar provisions, F.S. § 162.09; duration of lien, F.S. § 162.10.

Sec. 6-35. Appeals.

An aggrieved party, including the county, may appeal a final administrative order of the code enforcement board to the circuit court. An appeal shall be filed within 30 days of the execution of the order to be appealed.

(Code 1980, § 2-149.1; Code 1992, § 6-35)

State law reference(s)—Similar provisions, F.S. § 162.11.

Sec. 6-36. Notices.

(a) All notices required by this article shall be provided to the alleged violator by certified mail, return receipt requested; by hand delivery by the sheriff, code inspector or other person designated by the Board of County Commissioners; by leaving the notice at the violator's usual place of residence with any person residing therein who is above 15 years of age and informing such person of the contents of the notice; or, in the case of commercial premises, leaving the notice with the manager or other person in charge.

(b) If any notice sent by certified mail is not signed as received within 30 days after the postmarked date of mailing, notice may be provided by posting as described in subsection (d) of this section.

(c) In addition to providing notice as set forth in subsection (a) of this section, at the option of the code enforcement board, notice may also be served by publication as follows:

(1) Such notice shall be published once during each week for four consecutive weeks (four publications being sufficient) in a newspaper of general circulation in the county. The newspaper shall meet such requirements as are prescribed under F.S. ch. 50 for legal and official advertisements.

(2) Proof of publication shall be made as provided in F.S. §§ 50.041 and 50.051.

(d) In lieu of publication as described in subsection (c) of this section, such notice may be posted at least ten days prior to the hearing, or prior to the expiration of any deadline contained in the notice, at the property upon which the violation is alleged to exist and at the front door of the courthouse or the main county governmental center.

(e) Evidence that an attempt has been made to hand deliver or mail notice as provided in subsection (a) of this section, together with proof of publication or posting as provided in subsections (c) and (d) of this section, shall be sufficient to show that the notice requirements of this article have been met, without regard to whether or not the alleged violator actually received such notice. Notice by publication or posting may run concurrently with, or may follow, an attempt to provide notice by hand delivery or by mail as required under subsection (a) of this section.

ARTICLE II. DILAPIDATED STRUCTURES

Sec. 14-20. Findings of fact and intent.

Dilapidated structures are a blighting factor which deteriorates property and can cause the property to become a threat to public health, safety and welfare. Dilapidated structures can also depreciate the value of the property and the value of the adjacent and surrounding properties. The Board of County Commissioners finds that dilapidated structures are a public nuisance. It is the intent of this article to provide for the prohibition of dilapidated structures as herein set forth. The Board of County Commissioners further authorizes the use of any and all means, including the use of county funds to abate dilapidated structures should the dilapidated structure threaten public health, safety or welfare.

(Code 1992, § 14-20; Ord. No. 17-04, § 3, 3-7-2017)

Sec. 14-21. Prohibited conditions.

Dilapidated structures, including real property, personal property or fixtures, on any lot or parcel of land, or other real property in the county, whether improved or unimproved, constitute a public nuisance and are prohibited, and every owner of real property in the county has a duty to keep his property free of any nuisance at his expense.

(Code 1992, § 14-21; Ord. No. 17-04, § 3, 3-7-2017)

ARTICLE III. JUNK

Sec. 14-30. Findings of fact and intent.

It is found and determined that a large amount of junk has and is accumulated in the county and that accumulations of junk constitute a menace to the public health, safety and welfare of the citizens of the county and mar and detract from the natural beauty of the county. The intent of this article is to alleviate this menace by providing for the prohibition of junk as herein set forth. The Board of County Commissioners authorizes the use of any and all means, including the use of county funds, to abate junk should the junk threaten public health, safety or welfare.

(b) No person shall drop, deposit, discard or otherwise dispose of any abandoned property in or upon any public property in the county, except in litter receptacles or in an area lawfully established and maintained as a garbage or waste disposal site, sanitary landfill or junkyard. When a violation of this section is observed by any person, and the abandoned property is dumped or disposed of on public property has been ejected from a vehicle, the owner or operator of such vehicle shall be presumed to be the person who ejected such abandoned property. These presumptions shall be rebuttable by presentation of competent evidence to the contrary.

(Code 1992, § 14-31; Ord. No. 89-23, § 2(11-3), 8-15-1989; Ord. No. 17-04, § 5, 3-7-2017)

(d) Such notice shall be not less than eight inches by ten inches and shall be sufficiently weatherproof to withstand normal exposure to the elements. In addition to posting, the law enforcement officer shall make a reasonable effort to ascertain the name and address of the owner. If such is reasonably available to the law enforcement officer, he shall mail a copy of such notice to the owner on or before the date of posting. If the property is a motor vehicle or a vessel, the law enforcement agency shall contact the department of highway safety and motor vehicles in order to determine the name and address of the owner and any person who has filed a lien on the vehicle or vessel. Upon receipt of this information, the law enforcement agency shall mail a copy of the notice by certified mail, return receipt requested, to the owner and to the lien holder, if any.

(e) If, at the end of the period specified in the notice, the abandoned property has not been removed, then the law enforcement officer may cause the abandoned property to be removed as provided in F.S. ch. 705.

ARTICLE IV. LOT MOWING

Sec. 14-40. Findings of fact and intent.

If an owner fails to comply with an order of the code enforcement board requiring compliance with section 14-40, the county may, in addition to any further action taken by the code enforcement board as to the noncompliance, cause the prohibited conditions to be abated as provided in article V of this chapter.

ARTICLE V. NUISANCE ABATEMENT

Sec. 14-50. Purpose and intent.

It is the intent of this article to promote, protect, and improve the health, safety, and welfare of the citizens of the county by creating an administrative board with the authority to determine whether a building or premises presents a serious and continuing danger to the public and/or occupants and enter an order allowing said nuisance to be abated by the county.

(Code 1992, § 14-50; Ord. No. 17-04, § 8, 3-7-2017)

Sec. 14-51. Nuisance abatement board.

(a) Creation. Members of the code enforcement board are hereby designated and established as the members of the nuisance abatement board. The terms of office of the members of the nuisance abatement board shall coincide with the terms of office of the code enforcement board. The chair and vice-chair of the code enforcement board shall serve as chair and vice-chair of the nuisance abatement board, respectively.

(b) Organization and compensation. Four or more members of the nuisance abatement board present at any meeting shall constitute a quorum in order for the nuisance abatement board to conduct business. The County Administrator shall provide clerical and administrative personnel as may be required to assist the nuisance abatement board in the proper performance of its duties.

(c) Function. The nuisance abatement board may consider cases that have an order from the code enforcement board finding a violation of sections 14-21, 14-31, 14-41, or 5-314 and remain in violation of the code enforcement board's order.

(1) The county may abate violations of sections 14-21, 14-31, or 5-314 if the nuisance abatement board determines that a building or premises presents a serious and continuing danger to the public and/or occupants. A building or premises presents a serious and continuing danger to the public and/or occupants when it is not safe. Factors evidencing a determination that a property is not safe may include, but are not limited to: unsecured or unsecurable dangerous conditions; a history demonstrating the property owner's failure to exercise reasonable control over the property, to keep it secure or safe; a history showing that the property has become an attractive nuisance to children or transients; a history showing a proliferation of criminal activity due to dilapidated conditions and lack of management and control over the premises; a history showing that notwithstanding the reasonable efforts of code compliance staff and/or the code enforcement board, the property remains in a condition which is dangerous to the public health, safety and welfare.

(2) The county may abate violations of section 14-41 if the premises upon which the overgrowth exists is determined to be abandoned, and the nuisance abatement board determines that the prohibited conditions at the premises present a serious and continuing danger to the public as set forth in section 14-40. For the purposes of this subsection, the term "abandoned" means any premises that is not lawfully occupied or inhabited as evidenced by non-homestead status; overgrown and/or dead vegetation; nonpayment of taxes; electricity, water, or other utilities turned off or otherwise non-operational; stagnant swimming pool; statements by neighbors, passersby, delivery agents or government agents; or other conditions which would indicate that the property is not lawfully inhabited.

(3) The burden is on the county to show by preponderance of the evidence that the building, premises, or overgrowth presents a serious and continuing danger to the public and/or occupants.

(d) Powers. The nuisance abatement board shall have the power to:

(1) Adopt rules for the conduct of the hearings it holds pursuant to section 14-52.

(2) Notice and/or subpoena alleged violators and witnesses to its hearings.

(3) Take testimony under oath.

(4) Issue orders following a hearing, which orders shall have the force of law, including ordering the demolition of the dilapidated structure, the repair of the building to render the building safe, the removal of junk, litter, or junked or abandoned motor vehicles from the premises, or the mowing or cutting of overgrowth on the premises should compliance not be achieved within the allotted time.

(Code 1992, § 14-51; Ord. No. 17-04, § 8, 3-7-2017; Ord. No. 17-17, § 1, 10-10-2017)

Sec. 14-52. Notice and hearing procedure.

(a) Notice. If a code inspector determines that a building or premises previously found to be in violation of sections 14-21, 14-31, 14-41, or 5-314 by the code enforcement board remains in violation and believes it to present a serious and continuing danger to the public and/or occupants of the building, the code inspector shall notify the violator of the public nuisance and provide him a reasonable time to abate the public nuisance. Should the violation continue beyond the reasonable time specified for abatement, the code inspector shall notify the nuisance abatement board and request a hearing. The nuisance abatement board, through its clerical staff, shall schedule a hearing, and notice of such hearing shall be as provided in section 6-36.

(1) Notice of the public nuisance shall be provided to the owner and occupant and shall include:

a. A description of the public nuisance and the steps needed to be performed to abate the public nuisance;

b. A reasonable time for the violator to abate the public nuisance;

c. That upon failure to abate the public nuisance as specified in the notice, the case may be referred to the nuisance abatement board for a hearing pursuant to article V of this chapter;

d. That the county may take all necessary steps to abate the public nuisance, including, but not limited to, the demolition of a dilapidated structure or the repair of the building to render it safe, the removal of junk, litter, or junked or abandoned motor vehicles from the premises, or the mowing or cutting of overgrowth at the premises;

e. That the cost of any abatement action by the county will be imposed as a lien on the subject property and said lien may be subject to foreclosure.

(2) Notice of the nuisance abatement board hearing shall be provided to the owner and occupant and shall include:

a. That the county may take all necessary steps to abate the public nuisance, including, but not limited to, the demolition of a dilapidated structure or the repair of the building to render it safe, the removal of junk, litter, or junked or abandoned motor vehicles, or the mowing or cutting of overgrowth;

b. That the nuisance abatement board has the power to order the property to be vacated.

(3) If the county is seeking to demolish the public nuisance, such notice of the nuisance abatement board hearing shall be served not only upon the property owner of record, but shall also be served upon mortgage holders and lien holders of record.

(b) Hearing procedure.

(1) The chairman of the nuisance abatement board may call nuisance abatement board hearings and such hearings may also be called by a written notice signed by three members of the nuisance abatement board. The nuisance abatement board may, at any hearing, set a future hearing date.

(2) The nuisance abatement board shall convene as often as demand dictates.

(3) Minutes shall be kept of all hearings held by the nuisance abatement board and all such hearings shall be open to the public.

(4) Each case before the nuisance abatement board shall be presented by a representative of the county.

(5) The county will provide counsel to the nuisance abatement board, and in no case shall the County Attorney's staff present a case and represent the nuisance abatement board in the same case. The attorney representing the code enforcement board shall represent the nuisance abatement board.

(6) All cases scheduled for a particular day shall be heard. All testimony shall be under oath and shall be recorded. The nuisance abatement board shall take testimony from the code inspector, the alleged violator and any other person familiar with the case and/or property or having knowledge about the case and/or property. The nuisance abatement board shall not be bound by any formal rules of evidence; however, it shall act to ensure fundamental due process in each case brought before the nuisance abatement board.

(7) At the conclusion of the hearing, the nuisance abatement board shall issue findings of fact based on evidence of record and conclusions of law, and shall issue an order affording the proper relief consistent with powers granted herein. The finding shall be by motion approved by a majority of those members present and voting, except that at least four members of the seven-member nuisance abatement board must vote in order for the action to be official. The order shall indicate that it must be complied with by a specified date and, if the order is not complied with by such date, that the nuisance may be abated by the county and a lien may be imposed for the cost of the abatement pursuant to section 14-54.

(8) A certified copy of such order may be recorded in the public records of the county and shall constitute notice to any subsequent purchasers, successors in interest, or assigns, and the findings therein shall be binding upon the violator and any subsequent purchasers, successors in interest, or assigns. If an order is recorded in the public records pursuant to this subsection and the order is complied with by the date specified in the order, the nuisance abatement board shall issue an order acknowledging compliance that shall be recorded in the public records. A hearing is not required to issue such an order acknowledging compliance.

(9) In the event the owner fails to comply with the time set forth in the order issued by the nuisance abatement board, the county may take such action as authorized by the nuisance abatement board. A second hearing is not required if the code inspector files an affidavit of non-compliance with the nuisance abatement board affirming that the order was not complied with by the specified date.

(c) Extension of time. The nuisance abatement board may grant an extension of time to comply with the order if the owner has in good faith begun to comply with the order within the time set forth in the order. A request for an extension of time shall be, in writing, and shall state the reasons the owner has been unable to fully comply. The owner requesting the extension of time must be present at the nuisance abatement board meeting considering the extension. Failure to appear at the nuisance abatement board meeting may constitute forfeiture of the request for extension of time. Extensions of time shall total no more than one year from the date of the order.

(Code 1992, § 14-52; Ord. No. 17-04, § 8, 3-7-2017; Ord. No. 17-17, § 1, 10-10-2017)

Sec. 14-53. Procedure for vacating buildings or premises.

(a) Procedure. Notice to vacate a building or premises declared to be a serious and continuing danger to the public and/or occupants shall be in accordance with section 6-36. The property shall be kept posted with the notice to vacate until the property is rendered safe.

(b) Penalty. Any person who fails to abide by the notice to vacate or tampers with the posted notice to vacate shall be punished as provided in section 1-9.

(Code 1992, § 14-53; Ord. No. 17-04, § 8, 3-7-2017)

Sec. 14-54. Abatement by county.

(a) The county and/or agents or contractors hired by the county shall be authorized to enter the subject property for the purpose of inspecting and abating the nuisance.

(b) In the event the owner fails to comply with the order issued pursuant to section 14-51 within the time fixed therein, the county, through the County Administrator or designee and/or agents or contractors hired by the County Administrator or designee, is authorized to abate the conditions at the expense of the property owner.

(c) Upon having the nuisance abated, the county shall mail, by certified mail, return receipt requested, to the owner a notice of the cost of abating the conditions. If payment is not received within 30 days after the mailing of the notice of assessment for the work together with all costs of inspection and administration, the county may file a lien against the property for the actual cost of the work, inspection and administration costs, interest, plus reasonable attorney's fee, and other costs of collecting the sums. Nothing herein shall be construed to prevent the county from exercising its discretion to increase or decrease charges based on cost considerations, or utilizing means other than that contemplated in the notice provided for in this article, to abate the conditions violative of this chapter.

(d) The lien shall be recorded in the public records and, thereafter, shall constitute a lien against the land on which the public nuisance existed. A lien arising from a fine imposed pursuant to this article runs in favor of the county, and the county may execute a satisfaction or release of lien entered pursuant to this section. The County Attorney may foreclose on any lien that remains unpaid or to sue to recover a money judgment for the amount of the lien plus accrued interest. No lien created pursuant to the provisions of this subsection may be foreclosed on real property which is a homestead under section 4, article X of the state constitution. The money judgment provisions of this section shall not apply to real property or personal property which is covered under section 4(a), article X of the state constitution.

(e) Making such repairs or abatement does not create a continuing obligation on the part of the county to make further repairs, abate, or to maintain the property and does not create any liability against the county for any damages to the property if such repairs or abatement were completed in good faith.

(Code 1992, § 14-54; Ord. No. 17-04, § 8, 3-7-2017)

Sec. 14-55. Emergency situations.

(a) If a public nuisance presents imminent peril to the public health or general welfare or immediate danger to the life or safety of any person, unless the public nuisance is immediately rendered safe or demolished, the County Administrator or designee may cause such building to be made safe or demolished, junk, litter, or junked or abandoned motor vehicles to be removed, or overgrowth to be mowed or cut, prior to a hearing before the nuisance abatement board.

(b) For this purpose, the County Administrator or designee and building official may at once enter such building or land to perform an inspection. Upon inspection, the County Administrator or designee and building official shall determine if the building requires immediate demolition or repair in order to maintain the safety and welfare of the owner, occupant, or public. A written report will document the results of the inspection and include photographs documenting the public nuisance when feasible.

(c) If the County Administrator or designee determines there is sufficient time prior to demolition or repair action, a notice of intent to demolish or repair will be provided by certified mail, return receipt requested, hand delivery, or telephone to the owner and occupant. The county shall also notify any lien holders. Failure to perfect personal notice upon the owner, occupant, or lien holder shall not prevent the county from performing the emergency demolition, repairs, mowing, or removal and assessing a lien on the property.

(d) All costs incurred during the inspection, vacation, securing and emergency demolitions, repairs, or removal are the responsibility of the property owner and shall constitute a lien on the property as set forth in section 14-54.

(e) The owner, occupant, or other interested parties may request a hearing with the nuisance abatement board in writing, if the abatement action has not already occurred. The written notice for the request must include the requestor's contact information, including cellular phone number and electronic mail address. The hearing will be scheduled as soon as possible. Notice of the hearing will be mailed to the owner, occupant, and any other interested parties at least five days prior to the hearing.

(f) If no notice was sent prior to the abatement of the public nuisance, the nuisance abatement board shall hear the case within a reasonable period of time. Notice advising of the county's actions and the nuisance abatement board hearing shall be sent to the owner and lien holder, if any, of the property pursuant to section 6-36.

(Code 1992, § 14-55; Ord. No. 17-04, § 8, 3-7-2017; Ord. No. 17-17, § 1, 10-10-2017)

Sec. 14-56. Appeals.

(a) An aggrieved party and/or the county may appeal a final administrative order of the nuisance abatement board to the circuit court by writ of certiorari. An appeal shall be filed within 30 days of the entry of the order to be appealed. As used in this section, the term "aggrieved party" means a person who possesses a present legal right of present or future enjoyment of the property by virtue of a deed, title, mortgage, fully executed contract for purchase, lien on estate in the property, judgment of court, being named a beneficiary in a will or trust of a deceased owner or the legal spouse of the property owner.

(b) The filing of an appeal stays the order of the nuisance abatement board until the appeal is resolved unless the building or premises presents imminent peril to the public health or general welfare or presents immediate danger to the life or safety of any person.

(Code 1992, § 14-56; Ord. No. 17-04, § 8, 3-7-2017; Ord. No. 25-01, § 2, 1-28-2025)

ARTICLE VI. INTRODUCED EXOTIC SPECIES

Sec. 14-60. Findings of fact.

It is hereby found and determined that:

(1) Chinese tallow trees (Sapium sebiferum), Coral ardisia (Ardisia crenata), and heavenly bamboo (Nandina domestica) plant species have spread rapidly to many areas of Leon County displacing the diverse native state vegetation and associated wildlife habitat, and creating ecologically undesirable vegetative monocultures.

(2) The health, safety, and welfare of the present and future residents of the county are dependent on minimizing degradation of the native ecological systems of the county.

(3) The comprehensive plan states that the Chinese tallow tree (Sapium sebiferum) is a plant species that is of serious concern and must be controlled.

(4) The county wishes to encourage the removal of Chinese tallow trees (Sapium sebiferum), Coral ardisia(Ardisia crenata), and heavenly bamboo (Nandina domestica).

Option #1: Accept the status report on Leon County's efforts to host future World Athletics Cross Country Championships events.

Report and Discussion

Background:

Building on the successful 2026 World Athletics Cross Country Championships (WXC26) at Apalachee Regional Park (ARP), this item provides a status report on Leon County's bid to host the 2029 Cross Country Championships as well as ongoing efforts to serve as the permanent home for the event.

This item would advance the following FY 2022 – FY 2026 Strategic Initiatives:

- Establish Leon County's Apalachee Regional Park as the permanent home of the World Athletics Cross Country Championships by building on the defining success of the 2026 Championships and strengthening the County's relationship with World Athletics to position the global showcase of Leon County's natural beauty and world-class facilities as a catalyst for continued growth in sports tourism. (2026)

This Strategic Initiative aligns with the Board's Quality of Life Strategic Priority:

- (EC4) Grow our tourism economy, its diversity, competitiveness, and economic impact.

On January 10, 2026, Leon County hosted the World Athletics Cross Country Championships (WXC26) at Apalachee Regional Park (ARP), marking the first major international sporting championship ever held in Tallahassee-Leon County. The Championships also marked the event's first return to the United States since 1992 in Boston and only the third time it has been hosted on U.S. soil. The event delivered significant local economic, global marketing, and community impacts, including:

- $6.09 million in local tourism economic impact generated for Leon County, according to Downs & St. Germain Research, Inc.
- 15,262 attendees, including 10,900 out-of-county visitors, with 57% visiting Leon County for the first time.
- Nearly $17 million in domestic earned media, generating significant destination exposure for Tallahassee-Leon County.
- A global audience reach of 3 billion, with WXC26 broadcast in 70 countries and federations and featured in 950 articles and stories worldwide.
- $24.5 million in global event impact, as reported by World Athletics' research agency, Nielsen—the highest global event impact of any World Athletics Cross Country Championships. This global measurement is separate from the $6.09 million local tourism economic impact.
- Nearly four times the global economic impact of recent Championships, compared with WXC Bathurst 2023 ($6.3 million) and WXC Belgrade 2024 ($5.5 million), demonstrating the success and growing global reach of WXC26.
- More than 100 local and state business partners and 500 volunteers supported WXC26, demonstrating the tremendous community involvement that helped successfully deliver Tallahassee-Leon County's first world championship.

- $10,000 donated to Leon County Schools from championship ticket sales to support local cross country and track and field programs, creating a lasting legacy and investing in the next generation of runners.

At the February 10, 2026 meeting, the Board accepted a status update on Leon County's successful hosting of the WXC26 at Apalachee Regional Park and authorized the Chairman to accompany the County Administrator and key staff for an in-person engagement with World Athletics leadership to advance the Board's initiative for Leon County to become the long-term home of the Championships.

On August 5, 2026, the Chairman, County Administrator and County staff traveled to Eugene, Oregon to meet with the leaders of Worlds Athletics to discuss the World Athletics Cross Country Championships (WXC 2029) bid and opportunities to host future Championships. The following analysis provides a summary of the County efforts to host the 2029 Championships and serve as a permanent home for subsequent events.

Analysis:

Building on the momentum of hosting the WXC26, the Chairman, County Administrator and County staff met with World Athletics President Sebastion Coe and Chief Executive Officer Jon Ridgeon in Eugene, Oregon on August 5, 2026 at the U20 World Athletics Track and Field Event, to discuss the WXC 2029 bid and opportunities to host future Championships. Throughout the international track and field event in Eugene, Leon County was both privately and publicly recognized for setting a new standard for the global championship.

The meeting with the World Athletic leaders provided an opportunity to reinforce Leon County's interest in hosting future Championships and explore a potential long-term hosting framework that could establish Apalachee Regional Park as the home for the Championships. As a result, World Athletics leadership shared their goals to enhance the cross-country events beyond 2030. This would include the potential for Leon County to serve as a pilot framework for a longer-term hosting model. Under this approach, an experienced host such as Leon County could lead planning and delivery functions including logistics, transportation, volunteer coordination, venue operations, athlete experience, and community engagement while World Athletics retains responsibility for governance and competition standards. This division of responsibilities could reduce costs and operational complexity while providing World Athletics with an experienced, proven host and allowing Leon County to continue building on the success of WXC26 and growing the sport of cross country.

Parallel to discussions of Leon County serving as the long-term home for the Championships, World Athletics leadership also enthusiastically welcomed the County's continued engagement to bid for the WXC 2029. County staff has completed the pre-qualification bid phase for WXC 2029 and has been approved to proceed with the formal bid process. Under World Athletics' current bidding calendar, the initial bid application is due October 23, 2026, with the final bid application due January 29, 2027, and the World Athletics Council expected to award the event in March 2027.

County staff are developing the initial bid application and supporting materials required by World Athletics. These materials will address the proposed new event concept and course at Apalachee Regional Park, accommodations and meeting facilities, transportation and accessibility, event operations, organizational structure, financial considerations, marketing and promotion expanding on the successful WXC26 edition. Should the County be awarded the bid for the WXC 2029, an agenda item will come back to the Board detailing the associated costs to host the event.

Options:

1. Accept the status report on Leon County's efforts to host future World Athletics Cross Country Championships events.
2. Do not accept the status report on Leon County's efforts to host future World Athletics Cross Country Championships events.
3. Board direction.

Title: Fiscal Year 2024 – 2025 Annual Audit and Financial Statements

Review and Approval:	Vincent S. Long, County Administrator Gwen Marshall, Clerk of the Circuit Court and Comptroller
Department / Division Review:	Ken Morris, Assistant County Administrator Roshaunda Bradley, Director, Office of Management and Budget
Lead Staff / Project Team:	Thomas Kauffman, Chief Financial Officer Timothy Shopmyer, Assistant Director of Finance Danielle Halon, General Accounting & Reporting Manager

Statement of Issue:

This agenda item seeks Board acceptance of the annual external audit and the County's financial statements, and approval for the Chairman to sign the letter transmitting these reports to the Auditor General in compliance with Florida Statutes.

Fiscal Impact:

This item has no fiscal impact.

Staff Recommendation:

Option #1: Accept the Fiscal Year 2024 – 2025 Annual Audit and Financial Statements (Attachment #1) and authorize the Chairman to sign a letter transmitting the report to the Auditor General (Attachment #2).

Report and Discussion

Background:

Section 218.39, Florida Statutes, requires the Board to obtain an independent audit of the County's financial statements on an annual basis. The Board contracted for an independent audit with Thomas Howell Ferguson P.A. and Law, Redd, Crona, & Munroe P.A., Certified Public Accountants. The FY 2025 audit and financial report are provided to the Board for review under the Clerk's transmittal memorandum (Attachment #1).

The independent auditors issued an unqualified, or clean, opinion on the Board's fiscal year ended September 30, 2025 financial statements, which marks the 43rd consecutive year that Leon County has received the highest level of audit opinion. The audit also concluded that corrective actions have been taken to address findings and recommendations made in the preceding annual financial audit report. Of the eight audit findings in last year's report, four were considered resolved, and the remaining corrective actions were still ongoing at the end of FY 2025 due primarily to minor discrepancies for which appropriate measures were immediately put into place to mitigate these issues going forward.

The FY 2024 – 2025 annual audit identified five findings and recommendations. As further detailed in the Analysis section, the Clerk's Finance Office has developed additional corrective action plans and improved policies and procedures to address each finding. Each of the corrective actions presented in the item have been accepted by the auditors to resolve these deficiencies.

Analysis:

The report on internal control, report on compliance, and the management letter from the Board's external auditors are included in pages 56 to 70 of Attachment #1. There are five audit recommendations which have been accepted by management. The implementation of the recommendations is in progress. The letter transmitting the Management Letter (Attachment #2) will be forwarded to the Auditor General.

On July 23, 2026, the external auditor presented the annual audit report to the Advisory Audit Committee (AAC). The AAC is a five-member citizen committee with auditing and financial expertise appointed by the Clerk and Board. As standard practice when developing the annual internal audit plan, any external audit findings are considered when developing the scope of work for the next audit cycle.

Since the issuance of the external audit management letter, the Clerk's Finance Office has worked collaboratively with both internal and external stakeholders to resolve these deficiencies. The following provides a summary of each audit finding and status of associated corrective action plans.

Fixed Asset Disposals

Finding: The FY 2024 – 2025 audit identified several disposals of IT equipment that occurred during the year were not initially recorded for financial statement reporting. This was due to a minor discrepancy in the actual date surplus computing equipment items were identified for donation to Goodwill Industries and when they were actually transferred, or disposed of. Additionally, the audit identified discrepancies in the reconciliation of data between the system the Purchasing Division used to record the property disposals and the system Finance used to track disposals for fixed asset financial reporting. These discrepancies were found to be primarily related to pre-set report parameters in the database that were not capturing the correct information for financial reporting. The report parameters have since been corrected to ensure future reports accurately capture property disposal activity for financial reporting purposes.

Current Status: To address the finding, the Purchasing Division has implemented new procedures requiring the Property Control Specialist to be present during bulk surplus and donation pickups to verify the accuracy of the assets being removed and document the date of disposition. Additionally, the Property Control Specialist has coordinated with the OIT to establish more frequent, routine pickup schedules to improve oversight and ensure surplus and donated assets are tracked and processed in a timely and accurate manner. These corrective actions have been accepted by the auditors to resolve these deficiencies.

Fixed Assets Balances and Schedules

Finding: The audit identified multiple expenditures that were inadvertently recorded to a non-capital asset account which led to omissions in the fixed asset management system by the Clerk's Finance Office. A capital asset includes, but is not limited to, machinery and equipment, land, buildings, etc. Adjustments to the financial statements were required to reconcile these discrepancies.

Current Status: The Clerk's Finance Office has updated internal policies and procedures to institute additional data checks to proactively identify and correct information throughout the year, ensuring issues are addressed promptly as updated information is received. Additionally, the Clerk's Finance Office has also recently hired a new Finance Director and Assistant Finance Director which allows for additional planning and monitoring of staffing and deadlines and an added layer of internal controls and transaction review. Each of the corrective actions presented in the item have been accepted by the auditors to resolve these deficiencies.

The Closing Process:

Finding: This finding was attributed to a late invoice being received for one Public Works capital improvement project which affected the timeliness of recording grant revenue expenditures in the financial statements.

Current Status: Finance and OMB conduct annual year-end closeout meetings for all departments and Constitutional Officers to provide instruction on the year-end closing procedures to ensure year-end balances are accurately reflected so Finance can prepare the County's financial statements. These procedures have been followed and mostly successful, as only one late invoice was identified this year as being significant compared to the multiple invoices which impacted the previous year's audit. However, while this invoice submission was considered an outlier, the audit finding still identified an opportunity to strengthen current processes. More thorough procedures have been put into place with project managers and County contractors to track outstanding invoices and ensure that all end of year invoices have been received. Departments are also now required to include OMB and Finance on all communication with granting agencies when a grant reimbursement has been requested so that an appropriate accounting is maintained for the financial schedules. These corrective actions have been accepted by the auditors to resolve these deficiencies.

Lease and Subscription Based Information Technology Arrangement (SBITA) Tracking and Recording

Finding: Recent changes in accounting standards now require more robust tracking for certain leases and subscription-based IT agreements. The audit noted improvements in the process for calculating and reporting Leases and SBITAs based on Finance's previous corrective action plan stemming from the FY 2024 audit. However, the audit found errors in reported contract amounts and instances in which eight new SBITAs were not included on the original SBITA schedules.

Current Status: Finance updated internal policies and procedures to ensure completeness going forward. This also included a modification to the County's internal contract routing form to include SBITAs as a "contract type" to ensure SBITAs are more clearly identifiable to Finance so they can be accurately recorded for auditing purposes. Additionally, an agenda item will also be brought back to the Board at the October meeting to update the Capital Asset Policy to properly account for SBITA tracking. These corrective actions have been accepted by the auditors to resolve these deficiencies.

Timely Billing and Accounts Receivables Collectability for Intergovernmental Grants

Finding: The audit identified intergovernmental grant revenues recorded by the Finance Division that inadvertently combined local match revenues in the accounting system which reflected inflated grant accounts and required adjustments to the financial statements. The audit also identified grant reimbursements that were not timely invoiced to the granting agencies. Some of these delays were due to changes in points of contact with granting agencies which impacted communication and caused billing challenges. However, in all of the identified cases, the County was able to demonstrate consistent communication with grant managers and verified ongoing grant eligibility.

Current Status: Finance and the Office of Management and Budget have strengthened internal procedures across all department grant managers to ensure completeness and accuracy of amounts recorded throughout the fiscal year. As reflected in the closing process finding, department grant managers are now required to include Finance and OMB on all requests for reimbursements to allow for timely recording of expected revenues. Additionally, more active monitoring of grant expenditures, including a review of the current grant status and pending or outstanding reimbursements has been implemented to improve the year-end reconciliation process for recording expected revenues. These corrective actions have been accepted by the auditors to resolve these deficiencies.

As reflected in the item, the County and Clerk's Finance Office have worked collaboratively with internal and external stakeholders to implement corrective actions to address the FY 2025 audit findings and strengthen internal controls and processes going forward. All of the corrective actions presented in the item and reflected in the audit report have been accepted by the auditors as sufficient to address the findings.

RE: FY 2024-2025 Audit Report and Financial Statements

The Honorable Board of County Commissioners:

I am pleased to provide Leon County's Annual Audit Report and financial statements for the fiscal year ended September 30, 2025. The independent auditors issued unqualified opinion on the Board's financial statements, marking the 43rd consecutive year that Leon County has received the highest level of audit opinion.

The auditors' report on internal control over financial reporting, compliance, and other matters is included on pages 56 through 61, with the accompanying management letter on pages 62 through 70. The management letter contains five recommendations related to financial accounting processes. Management has reviewed and accepted each recommendation, as reflected in the response included with the report.

The Director of the Office of Management and Budget, the Clerk of the Circuit Court and Comptroller, the Finance Director, and the external auditors met to review the audit results. Following that discussion and staff's review of the audit recommendations, we recommend that the Board accept the Annual Audit Report and approve the associated response to the Florida Auditor General.

This item will be presented for Board consideration at the September 15 Board of County Commissioners meeting. As required by Florida law, a formal response addressing the auditors' comments will be submitted to the Florida Auditor General.

We extend our sincere appreciation to the many Leon County staff members whose professionalism and dedication contributed to the preparation of these financial statements and the successful completion of the annual audit. The Fiscal Year 2024–2025 Annual Comprehensive Financial Report has also been submitted to the Florida Government Finance Officers Association for its Certificate of Achievement for Excellence in Financial Reporting. Leon County has earned this distinction for 28 consecutive years, and we are confident this tradition of excellence will continue.

Report of Independent Auditors

The Honorable Board of County Commissioners
Leon County, Florida

Report on the Audit of the Special-Purpose Financial Statements

Opinions

We have audited the accompanying special-purpose financial statements of the major governmental funds, the proprietary funds, and the aggregate remaining fund information of the Board of County Commissioners of Leon County, Florida (the Board) as of and for the year ended September 30, 2025, and the related notes to the financial statements, which collectively comprise the Board's special-purpose financial statements as listed in the table of contents.

In our opinion, based on our audit and the report of the other auditors, the accompanying special-purpose financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the respective financial position of the major governmental funds, the proprietary funds, the discretely presented component unit, and the aggregate remaining fund information of the Board as of September 30, 2025, and the respective changes in financial position, and, where applicable, cash flows thereof and the respective budgetary comparison for the General Fund, the Fine & Forfeiture Fund, the Grants Fund, and the Emergency Medical Services Fund for the year then ended in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

We did not audit the financial statements of the Housing Finance Authority of Leon County, a discretely presented component unit of Leon County, which represent 1.0%, 1.3%, and 0.1% of total assets, fund balance, and total revenues of the Board as of September 30, 2025. Those statements were audited by other auditors, whose report has been furnished to us, and our opinion, insofar as it relates to the amounts included for the Housing Finance Authority of Leon County, is based solely on the report of the other auditors.

Basis for Opinions

We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America (GAAS) and the standards applicable to financial audits contained in Government Auditing Standards, issued by the Comptroller General of the United States. Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditors' Responsibilities for the Audit of the Special-Purpose Financial Statements section of our report. We are required to be independent of the Board and to meet our other ethical responsibilities, in accordance with the relevant ethical requirements relating to our audit. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinions.

Emphasis of Matter

As discussed in Note 1, the accompanying special-purpose financial statements referred to above were prepared solely for the purpose of complying with the Rules of the Auditor General of the State of Florida (Rules). In conformity with the Rules, the accompanying special-purpose financial statements are intended to present the financial position and changes in financial position of the governmental funds, the proprietary funds, and the discretely presented component unit of the Board, and only that portion that is attributable to the transactions of the Board. They do not purport to, and do not, present fairly the financial position of Leon County, Florida, as of September 30, 2025, and the changes in its financial position for the year then ended in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. Our opinion is not modified with respect to these matters.

As discussed in Note 16 to the special-purpose financial statements, previously disclosed balances for subscription liabilities and related right of use subscription assets as of October 1, 2024, have been restated to correct a previously reported misstatement. Our opinion is not modified with respect to this matter.

As discussed in Note 17 to the special-purpose financial statements, during the fiscal year ended September 30, 2025, the Board adopted Governmental Accounting Standards Board Statement No. 101, Compensated Absences. As a result, the October 1, 2024 fund balance for the Internal Service Funds and the Landfill Fund have been restated. Our opinion is not modified with respect to this matter.

Responsibilities of Management for the Special-Purpose Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the special-purpose financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America, and for the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of special-purpose financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the special-purpose financial statements, management is required to evaluate whether there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about the Board's ability to continue as a going concern for twelve months beyond the special-purpose financial statement date, including any currently known information that may raise substantial doubt shortly thereafter.

Auditors' Responsibilities for the Audit of the Special-Purpose Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the special-purpose financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditors' report that includes our opinions. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance but is not absolute assurance and therefore is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with GAAS and Government Auditing Standards will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control. Misstatements are considered material if there is a substantial likelihood that, individually or in the aggregate, they would influence the judgment made by a reasonable user based on the special-purpose financial statements.

In performing an audit in accordance with GAAS and Government Auditing Standards, we:

- Exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit.

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the special-purpose financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, and design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks. Such procedures include examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the special-purpose financial statements.

- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Board's internal control. Accordingly, no such opinion is expressed.

- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluate the overall presentation of the special-purpose financial statements.

- Conclude whether, in our judgment, there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about the Board's ability to continue as a going concern for a reasonable period of time.

We are required to communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit, significant audit findings, and certain internal control-related matters that we identified during the audit.

Supplementary Information

Our audit was conducted for the purpose of forming opinions on the special-purpose financial statements that collectively comprise the Board's special-purpose financial statements. The Schedule of Receipts and Expenditures of Funds Related to the Deepwater Horizon Oil Spill (the Schedule), pursuant to the Rules of the Auditor General, Chapter 10.550, is presented for purposes of additional analysis and is not a required part of the special-purpose financial statements. Such information is the responsibility of management and was derived from and relates directly to the underlying accounting and other records used to prepare the special-purpose financial statements. The information has been subjected to the auditing procedures applied in the audit of the special-purpose financial statements and certain additional procedures, including comparing and reconciling such information directly to the underlying accounting and other records used to prepare the special-purpose financial statements or to the special-purpose financial statements themselves, and other additional procedures in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. In our opinion, the Schedule is fairly stated, in all material respects, in relation to the special-purpose financial statements as a whole.

Other Reporting Required by Government Auditing Standards

In accordance with Government Auditing Standards, we have also issued our report dated May 29, 2026, on our consideration of the Board's internal control over financial reporting and on our tests of its compliance with certain provisions of laws, regulations, contracts, and grant agreements and other matters. The purpose of that report is solely to describe the scope of our testing of internal control over financial reporting and compliance and the results of that testing, and not to provide an opinion on the effectiveness of the Board's internal control over financial reporting or on compliance. That report is an integral part of an audit performed in accordance with Government Auditing Standards in considering the Board's internal control over financial reporting and compliance.

Leon County, Florida

Notes to Special-Purpose Financial Statements

Year Ended September 30, 2025

1. Accounting Policies

Reporting Entity

Leon County (the County) is a political subdivision of the state of Florida and provides services to its residents in many areas, including public safety, transportation, recreation, and human services. It is governed by an elected Board of County Commissioners (seven members). In addition to the members of the Board of County Commissioners, there are five elected Constitutional Officers: Clerk of the Circuit Court and Comptroller, Sheriff, Tax Collector, Property Appraiser, and Supervisor of Elections. The Constitutional Officers maintain separate accounting records and budgets. Effective for the 2003 fiscal year, the citizens of Leon County passed a voter referendum to make Leon County a charter county. The charter is a simple charter which allows for the same powers and duties as provided in the Constitution of the State of Florida and Florida Statutes. However, in certain instances, the charter either alters or expands the powers of the elected officials via voter referendum. The accounting policies of Leon County, Florida conform to generally accepted accounting principles as applicable to governments. The more significant accounting policies of the Leon County Board of County Commissioners (the Board) are described below.

Component Unit

The component unit discussed below is included in the Board's reporting entity either because of the significance of the operational relationship or the Board is financially accountable for the component unit. The Board is financially accountable for an organization when the Board appoints a voting majority of the organization's governing body and is able to impose its will on the organization; there is a potential for the organization to provide a financial benefit or impose a financial burden on the Board; or the organization is fiscally dependent on the Board.

Specific criteria used to determine financial accountability are:

- Selection of a voting majority of the governing body.
- Imposition of Will: Ability to remove appointed members at will; ability to approve or modify rate charges affecting revenue; ability to appoint, hire or dismiss management.
- Financial Benefit or Burden Relationship: The Board is legally entitled to or can otherwise access the organization's resources; the Board is legally obligated or has otherwise assumed the obligation to finance the deficits of or provide support to the organization; or the Board is obligated in some manner for the debt of the organization.
- Fiscal Dependency: Ability to approve or modify the organization's budget or rate charges; ability to approve debt issuances and/or tax levies.

Financial statements of component units are included in the financial reporting entity either as a blended component unit or as a discretely presented component unit in accordance with governmental accounting standards. As of September 30, 2025, the only component unit of the Board is the Housing Finance Authority of Leon County (the Authority) which is discretely presented in a separate column on the Board financial statements.

The CRTPA receives federal and state transportation funds for the performance of its transportation planning and programming activities. If operating expenses exceed the external funding obtained, the deficit is funded by the members of the CRTPA in proportion to their weighted votes. As a participating member of CRTPA, Leon County has a limited share of financial responsibility for any such deficits. Current audited financial statements may be obtained from the Capital Region Transportation Planning Agency, 300 S. Adams Street, Box A-19, Tallahassee, Florida 32301.

Blueprint Intergovernmental Agency

In October 2000, Leon County entered into an interlocal agreement with the City of Tallahassee as authorized by Section 163.01(7) Florida Statutes. This agreement created the Blueprint 2000 Intergovernmental Agency, now known as the Blueprint Intergovernmental Agency (Blueprint) to govern the project management for the project planning and construction of a list of projects known as the Blueprint projects. The Board of County Commissioners and the City Commission constitute Blueprint's Board of Directors and jointly govern the organization. The revenues to fund the projects under this agreement are the collections of the local government infrastructure sales surtax, which began December 1, 2004. This tax was extended pursuant to the provisions in Section 212.055, Florida Statutes, until December 31, 2039.

The County and Blueprint have entered into a Joint Partnership Agreement whereby the County receives an annual allocation of $3,875,000 from Blueprint for the performance of various infrastructure initiatives.

Other Fund Types:

Internal Service Funds – These funds account for goods or services provided by various departments to other departments of the Board on a cost-reimbursement basis.

Basis of Accounting

Basis of accounting refers to when revenues and expenditures or expenses are recognized in the accounts and reported in the fund financial statements and relates to the timing of the measurements made.

The accompanying special-purpose financial statements have been prepared using the current financial resources measurement focus and the modified accrual basis of accounting for all Governmental Funds. Accordingly, revenues are recognized when measurable and available to pay liabilities of the current period and expenditures are generally recorded when the liability is incurred and/or will be paid from expendable available financial resources.

The Board considers receivables collected within 60 days after year-end to be available and susceptible to accrual as revenues of the current year. The following revenues are considered to be susceptible to accrual: taxes, charges for services, interest, state revenue sharing, federal forestry revenue, insurance agents' revenue, various other gas taxes, gas tax pour-over trust, federal and state grants, planning and zoning revenue, municipal service franchise fees, and special assessments.

Expenditures are generally recorded when the related fund liability is incurred. An exception to this general rule is principal and interest on general long-term debt which is recorded when due.

The financial statements of the Proprietary Funds are prepared on the economic resources measurement focus and the accrual basis of accounting. The Proprietary Fund revenues are recognized when earned and their expenses are recognized when incurred. Proprietary fund operating revenues, such as charges for services, result from exchange transactions associated with the principal activity of the fund. Exchange transactions are those in which each party receives and gives up essentially equal values. Nonoperating revenues, such as subsidies, taxes, and investment earnings, result from nonexchange transactions or ancillary activities.

Budgets and Budgetary Accounting

Florida Statutes, Section 129.01 (2) (b), requires that "The budgeted receipts must include 95 percent of all receipts reasonably anticipated from all sources, including taxes to be levied, provided the percent anticipated from ad valorem levies is as specified in s. 200.065(2)(a), and is 100 percent of the amount of the balances estimated to be brought forward at the beginning of the fiscal year." The Board has complied with the provisions of the above Florida Statutes.

Annual budgets for the governmental fund types and the Housing Finance Authority of Leon County are adopted on a basis consistent with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. The legal level of budgetary control is at the fund level; however, budgets are monitored at varying levels of detail.

All annual appropriations lapse at fiscal year end, although the Board expects to honor purchase orders and contracts in process, subject to authority provided in the subsequent year's budget.

The budget information, as amended, presented in the financial statements was prepared on the modified accrual basis of accounting. All Board authorized amendments to the applicable budget originally approved have been incorporated into the data reflected in the special-purpose financial statements. The Board made several supplemental budgetary appropriations throughout the year.

The Board uses the following procedures in establishing the budgetary data reflected in the financial statements:

1. On a date determined by the Board annually, the designated budget officer submits to the Board a tentative budget for the ensuing fiscal year. The tentative budget includes proposed expenditures and funding sources.

2. The Board requires such changes to be made as it shall deem necessary, provided the budget remains in balance and subject to the notice and hearing requirements of Section 200.065, Florida Statutes and the budget preparation and adoption procedures, as defined in Section 129.03, Florida Statutes. The legal level of budgetary control is at the fund level.

3. Public hearings are held pursuant to Section 200.065, Florida Statutes in order for the Board to adopt the tentative and final budgets.

4. Prior to October 1, the budget is legally enacted through passage of a resolution.

5. All changes to the final budget must be approved by the Board in accordance with Section 129.06, Florida Statutes.

6. Formal budgetary integration is used as a management control device during the year for all governmental funds of the Board.

7. Budgets for the governmental fund types are adopted on a basis consistent with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Applicable budgets of Constitutional Officers are controlled by appropriations in accordance with budgetary requirements set forth in the Florida Statutes.

Cash and Investments

Cash includes amounts in demand deposits. The Board's investments consist of U.S. Government obligations, federal agencies and instrumentalities, money market funds, municipal bonds, corporate bonds, and commercial paper of prime quality and are reported at fair value.

In accordance with the provisions of GASB Statement No. 31, Accounting and Financial Reporting for Certain Investments and for External Investment Pools, investments of the Board are reported at amortized cost, which approximates fair value.

During the 2024-2025 fiscal year, the Board invested in three different investment pools: the Special Purpose Investment Account (SPIA) within the Florida Treasury Investment Pool (the Pool) administered by the Florida Department of Financial Services, as authorized by Section 17.61(1), Florida Statutes; The Florida Local Government Investment Trust (FLGIT), a local government investment pool developed through the joint efforts of the Florida Court Clerks and Comptrollers (FCCC) and the Florida Association of Counties (FAC); and the Local Government Surplus Funds Trust Fund (Florida PRIME), administered by the Florida State Board of Administration (SBA) as authorized by Section 218.415 (17), Florida Statutes. Florida PRIME is not a registrant with the SEC; however, the SBA has adopted operating procedures consistent with the requirements for the SEC Rule 2a-7 fund.

The Board liquidates and reallocates investments throughout the year by factoring in the current availability of the funds, cash flow plan for future availability and interest rates.

Receivables

Receivables are shown net of an allowance for uncollectibles. As the receivables age, the allowance increases. The emergency medical services allowance used for September 30, 2025 is equal to 58% of current year billings. Additionally, allowances have been placed on intergovernmental revenues of the Grants Fund. These allowances are for receivables not collected after a significant period of time and collection is not certain. Such allowances for doubtful accounts total $791,131 as of September 30, 2025.

Short-Term Interfund Receivables/Payables

During the course of operations, numerous transactions occur between individual funds for services rendered or goods provided resulting in receivables and payables that are classified as "due from other funds" or "due to other funds" on the balance sheet.

Inventories

Inventories in the General Fund and Internal Service Funds consist of expendable office supplies. The office supplies are valued at the average unit cost and are accounted for under the consumption method whereby the cost is recorded as an expenditure at the time of issuance to the user department.

Restricted Assets

Investments that are held in escrow in accordance with the Florida Administrative Code requirement for landfill closure and post-closure costs are shown as restricted in the Proprietary Fund.

Capital Assets

Capital assets purchased in the governmental fund types are recorded as expenditures (capital outlay) at the time of purchase. Such assets are reported as capital assets in the Statement of Net Position as part of the Leon County, Florida Annual Comprehensive Financial Report (Leon County ACFR). The Board does not record depreciation of these assets on its governmental fund financial statements, although depreciation is recorded for such assets in the Leon County ACFR. Donated assets are recorded at fair market value at the date of donation. Accounting policies for capitalization and depreciation of infrastructure assets including roads, bridges, curbs, gutters, and sidewalks are described in the Leon County ACFR. A summary of capital assets purchased by the Board's governmental funds is provided in Note 7.

Leases

Leases are defined by the general government as the right to use an underlying asset. As lessee, the Board recognizes a lease liability and an intangible right-of-use lease asset at the beginning of a lease unless the lease is considered a short-term lease or transfers ownership of the underlying asset. Right-of-use lease assets are measured based on the net present value of the future lease payments at inception, using the weighted average cost of capital, which approximates the incremental borrowing rate. Remeasurement of a lease liability occurs when there is a change in the lease term and/or other changes that are likely to have a significant impact on the lease liability. The Board calculates the amortization of the discount on the lease liability and reports that amount as outflows of resources. Payments are allocated first to accrued interest liability and then to the lease liability. Variable lease payments based on the usage of the underlying assets are not included in the lease liability calculations but are recognized as outflows of resources in the period in which the obligation was incurred. Such assets and liabilities are reported on the Statements of Net Position in the Leon County ACFR.

As lessor, the Board recognizes a lease receivable. The lease receivable is measured using the net present value of future lease payments to be received for the lease term and deferred inflow of resources at the beginning of the lease term. Periodic amortization of the discount on the receivable is reported as interest revenue for that period. Deferred inflows of resources are recognized as inflows on a straight-line basis over the term of the lease. This recognition does not apply to short-term leases, contracts that transfer ownership, leases of assets that are investments, or certain regulated leases. Any initial direct costs are reported as an outflow of resources for that period. Remeasurement of lease receivables occur when there are modifications, including but not limited to changes in the contract price, lease term, and adding or removing an underlying asset to the lease agreements. In the case of a partial or full lease termination, the carrying value of the lease receivable and the related deferred inflow of resources will be reduced and will include a gain or loss for the difference. For lease contracts that are short-term, the Board recognizes short-term lease payments as inflows of resources (revenues) based on the payment provisions of the lease contract. Liabilities are only recognized if payments are received in advance, and receivables are only recognized if payments are received subsequent to the reporting period. Refer to Note 5 for additional information regarding leases.

Subscription Based Information Technology Arrangements

Subscription Based Information Technology Arrangements (SBITAs) are defined by the general government as a contract that conveys control of the right to use another party's (a SBITA vendor's) information technology (IT) software, alone or in combination with tangible capital assets (the underlying IT assets), as specified in the contract for a period of time in an exchange or exchange-like transaction. The Board recognizes a subscription liability and an intangible right-of-use subscription asset at the beginning of a subscription term unless the SBITA is considered short-term or transfers ownership of the underlying asset. Right-of-use subscription assets are measured based on the net present value of the future SBITA payments at inception, using the weighted average cost of capital, which approximate the incremental borrowing rate. Remeasurement of a subscription liability occurs when there is a change in the SBITA term and/or other changes that are likely to have a significant impact on the subscription liability. The Board calculates the amortization of the discount on the subscription liability and reports that amount as outflows of resources. Payments are allocated first to accrued interest liability and then to the subscription liability. For SBITA contracts that are short-term, the Board recognizes short-term subscription payments as outflows of resources (expenses) based on the payment provisions of the subscription contract. Additional disclosures regarding regulated SBITAs are in Note 6 to the FS.

Fixed Assets

Fixed assets acquired in the Proprietary Funds are capitalized at cost. Gifts or contributions are recorded at fair market value at the time received. Depreciation on property and equipment in the Proprietary Funds is computed using the straight-line method over the estimated useful lives.

The general fixed assets used in the operations of the Board, Property Appraiser, Tax Collector, Clerk of the Circuit Court, and Supervisor of Elections, and the real property used by the Sheriff are accounted for by the Board, as the Board holds legal title and is accountable for them under Florida law.

Liability for Compensated Absences

The Board accrues a liability for employees' rights to receive compensation for future absences when certain conditions are met. The Board does not, nor is it legally required to accumulate expendable available financial resources to liquidate this obligation. Accordingly, the liability for the compensated absences is not reported in the governmental funds. However, the current and long-term portion of the liability for compensated absences is reported in the Statement of Net Position of Leon County ACFR. All amounts are calculated and reported consistent with GASB Statement No. 101, Compensated Absences.

Other Post Employment Benefits

The Board, through Leon County, offers retiree medical and life insurance benefits for qualifying Board employees that have retired from a Florida Retirement System (FRS) pension plan. Current and long-term portions of the liability for Other Post Employment Benefits (OPEB) applicable to the proprietary funds are reported in the Statement of Revenues, Expenses, and Changes in Fund Net Position - Proprietary Funds. The current and long-term portions of the liability for OPEB applicable to governmental funds are reported in the Statement of Net Position of the Leon County ACFR.

Executive Service Plan

Executive service and senior management employees of the Board are entitled to severance pay if terminated from employment. If there is a contract or employment agreement, severance pay may not exceed an amount greater than twenty weeks of compensation. If there is no contract, severance pay is limited to six weeks.

Net Position and Fund Balances

Net Position is the difference between fund assets and liabilities on the proprietary fund statements. Fund Balance is the difference between assets and liabilities on the governmental fund statement.

For financial reporting purposes, County policy defines the five fund balance classifications for governmental funds and the order that the resources are used.

Nonspendable Fund Balance - Balances are comprised of funds that cannot be spent because they are either not in spendable form or are legally or contractually required to be maintained intact.

Board of County Commissioners
Leon County, Florida

Notes to Special-Purpose Financial Statements

Restricted Fund Balance - Balances are comprised of funds that have legally enforceable constraints placed on their use or those funds that have externally-imposed restrictions by resource providers or creditors, grantors, contributors, voters, or interlocal agreement, or enabling legislation.

Committed Fund Balance - Balances are comprised of unrestricted funds used for specific purposes pursuant to constraints imposed by formal action such as ordinances, resolutions, or legislation of Leon County and that remain binding unless removed by a majority vote of the Board of County Commissioners.

Assigned Fund Balance - Balances are comprised of unrestricted funds informally constrained by a majority vote of the Board of County Commissioners, or by a designated county officer, in a manner that reflects the County's use of those resources such as appropriations of fund balance at year end or at the beginning of the new fiscal year.

Unassigned Fund Balance - Balances are comprised of the residual of the unrestricted funds in the General Fund and are not nonspendable, restricted, committed, or assigned. Within all other governmental funds, unassigned fund balance is comprised of the negative residual in excess of what can be properly classified as nonspendable, restricted, or committed.

The County's policy is that available resources will be spent in the following order: restricted, committed, assigned, and unassigned.

Common Expenses

Certain expenses that are common to the Board and all Constitutional Officers are reported as expenditures of the Board and, therefore, are not budgeted by or allocated to the other Constitutional Officers. These are:

- Occupancy costs
- Property insurance
- Utilities (except telephone), and
- Janitorial service

Operating Transfers

The Board funds a portion or, in certain instances, all of the operating budgets of the County's Constitutional Officers. The payments by the Board to fund the operations of the Constitutional Officers are recorded as operating transfers out on the financial statements of the Board and as operating transfers in on the financial statements of the Constitutional Officers. Repayments to the Board are recorded as operating transfers out on the financial statements of the Constitutional Officers and as operating transfers in on the financial statements of the Board.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of the special-purpose financial statements is in conformity with accounting practices prescribed by the State of Florida, Office of the Auditor General, and requires management to make use of estimates that affect the reported amounts in the special-purpose financial statements. Actual results could differ from estimates.

2. Property Taxes

Under Florida Law, the assessment of all properties and the collection of all county, municipal, special taxing districts, and school board property taxes are consolidated in the offices of the County Property Appraiser and County Tax Collector. The laws of Florida regulating tax assessments are also designed to assure a consistent property valuation method statewide. State statutes permit counties to levy property taxes at a rate of up to 10 mills. The tax levy of Leon County is established by the Board prior to October 1 of each year. The millage rate collected by the Board during the current fiscal year was 8.3144 mills. County citizens were also assessed for emergency medical services through a Municipal Services Taxing Unit at a millage rate of 0.7500 mills. For County citizens charged a special assessment, the required annual payment is included on their tax bill.

All property is reassessed according to its fair market value as of January 1 of each year. Each assessment roll is submitted to the Executive Director of the State Department of Revenue for review to determine if the rolls meet all of the appropriate requirements of Florida Statutes.

All taxes are due and payable on November 1 of each year, or as soon thereafter as the assessment roll is certified and delivered to the Tax Collector. All unpaid taxes become delinquent on April 1 following the year in which they are assessed. Discounts are allowed for early payment at the rate of 4% in the month of November, 3% in the month of December, 2% in the month of January, and 1% in the month of February. The taxes paid in March are without discount. No accrual for the property tax levy becoming due in September 30, 2025 is included in the accompanying financial statements, since such taxes are collected to finance expenditures of the subsequent period.

2. Property Taxes (continued)

On or prior to June 1, following the tax year, tax certificates are sold for all delinquent taxes on real property in accordance with the laws of Florida. After sale, tax certificates bear interest of 18% per year or at any lower rate bid by the buyer. Application for a tax deed on any unredeemed tax certificates may be made by the certificate holder after a period of two years.

Delinquent taxes on personal property bear interest at 18% per year until the tax is satisfied either by seizure and sale of the property or by the seven-year statute of limitations. Since tax certificates were sold for substantially all current year delinquent property taxes, there were no material property taxes receivable at September 30, 2025.

3. Cash and Investments

Credit Risk

The Board's Investment Policy (the Policy) provides a structure for the portfolio that is designed to minimize credit risk. The majority of the securities held will be those of the highest available credit quality ratings. Staff will notify the Investment Oversight Committee (IOC) at any time holdings drop below the minimum credit ratings specified in the policy. The IOC will consider the market environment and make recommendations to hold and continue to monitor the investments or liquidate the investments. To further limit the Board's risk against possible credit losses, a maximum of 3% per issuer of the total portfolio managed by the Board's external manager may be held in corporate notes and bonds and 5% per issuer in commercial paper. The Policy also provides the following limits on the Board's external portfolio: 45% may be invested in Federal Instrumentalities, with a limit of 15% of the portfolio in any one issuer; 100% may be invested in United States Federal Agencies, with a limit of 20% of the portfolio in any one issuer; and if longer than one day, 15% may be invested in Repurchase Agreements, with a limit of 5% of the portfolio in any one issuer.

Effective July 9, 2024, new investments in Mortgage-Backed Securities, Asset-Backed Securities, Commercial Mortgage-Backed Securities, Bankers' Acceptances, or Constant Net Asset Value Money Market Mutual Funds are prohibited.

Section 218.415(16), Florida Statutes, stipulates the state-approved investment policy for all governmental entities and includes the following investments:

1. The Florida PRIME (formerly the Local Government Surplus Funds Trust Fund) or any authorized intergovernmental investment pool.

2. Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) registered money market funds with the highest credit quality rating from a nationally recognized rating agency.

3. Cash and Investments (continued)

3. Interest-bearing time deposits or savings accounts in qualified public depositories.

4. Direct obligations of the U.S. Treasury.

5. Federal agencies and instrumentalities.

6. Rated or unrated bonds, notes, or instruments backed by the full faith and credit of the government of Israel.

7. Securities of, or other interests in, any management type investment company or trust registered under the Investment Company Act of 1940, where the investment portfolio is limited to United States Government Obligations.

8. Other investments authorized by law or by ordinance for a county or a municipality.

9. Other investments authorized by law or by resolution for a school district or a special district.

In addition, Section 17.61(1), Florida Statutes permits organizations created by the Florida Constitution to participate in the existing State Treasury Investment Pool "Special Purpose Investment Account (SPIA)."

The Board's Investment Policy limits credit risk by restricting authorized investments to the following: Florida PRIME (Local Government Surplus Funds Trust Fund), State of Florida Special Purpose Investment Account (SPIA), direct obligations of the United States or its agencies and instrumentalities, direct obligations of states and municipalities, repurchase agreements, corporate debt securities, commercial paper, money market mutual funds, financial deposit instruments, the Florida Local Government Investment Trust (FLGIT), and the Florida Municipal Investment Trust (FMIvT).

The Chief Financial Officer for the State of Florida (formerly the State Treasurer) has been investing state revenues, excess revenues of state universities and community colleges, and certain other public agencies in a commingled investment portfolio for several years. This program is authorized under Section 17.61(1), Florida Statutes and is called the Treasury Special Purpose Investment Account (SPIA). Historically, SPIA participants have received higher earnings reflecting the higher risk associated with the longer maturities and lower credit quality. The financial details and disclosures for the Treasury Investment Pool are made in Note 2 to the State of Florida Annual Comprehensive Financial Report (ACFR). The rating as of September 30, 2025 was AA-f by Standard and Poor's. A copy of SPIA's most recent financial statements can be found at http://www.myfloridacfo.com/Division/Treasury/. Investments in this pool are limited to a maximum of 100% of the portfolio. At September 30, 2025, the Board had $917,302 invested with SPIA.

The Florida Local Government Investment Trust (FLGIT) is a local government investment pool developed through the joint efforts of the Florida Court Clerks and Comptrollers (FCCC) and the Florida Association of Counties (FAC) for providing opportunities for the investment of excess public funds. FLGIT offers two investment funds to its participants, the Short Term Bond Fund and the Day to Day Fund. The Short Term Bond Fund is a longer term higher yielding fund, which is accounted for as a fluctuating Net Asset Value (NAV) pool. At September 30, 2025 the Board did not have any balances in the Short Term Bond Fund. The Day to Day Fund is a highly liquid fund with underlying investments having a weighted average maturity of less than 90 days. The Day to Day Fund does meet the criteria and has adopted operating procedures consistent with the requirements for a SEC Rule 2a-7 fund. The Day to Day Fund maintained a credit rating of AAAm by Fitch as of September 30, 2025. At September 30, 2025, the Board had $51,647,261 with the FLGIT Day to Day Fund. A copy of FLGIT's most recent financial statements can be found at http://www.floridatrustonline.com/funds-reports/day-to-day/. Investments with FLGIT are limited to a maximum of 45% of the portfolio.

The Board also invests in Florida PRIME administered by the Florida State Board of Administration (SBA). Florida PRIME is an external investment pool that is not a registrant with the SEC; however, the SBA has adopted operating procedures consistent with the requirements for a SEC Rule 2a-7 fund. Florida PRIME is governed by Chapter 19-7 of the Florida Administrative Code, which identifies the Rules of the SBA. These rules provide guidance and establish the general operating procedures for the administration of Florida PRIME. Additionally, the State of Florida, Auditor General performs the operational audit of the activities and investments of the SBA. On September 30, 2025, Florida PRIME was invested in fixed rate and floating rate bank instruments, repurchase agreements, fixed rate and floating rate corporate commercial paper, floating rate corporate notes, money market mutual funds, and fixed rate and floating rate asset backed commercial paper. Investments in this pool are limited to a maximum of 45% of the portfolio. Investments in Florida PRIME are not evidenced by securities that exist in physical or book entry form. The current rating for the Florida PRIME is AAAm by Standard and Poor's. The weighted average days to maturity of the Florida PRIME at September 30, 2025 is 47 days. The fair value of the Board's position in the pool approximates the value of the pool shares. At September 30, 2025, the Board had $64,379,328 invested in Florida PRIME. Custodial Credit Risk Custodial credit risk is the risk that, in the event of a bank failure or the failure of the counterparty, the government's deposits may not be returned to it, or may not be able to recover the value of its investments that are in the possession of an outside party.

Qualified public depositories of public funds are required to provide collateral each month pursuant to Section 280.04, Florida Statutes. The collateral is held by the Florida Division of Treasury or other custodian with full legal rights maintained by the Florida Division of Treasury to transfer ownership. Any loss not covered by the pledged securities and deposit insurance would be assessed by the Florida Division of Treasury and paid by the other public depositories. The Board's deposits are therefore considered fully insured or collateralized. Bank balances at September 30, 2025, were $32,646,856. Due to the nature of the Board's cash and investments, there is no exposure to custodial credit risk and concentration of credit risk.

Interest Rate Risk

Interest rate risk is the risk that changes in interest rates will adversely affect the fair value of investments. The Board manages interest rate risk by setting the range of duration for the Board's portfolio at 0.5 to 2.0 years. Unusual market or economic conditions may mandate moving the portfolio outside of this range. The Investment Oversight Committee will be convened and will approve any portfolio duration outside of the range specified above. The effective duration of investments is listed in the following table.

The externally managed portfolio totaled $76,514,969 at September 30, 2025, and was invested for a weighted average term of approximately 531 days, as compared to a weighted average term of 364 days in fiscal year 2024. The Board requires a minimum balance of short term investments. To meet the day-to-day operating needs of the Board and to provide the ready cash to meet unforeseen temporary cash requirements, a liquidity base of approximately three months of anticipated disbursements is kept in relatively short term investments. This includes investments in government pools with daily liquidity such as Florida PRIME, FLGIT Day to Day Fund, or money markets. The Board was in compliance with this requirement.

Foreign Currency Risk

The County contributes to the Florida Retirement System (FRS), the investments of which are administered by the State Board of Administration. The FRS's investment policy and exposure to foreign currency risk is disclosed in Note 2 of the State of Florida Annual Comprehensive Financial Report. A copy of this report is available at https://www.myfloridacfo.com/ Division/AA /Reports/.

4. Fair Value Measurements

Under GASB 72 application of fair value is limited to assets and liabilities that are currently measured at fair value and certain investments that are not currently measured at fair value.

FLGIT Day to Day Fund and Florida PRIME currently meet all the necessary criteria to elect to measure all the investments in FLGIT Day to Day Fund and Florida PRIME at amortized cost. Therefore, the County participant account balance is considered the fair value of the investment. FLGIT Day to Day Fund and Florida PRIME investments are exempt from the GASB 72 fair value hierarchy disclosures.

FLGIT Short Term Bond Fund reports based on the fair market value of the underlying securities. Therefore, any participant account balance is measured at net asset value per share and is not subject to fair value hierarchy level classification under GASB 72. The County did not have a balance with the FLGIT Short Term Bond Fund at September 30, 2025.

The fair value factor for SPIA at September 30, 2025 was 1.0065. SPIA funds are combined with State of Florida funds and are invested in a combination of short-term liquid instruments and intermediate-term fixed income securities. SPIA is measured at net asset value per share. Investments measured at net asset value are not subject to fair value hierarchy level classification under GASB 72.

Fair value measurement - The Board categorizes its fair value measurements within the fair value hierarchy established by generally accepted accounting principles. The hierarchy is based on the valuation inputs used to measure the fair value of the asset or liability. Level 1 inputs are quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities; Level 2 inputs are significant other observable inputs; Level 3 inputs are significant unobservable inputs.

9. Employees' Retirement Plan

GASB Statement No. 68, Accounting and Financial Reporting for Pensions, is effective for all fiscal years beginning after June 15, 2014. This Statement establishes standards for measuring and recognizing liabilities, deferred outflows of resources, and deferred inflows of resources, and expense/expenditures. For defined benefit pensions, this Statement identifies the methods and assumptions that should be used to project benefit payments, discount projected benefit payments to their actuarial present value, and attribute that present value to periods of employee service. As described in Note 1, the financial statements of the Board are fund statements considered to be special-purpose financial statements consistent with accounting practices prescribed by the State of Florida Auditor General. Accordingly, the net pension liability is included in the Leon County ACFR rather than in these Special-Purpose Financial Statements.

All full-time employees of the Board are eligible to participate in the Florida Retirement System (FRS). The FRS includes various plans and programs, including a defined benefit pension plan (Pension Plan), which is primarily a cost-sharing, multiple-employer defined benefit public-employee pension plan. Information as to benefits, contribution rates, and vesting requirements by membership category is provided in the Leon County ACFR. Contributions and benefits are established in Section 121.71, Florida Statutes.

9. Employees' Retirement Plan (continued)

Participating employer contributions are based upon actuarially determined blended rates established by the State Legislature that are expressed as percentages of annual covered payroll and are adequate to accumulate sufficient assets to pay benefits when due. Employees who are not participating in the Deferred Retirement Option Plan are required to contribute 3% of their salary to the FRS.

The Board also participates in the Retiree Health Insurance Subsidy (HIS) Program, a cost-sharing, multiple-employer defined benefit pension plan established under Section 112.363, Florida Statutes. The benefit is a monthly cash payment to assist retirees of state-administered retirement systems in paying their health insurance costs. Additional information regarding benefits is provided in the Leon County ACFR.

The HIS Program is funded by required contributions from FRS participating employers as set by the State Legislature. Employer contributions are a percentage of gross compensation for all active FRS employees and are reported by employers with monthly payroll reports and included with the amount submitted for retirement contributions. For the fiscal year ended September 30, 2025, the contribution rate was 2% of payroll pursuant to Section 112.363, Florida Statutes.

The total employer retirement contributions for the fiscal years ended September 30, 2025, 2024, and 2023 were $10,243,611 $9,580,999, and $8,137,384, respectively, which is equal to the required contribution for each year.

The Pension Plan and the HIS Program are administered by the State of Florida Department of Management Services, Division of Retirement. The Division of Retirement issues a publicly available FRS Annual Report that includes financial statements and required supplementary information for the Pension Plan and HIS Program. That report may be obtained by writing to the Division of Retirement, P.O. Box 9000, Tallahassee, Florida 32399-9000, or on the website located at www.dms.myflorida.workforce_operations/retirement/publications.

10. Other Post Employment Benefits

Plan Description

The Board participates in an agent multiple-employer plan administered by the County for all the constitutional officers under which qualified retired employees are permitted to participate in the health and life insurance benefits program (the Program). As described in Note 1, the Program may be amended by the Board. A stand-alone financial report is not issued for the Program. As described in Note 1, the financial statements of the Board are fund statements considered to be special-purpose financial statements consistent with accounting practices by the State of Florida Auditor General. Accordingly, the annual OPEB obligation of the Board is recognized in the Leon County ACFR rather than in these Special-Purpose Financial Statements.

11. Risk Management

The County is exposed to various risks of loss related to torts; theft of, damage to and destruction of assets; error and omissions; injuries to employees; and natural disasters. The following is a summary of the County's coverage and exposure relating to the various risks of loss retained as of September 30, 2025.

General Liability

Effective December 15, 2016, the Board purchased commercial insurance for general liabilities from Travelers, which has a $25,000 deductible.

The actuarially determined liability determined below reflects open claims associated with this carrier.

Changes in the Board's claim liability amount were as follows:

	Beginning of Fiscal Year	Current Year Claims and Changes in Estimates	Claims Payments	Balance at Fiscal Year End
September 30, 2024	$ 0	$ 178,369	$ 0	$ 178,369
September 30, 2025	$ 178,369	$ (48,652)	$ 0	$ 129,717

Workers' Compensation

The Board maintains a self-insurance Internal Service Fund (the Fund) to account for insurance activities relating to workers' compensation, which is administered by a third-party administrator, Commercial Risk Management, Inc. (previously administered by Preferred Governmental Claims Solutions). Under this program, the Board absorbs losses up to a maximum of $500,000 for each claim. At September 30, 2025, the Board had $300,000 deposited with the third-party administrator for use against future claims. The Board purchases commercial insurance for claims in excess of coverage provided by the Fund. Settled claims have not exceeded the retention level for this commercial coverage in the current year and any of the past five years.

All funds of the Board participate in this program and make payments to the Insurance Service Fund based on payroll exposure in the amounts needed to pay prior and current year claims and to establish a reserve for catastrophic losses. Net position of the Self Insurance Fund is reserved for anticipated future catastrophic losses pursuant to County policy and GASB Statement No. 10.

The actuarially-determined claims liability for workers' compensation of $4,518,180, which includes incurred but not reported claims of $2,813,104, reported in the Fund at September 30, 2025, is based on the requirements of Governmental Accounting Standards Board Statement No. 10, which requires that a liability for claims be reported if information prior to the issuance of the financial statements indicates that it is probable that a liability has been incurred as of the date of the financial statements and the amount of the loss can be reasonably estimated.

Changes in the Fund's claims liability amount were as follows:

	Beginning of Fiscal Year	Current Year Claims and Changes in Estimates	Claims Payments	Balance at Fiscal Year End
September 30, 2024	$ 6,800,211	$ (687,286)	$ (1,463,000)	$ 4,649,925
September 30, 2025	$ 4,649,925	$ 1,460,255	$ (1,592,000)	$ 4,518,180

Automobile Liability

The Board purchases commercial coverage for automobile liability insurance through the same provider of its general liability insurance. All vehicles are covered for physical damage with a $5,000 deductible and for liability with a $5,000 deductible.

All funds of the Board participate in this program and pay premiums to the Insurance Service Fund based on the vehicles used by their personnel. Changes in the Fund’s claims liability were as follows:

	Beginning of Fiscal Year	Current Year Claims and Changes in Estimates	Claims Payments	Balance at Fiscal Year End
September 30, 2024	$ 46,936	$ (7,146)	$ 0	$ 39,790
September 30, 2025	$ 39,790	$ 8,254	$ 0	$ 48,044

12. Other Required Individual Fund Disclosures

A. Interfund Receivables, Payables, and Transfers

Interfund balances in the Governmental Funds primarily represent repayments due from other funds responsible for particular expenditures to the funds that initially paid for them. Interfund balances are due and payable within one year.

Interfund receivable and payable balances at September 30, 2025, are as follows:

Fund	Interfund Receivables	Interfund Payable
General Fund	$ 5,840,953	$ 352,859
Capital Improvement Fund	0	400,000
Nonmajor Governmental Funds	352,859	199,211
Internal Service Funds	0	0
Emergency Medical Services Fund	0	0
Grants Funds	400,000	3,255,479
Fine & Forfeiture Fund	0	0
Landfill Fund	0	2,386,263
	$ 6,593,812	$ 6,593,812

Each fund has a discrete purpose. However, often, there is a need for one fund to support a portion of another fund's activities. To accomplish this, monies are moved between funds through a process called interfund transfers. Interfund transfers, excluding transfers to other constitutional officers, for the year ended September 30, 2025, consisted of the following:

Transfers to the General Fund from:
Grants Fund	$ 1,955,725
Nonmajor Governmental Funds	690,841
Enterprise Fund	50,581
Total transfers to the General Fund	2,697,147

13. Closure and Post-closure Care Cost

State and federal laws and regulations require the Board to place a final cover on each of its landfill cells when it stops accepting waste and to perform certain maintenance and monitoring functions on each cell for thirty years after closure. Although closure and post-closure care costs will be paid only near or after the date that the landfill stops accepting waste, the Board reports a portion of these costs as an operating expense in each period based on landfill capacity used as of each balance sheet date. The $21,942,841 reported as landfill closure and post-closure care liability at September 30, 2025, $7,897,467 as noncurrent and $14,045,374 as current, represents the cumulative amount reported to date based on the use of 100% of the estimated capacity of the landfill cells placed in use. These amounts are based on what it would cost to perform closure and post-closure care in 2025 on those cells placed in use. Actual costs may be higher due to inflation, changes in technology, or changes in regulations. The landfill is no longer accepting waste.

The Board is required by state and federal laws to make annual contributions to an escrow account to finance a minimum of all closure costs. The Board is in compliance with those minimum requirements, and at September 30, 2025, held investments in the amount of $20,851,845 for these purposes that are reported as restricted assets on the balance sheet. The Board expects that future inflation costs will be paid from interest earnings on these annual contributions. However, if interest earnings are inadequate or additional post-closure care requirements are determined; these costs may need to be covered by charges to future landfill users or from future tax revenue.

14. Commitments and Contingencies

A. Contract commitments:

Grants

The Board is currently receiving, and has received in the past, grants which are subject to special compliance audits by the grantor agency that may result in disallowed expense amounts. Such amounts, if any, constitute a contingent liability of the Board. Accordingly, such liabilities are not reflected within the financial statements.

Long-Term Construction Projects

The Board is committed to various material long-term construction projects at September 30, 2025. These commitments have been included in the 2025-2026 fiscal year budget and the five-year Capital Improvement Program and certain amounts have been reserved in the capital projects fund. Current contracts outstanding as of September 30, 2025 approximate $18.8 million.

14. Commitments and Contingencies (continued)

B. Potential liabilities resulting from litigation:

The Board is a defendant in various lawsuits arising from the normal course of operations. The outcome of these lawsuits is not presently determinable.

C. Encumbrances:

Encumbrances represent commitments related to unperformed contracts for goods or services. They do not constitute expenditures or liabilities. The commitments will be honored in the subsequent year. The Board had no reserved encumbrances as of September 30, 2025.

15. Impairment of Capital Assets

For the year ended September 30, 2025, the Board identified a building that was impaired as a result of damage caused by a tornado. The event constituted an identifiable impairment indicator under GASB Statement No. 42, Accounting and Financial Reporting for Impairment of Capital Assets and for Insurance Recoveries, as the damage resulted in a significant and unexpected decline in the service utility of the asset.

The impairment loss was measured using the restoration cost approach, which estimates the loss in service utility by comparing the cost to restore the asset to its pre-event condition with the carrying value of the asset. As a result of this analysis, the Board recognized an impairment loss of $1,352,362, which is reported in the Leon County ACFR.

The Board recorded insurance recoveries related to this impairment as other operating income in the internal service fund created for insurance services. Insurance recoveries of $717,082 and $500,000 were recognized during fiscal years 2025 and 2024, respectively.

As of September 30, 2025, the Board had expended $923,036 toward the restoration of the impaired building and related capital assets. The Board expects to incur an additional $1,242,278 in restoration costs in future periods.

16. Correction of an Error

During the year ended September 30, 2025, management identified two SBITAs where the SBITA liability and right of use asset was not properly reported in the prior year. This error had no impact on recorded fund balance. To correct this error, the related disclosures previously reported in Notes 6, 7 and 8 for SBITA liability and right of use SBITA assets net of accumulated amortization as of September 30, 2024, increased by $2,137,710.

17. Change in Accounting Principle

During the year ended September 30, 2025, management adopted GASB Statement No. 101, Compensated Absences. This adoption resulted in changes to the process for estimating the compensated absences liability reported in Note 1 and Note 8. This change in accounting principle resulted in the previously disclosed balance as of September 30, 2024 for compensated absences to be increased by $2,209,973. This change in accounting principle reduced the reported net position of the Landfill Fund and Internal Service funds as of September 30, 2024 by $(69,225) and $(29,191), respectively. This change in accounting principle had no impact on the reported fund balance of the governmental funds reported in the special-purpose financial statements for the year ended September 30, 2024.

During the year ended September 30, 2025, management adopted GASB Statement No. 102, Certain Risk Disclosures. This change in accounting principle had no impact on the special-purpose financial statements for the year ended September 30, 2024.

18. Subsequent Event

The Board has evaluated subsequent events through May 29, 2026, the date the financial statements were available to be issued. No subsequent events were identified that required disclosure.

Other Reports

Report of Independent Auditors on Internal Control Over Financial Reporting and on Compliance and Other Matters Based on an Audit of Financial Statements Performed in Accordance With Government Auditing Standards

The Honorable Board of County Commissioners
Leon County, Florida

We have audited, in accordance with the auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America and the standards applicable to financial audits contained in Government Auditing Standards issued by the Comptroller General of the United States (Government Auditing Standards), the special-purpose financial statements of the major governmental funds, the proprietary funds, and the aggregate remaining fund information of the Board of County Commissioners of Leon County, Florida (the Board), as of and for the year ended September 30, 2025, and the related notes to the financial statements, which collectively comprise the Board's special-purpose financial statements, and have issued our report thereon dated May 29, 2026. Our report includes reference to other auditors who audited the financial statements of the Housing Finance Authority of Leon County, a discretely presented component unit of Leon County, as described in our report on the Board's special-purpose financial statements. This report does not include the results of the other auditors' testing of internal control over financial reporting or compliance and other matters that are reported separately by these auditors.

Report on Internal Control Over Financial Reporting

In planning and performing our audit of the financial statements, we considered the Board's internal control over financial reporting (internal control) as a basis for designing audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances for the purpose of expressing our opinion on the financial statements, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Board's internal control. Accordingly, we do not express an opinion on the effectiveness of the Board's internal control.

Our consideration of internal control was for the limited purpose described in the preceding paragraph and was not designed to identify all deficiencies in internal control that might be material weaknesses or significant deficiencies and therefore, material weaknesses or significant deficiencies may exist that were not identified. However, as described in the accompanying Management Letter, we identified certain deficiencies in internal control that we consider to be material weaknesses and significant deficiencies.

A deficiency in internal control exists when the design or operation of a control does not allow management or employees, in the normal course of performing their assigned functions, to prevent, or detect and correct, misstatements on a timely basis. A material weakness is a deficiency, or a combination of deficiencies, in internal control, such that there is a reasonable possibility that a material misstatement of the entity's financial statements will not be prevented, or detected and corrected, on a timely basis. We consider the deficiencies described in the accompanying Management Letter as items 2025-002, 2025-003, and 2025-004, to be material weaknesses.

A significant deficiency is a deficiency, or a combination of deficiencies, in internal control that is less severe than a material weakness, yet important enough to merit attention by those charged with governance. We consider the deficiency described in the accompanying Management Letter as item 2025-001 and 2025-005 to be significant deficiencies.

Report on Compliance and Other Matters

As part of obtaining reasonable assurance about whether the Board's special-purpose financial statements are free from material misstatement, we performed tests of its compliance with certain provisions of laws, regulations, contracts, and grant agreements, noncompliance with which could have a direct and material effect on the special-purpose financial statements. However, providing an opinion on compliance with those provisions was not an objective of our audit, and accordingly, we do not express such an opinion. The results of our tests disclosed no instances of noncompliance or other matters that are required to be reported under Government Auditing Standards.

Board's Response to Findings

Government Auditing Standards requires the auditor to perform limited procedures on the Board's response to the findings identified in our audit and described in the accompanying Management Letter. The Board's response was not subjected to the other auditing procedures applied in the audit of the special-purpose financial statements and, accordingly, we express no opinion on the response.

Purpose of This Report

The purpose of this report is solely to describe the scope of our testing of internal control and compliance and the results of that testing, and not to provide an opinion on the effectiveness of the Board's internal control or on compliance. This report is an integral part of an audit performed in accordance with Government Auditing Standards in considering the Board's internal control and compliance. Accordingly, this communication is not suitable for any other purpose.

We have issued a Management Letter to the Board of County Commissioners of Leon County, Florida dated May 29, 2026, presenting certain required disclosures and comments pursuant to the Rules of the Auditor General, Chapter 10.550.

2025-001- Fixed Asset Disposals

Criteria: The purchasing division sets the policies and procedures regarding the disposal of fixed assets. These policies and procedures are necessary for financial reporting in accordance with the Government Accounting Standards Board (GASB) and to mitigate risks of material misstatement and misappropriation of assets. To sell, trade-in, transfer, cannibalize or dispose of unserviceable or uneconomically repairable equipment, the Board's policies require the Property Custodian to complete and submit a Property Control Form to the Property Control Specialist, outlining the action and the reason(s) for said action, prior to actual disposal. The Board's policies require a thorough review of the annual Tangible Personal Property Report by the Property Control Specialist, Procurement Administrator, and Purchasing Director to ensure complete and accurate information prior to its submission to the Board. The Board's policies require physical inventories be conducted by Property Control in coordination with the appropriate Property Custodian. During the physical inventory, if tangible personal property is found that is not on the property record, action will be taken by Property Control to evaluate it and place it on the Property Record in the department where it was found. Once notified by the Property Control Specialist that inventory is closed, the Finance Department utilizes reports pulled from the RECOUP system to record fixed asset disposals in the Sage Fixed Asset system.

Condition: Several large disposals of equipment that occurred during the year were not initially recorded for financial statement reporting.

Cause: The RECOUP system is the database used to document disposals by the property control specialist. A RECOUP system disposal report is pulled by finance to reconcile disposals to the SAGE Fixed Asset System used for financial reporting.

We noted deficiencies in communication between departments disposing of items and the property control specialist. These deficiencies can create gaps in the completeness and accuracy of the RECOUP reports. As a result, we identified several assets with inaccurate disposal dates in the RECOUP reports.

Additionally, the process for recording the disposals in the RECOUP system is a highly manual process and prone to errors based on limitations in the system and the information it generates. Additionally, the systems utilized for property disposals (RECOUP) does not integrate with the system for tracking disposals for fixed asset financial reporting (SAGE). This results in a detailed reconciliation process that is prone to errors if not performed timely, routinely, and with the proper report parameters during the year.

Effect: Fixed asset disposals are not properly included in the SAGE fixed asset listing resulting in misstatements in financial reporting for fixed assets.

Recommendation: Management should improve policies and procedures in place to communicate and obtain appropriate supporting documentation for all fixed asset disposals, in a timely manner. Management should consider the various fixed asset systems in use and consider if those various systems properly serve the various departments of the County. Additionally, management should determine if the systems have additional features or add ons that may assist in the reconciliation or integration between systems. Management should be performing more routine reconciliation between the inventory system and the fixed asset system for financial reporting.

Management's response:

Management acknowledges and concurs with the proposed changes for recording of disposals as mentioned. Management is currently working on improving adherence to timelines by working on schedules for inventory, and ensuring that all items are flowing correctly to the inventory specialist and finance staff as needed. We concur with the finding and the recommendation of new software for greater efficiency, which will be implemented at a feasible point in time.

2025-002 Fixed Assets Balances and Schedules

Criteria: The Board sets the policies and procedures regarding the capitalization of fixed assets for financial reporting. These financial reporting policies and procedures are necessary for financial reporting in accordance with the Government Accounting Standards Board (GASB). Expenditures for assets meeting the capitalization requirements outlined in the capitalization policy should be included in the BOCC Sage Fixed Asset Listing. Additionally, the Fixed Asset Listing and related fixed asset schedules which outline balances to be reported on the trial balance should reconcile to each other and not contain errors.

Condition: We noted multiple expenditures for the purchase of capital assets or improvements meeting the definition of capital assets under GASB and the capitalization policy of the Board, that were not properly reported or included in the fixed asset management system. Additionally, it was noted that certain capitalizable items were recorded in non-capital outlay accounts and vice versa. The errors were discovered during the audit process. Lastly, adjustments were required in order to reconcile the fixed asset schedules with the fixed asset listing and trial balance.

Cause: Significant turnover in the finance department impacted the schedules prepared by management including the loss of institutional knowledge and constraints on the organizations time and ability to investigate and correct the reported balances and schedules. This turnover coupled with a lack of detailed policies and procedures for the timing and reconciliation of the amounts recorded as capital outlay expenditures to the fixed asset software and schedules led to errors in reported amounts. Challenges in proper expense account coding existed due to communication deficiencies on the nature of the underlying capital projects. Initial omissions for certain capitalizable items led to inaccurate reporting Effect: Management's risk of material misstatement over fixed assets reported on the government wide financial statements and the BOCC special-purpose financial statements is increased.

Recommendation: Management should update the policies and procedures to include specific roles and responsibilities for the communication of ongoing projects, incoming invoices related to projects, and the reconciliation of capital outlay expenditures to amounts recorded as fixed asset additions. The performance of these tasks should occur at more frequent intervals throughout the year.

Management's response:

Finance is reviewing our current Fixed Asset policies and procedures, working to eliminate the gaps that have been identified above, and removing the roadblocks to ensure accurate reporting going forward. Management has also instituted additional data checks to proactively identify and correct information throughout the year, ensuring issues are addressed promptly as updated information is received. All parties will be taking a more active role in order to ensure financial statement accuracy. We have also requested a new fixed asset accountant position.

2025-003 Closing Process

Criteria: The Committee for Sponsoring Organizations (COSO) defines internal controls as, "a process effected by an entity's board, management, and other personnel, designed to provide reasonable assurance of the achievement of objectives relating to operations, reporting, and compliance."

Condition: The preliminary trial balance for fiscal year 2025 included significant errors and omitted information. The errors were discovered during the audit process and were properly investigated and corrected by management.

Cause: Delays in the receipt of invoices from various departments for revenues and payables impacted various schedules and reports.

It should also be noted that significant turnover in the finance department impacted the schedules prepared by management including the loss of institutional knowledge and constraints on the organization's time and ability to investigate and correct the reported balances and schedules as well as a lack of detailed policies and procedures for the formal year end closing formalized for the finance department.

Effect: These matters led to significant errors in the schedules provided and amounts reported prior to audit adjustment.

Additionally, these financial statement misstatements can lead to incomplete and inaccurate information to those charged with governance, other constitutional officers and other County departments.

Recommendation: Management should review its policies and procedures for significant transaction cycles, document the process for closing the books for its monthly and annual financial reporting, and set a timeline for the monthly and annual reconciliation of account balances and schedules.

Management should continue to evaluate the structure and staffing roles and responsibilities of the finance department.

Management's response:

The finance department does agree that more concrete procedures need to be documented and is currently working to update and create more thorough desktop procedures to better identify and prevent these types of errors. Additionally, more thorough procedures are being put into place to track late invoices and ensure that all end of year invoices have been received.

2025-004 Lease and SBITA Tracking and Recording

Criteria: GASB Statement No. 96 defines how Subscription Based Information Technology Arrangements (SBITAs) should be recorded for government entities.

Condition: THF noted improvements in the process for calculating and reporting Leases and SBITAs in accordance with GASB 87 and GASB 96 based on management's previous corrective action plan. However, instances were noted in which eight (8) new SBITAs were not included on the original SBITA schedules in accordance with GASB 96.

Cause: Significant turnover in the finance department impacted the schedules prepared by management including the loss of institutional knowledge and constraints on the organizations time and ability to investigate and correct the reported schedules. This turnover coupled with a lack of detailed policies and procedures for the timing and identification of potential SBITA assets led to errors in reported amounts.

Effect: Management's risk of material misstatement over SBITAs reported on the government wide financial statements and the BOCC special-purpose financial statements is increased. Initially provided details were misstated by a significant amount.

Recommendation: Management should improve policies and procedures in place to identify leases and SBITAs. Management should also implement a more detailed review of schedules and reported balances.

Management's response:

Management will agree on turnover being the reason for the missed SBITAs, and have taken measures to implement new policies and procedures to compensate for this and ensure completeness going forward.

2025-005 Timely Billing and A/R collectability

Criteria: GASB Statement No. 33 defines the appropriate standard for recognition of receivables and revenue for expenditure driven grant activities in governmental funds.

Condition: During the audit we identified intergovernmental grant revenues recorded beyond grant award amounts. In these instances the County has not met the eligibility requirements for revenue recognition. Additionally, we noted long outstanding A/R balances that were not timely invoiced to intergovernmental grantors.

Cause: Separation of duties and responsibilities between finance for recording revenues, deferred revenues, and accounts receivable and the process for managing and billing the grant are resulting in the discrepancies.

Effect: Adjustments to reduce revenues and record allowances for doubtful accounts were identified during the audit and were necessary for proper financial reporting.

Recommendation: Management should improve its policies and procedures for grant recording. This includes improved communications between Finance and the applicable departments regarding the nature of the grant, the grant award amounts, matching funds, and billing/collectability challenges.

Management's response:

Management continues to improve its policies and procedures across all departments to ensure completeness and accuracy of amounts recorded throughout the fiscal year. Additionally, more active communication regarding grants is taking place, and year-end policies and procedures related to these processes are being updated to address this issue.

Additional Matters

Section 10.554(1)(i)3., Rules of the Auditor General, requires us to communicate noncompliance with provisions of contracts or grant agreements, or fraud, waste, or abuse, that has occurred, or is likely to have occurred, that has an effect on the financial statements that is less than material but warrants the attention of those charged with governance. In connection with our audit, we did not note any such findings.

This item has no fiscal impact. The Annual Investment Report details investment income earned of approximately $11.9 million for FY 2024 – 2025.

Staff Recommendation:

Option #1: Accept the Annual Investment Report for FY 2024 – 2025 (Attachment #1).

Report and Discussion

Background:

As required by Policy No. 17-4, "Leon County Investment Policy" (Policy), this item seeks Board acceptance of the FY 2024 – 2025 Annual Investment Report as provided by the Leon County Clerk of Circuit Court and Comptroller (Attachment #1).

Local governments are authorized by sections 125.01 and 218.415, Florida Statutes, to invest funds determined to be surplus. Surplus funds include funds held for long-term projects, future expenditures, emergency reserves, and more. Investing these funds allows local governments to earn interest, which is then allocated to support County services. The County's Investment Policy applies to all funds held by the County in excess of those required to meet current/daily expenses and further defines the primary objectives for all County investment activities to be the safety of principal, maintenance of liquidity, and finally, return maximization.

Pursuant to Chapter 2, Article VII, Sec. 2-253 of the Leon County Code of Laws, the County's Investment Oversight Committee (IOC) reviews the County's portfolio activity at least quarterly for compliance with the Policy. Section XIII of the Policy states that the IOC will provide the Board of County Commissioners with an annual report on the performance and conditions of the County's investments. The IOC was created to formulate investment strategies, provide short-range direction, and monitor the performance and structure of the County's portfolio. The IOC's membership consists of the Clerk of the Circuit Court and Comptroller or designee, the County Administrator or designee, one member appointed by the Clerk, and two members appointed by the Board of County Commissioners. The three appointed members shall not be employed by any office of the county government and shall be residents of the County. They must have experience in matters involving portfolio management or institutional fixed income investments. Appointees serve three-year terms and may serve up to three terms.

Surplus funds are invested through a variety of investment instruments. Maintaining a core level of assets with the government pools, such as the State of Florida Special Purpose Investment Account (SPIA) or other short-term entities, is viewed as the best way of maintaining secure asset values with sound investment practices. The County utilizes a professional portfolio manager, Insight Investments, to invest the intermediate term investments. Overnight investments and liquidity are maintained through the County's banking contract.

Analysis:

Clerk staff, in conjunction with the external portfolio manager, developed an Annual Investment Report that outlines the investment activities of the County (Attachment #1). The IOC reviewed and approved the report and authorized it to be presented to the Board. The Clerk and IOC report that the investment of all funds was consistent with Policy No. 17-4, implemented pursuant to Chapter 2, Article VII, Sec. 2-253 of the Leon County Code of Laws.

The County's Investment Policy provides the parameters on how County funds can be managed and is based on guidelines established in Florida Statutes to place the highest priority on the safety of principal and liquidity of funds. This is due to local governments' role in providing essential services and the need to have funds readily accessible to meet these obligations. Florida Statutes require the Policy to be structured to reduce risk factors, such as market risk, inflation risk, interest rate risk, credit risk, and liquidity risk, which could lead to a shortage of funds available to provide services. The Investment Policy was last revised in 2024 to increase liquidity, reduce investment duration limits, and restrict certain higher risk securities which are more susceptible to market volatility. These parameters enhance the overall safety of the County's investment portfolio but mitigate potential higher yields compared to private sector investment funds.

The total income of $11,914,308 provided an effective rate of return of 4.34% on an average daily balance of $274,729,467 during the fiscal year ending September 30, 2025. This return on investment aligns with other Florida county governments include Orange (4.57%) and Hillsborough Counties (4.27%) in FY 2025. For comparison, Leon County's portfolio earned a total income of $12,488,274 during the fiscal year ending September 30, 2024. This total income provided an effective rate of return of 4.74% on an average daily balance of $263,314,885.

Market rates were steady most of the year with a slight trend down in rates throughout the fiscal year. The portfolio is still positioned to maximize returns in this environment by focusing on shorter duration investments resulting in average daily balances higher than previous years. The IOC and external managers will continue to actively monitor the portfolio, offering recommendations and policy changes as necessary.

Looking ahead, the IOC, with guidance from Insight Investments serving as the County's professional portfolio manager, is positioned to make any necessary investment strategy adjustments as monetary policy continues to evolve in response to global uncertainties. The IOC remains committed to the Policy's primary investment objective of safety and liquidity for the County's overall portfolio.

ANNUAL INVESTMENT REPORT

FOR THE YEAR ENDED
SEPTEMBER 30, 2025

GWEN KNIGHT

CLERK OF CIRCUIT COURT AND COMPTROLLER

LEON COUNTY, FLORIDA

ANNUAL INVESTMENT REPORT

Fiscal Year Ended September 30, 2025, Leon County, Florida

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

The Investment Policy approved by the Commission provides for a conservatively managed portfolio that performed as expected during fiscal year 2025. The Investment Policy objectives are safety of principal, adequate liquidity and investment return, in that order of priority. Parameters related to portfolio duration, credit quality, liquidity and instrument selection have been established to ensure investment policy objectives are being met. The portfolio earned total income of $11,914,308 for fiscal year ending September 30, 2025, a 4.60% decrease in investment income over the prior fiscal year. The portfolio investment performance provided an effective rate of return of 4.34% on an average daily balance of $274,729,467. For comparison, the portfolio earned $12,488,274 for the prior fiscal year with an effective rate of return of 4.74% on an average daily balance of $263,314,885.

Economic and market conditions

From late 2024 through mid-2025, U.S. economic activity moderated from earlier strength amid elevated policy, fiscal, and geopolitical uncertainty. Consumer spending and business investment remained supportive of growth, while manufacturing activity and labor market momentum softened. Financial markets were periodically disrupted by shifts in U.S. trade policy, including the announcement, delay, and reinstatement of tariffs, which complicated the inflation outlook and weighed on business confidence. Geopolitical tensions and growing fiscal concerns, including a downgrade of U.S. sovereign credit, added to volatility, though overall market sentiment continued to favor a gradual economic slowdown rather than a recession.

Interest rate policy and Treasury market

The Federal Reserve maintained a restrictive policy stance through late 2024 and the first half of 2025 as it balanced easing inflation pressures against signs of labor market cooling. As growth slowed and employment conditions weakened, the Fed shifted toward an easing bias and implemented a 25-basis-point rate cut in the third quarter of 2025, marking the beginning of a gradual policy normalization cycle. Short-term Treasury yields, which had remained elevated into early 2025, declined as markets priced in further rate cuts, while longer-term yields were comparatively stable. As a result, the Treasury yield curve remained relatively flat for much of the period but began to show early signs of modest steepening.

Fixed income performance, outlook, and risks

Fixed income markets benefited from declining rate volatility and improving policy clarity. Corporate bonds performed well, supported by falling Treasury yields, strong investor demand, and continued tightening in credit spreads, which approached historically low levels across many sectors. Investment-grade corporates generated solid returns despite episodic market volatility. Looking ahead, the outlook for fixed income remains cautiously constructive, supported by expectations for slower but positive economic growth and additional Federal Reserve rate cuts. Key risks include renewed inflation driven by trade policy or energy prices, a sharper-than-expected labor market slowdown, escalating geopolitical tensions, or renewed fiscal concerns that could place upward pressure on Treasury yields.

ANNUAL INVESTMENT REPORT

Fiscal Year Ended September 30, 2025, Leon County, Florida

Portfolio summary

At the end of fiscal year 2025 the term securities investment portfolio had an unrealized gain of approximately $236,000. This unrealized gain is an improvement from the unrealized loss of approximately $183,000 at the end of the previous fiscal year. This improvement is attributed to yields on securities purchased being higher than average market yields at the end of the fiscal year.

The Committee has recommended; and the County has adopted changes to the County's Investment Policy to reduce the risk and volatility of the investment portfolio. Changes to the investment policy include adjusting performance benchmark the term securities portfolio to better represent the shorter duration, lower risk investment strategy. The County added $15 million to the term securities portfolio after this benchmark calibration.

Section 218.415(15), Florida Statutes, requires the Leon County Clerk of Circuit Court and Comptroller to provide an annual report to the Board of County Commissioners of the securities in the portfolio by investment type, book value, market value and income earned. This information is included in Table I and Table II below and the chart on page 8 as of September 30, 2025.

Investment Oversight Committee

The Investment Policy of the Board of County Commissioners provides for an Investment Oversight Committee (IOC) to work with the Clerk of the Circuit Court and Comptroller in the investment management of the portfolio. The Committee meets quarterly unless interim issues require more frequent meetings. Meetings are noticed, open to the public and the minutes of each meeting recorded. The IOC consists of the Clerk Designee, Chief Deputy, Kenneth Kent; the County Administrator Designee, Assistant County Administrator, Ken Morris and OMB Director, Roshaunda Bradley, and three qualified individuals with financial or investment expertise who are independent of employment and business relationships with Leon County. The three outside members as of September 30, 2025, were Chairman, J. Ben Watkins III, State of Florida Director of the Division of Bond Finance, Claudia Sachs, CFP®, of Osaic Wealth and G Ben Hensarling, Deputy Director of Member Services, Department of Management Services. During the fiscal year ending September 30, 2025, the portfolio was managed within the guidelines and limitations of the IOC recommendations and the Commission-approved policy without exception.

Investment Managers

The investment portfolio quarter ending balances ranged from $218,658,869 to $374,198,907 during the fiscal year, with higher balances during the first and second quarter as tax collections are received. The total investment portfolio had a weighted average duration during the fiscal year ranging between 0.23 and 0.51 years since it has been invested primarily in money market funds. The internal portfolio was generally allocated to the Florida Local Government Investment Trust (FLGIT), Florida Treasury Special Purpose Investment Account (SPIA) and Florida Prime (SBA) during the year for diversification and liquidity.

Insight Investment, the external portfolio manager, invested an average of 23% of the Leon County portfolio during the fiscal year. As of September 30, 2025, Insight Investment managed approximately $76 million in fixed income assets that resulted in a weighted average duration during the fiscal year ranging between 1.43 and 1.49 years. The established performance benchmark for Insight Investment is the ICE BofA 0-3 Year US Treasury & Agency Index. Insight Investment, formerly known as Cutwater Asset Management, has managed the County's external portfolio since June 1, 2010.

In October 2018, an additional money market account was opened with Wells Fargo for restricted funds for the Leon County Landfill. This Landfill money market account has a rate of Federal Funds less 10 basis points. In June 2019, the County added the Florida Local Government Investment Trust (FLGIT) Day to Day Fund to provide more flexibility for liquidity. Additional information for the FLGIT Day to Day Fund is provided on page 5 section B of this Annual Investment Report.

ANNUAL INVESTMENT REPORT

Fiscal Year Ended September 30, 2025, Leon County, Florida

I. INVESTMENT POLICY

Section 218.415, Florida Statutes provides units of local government the ability to adopt a written investment plan to govern the investment of their investment portfolio. The Leon County Board of County Commissioners on July 9, 2024 adopted revisions to the investment policy. These revisions to the Policy, which were recommended by the Investment Oversight Committee, were designed to be more conservative by reducing volatility in the portfolio, eliminating asset-backed securities as allowable investments and expanding allocations to money market funds for liquidity needs. The modifications to the investment policy also ensure the safety of the principal and earning a reasonable rate of return by modifying the portfolio sector maximums for specific security types.

The Florida Constitution provides that the Clerk of Court and Comptroller (Clerk) will be responsible for the investment of County funds and this report is being submitted by the Clerk as provided by the Board's Investment Policy. All investment activity was conducted in accordance with written procedures and internal controls.

II. INVESTMENT OVERSIGHT COMMITTEE

The Clerk established the Investment Oversight Committee (IOC) to formulate investment strategies, to provide short-range direction, and to monitor the performance and structure of the County's portfolio. The IOC consists of the Clerk Designee, Chief Deputy, Kenneth Kent; the County Administrator Designee, OMB Director, Roshaunda Bradley; Assistant County Administrator, Ken Morris, and three qualified individuals with financial or investment expertise who are independent of employment and business relationships with Leon County. The three outside members as of September 30, 2025, were Chairman, J. Ben Watkins III, State of Florida Director of the Division of Bond Finance, G Ben Hensarling, Deputy Director of Member Services, Department of Management Services and Claudia Sachs, CFP®, of Osaic Wealth.

III. ACTIVITIES OF THE INVESTMENT OVERSIGHT COMMITTEE

The IOC scheduled periodic meetings to discuss issues relating to the investments of the County. During the current year, the IOC continued to overweight investments on the short-end of the yield curve for maximum safety and liquidity while not giving-up any investment performance and maintained the average annual effective duration for the managed external portfolio of approximately 1.43 and 1.49 years. Given the current volatile market environment, the focus on Federal monetary policy and geopolitical uncertainties, the IOC will continue to carefully monitor the portfolio duration and allocation of assets.

IV. INVESTMENT OBJECTIVES

The Policy states that the primary objectives of all investment activities for the County should be safety of principal, maintenance of adequate liquidity and finally, return maximization.

Safety of principal is the foremost investment objective. Investment transactions should seek to keep capital losses to a minimum, whether the result of security defaults, or erosion of market value. This is best insured by establishing minimum acceptable credit ratings, limiting the portfolio's overall duration, setting maximum exposures by sector, defining appropriate levels of diversification and authorized transactions and limiting exceptions.

The second objective is the provision of sufficient liquidity. A portion of the County's overall portfolio should be maintained very liquid in order to meet operating, payroll, and ongoing capital requirements. Maintaining a core level of assets with the government pools, such as FLGIT and Florida Prime or other short-term money market funds, is viewed as the best way of maintaining secure asset values with sound investment practices. The remainder of the overall portfolio should be managed in such a manner that funds can be liquidated in a reasonable amount of time, recognizing that there are other sources for day-to-day liquidity and that this portfolio is primarily available for income generation within the constraints of this policy.

Maximizing yield on the portfolio is of least importance compared to the safety and liquidity objectives above. Return maximization is guided by the predefined and acceptable levels of risk as defined in this policy.

V. PORTFOLIO PERFORMANCE

Acceptable portfolio performance is the result of balancing the rewards of investing, or the income earned, with the risks associated with those investments. Factors influencing the portfolio's performance are the types of permitted investments and allowable maturities, liquidity requirements, overall interest rate environment, cash flows, and the investment manager's performance.

The portfolio earned total income of $11,914,308 for fiscal year ending September 30, 2025, a 4.60% decrease in investment income over the prior fiscal year. The portfolio investment performance provided an effective rate of return of 4.34% on an average daily balance of $274,729,467. Overall average investment balances increase by $11.4 million during the year. For comparison, the portfolio earned $12,488,274 for the prior fiscal year with an effective rate of return of 4.74% on an average daily balance of $263,314,885.

The actively managed external portfolio eliminated the mark-to-market unrealized loss from the prior year, and also realized gains for the 12-months ending September 30, 2025 of $33,094. The purchase yield on the external portfolio on September 30, 2025, was 4.05% versus 3.66% on September 30, 2024 and includes an unrealized gain of approximately $236,000. This improvement is attributed to yields on securities purchased being higher than average market yields at the end of the fiscal year. Certain individual securities purchased during the lower rate environment had a lower market value than their book value at year-end but the aggregate portfolio value exceeds the cost of investments. The County has sufficient liquidity and reserves.

The following is the latest overall market and portfolio specific commentary provided by the County's investment advisor, Insight Investment.

Insight Investment Calendar Year Fourth Quarter 2025 Review & Outlook

The FOMC delivered a 25bp cut to the Fed Funds rate, taking it to a target range of 4% to 4.25%. It marked the first rate cut since December 2024. The only dissenting vote was from the newest member, Stephen Miran, who voted for a 50bp cut. The Fed's updated "dot plot" reflected two further additional rate cuts by year-end, a slightly faster profile than in June (Chart 1). Individual projections were bifurcated with six members projecting no further rate cuts this year.

The FOMC cited labor market conditions as the main driver of its decision to cut rates, noting "Job gains have slowed, and the unemployment rate has edged up" and "downside risks to employment have risen."

Chart 1: The FOMC cut rates and forecast a steeper rate-cutting profile

This decision reflected increasingly finely balanced labor market metrics. The US economy added 22,000 jobs in August, below expectations for 75,000. The two previous months were revised down by 21,000, adding overall to the total downward revisions year-to-date (Chart 2). Job gains continued to be heavily concentrated in healthcare and leisure and hospitality. The unemployment rate remained at 4.3% while the broader U6 unemployment measure increased from 7.9% to 8.1%, a new post-pandemic high. Elsewhere, the ratio of job openings to unemployed edged below one for the first time since 2017. Initial jobless claims briefly reached 264,000, the highest since 2021, albeit reports later indicated this was inflated by cases of fraud in Texas. The measure subsequently eased to 218,000 by the end of the month. Continuing jobless claims remained around cycle highs.

Inflation remained above-target (which the FOMC also acknowledged). Headline CPI rose from 2.7% to 2.9% and PCE increased from 2.6% to 2.7%. Core CPI remained at 3.1% and core PCE remained at 2.9%. Inflation was notable in food, shelter and "super core" (i.e. excluding food, energy and shelter) categories. Tariff inflation was evident in small categories like televisions, sewing machines and jewelry.

The third estimate of Q2 GDP growth was revised up from 3.3% to 3.8% SAAR, which reflected upward revisions to consumption and business investment.

VI. PERMITTED INVESTMENTS AND ALLOWABLE MATURITIES

Table 1 summarizes the permitted investments, composition limits, and maximum allowable maturities. The County's available funds are invested according to Leon County's Investment Policy Section XV, which authorizes the County to invest in specific permitted investment types. The permitted investments are restricted by the Policy in their composition limits and maximum allowable maturities. The Policy permits maturities of the operating portfolio establishing a range of 60 days to 10 years. Table 1 gives a brief description of each investment type according to Section XVI of the Policy. It is generally regarded that the following investment types are safe investments and meet the Policy's first objective: safety of principal.

The internal portfolio was invested in the following government pools during fiscal year ending September 30, 2025:

A. Florida Local Government Surplus Funds Trust Fund, also known as Florida PRIME

Florida PRIME is administered by the Florida State Board of Administration (SBA) for the purpose of pooling investment funds of local governments in an investment portfolio of money market instruments that provide liquidity while preserving capital. On February 13, 2008, the Trustees of the SBA hired Federated Investors to manage Florida PRIME, effective on March 1, 2008. As of October 1, 1997, the SBA had converted Florida PRIME to a "2a-7 like" investment pool (SEC Rule 2a-7 of the Investment Company Act of 1940). On September 30, 2025, Florida PRIME was invested in fixed rate and floating rate bank instruments, repurchase agreements, fixed rate and floating rate corporate commercial paper, floating rate corporate notes, money market mutual funds, and fixed rate and floating rate asset backed commercial paper. The rating for Florida Prime as of September 30, 2025, was AAAm by Standard and Poor's. A maximum of 45% of the portfolio may be invested with Florida PRIME without the written direction of the County's Chief Financial Officer to deviate from the Investment Policy limitation based on market conditions.

B. The Florida Local Government Investment Trust Government Fund (FLGIT)

The Florida Local Government Investment Trust (FLGIT) is a local government investment pool developed through the joint efforts of the Florida Court Clerks and Comptrollers (FCCC) and the Florida Association of Counties (FAC) for providing opportunities for the investment of excess public funds. FLGIT offers two investment funds to its participants, the Short Term Bond Fund and the Day to Day Fund. The Short Term Bond Fund is a longer term higher yielding fund. On September 30, 2025, the County did not have any balances in the Short-Term Bond Fund with FLGIT. The Day to Day Fund is a highly liquid fund with underlying investments having a weighted average maturity of less than 90 days. The FLGIT Day to Day Fund does meet the criteria and has adopted operating procedures consistent with the requirements for a SEC Rule 2a-7 fund. On September 30, 2025, the majority of the Day-to-Day Fund was invested in US Treasuries, Agencies and Repurchase Agreements with the remainder in short term Corporate Bonds, Commercial Paper and Certificates of Deposit. The Day-to-Day Fund maintained a credit rating of AAAm by Fitch as of September 30, 2025. A maximum of 45% of the portfolio may be invested with FLGIT without the written direction of the County's Chief Financial Officer to deviate from the Investment Policy limitation based on market conditions.

C. Special Purpose Investment Account (SPIA)

Effective July 1, 2004, Section 17.61(1), Florida Statutes was amended to permit organizations created by the Florida Constitution to participate in the existing State Treasury Investment Pool "Special Purpose Investment Account (SPIA)." Historically, SPIA participants have received higher earnings reflecting the higher risk associated with the longer maturities and lower credit quality. The rating for the Treasury Investment Pool as of September 30, 2025, was AA-f by Standard and Poor's with a duration of 3.47 years. The County Investment Policy allows up to 100% of the County portfolio to be invested in SPIA.

In March 2015, the Florida Treasury implemented procedures to provide better cash forecasting and an increase in funds available for longer term investments which should increase the interest earnings of the pool as a whole. These enhancements included (1) closing the pool to new non-component unit entities, (2) requiring new withdrawal notices and minimum balance requirements and (3) setting a cap on investment amounts. Instead of 100% liquidity with 3 days' notice, the Florida Treasury now requires 5 days' notice for liquidations between $20 and $75 million and 20 days' notice for liquidations over $75 million. In addition, 6 months' notice is required for liquidations planned below a floor calculated as 60% of the previous 3 months average balance. The changes by the Florida Treasury reduce the possibility of large unplanned liquidations from the pool. The IOC evaluated these changes and determined that the associated risks would be monitored, and dollars reallocated between asset classes (including SPIA) based on periodic analysis of the market risk.

The financial details and disclosures for the Treasury Investment Pool are made in Note 4 to the State of Florida Annual Comprehensive Financial Report (ACFR).

On September 30, 2025, most of the Florida Treasury Investment Pool holdings were in US Treasuries, US Government Agencies/Bonds, Corporate Bonds, and Agency Mortgage-Backed Securities. The Pool's fair value factor was 1.0065 for September 2025. A factor of more than 1.0000 indicates that the market value of the Pool's investments is more than the funds invested in the Pool. For more information relating to the Treasury Investment Pool, please visit the website at http://www.myfloridacfo.com/Division/Treasury.

VII. LIQUIDITY REQUIREMENTS

The second objective in managing the County's investments is the provision of sufficient liquidity. On a regular basis, the County's receipts and disbursements are analyzed to determine trends in cash inflow and outflow. Cash inflows are invested immediately upon receipt and become part of the portfolio.

ANNUAL INVESTMENT REPORT

Fiscal Year Ended September 30, 2025, Leon County, Florida

The portfolio provides cash for weekly payment of operating and capital expenditures, biweekly payment of payroll expenditures and semiannual debt service payments. A liquidity base of approximately at least three months of anticipated disbursements is kept in relatively short term investments.

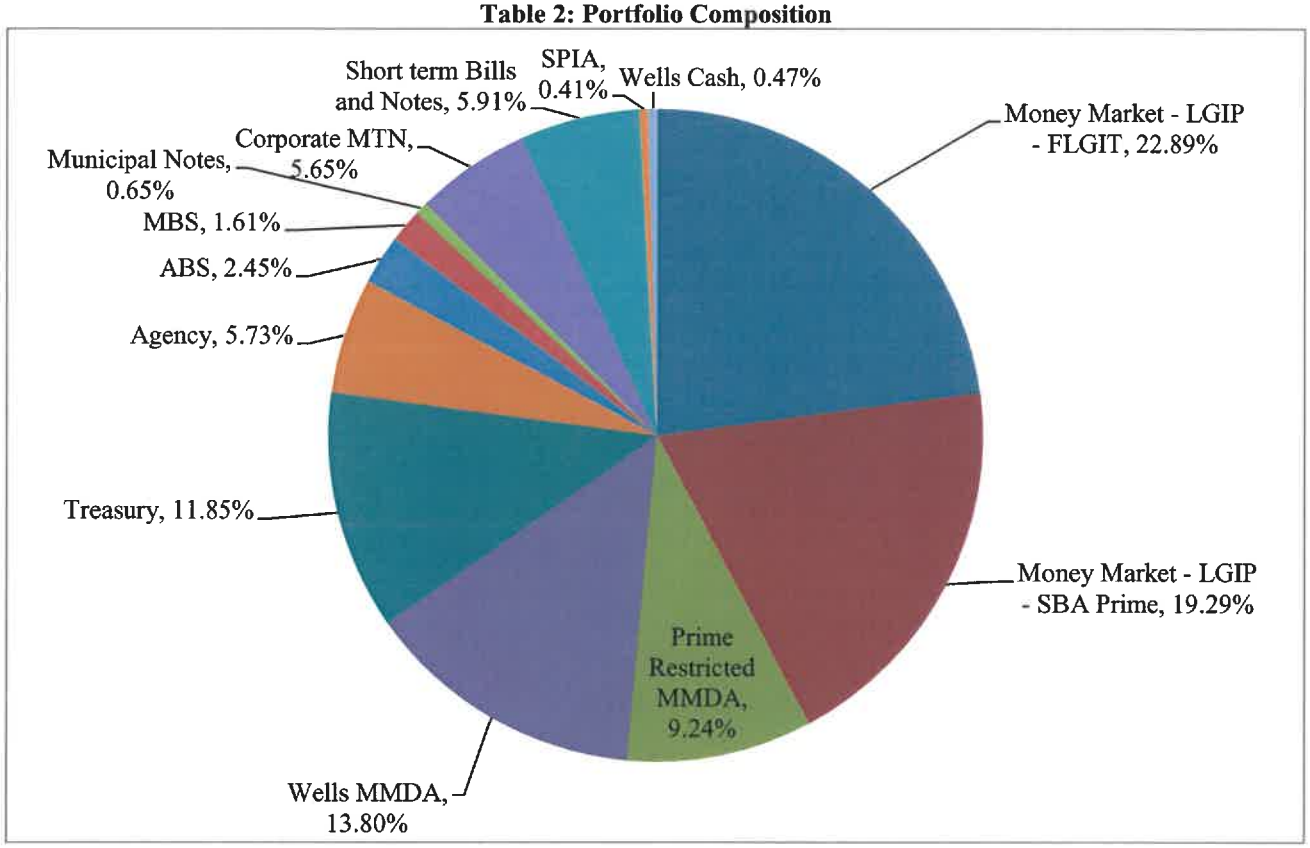
VIII. INVESTMENT OPERATIONS

Investing activities are conducted by the investment advisor and qualified professionals in the Clerk's Office in accordance with Florida Statutes, County Ordinances, and written policies and procedures. Periodic reports of investment activity and positions are prepared and distributed to management of the Clerk's Office, management of the BCC and the Investment Oversight Committee. Regular meetings of the IOC are held to monitor the portfolio, evaluate investment performance and discuss investment strategies.

The investment advisor and Clerk staff use sophisticated techniques in carrying out investment activities including the use of electronic bank and trust account systems, electronic funds transfer, on-line real-time monitoring of U.S. securities markets and electronic trading. Bank account balances, cash requirements, investment positions and trust account activity are monitored daily. The county employs stringent internal controls and prioritizes cybersecurity measures to safeguard its investments and financial assets against potential threats and risks. Current conditions and evaluations of national economic activity are considered in making asset allocation decisions.

A. Portfolio Balances

The portfolio's ending balance for fiscal year 2025 was $225,530,538 while the ending balance for 2024 was $218,646,696, an increase of $6,883,842.



B. Portfolio Composition

The Clerk or the Clerk's designee (Chief Financial Officer) shall have the option to further restrict or increase investment percentages from time to time based on market conditions. Any exceptions to the portfolio composition guidelines or limits must be in writing from the Chief Financial Officer directed to the appropriate parties and discussed at each quarterly Investment Oversight Committee meeting. The portfolio was managed in compliance with diversification requirements for investment types as shown in the following:

ANNUAL INVESTMENT REPORT

Fiscal Year Ended September 30, 2025, Leon County, Florida

Table 2: Portfolio Composition

C. Portfolio Maturities

Portfolio management was also accomplished in compliance with the Policy that requires ensuring sufficient liquidity as well as diversity in maturities. Shown in Table 3 are the average terms of each investment type held as of fiscal year end 2024 and 2025. Average term is the weighted average number of days remaining to maturity of the investment. Average terms greater than one year represent investments of non-current funds, including the non-current operating portfolio, and investments of bond proceeds and debt service reserve funds. The externally managed portfolio was invested for a weighted average term of approximately 910 days in fiscal year 2025, as compared with a weighted average term of 686 days in fiscal year 2024.

The policy no longer permits investments in U.S. Agency Mortgage Backed or Asset Backed Securities. Existing positions will be allowed to mature or may be sold prior to maturity, subject to the condition that such sales do not materially and adversely impact portfolio performance.

D. Earnings and Yields

The portfolio earned total income of $11,914,308 for fiscal year ending September 30, 2025. This total income provided an effective rate of return of 4.34% on an average daily balance of $274,729,467. For comparison, the portfolio earned $12,488,274 for the prior fiscal year. This represents an effective rate of return of 4.74% on an average daily balance of $263,314,885. The range of duration of the County's overall portfolio is defined as 0.5 years to 2.0 years. Unusual market or economic conditions may mandate moving the portfolio outside of this range. The Investment Oversight Committee will be convened and will approve any portfolio duration outside of the range specified above. The duration of the portfolio was an annual average of 0.35 years and has been intentionally invested on the short-end of the yield curve to take advantage on an inverted yield curve and mitigate market volatility from economic and geopolitical uncertainties.

IX. CONCLUSION

In conclusion, the results outlined in the Annual Investment Report are as follows:

- Due to the Federal Reserve keeping interest rates steady for most of the fiscal year and a 25-basis point reduction in September 2025, the portfolio did not have any material unrealized losses. This is a continued improvement from the prior years and reflects the more conservative positioning of the externally managed investment portfolio.
- Investment income decreased approximately 4.6% from the previous year. However, there was a $11.4 million increase in the overall average investment balances. This reduction in income is primarily due to lower short term rates from the money market portfolio during the fiscal year compared with the prior fiscal year. The rates available on money market funds were comparable to longer duration securities due to federal monetary policy and a flat yield curve. Since shorter term securities offered comparable yields with less investment risk and superior liquidity, money market funds were used as the primary investment for the investment portfolio. The interest rate environment and fixed income market has been volatile due to uncertainties caused by inflationary pressures, the direction of federal monetary policy, geopolitical events, tariffs and international trade policies. At the end of the fiscal year, 71 percent of the investment portfolio was held between 0-3 months duration to avoid investment risk with no discernable benefit in yields. When global uncertainties and monetary policy becomes clearer and market conditions change, this strategy will be reassessed to reposition the portfolio, if needed. In anticipation of further federal reserve interest rate reductions to offset anticipated labor market weakening and to add modest duration to the portfolio, the Committee recommended that the County allocate additional funds to the external portfolio in September to hedge against further interest rate cuts by the Federal Reserve. An additional $15,000,000 was allocated to the external portfolio with additional allocations to be considered in the future. These funds were invested with similar duration to the existing externally managed portfolio.
- The Investment Portfolio activity was in compliance with the Investment Policy.

Investment Oversight Committee

The IOC met regularly to monitor market conditions, investment performance, ensure compliance with the investment policy and oversee the performance of the external manager. The investment policy requires staff to notify the IOC of any deviations from the investment policy including any time that any holdings drop below the minimum credit ratings required under the policy or investment policy limits are exceeded. The IOC will then consider the current market environment and make recommendations or any corrective action needed. Any deviations from the investment policy shall be in writing and authorized by the County's Chief Financial Officer.

The committee updated the investment policy in the May 2024 meeting to minimize the risks of volatility.

On June 23, 2026, the IOC met to review and approve this annual report summarizing the performance of the internally and externally managed portfolios.

Report and Discussion

Background:

This item seeks Board acceptance of the Final Report of the 2025 – 2026 Leon County Citizen Charter Review Committee (Attachment #1).

The convening of the 2025 – 2026 Leon County Citizen Charter Review Committee (CCRC) is essential to the following FY 2022 – FY 2026 Strategic Initiative:

- Establish a Citizen Charter Review Committee to review the County's Home Rule Charter and propose any amendments or revisions ahead of the 2026 General Election. (2025-101)

This particular Strategic Initiative aligns with the Board's Governance Strategic Priority:

- (G1) Sustain a culture of transparency, accessibility, accountability, civility, and the highest standards of public service.

On November 5, 2002, the citizens of Leon County adopted a Home Rule Charter providing for full home rule authority under the law and citizen determination of the structure, powers, and functions of County government. The Leon County Charter (Charter) outlines the roles and responsibilities of the County's constitutional officers, the County's relationship with its municipality, and establishes the process by which amendments to the Charter may be proposed.

The Charter requires a CCRC to be convened every eight years to review the County Charter and propose any amendments or revisions for consideration by the Board that may be advisable for placement on the general election ballot. The first CCRC was convened in 2009, followed by the 2017 – 2018 CCRC.

On September 15, 2025, the Board appointed 21 citizens to serve on the 2025 – 2026 CCRC, with three appointments made by each Commissioner. Members served without compensation and were initially appointed to a term of 120 days. The CCRC was provided broad authority to recommend any Charter amendments it deemed advisable and to seek public input throughout its deliberations.

The following citizens were appointed to serve on the 2025 – 2026 CCRC:

- Mary Ann Lindley, Chair
- Chauncy Haynes, Vice Chair
- Joey Davis
- Linda Bond Edwards
- Liz Ellis
- Anita Favors
- Max Herrle
- Darryl Jones
- Howard Kessler
- Henry Lewis, III
- Slaton Murray
- Heidi Otway
- Sean Pittman
- Ryan Ray
- Shamarial Roberson
- Temple Robinson
- William Smith
- Bruce Strouble, Jr.
- Jarrett Terry
- Katrina Tuggerson
- Barry Wilcox

Pursuant to its Bylaws, the 2025 – 2026 CCRC conducted nine meetings between October 23, 2025, and February 19, 2026. These meetings were held on a biweekly basis at the Leroy Collins Leon County Main Public Library which provided a centralized location and adequate space to ensure accessibility to the public. Following the Board's direction on March 10, 2026, to reconvene the CCRC to consider a specific issue, the 2025 – 2026 CCRC conducted a special meeting on May 28, 2026, followed by three public hearings on June 30, July 16, and July 30, 2026. All meetings were publicly noticed and provided opportunities for citizen input.

Over the course of nine months, the 2025 – 2026 CCRC conducted a comprehensive review of the Leon County Charter and considered a range of issues related to County government, ultimately advancing four proposed Charter amendment recommendations and two policy recommendations to the Board. Policy recommendations reflected issues the 2025 – 2026 CCRC determined were important for Board consideration but did not require or warrant inclusion in the Charter. Of the four proposed Charter amendments, the Board advanced two using the amendment language approved by the 2025 – 2026 CCRC: the amendment revising the Charter Preamble to reflect the esteemed humanity of all residents, which the Board advanced as a Board-initiated amendment to expedite the required public hearing process; and the Historic Harm Charter Amendment establishing a Community Impact Assessment process. Both will appear on the November 3, 2026 General Election ballot. For the 2025 – 2026 CCRC's remaining proposed Charter amendment recommendations related to healthcare access and affordable housing, the Board elected not to pursue Charter amendments and instead directed the continuation of the County's longstanding efforts in these areas.

Analysis:

While the Board adopted Bylaws to guide the Charter review process, the 2025 – 2026 CCRC was provided broad discretion to consider any issues it deemed appropriate. The Board also referred one specific issue to the 2025 – 2026 CCRC for consideration: whether the Charter should provide for County ordinances to prevail over municipal ordinances in the event of conflict.

The 2025 – 2026 CCRC's initial review process was divided into two phases: issue/discussion meetings and decision meetings. During the issue/discussion phase, Committee members identified potential Charter amendment proposals for additional analysis and deliberation. Proposals receiving sufficient Committee support advanced to the decision phase for consideration of proposed Charter amendment language and potential advancement to the public hearing process.

During the course of its work, the 2025 – 2026 CCRC considered eleven topics, five of which the CCRC chose not to advance for potential inclusion in the Leon County Charter:

1. Annexation Procedures and Processes
2. Establishment of an Office of Inspector General
3. Establishment of a Leon County Bill of Rights
4. Pursuit of County/City Consolidation
5. Establishment of Community Values of Diversity, Equity and Inclusion, and Local Business Preference

The 2025 – 2026 CCRC advanced two policy recommendations and four proposed charter amendments to the Board:

- Policy Recommendation Encouraging Leon County and the City of Tallahassee to Consider Alignment of Street Renaming Policies and Procedures to Promote Public Safety
- Policy Recommendation Encouraging the Board to Create a Division of Food Systems within the Leon County Office of Human Services and Community Partnerships
- Proposed Amendment Revising the Charter Preamble to Reflect the Esteemed Humanity of all Residents of Leon County
- Proposed Amendment Revising the Charter Preamble to Affirm the County's Commitment to Creating a Community that is Safe, Vibrant, and Provides Access to Healthcare for All Citizens
- Proposed Amendment to Codify the County's Affordable Housing Trust Fund in the County Charter
- Proposed Amendment to Address Historic Harm by Establishing a Community Impact Assessment Process in the County Charter

On March 10, 2026, the Board received a status report detailing the 2025 – 2026 CCRC's work to date, including two policy recommendations and three (at that time) proposed Charter amendment recommendations, and provided direction on each (Attachment #2). The Board voted to advance one proposed Charter Amendment – the "Esteemed Humanity" Preamble Amendment - as a Board-initiated Charter amendment. As previously reported to the Board, advancing a CCRC recommendation as a Board-initiated charter amendment accelerated the timeline for required public hearings while providing the Board maximum flexibility on determining the final amendment and ballot language. The Board subsequently conducted its required public hearings to advance the Board-initiated "Esteemed Humanity" Charter Amendment for placement on the November 3, 2026 General Election ballot.

The fourth and final recommended Charter amendment was approved by the 2025 – 2026 CCRC following direction by the Board to reconvene to consider a specific issue. At the March 10th meeting, the Board also requested an agenda item on the previous iteration of the draft Historic Harm Charter Amendment, which was considered, but ultimately not recommended, by the CCRC related to persistent disparities resulting from historic public policy decisions. On May 12, 2026, the Board provided direction to reconvene the 2025 – 2026 CCRC to consider advancing a revised Historic Harm Charter Amendment to address historic harmful public policy decisions based on geographical areas in the community rather than race, gender, ethnicity, or any other protected class to ensure compliance with state and federal laws.

At its May 28, 2026 special meeting, the CCRC advanced a revised Historic Harm Charter Amendment establishing a Community Impact Assessment process to its required public hearings. The 2025 – 2026 CCRC subsequently conducted three public hearings on June 30, July 16, and July 30, 2026, and ultimately recommended the proposed Charter amendment to the Board. On August 17, 2026, the Board approved placement of the proposed Historic Harm Charter Amendment, as advanced by the 2025 – 2026 CCRC, on the November 3, 2026 General Election ballot.

With the 2025 – 2026 CCRC's work complete, the Final Report of the 2025 – 2026 Leon County Citizen Charter Review Committee (Attachment #1) provides a comprehensive record of the Committee's deliberations during the charter review process. Additionally, a high-level summary of the Board's action taken on each of the 2025 – 2026 CCRC's recommendations is provided below, with additional analysis on each recommendation provided in the Final Report.

2025 – 2026 Citizen Charter Review Committee Proposed Policy Recommendations

During the course of its work, the 2025 – 2026 CCRC considered two topics which it recognized as important but not appropriate or necessary for inclusion in the Leon County Charter. As a result, the CCRC provided two policy recommendations for Board consideration rather than Charter amendment proposals. The two policy recommendations are summarized below and further detailed in the Final Report.

Policy Recommendation Encouraging Leon County and the City of Tallahassee to Consider Alignment of Street Renaming Policies and Procedures to Promote Public Safety

As part of the Charter review process, the Board directed the 2025 – 2026 CCRC to consider whether County ordinances should prevail over municipal ordinances in the event of conflict. In reviewing this issue, the 2025 – 2026 CCRC considered the County's and City of Tallahassee's differing street renaming procedures and the potential public safety and emergency response concerns associated with roadways having inconsistent names along the same corridor. Although the 2025 – 2026 CCRC did not recommend a Charter amendment providing for County ordinances to prevail over municipal ordinances, it recommended that the County work with the City to align street renaming policies and procedures.

Board Action: On March 10, 2026, the Board considered the 2025 – 2026 CCRC's policy recommendation as well as an alternative option to address the issue through a Charter amendment. Recognizing that the County has no means to require a unified process other than through the Charter, the Board directed staff to prepare two Board-initiated Charter amendments: one providing for uniform countywide street naming, renaming, and addressing standards, and another providing for all County ordinances to prevail over municipal ordinances in the event of conflict, to the extent permitted by law. On June 9, 2026, the Board conducted its first and only public hearing to place both Board-initiated Charter amendments on the November 3, 2026 General Election ballot.

Policy Recommendation Encouraging the Board to Create a Division of Food Systems within the Leon County Office of Human Services and Community Partnerships

During the Charter review process, the 2025 – 2026 CCRC considered whether food access and food system resilience should be addressed in the Charter. After reviewing the County's existing food security programs, partnerships, investments, and organizational structure, the 2025 – 2026 CCRC did not advance a proposed Charter amendment and, instead, recommended that the Board establish a Division of Food Systems within the Office of Human Services and Community Partnerships (HSCP) to coordinate countywide food security efforts.

Board Action: On March 10, 2026, the Board considered the 2025 – 2026 CCRC's recommendation and directed staff to continue the County's long-standing commitment to reducing food insecurity through its existing organizational structure, community engagement, continued investment, and partnerships with local stakeholders, while increasing efforts to promote community awareness of available resources. The Board also directed that a workshop on this topic be scheduled following completion of the Florida A&M University Food Council report. This report is anticipated to be completed in December of 2026, and the workshop will be scheduled following the completion of the report.

2025 – 2026 Citizen Charter Review Committee Proposed Amendment Recommendations

In addition to the policy recommendations, the 2025 – 2026 CCRC advanced the four proposed Charter amendments to the Board for placement on the 2026 General Election Ballot as summarized below. Additional analysis and the full amendment language for each proposal is provided in the Final Report (Attachment #1).

Proposed Amendment Revising the Charter Preamble to Reflect the Esteemed Humanity of all Residents of Leon County

The 2025 – 2026 CCRC voted to advance Charter amendment language to incorporate affirmation of the esteemed humanity of all residents as a shared community value in the Preamble of the Charter. Recognizing that the Preamble serves as an introduction and broadly reflects what the Charter seeks to achieve, it does not delineate specific structures, authorities, policies, or provision of services for County government. With this in mind, the 2025 – 2026 CCRC approved proposed language to incorporate the affirmation of esteemed humanity of all residents as a guiding aspiration of the Charter document.

Board Action: On March 10, 2026, the Board considered and voted to advance the proposed Charter amendment as a Board-initiated Charter amendment. On June 9, 2026, the Board conducted its first and only public hearing to place the Board-initiated Charter amendment revising the Charter Preamble to reflect the esteemed humanity of all residents of Leon County on the November 3, 2026 General Election ballot.

Proposed Amendment Revising the Charter Preamble to Affirm the County's Commitment to Creating a Community that is Safe, Vibrant, and Provides Access to Healthcare for All Citizens

In consideration of the County's long-standing efforts to provide healthcare access for uninsured and underinsured low-income residents, the 2025 – 2026 CCRC recommended revising the Charter Preamble to affirm the County's commitment to ensuring primary healthcare access. As reported to the 2025 – 2026 CCRC throughout its consideration of this issue, there are no county charters in Florida that include language regarding the provision of healthcare as it reflects a policy-specific issue that is more appropriately addressed through County policy or codes. Accordingly, staff presented the 2025 – 2026 CCRC with an alternative option to provide a policy recommendation encouraging the continuation of Leon County's longstanding commitment to ensuring healthcare access for low-income residents and thereby supporting an equitable, safe, healthy, and vibrant community. However, the 2025 – 2026 CCRC recommended the Board consider revising the Charter Preamble to highlight this issue. Both options were provided in the March 10th Status Report for the Board's consideration.

Board Action: On March 10, 2026, the Board considered, but did not advance, the 2025 – 2026 CCRC's recommendation and voted to continue the County's long-standing commitment to ensuring healthcare access for low-income residents, thereby supporting an equitable, safe, healthy, and vibrant community.

Proposed Amendment to Codify the County's Affordable Housing Trust Fund in the County Charter

The 2025 – 2026 CCRC voted to advance a proposed Charter amendment codifying the County's Affordable Housing Trust Fund in the Charter. As reported to the 2025 – 2026 CCRC, the County currently maintains an Affordable Housing Trust Fund which the Board has existing authority to fund and administer through its policy, budgetary, and ordinance authority without the need for a Charter amendment. While affordable housing provisions have been adopted in four county charters in recent years, the proposed amendment sought to memorialize the broad discretion that the Board already has to address and invest in the changing affordable housing needs in the community. Accordingly, staff presented the 2025 – 2026 CCRC with an alternative option to provide a policy recommendation encouraging the continuation of Leon County's longstanding commitment to increasing and preserving the stock of affordable housing in the community. However, the 2025 – 2026 CCRC recommended pursuing adoption of the affordable housing provisions in the Charter. Both options were provided in the March 10th Status Report for the Board's consideration.

Board Action: On March 10, 2026, the Board considered, but did not advance, the 2025 – 2026 CCRC's recommendation and instead directed staff to continue the County's long-standing commitment to increasing and preserving the stock of affordable housing in the community.

Proposed Amendment to Address Historic Harm by Establishing a Community Impact Assessment Process

The 2025 – 2026 CCRC voted to advance the proposed "Historic Harm" Charter Amendment addressing adverse community conditions related to historic public policies and governmental practices. The proposed Charter amendment provides for periodic community impact assessments, public reporting, and the Board's review of adverse community conditions in historically underserved and vulnerable populations related to the County's historic laws, policies, and practices. The periodic community impact assessment process would be based on geographic areas, rather than race, gender, ethnicity, or any other protected class, to ensure compliance with state and federal laws.

Board Action: On August 17, 2026, the Board conducted its first and only public hearing to place the Historic Harm Charter Amendment on the November 3, 2026 General Election ballot.

Conclusion

The 2025 – 2026 CCRC Final Report (Attachment #1) provides a comprehensive record of the Committee's work during the charter review process, including additional background and analysis on the 2025 – 2026 CCRC's recommendations advanced to the Board for consideration. As outlined below, the Board has advanced a total of five proposed Charter amendments for placement on the November 3, 2026 General Election ballot. The first two proposed amendments were recommended by the 2025 – 2026 CCRC.

1. Charter Amendment to Reflect the Esteemed Humanity in the Preamble
2. Charter Amendment to Address Historic Harm by Establishing a Community Impact Assessment Process
3. Charter Amendment to Provide for Uniform Countywide Street Naming, Renaming, and Addressing Standards
4. Charter Amendment to Provide for County Ordinances to Prevail Over Municipal Ordinances in the Event of Conflict
5. Charter Amendment to Remove and Replace Outdated Statutory References as Proposed by the Board of County Commissioners

If approved by a majority of electors voting on the referendum, each of the proposed Charter amendments shall become effective January 1, 2027 with draft Ordinances to be brought back to the Board for consideration soon thereafter. Additional information on next steps for implementation, as necessary, will be presented to the Board following the November General Election.

INTRODUCTION AND OVERVIEW

As part of the 1968 Florida Constitutional Revision, the State of Florida's voters approved an amendment which constitutionally-vested all 67 Florida counties with home rule powers and provided citizens with the ability to adopt a county charter. Prior to the 1968 Constitutional Revision, Florida counties only had those powers expressly granted to them by the State.

Charters are formal documents which confer certain powers, duties, and privileges to the county. Charters resemble state constitutions in that they must be approved by the voters within the county. Charter governments reflect community preferences, recognize that a "one-size-fits-all" approach does not work for all counties, provide flexibility in fulfilling state-mandated functions, and provide an increased ability to address local concerns. Through a charter, counties have the power of self-government and the authority to tailor structures, service delivery mechanisms, and intergovernmental relationships to address local issues.

On November 5, 2002, the citizens of Leon County voted to adopt a home rule charter, making Leon County the 19th charter county in Florida. Currently, there are 20 charter counties in the state, which represent over 75% of the state's population. All county charters have a process by which charter revisions and amendments are submitted to the local electorate; however, only 18 counties including Leon County require a regularly scheduled review of their charter by an appointed citizen committee. The purpose of a charter review process is to ensure that the county government continues to reflect the preferences of its citizens.

According to the Leon County Charter (the Charter), a Citizen Charter Review Committee must be convened every eight years and charged with reviewing the Charter and proposing any amendments or revisions for consideration by the Board of County Commissioners (the Board) which may be advisable for placement on the general election ballot. The first Citizen Charter Review Committee was convened in 2009. The second Citizen Charter Review Committee was convened in 2017.

Eight years later, on September 15, 2025, the Board appointed 21 citizens to the 2025-2026 Leon County Citizen Charter Review Committee (the Committee). All members served through July 2026, for a term of nine (9) months, after which a final report was presented to the Board in September 2026.

The Board charged the Committee with the broad purview to recommend any proposed Charter Amendments they deemed advisable and to seek public input in their deliberations.

Long, County Administrator, Ken Morris, Assistant County Administrator, and Nicki Hatch, Assistant to the County Administrator for Legislative and Strategic Initiatives, with legal support and analysis provided by Chasity H. O'Steen, County Attorney. Additional staff support and analysis was provided by Shington Lamy, Assistant County Administrator, Abigail Thomas, Director of the Office of Human Services and Community Partnerships, and Cameron Williams, Management Analyst. The Clerks to the Board, Beryl Wood and Daniel J. Antonaccio, maintained the minutes of the Committee's meetings.

COMMITTEE PROCESS

The Committee was provided with bylaws to assist in guiding the charter review process. Pursuant to the Bylaws of the Leon County Citizen Charter Review Committee, the Committee conducted nine meetings between October 23, 2025, and February 19, 2026. All meetings were publicly noticed, broadcasted and live-streamed, and the opportunity for citizen testimony was provided at every meeting. The meetings were divided among two phases: issue/discussion meetings and decision meetings. During the issue/discussion meetings, Committee members identified Charter Amendment proposals for additional analysis and deliberation. Following Committee discussion and approval, proposals advanced to the second phase of meetings for Committee consideration of proposed Charter Amendment language. The Committee was also required to conduct three public hearings for advancement of any proposed Charter Amendment to the Board for consideration.

At its March 10, 2026 meeting, the Board received a status report on the Committee's review process, including two policy recommendations and three proposed Charter Amendment recommendations advanced by the Committee, as detailed later in this report. At that time, the Board advanced three proposals as Board-initiated Charter Amendments for placement on the November 2026 General Election ballot. Additionally, in May 2026, the Board reconvened the Committee to consider advancing a Charter Amendment to address historic harmful public policy decisions based on geographical areas ("Historic Harm" Charter Amendment). The proposed Historic Harm Charter Amendment was advanced through the Committee's public hearing process.

The Committee conducted the three public hearings on the proposed Historic Harm Charter Amendment on June 30, July 16, and July 30, 2026. At the conclusion of the final public hearing, the proposed Charter Amendment was approved by a majority vote of the Committee to be advanced to the Board for consideration. On August 17, 2026, the Board conducted its public hearing and approved placement of the proposed Charter Amendment on the 2026 General Election ballot.

A comprehensive review of the Committee process including the Charter Amendment proposals, policy recommendations, and additional topics considered by the Committee are included in the following sections of this final report. The current County Charter, Committee Bylaws, meeting minutes, and meeting agendas are included as Appendices.

COMMITTEE RECOMMENDATIONS

As part of the charter review process, the Board had the ability to limit or provide direction to the Committee to address specific issues it deems appropriate. For the current charter review process, the Committee was not limited in its purview and had full discretion to review any and all relevant issues. After consideration and deliberation of numerous policy issues, however, the Board selected one issue for the Committee to consider for advancement as a proposed Charter Amendment: whether the Leon County Charter should provide for County ordinances to prevail over City ordinances in the event of conflict. The Committee discussed this issue at length but did not recommend a Charter Amendment on this issue.

As of the conclusion of its work, the Committee considered a total of fifteen issues and recommended the following two policy recommendations and four Charter Amendments to be advanced to the Board of County Commissioners for consideration:

1. Proposed Amendment: Revising the Charter Preamble to Reflect the Esteemed Humanity of all Residents of Leon County
2. Proposed Amendment: Revising the Charter Preamble to Affirm the County's Commitment to Creating a Community that is Safe, Vibrant, and Provides Access to Healthcare for All Citizens
3. Proposed Amendment: to Codify the County's Affordable Housing Trust Fund in the County Charter
4. Proposed Amendment: to Address Historic Harm by Establishing a Community Impact Assessment Process in the County Charter
5. Policy Recommendation: Encouraging Leon County and the City of Tallahassee to Consider Alignment of Street Renaming Policies and Procedures to Promote Public Safety
6. Policy Recommendation: Encouraging the Board to Create a Division of Food Systems within the Leon County Office of Human Services and Community Partnerships

The following information is provided for each Committee recommendation:

- The proposed Charter Amendment language or policy recommendation advanced by the Committee; and
- A summary of the background and analysis on the specific subject considered by the Committee.

Proposed Amendment Revising the Charter Preamble to Reflect the Esteemed Humanity of all Residents of Leon County

Summary of Committee and Board Action: On February 5, 2026 the Committee voted 18-0 to advance a proposed Charter Amendment revising the Charter Preamble to reflect the esteemed humanity of all residents of Leon County. On March 10, 2026, the Board considered and voted to advance the proposed Charter Amendment as a Board-initiated Charter Amendment. On June 9, 2026, the Board conducted its first and only public hearing to place the Board-initiated Charter Amendment revising the Charter Preamble to reflect the esteemed humanity of all residents of Leon County on the November 3, 2026 General Election ballot.

Proposed Charter Amendment: The following proposed amendment language was recommended to the Board (proposed language is underlined):

> SECTION 1. HOME RULE CHARTER
> We, the citizens of Leon County, Florida, united in the belief that governmental decisions affecting local interests should be made locally, rather than by the State, and that County government should be reflective of the people of the County and should serve them in achieving a more responsive and efficient form of government, hereby affirm the esteemed humanity of all residents of Leon County. We recognize in every person a shared dignity, not granted by government, but inherent and deserving of consideration in our public affairs. ~~and i~~In order to empower the people of this County to make changes in their own government, we do ordain and establish this Home Rule Charter for Leon County, Florida.

Summary of Background and Analysis: At its January 22, 2026 meeting, the Committee requested Charter Amendment language to incorporate affirmation of the esteemed humanity of all residents as a shared community value in the Charter. Recognizing that the Preamble serves as an introduction and broadly reflects what the Charter seeks to achieve, it does not delineate specific structures, authorities, policies, or provision of services for County government.

With this in mind, at its February 5, 2026 meeting, the Committee was presented with proposed language amending the Preamble of the Charter to reflect the esteemed humanity of all residents of Leon County as a guiding aspiration of the Charter document. The Committee advanced the proposed language, which was presented to the Board in the Committee's March 10, 2026 status report. At that time, the Board advanced the proposal as Board-initiated Charter Amendment for placement on the November 2026 General Election ballot.

Proposed Amendment to Address Historic Harm by Establishing a Community Impact Assessment Process in the County Charter

Summary of Committee and Board Action: At its third and final public hearing on July 30, 2026, the Committee voted 14–0 to recommend a proposed Historic Harm Charter Amendment establishing a process for periodic Community Impact Assessments, public reporting of assessment findings, and the Board's review and consideration of adverse community conditions related to historic County laws, policies, and practices. On August 17, 2026, the Board conducted its first and only public hearings to place the Historic Harm Charter Amendment on the November 3, 2026 General Election ballot.

Proposed Charter Amendment: The following proposed amendment language was recommended to the Board (proposed language is underlined):

Summary of Background and Analysis: During the Charter Review process, the Committee requested an analysis of the County's ongoing efforts to reduce poverty and inequity in the community. The analysis highlighted the County's use of empirical data to inform service-delivery decisions, engagement with residents, and significant investments in neighborhoods that have historically experienced poverty. The Committee also considered a member proposal to amend the Charter to require County programs and funding to be targeted in communities that had experienced historic racial discrimination.

Following discussion on January 22, 2026, the Committee directed staff to prepare a draft "Historic Harm" Charter Amendment and corresponding ballot language addressing persistent disparities resulting from historic public policy decisions, including slavery and segregation. On February 19, 2026, the Committee received the requested draft amendment and ballot language, together with an analysis of state and federal actions restricting or prohibiting certain governmental activities based on identified categories, including race. In light of these legal considerations and the County's existing authority and ongoing efforts to address poverty and inequities, the Committee did not advance the proposed amendment.

Upon receiving the Committee's status report on March 10, 2026, the Board requested additional analysis of the Historic Harm proposal, which had been considered, but not advanced by the Committee. Subsequent state and federal actions created additional legal and funding considerations associated with governmental programs and activities involving race and other protected classifications, including the Florida Legislature's passage of SB 1134 (2026) and new federal requirements affecting recipients of federal funding.

On April 10, 2026, the Board received a comprehensive analysis of the initial Historic Harm proposal and these evolving state and federal requirements. Following its review, the Board requested development of a revised framework that could address adverse community conditions associated with historic public policy decisions while remaining consistent with applicable state and federal law. On May 12, 2026, the Board voted to reconvene the Committee to consider a revised Charter Amendment based on geographic areas and community conditions rather than race, gender, ethnicity, or other protected classifications.

On May 28, 2026, the Committee reconvened and received an overview of the Board's direction, the County's existing efforts to address the needs of historically underserved areas and vulnerable populations, and options for a revised Charter Amendment. The Committee voted to advance a revised proposal establishing a Community Impact Assessment process addressing adverse community conditions related to historic County laws, policies, and practices.

The Committee subsequently conducted three public hearings on June 30, July 16, and July 30, 2026. Through the public hearing process, the Committee refined the proposed amendment and ultimately voted 14–0 on July 30th to recommend the proposed Charter Amendment to the Board for consideration for placement on the November 3, 2026 General Election ballot.

Proposed Amendment Revising the Charter Preamble to Affirm the County's Commitment to Creating a Community that is Safe, Vibrant, and Provides Access to Healthcare for All Citizens

Summary of Committee and Board Action: On February 19, 2026, the Committee voted 19-0 to advance a proposed Charter Amendment revising the Charter Preamble to affirm the County's commitment to healthcare access. On March 10, 2026, the Board considered, but did not advance, the CCRC's recommendation and voted to continue the County's long-standing commitment to ensuring healthcare access for low-income residents and thereby supporting an equitable, safe, healthy, and vibrant community.

Proposed Charter Amendment: The following proposed amendment language was recommended to the Board. As approved by the Committee, the proposed revision to the Preamble includes the Committee's previous recommendation regarding the esteemed humanity of all residents of Leon County in the Preamble (bold), with additional language (bold and underlined) to reflect the Committee's request to affirm the County's long-standing commitment to ensuring healthcare access for low-income residents.

> We, the citizens of Leon County, Florida, united in the belief that governmental decisions affecting local interests should be made locally, rather than by the State, and that County government should be reflective of the people of the County and should serve them in achieving a more responsive and efficient form of government, hereby affirm the esteemed humanity of all residents of Leon County. We recognize in every person a shared dignity, not granted by government, but inherent and deserving of consideration in our ~~public affairs~~ effort to create a community that is safe, vibrant, and provides access to healthcare for all citizens.

Summary of Background and Analysis: On December 4, 2025, the Committee requested information regarding funding mechanisms available to support healthcare services for uninsured and underinsured low-income residents. On January 8, 2026, the Committee received an analysis of the County's existing investment in healthcare access, including approximately $7.7 million in annual funding for primary, dental, mental, specialty, and pharmaceutical healthcare services for low-income residents. Throughout its consideration of the issue, Committee members expressed strong support for the County's long-standing efforts and investment in ensuring healthcare access for low-income residents.

Following its review on January 8th, the Committee directed staff to prepare a proposed Charter Amendment affirming the County's commitment to healthcare access. In response to this direction, staff developed proposed language for inclusion in the Charter Preamble, recognizing that the Preamble broadly reflects the principles and aspirations of the Charter rather than establishing specific governmental structures, authorities, policies, or service requirements.

As reported to the Committee, no other Florida county charter includes language regarding the provision of healthcare. County charters generally address broad organizational matters related to the authority, structure, and powers of county government, while healthcare access can be addressed through the Board's existing policymaking and budgetary authority. Accordingly, staff presented an alternative option for the Committee to provide a policy recommendation encouraging the continuation of Leon County's long-standing commitment to ensuring healthcare access for low-income residents without amending the Charter.

On February 19, 2026, the Committee considered both approaches and voted to recommend the proposed Charter Amendment revising the Charter Preamble to affirm the County's commitment to healthcare access, which was presented to the Board in the Committee's March 10, 2026 status report. On March 10, 2026, the Board considered, but did not advance, the CCRC's recommendation and voted to continue the County's long-standing commitment to ensuring healthcare access for low-income residents and thereby supporting an equitable, safe, healthy, and vibrant community.

Proposed Amendment to Codify the County's Affordable Housing Trust Fund in the County Charter

Summary of Committee and Board Action: On February 5, 2026, the Committee voted 12–6 to advance a proposed Charter Amendment codifying the County's existing Affordable Housing Trust Fund in the Leon County Charter. On March 10, 2026, the Board considered, but did not advance, the CCRC's recommendation and instead directed staff to continue the County's long-standing commitment to increasing and preserving the stock of affordable housing in the community

Proposed Charter Amendment: The following proposed amendment language was recommended to the Board (proposed language is underlined):

Sec. 1.10. - Leon County Affordable Housing Trust Fund.

(1) Leon County Affordable Housing Trust Fund established. The Leon County Affordable Housing Trust Fund ("Trust Fund") is hereby established.

(2) Purposes of Trust Fund. The purpose of the Trust Fund is to provide a continuing, non-lapsing fund for the Leon County Commission to use to address the need for affordable housing within Leon County. The Trust Fund will be used to create and sustain affordable housing throughout Leon County for renters and homeowners and increase housing opportunities for very low and extremely low-income households.

(3) Revenue sources. The Trust Fund established under this section shall be funded as directed by the County Commission, and may be comprised of the following sources:

A. Leon County General Revenue appropriated to the Trust Fund by the County Commission as part of the annual budget;

B. Funds voluntarily contributed by municipalities that may elect to participate in the Trust Fund and programs funded by the Trust Fund;

C. Grants or donations of money, property, or any other thing of value made to the Trust Fund;

D. Mandatory or voluntary payments, including but not limited to fees from new commercial and residential development, made pursuant to the development policies established by ordinance; and

E. Other sources as established by ordinance.

(4) Continuing Nature of Trust Fund. Unless otherwise provided by ordinance or required by applicable law, unspent portions of the Trust Fund established under this section, repayments of principal and interest on loans provided from the Trust Fund, and interest earned from the deposit or investment of monies from the Trust Fund:

A. Shall remain in the Trust Fund to be used exclusively for the purposes of the Trust Fund;

B. Do not revert to the general revenues of the County; and

C. Any appropriations do not lapse.

(5) Administration and Oversight of Trust Fund. The Trust Fund shall be administered, appropriated, and expended by the County Commission in a manner consistent with the purposes of the Trust Fund as set forth in this section. The Trust Fund shall be administered in a manner that allows the Trust Fund to leverage other sources of public funds and private investment. The Trust Fund shall be included in the annual audit.

(6) Implementation by Ordinance. No later than March 31, 2027, the County Commission shall adopt one or more ordinances implementing the provisions of this section, which ordinances may be amended from time to time by the County Commission consistent with the provisions of this section.

Summary of Background and Analysis:

On January 8, 2026, the Committee received an analysis of the funding sources utilized by Leon County to support affordable housing, including general revenue, infrastructure surtax proceeds, grants, and bond financing. The analysis also detailed how these resources are invested to increase and preserve the community's affordable housing stock through the County's existing Affordable Housing Trust Fund, programs, and services. Throughout its consideration of the issue, Committee members expressed strong support for the County's long-standing commitment to increasing and preserving affordable housing.

Leon County currently maintains an Affordable Housing Trust Fund pursuant to Chapter 8, Article V, of the Leon County Code of Laws. Accordingly, a Charter Amendment was not necessary to provide the Board with additional authority to maintain the Trust Fund or invest in the community's changing affordable housing needs. Rather, the proposed amendment would codify the existing Trust Fund in the Charter and establish broad provisions governing its purpose, potential revenue sources, continuing nature, administration, oversight, and implementation.

Most Florida county charters do not address affordable housing. Four of Florida's 20 charter counties include affordable housing provisions, which generally memorialize the respective county commission's authority to establish and implement a trust fund dedicated to affordable housing. More broadly, the Leon County Charter generally addresses the governing authority, structure, and powers of County government rather than specific policy priorities, which are typically established through the Board's strategic planning, budgetary, policymaking, and ordinance-adoption processes.

Given the Board's existing authority and the County's established Affordable Housing Trust Fund, staff presented an alternative policy recommendation encouraging the continuation of Leon County's long-standing commitment to increasing and preserving affordable housing without amending the Charter. On February 5, 2026, the Committee considered both approaches and voted to recommend the proposed Charter Amendment codifying the Affordable Housing Trust Fund in the Charter, which was presented to the Board in the Committee's March 10, 2026 status report. At that time, the Board considered, but did not advance, the CCRC's recommendation and instead directed staff to continue the County's long-standing commitment to increasing and preserving the stock of affordable housing in the community.

Policy Recommendation Encouraging Leon County and the City of Tallahassee to Consider Alignment of Street Renaming Policies and Procedures to Promote Public Safety

Summary of Committee and Board Action: On February 5, 2026, the Committee voted 18-0 to advance a policy recommendation encouraging Leon County to work with the City of Tallahassee (the City) to align street renaming policies and procedures to prevent public safety and emergency services-related issues due to lack of uniformity among street names. On March 10, 2026, recognizing that the County has no means to require a unified process other than through the Charter, the Board directed staff to prepare two Board-initiated Charter Amendments: one providing for uniform countywide street naming, renaming, and addressing standards, and another providing for all County ordinances to prevail over municipal ordinances in the event of conflict, to the extent permitted by law. On June 9, 2026, the Board conducted its first and only public hearings to place both Board-initiated Charter Amendments on the November 3, 2026 General Election ballot.

Summary of Background and Analysis: This policy recommendation was borne from the Board's direction to advance to the Committee for consideration whether County ordinances should prevail over municipal ordinances in the event of a conflict. To support its consideration, the Committee received an analysis on the County's existing regulatory authority and examples of conflicts between County and City ordinances. Among the examples provided to the Committee was the County and City's differing street renaming ordinances and the potential for public safety and emergency services-related issues due to inconsistent naming across segments of roadways.

Historically, the County and City operated under a unified system established through the County's Uniform Street Naming and Property Numbering System Ordinance, applying consistent criteria to roadway naming and numbering for public safety purposes. However, in May 2024, the City adopted a separate ordinance establishing its authority to rename streets within the municipal limits (excluding County-maintained and state roads), resulting in the County no longer being able to apply its standards to City-maintained streets. Since that time, more than ten streets and segments of roadways have been renamed – several of which have resulted in roadways bearing multiple names along the same corridor, creating fragmented street names across a single roadway. In regard to street renaming, regulatory uniformity is critical to ensuring accurate GPS routing, timely emergency response, and the protection of life and property for citizens no matter where they reside within the County. With these considerations in mind, this issue was presented as one example of countywide regulatory uniformity that the Committee may wish to consider when determining whether County ordinances should prevail when a conflict exists.

The agenda materials provided to the Committee made clear that the City made a deliberate decision within its legal authority to adopt its own street renaming process, and the County has no means to effectuate a unified process other than a Charter Amendment providing County ordinances to prevail over City ordinances, broadly or specific to this issue.

Following deliberations, the Committee did not support advancing a Charter Amendment providing for County ordinances to prevail over City ordinances in the event of conflict or in this specific circumstance regarding street renaming standards. However, the Committee recognized the public safety concerns in unifying the street renaming standards and sought to make a policy recommendation to the Board. On February 5, 2026, the Committee approved the policy recommendation encouraging the County to work with the City to align street renaming policies and procedures.

On March 10, 2026, the Board considered the CCRC's policy recommendation as well as an alternative option to address the issue through a Charter amendment. Recognizing that the County has no means to require a unified process other than through the Charter, the Board directed staff to prepare two Board-initiated Charter Amendments: one providing for uniform countywide street naming, renaming, and addressing standards, and another providing for all County ordinances to prevail over municipal ordinances in the event of conflict, to the extent permitted by law. On June 9, 2026, the Board conducted its first and only public hearings to place both Board-initiated Charter Amendments on the November 3, 2026 General Election ballot.

Policy Recommendation Encouraging the Board to Create a Division of Food Systems within the Leon County Office of Human Services and Community Partnerships

Summary of Committee Action: On February 19, 2026, the Committee voted 12–7 to advance a policy recommendation encouraging the establishment of a Division of Food Systems within the Leon County Office of Human Services and Community Partnerships (HSCP) to coordinate countywide food security efforts. On March 10, 2026, the Board considered the CCRC's recommendation and directed staff to continue the County's long-standing commitment to reducing food insecurity through its existing organizational structure, community engagement, continued investment, and partnerships with local stakeholders, while increasing efforts to promote community awareness of available resources.

Summary of Background and Analysis: On December 4, 2025, the Committee requested an analysis of food security and whether the issue should be addressed in the Leon County Charter. On December 18, 2025, the Committee received the requested analysis, including information regarding the County's ongoing efforts to address food insecurity through community engagement, programs, partnerships, and investment. Throughout its consideration of the issue, Committee members expressed support for the County's existing efforts while identifying opportunities to increase awareness of available resources and strengthen coordination among community partners.

Following its initial review, the Committee directed staff to prepare a proposed Charter Amendment addressing food security. As requested by the Committee, the proposal included establishment of an Office of Food Access and Resilience, recognition of food access and food system resilience as a County responsibility, and inclusion of "equitable access to nutritious food" as a guiding value in the Charter Preamble. On February 19, 2026, the Committee received the proposed Charter Amendment, with the accompanying analysis noting that HSCP already administers programs and services dedicated to reducing food insecurity and increasing food access through the County's strategic investments, policies, community partnerships, and direct services. Because these functions were already aligned within HSCP, creation of a separate office was not recommended.

The Committee was also advised that no other Florida county charter specifically addresses food access or food insecurity and that the Board already has the authority to address food insecurity through its policymaking, programming, partnerships, and budgetary decisions without amending the Charter. Accordingly, staff did not recommend advancing the proposed Charter Amendment and instead presented an alternative policy recommendation encouraging the Board to continue the County's long-standing commitment to reducing food insecurity through the use of empirical data, community engagement, continued investment, and partnerships with local stakeholders to increase food access in areas with high rates of food insecurity.

Following its consideration of the issue, the Committee did not advance the proposed Charter Amendment. Instead, the Committee voted to recommend that the Board establish a Division of Food Systems within HSCP to coordinate countywide food security efforts. The Board also directed that a workshop on this topic be scheduled following completion of the Florida A&M University Food Council report which is anticipated to be completed in December 2026.

ADDITIONAL TOPICS CONSIDERED FOR CHARTER AMENDMENTS

The Citizen Charter Review Committee considered the following topics as possible Charter Amendments but voted at various phases of the Committee process to not advance them as recommendations.

1. Annexation Procedures and Processes
2. Establishment of an Office of Inspector General
3. Leon County Bill of Rights
4. County/City Consolidation
5. Joint City-County Land Development Code
6. Community Values of Diversity, Equity and Inclusion, and Local Business Preference

Annexation Procedures and Processes

Summary of Committee Action: On November 20, 2025, the Committee voted 20–0 to request additional information regarding annexation, including applicable state preemption, statutory annexation procedures, and the County's flexibility in addressing annexation. On December 4, 2025, the Committee received the requested analysis and voted 19–0 to accept the report and take no further action.

Summary Analysis: Annexation of unincorporated property into the City of Tallahassee is governed by Chapter 171, Florida Statutes, as well as the City-County Interlocal Agreement implementing annexation procedures required by the City-County Comprehensive Plan. Generally, property proposed for annexation must be contiguous to the City, reasonably compact, and may not create an enclave.

Florida law establishes separate processes for voluntary and involuntary annexations. Voluntary annexations are initiated by property owners and, in Leon County, generally require review and approval by both the City and County Commissions pursuant to the Interlocal Agreement. Involuntary annexations are initiated by a municipality and are subject to additional statutory requirements, including, in most instances, approval by affected voters through referendum.

Prior to the Committee's review, the Board of County Commissioners considered whether the Charter could establish an exclusive method for annexation or provide for annexation of unincorporated property within Capital Circle. The Committee received the analysis prepared for the Board to inform their discussion on this issue. As presented to the Committee, state law preempts counties from establishing an exclusive process for involuntary annexation and that any Charter provision establishing an alternative process for voluntary annexation would remain subject to the existing City-County Interlocal Agreement. Following its review, the Committee did not advance an annexation-related Charter amendment to the Board for consideration.

Establishment of an Office of Inspector General

Summary of Committee Action: On November 20, 2025, the Committee voted 20–0 to request an agenda item with analysis related to the establishment of an Office of Inspector General (OIG). On February 5, 2026, the Committee received the requested analysis and considered a proposed Charter amendment to establish an independently funded OIG. The proposed amendment failed by a vote of 4–14, after which the Committee voted 16–2 to accept the report and take no further action on the issue.

Summary Analysis: Offices of Inspector General (OIGs) exist at various levels of government to detect, investigate, and prevent fraud, waste, abuse, mismanagement, and misconduct within government organizations. Common OIG functions include conducting investigations and audits, reviewing contracts, and providing other oversight intended to safeguard public resources. Several Florida local governments have established independent OIGs, with the scope and authority of these offices varying by jurisdiction. In some cases, their responsibilities extend beyond internal County operations to functions such as investigating ethics complaints and providing oversight of municipalities or other governmental entities.

Leon County currently performs many functions commonly associated with an OIG through its existing governmental structure without further cost to taxpayers. The independently elected Clerk of Court and Comptroller (Clerk) serves as the auditor and custodian of County funds, and the Charter requires the Clerk to maintain an internal audit function overseen by an independent Audit Committee. Additional safeguards include the County's Code of Ethics and Standards of Conduct, Fraud, Waste, and Abuse Hotline, personnel complaint and investigation procedures, purchasing and contract review, external financial audits, and referral of potential criminal or state ethics violations to the appropriate agencies. The Board also funded an additional Internal Auditor position in FY 2026 to expand auditing capacity.

Four counties have established independent OIGs in their respective charters which are implemented by ordinance: Miami-Dade, Broward, Jacksonville-Duval, and Palm Beach Counties. While their structures and responsibilities vary, these offices generally perform investigative, auditing, contract oversight, and related functions intended to safeguard public resources. To provide these services, however, the average annual budget for the OIG across these counties is $4.5 million (ranging from $1.5 million to $8.7 million in FY 2024). Furthermore, the number of full-time employees (FTEs) of each OIG ranges from 12 to 42 FTEs among the four counties – which potentially reflects personnel fulfilling functions that potentially could be otherwise provided for within Florida's county government structure. Finally, the majority of complaints (87%) received across the four OIGs required no action or were referred to other governmental agencies – further reinforcing the existing oversight, investigative, and enforcement functions in place at the state level.

Leon County Bill of Rights

Summary of Committee Action: On December 4, 2025, the Committee voted 12–7 for information to be brought back on bill of rights established in other county charters in Florida. On January 22, 2026, the requested analysis was presented to the Committee and a motion to prepare Charter Amendment language for this topic using Miami-Dade and Broward charter examples as a framework failed by a vote of 5–9.

Summary Analysis: The Leon County Charter does not contain a separate Bill of Rights, but the Preamble expresses broad principles of representative, responsive, and locally accountable government. Leon County has also adopted policies and resolutions addressing transparency, public participation, ethical conduct, human rights, and other principles commonly reflected in local bills of rights.

Among Florida charter counties, Broward and Miami-Dade Counties contain extensive Bill of Rights provisions within their charters, while Orange and Pinellas Counties provide broader statements that are further implemented through ordinances, policies, and procedures. Many of the individual rights addressed by these provisions are also protected by the U.S. Constitution, Florida Constitution, or existing federal and state law.

In considering whether to establish additional rights through the Leon County Charter, the Committee discussed the legal and practical implications of creating enforceable Charter provisions. Any locally established rights would remain subject to federal and state law and could not regulate matters preempted to higher levels of government. Similar protections could also be established by ordinance, which would provide greater flexibility for the Board to modify those provisions over time as laws and community needs change.

County/City Consolidation

Summary of Committee Action: On December 4, 2025, the Committee voted 17–2 to receive the County's broader analysis of City-County consolidation that had been requested during a recent meeting of the Board of County Commissioners. On December 18, 2025, the Committee received the requested report, including an overview of prior consolidation efforts, the legal process required for governmental consolidation, and the Board's direction to pursue a nonbinding countywide advisory referendum, or "straw ballot," to gauge voter interest. At that time, the Committee voted 18–0 to accept the report and take no further action.

Summary Analysis: Leon County and the City of Tallahassee have previously considered governmental consolidation through four unsuccessful referenda held in 1971, 1973, 1976, and 1992. At the same time, the County and City have achieved functional consolidation in several areas through joint programs and service arrangements, including planning, economic development, infrastructure, emergency communications, and geographic information systems.

Full governmental consolidation cannot be accomplished solely through an amendment to the Leon County Charter. Article VIII, Section 3 of the Florida Constitution requires the Florida Legislature to enact a special act establishing a consolidation plan, followed by approval of that plan by voters through a binding referendum. Development of a consolidation plan would require substantial consideration of matters including governmental structure and representation, existing debts, employees, constitutional officers, service delivery, and taxing authority.

In December 2025, the Board of County Commissioners determined that a nonbinding countywide straw ballot would provide an appropriate first step to gauge public interest before undertaking the extensive process necessary to develop a formal consolidation plan. Because the Board had already established a separate process for further consideration of consolidation, and because full governmental consolidation could not be accomplished through the Leon County Charter alone, the Committee did not pursue development of a Charter Amendment on this issue.

Community Values of Diversity, Equity and Inclusion, and Local Business Preference

Summary of Committee Action: On January 8, 2026, the Committee voted 13–2 to request analysis of potential Charter language recognizing diversity, equity, and inclusion (DEI) and local business preference as community values. On January 22, 2026, the Committee received the requested analysis and voted 13–0 to accept the report and take no further action.

Summary Analysis: The Leon County Charter does not identify specific policy priorities or contain individual community value statements. Rather, its Preamble establishes broad principles that County government should be representative of the people of the County and provide a responsive and efficient form of government. The County has historically addressed poverty, inequities, and other community needs through policies, programs, services, procurement practices, and funding decisions implemented under the Board's existing authority and consistent with applicable state and federal law.

The Committee considered whether the Charter should be amended to expressly recognize DEI and local business preference as community values. With respect to DEI, the Committee's analysis identified ongoing state and federal actions seeking to restrict or prohibit certain DEI-related policies, programs, and funding practices. The Committee was also advised of potential fiscal consequences set forth under federal grant funding requirements.

More broadly, incorporating specific policy priorities into the Charter could limit the County's flexibility to respond to changes in state and federal law and to modify policies and programs as community needs evolve. Such priorities can instead be addressed through the Board's existing policymaking, strategic planning, budgetary, and administrative authority without amending the Charter.

Editor's note(s)—Effective July 1, 2021, Section 3.4 of the Charter has been rendered void pursuant to Chapter 2021-16, Laws of Florida.

ARTICLE IV. POWERS RESERVED TO THE PEOPLE: INITIATIVE AND RECALL

Sec. 4.1. Citizen initiative.

Sec. 4.2. Recall.

Sec. 4.1. Citizen initiative.

(1) Right to Initiate. The electors of Leon County shall have the right to initiate County ordinances in order to establish new ordinances and to amend or repeal existing ordinances, not in conflict with the Florida Constitution, general law or this Charter, upon petition signed by at least ten percent (10%) of the total number of electors qualified to vote in the County reflecting ten percent (10%) of the total number of electors qualified to vote within each of the five (5) commission districts. The total number of electors qualified shall mean the total number of electors qualified to vote in the last preceding general election.

(2) Procedure for Petition. The sponsor of an initiative shall, prior to obtaining any signatures, submit the text of a proposed ordinance to the Supervisor of Elections, with the proposed ballot summary and the form on which signatures will be affixed and obtain a dated receipt therefor. Any such ordinances shall embrace but one (1) subject and matter directly connected therewith. The sponsor shall cause a notice of such submission to be published within fourteen (14) days thereof in a newspaper of general circulation in the County. The allowable period for obtaining signatures on the petition shall be completed not later than one (1) year after initial receipt of the petition by the Supervisor of Elections. The sponsor shall comply with all requirements of general law for political committees, and shall file quarterly reports with the Supervisor of Elections stating, to the best of the sponsor's information and belief, the number of signatures procured. The time and form of such reports may be prescribed by ordinance. When a sufficient number of signatures is obtained, the sponsor shall thereupon submit signed and dated forms to the Supervisor of Elections, and upon submission, shall pay all fees required by general law. The Supervisor of Elections shall, within sixty (60) days after submission of signatures, verify the signatures thereon, or specify a reason for the invalidity of each rejected signature, if the petition is rejected for insufficiency of the number of valid signatures. If the petition is rejected for insufficiency of the number of signatures, the sponsor shall have an additional thirty (30) days within which to submit additional signatures for verification. The Supervisor of Elections shall, within thirty (30) days of submission of additional signatures, verify the additional signatures. In the event sufficient signatures are still not acquired, the Supervisor of Elections shall declare the petition null and void and none of the signatures may be carried over onto another identical or similar petition.

(3) Consideration by Board of County Commissioners. Within sixty (60) days after the requisite number of signatures has been verified by the Supervisor of Elections and reported to the Board of County Commissioners, the Board of County Commissioners shall give notice and hold public hearing(s) as required by general law on the proposed ordinance and vote on it. If the Board fails to enact the proposed ordinance it shall, by resolution, call a referendum on the question of the adoption of the proposed ordinance to be held at the next general election occurring at least forty-five (45) days after the adoption of such resolution. If the question of the adoption of the proposed ordinance is approved by a majority of those registered electors voting on the question, the proposed ordinance shall be declared, by resolution of the Board of County Commissioners, to be enacted and shall become effective on the date specified in the ordinance, or if not so specified, on January 1 of the succeeding year. The Board of County Commissioners shall not amend or repeal an ordinance adopted by initiative prior to the next succeeding general election, without the approval of a majority of the electors voting at a referendum called for that purpose.

Opening Remarks & Committee Charge – Vincent S. Long, County Administrator

County Administrator Vince Long convened the inaugural meeting of the Citizen Charter Review Committee, welcoming members and expressing appreciation for their willingness to serve. He thanked the members on behalf of the Board of County Commissioners, county staff, and the community, emphasizing that their contributions are essential to maintaining an effective and representative home-rule government.

He provided an overview of the Charter Review process, noting that the Committee convenes once every eight years to review the Leon County Charter, referred to as the "home rule constitution", and make recommendations to the Board of County Commissioners. Members will have 120 days to conduct their review and may propose amendments or determine that no changes are necessary. The Board granted broad latitude for discussion, identifying only one specific issue requiring formal review, which will be addressed later in the process.

Committee Introductions:

County Administrator Long stated that county staff's role is to fully support the Committee. He introduced key members of the staff resource team:

- Chasity O'Steen, County Attorney
- Ken Morris, Assistant County Administrator
- Nicki Hatch, Assistant to the County Administrator for Legislative and Strategic Initiatives and primary staff liaison
- Cameron Williams, Management Analyst

He emphasized that the process will be methodical and transparent, with members reviewing every article and section of the Charter to ensure that it continues to reflect the needs and preferences of the community.

Each member of the Committee introduced themselves and shared their background and connection to Leon County.

Commissioner Proctor welcomed the Committee and spoke to their diversity.

Commissioner Minor thanked everyone for being present and for their public service.

Overview of Charter Government:

County Administrator Vince Long provided an overview presentation on the history, purpose, and framework of charter county government in Florida. County Administrator Long explained that a county charter functions as a home rule constitution, the local governing document that defines the framework, authority, and structure of county government. It is a living document, subject to amendment only by the local electorate.

The concept of charter county government, he said, arises from the principle that one size does not fit all in local governance. No two Florida counties are identical, and each faces unique local issues and needs. He noted that while all counties must fulfill the same state-mandated responsibilities, charters allow local governments to tailor their organization and powers to fit their communities.

County Administrator Long provided an overview of Florida History related to the operation of local governments under "Dillon's Rule" prior to the 1968 Constitutional Revision. County Administrator Long's overview continued with how the 1968 Constitutional Revision granted home rule authority to local governments by allowing counties to adopt charters by local referendum to exercise greater autonomy and flexibility in addressing community-specific issues. Since that time, 20 of Florida's 67 counties have adopted charters, representing roughly 75–80 percent of the state's population.

Leon County's Charter:

County Administrator Long noted that Leon County adopted its charter in 2002, describing it as a "starter charter." This approach, he said, is common among first-time charter counties and typically codifies the existing structure of government at the time of adoption, with the understanding that amendments will occur as the community evolves.

Charter Amendment Process:

Mr. Long outlined the three mechanisms through which a county charter may be amended. He emphasized that any proposed amendment must be approved by a majority vote of the local electorate at a general election.

1. Citizen Petition:

- Requires signatures from 10% of registered voters countywide, including 10% from each County Commission district.
- May be initiated at any time, provided the proposed amendment appears on a general election ballot.
- This method has never been utilized in Leon County.

2. County Commission Action:
   - Requires a majority plus one vote of the Board of County Commissioners.
   - The Board may propose amendments at any time.
   - This method has never been utilized.
3. Citizen Charter Review Committee:
   - As established in the Leon County Charter, this citizen committee convenes every eight years to review and recommend Charter amendments to the Board of County Commissioners.

Past Citizen Charter Review Committees:

Mr. Long provided a brief history of the previous Citizen Charter Review Committees convened since the charter's adoption in 2002.

2010 Citizen Charter Review Committee:

The 2010 Committee proposed seven amendments to the Board of County Commissioners.

1. Tourism Development Structure
2. Minimum Countywide Environmental Standards.
3. Employment of the County Administrator
4. Non-Interference Policy
5. Campaign Contributions
6. Petition Thresholds
7. Future Citizen Charter Review Committee Authority

Of the seven proposals, the Board advanced six to the ballot, excluding the "Future Citizen Charter Review Committee Authority" proposal. Five of the six proposed amendments were approved by voters; the "Petition Thresholds" amendment was not adopted.

2018 Citizen Charter Review Committee:

The 2018 Committee advanced two amendments to the Board:

1. Adoption of a Code of Ethics by Ordinance

2. Employment of the County Attorney

Of the two proposals, the Board advanced the "Adoption of a Code of Ethics by Ordinance" amendment to the ballot which was approved by voters. The "Employment of the County Attorney" was not advanced by the Board as a proposed Charter Amendment but instead was effectuated through the adoption of a County Ordinance.

County Administrator Long concluded that these prior reviews demonstrate the evolution of the County Charter and the community's ability to make meaningful, measured changes through the structured review process.

Charter Authority, Limitations, and Board Direction:

County Administrator Long concluded his overview by summarizing what county charters may and may not do, as well as outlining the specific direction provided by the Board of County Commissioners for this Citizen Charter Review Committee cycle.

Board Direction to the 2025/2026 Citizen Charter Review Committee:

County Administrator Long reminded the Committee that the Board of County Commissioners had not imposed any limits on the group's scope of review, granting broad latitude to examine all aspects of the charter. He stated that the Board identified one specific issue for the committee's objective consideration:

- Whether to recommend an amendment providing that county ordinances prevail in cases of conflict with municipal ordinances, except where restricted by state law.

This topic will appear as a formally agendaed discussion item later in the review process, with full staff analysis and legal guidance.

Overview of Florida's Open Government Laws - Chasity O'Steen, County Attorney

County Attorney Chasity O'Steen briefed the Committee on Florida's Open Government Laws, including the Sunshine Law, Public Records, and Code of Ethics and its application to members of the Citizen Charter Review Committee, as summarized below. County Attorney O'Steen also provided guidance related to public statements made by CCRC members.

- Sunshine Law: Requires that all public meetings be noticed, are open and accessible to the public and minutes are kept. A meeting is defined as two or more members of the same decision making body talking about substantive matters that may come before the Committee.
- Public Records Law: All written communication made or received related to the official business of the CCRC are considered public record and should be retained appropriately.
- Florida Code of Ethics: Protects against any conflict of interest and establishes standards for the conduct in situations where conflicts may exist which applies to CCRC members as Board Appointed Committee Members.

Committee Bylaws & Committee Schedule - Nicki Hatch

Mrs. Nicki Hatch provided an overview of the Citizen Charter Review Committee Bylaws as adopted by the Board of County Commissioners to guide the Committee's deliberations and ensure orderly and transparent proceedings. The overview summarized various sections of the Bylaws including quorum and voting requirements, public comment protocols, and the election and role of the Chair and Vice Chair:

The motion passed 19 – 0.

Process and Schedule Overview: Presenter - Ken Morris, Assistant County Administrator

Mr. Ken Morris provided an overview of the Committee's process and timeline, including the three-phase structure for the Committee's deliberations to ensure a methodical and transparent process.

Meeting Structure and Workflow:

1. Issue/Discussion Meetings (Step 1) – Members can request any idea for a proposed charter amendment to be placed on the agenda for formal consideration by the Committee. If approved by a simple majority vote of the Committee, staff will prepare an analysis of the proposal to be placed on the Committee's agenda for consideration.

2. Decision Meetings (Step 2) – If approved by a simple majority vote of the Committee, the Committee can request staff to prepare proposed charter amendment language for Committee consideration.
3. Public Hearings (Step 3) – If approved by a simple majority vote of the Committee, the Committee can advance proposed charter amendment language to Public Hearing for Committee consideration. Upon conclusion of the public hearings, the Committee can, upon approval by a simple majority vote, recommend the proposed charter amendment language to the Board of County Commissioners.

Mr. Morris reported that the Committee is scheduled to complete its work by February 19, with an interim report to be presented to the Board of County Commissioners in March. If the Committee advances proposed charter amendments, public hearings will be scheduled in June and July 2026.

Public Comment:

Chair Lindley opened the floor for public comment.

Staff noted that no speaker cards had been submitted prior to the meeting. Chair Lindley invited any members of the public present to speak; no speakers came forward.

Board Issue for Committee Consideration - Chasity O'Steen & Ken Morris

Agenda Item A: Leon County Ordinances in Relation to Municipal Ordinances

County Attorney O'Steen and Assistant County Administrator Ken Morris introduced and provided a brief overview of the item.

Mr. Jones requested clarification regarding the County's authority related to street renaming compared to street maintenance.

County Attorney O'Steen confirmed that street naming and street maintenance are related, but they're separate jurisdictional issues. The authority to name or rename a road is distinct from the authority to maintain or repair it. She noted they may fall under different statutory and operational frameworks.

Committee discussion followed.

Barry Wilcox moved, seconded by Anita Favors, for Option #2 and to bring back examples and possible solutions to conflict points brought up in this meeting.

Mrs. Favors asked if it could be refined slightly so we're not asking staff to review everything under the sun, but to focus on specific areas of known or likely conflict. Maybe prioritize some examples that have come up today, or ones staff is already aware of, and bring those back with possible solutions.

Mr. Wilcox agreed to amend the motion accordingly, to direct staff to identify existing or recurring points of conflict between County and City ordinances, and provide examples and possible solutions for discussion at a later meeting.

Barry Wilcox moved, seconded by Anita Favors for Option #2 and to bring back examples and possible solutions to conflict points brought up in this meeting. During the next meeting, the committee may discuss other topics.

The motion carried 19 – 0 with Committee Members William Smith and Sean Pittman not present.

Board Issue for Committee Consideration - Ken Morris

Agenda Item A: Additional Analysis on Leon County Ordinances in Relation to Municipal Ordinances

Assistant County Administrator Ken Morris introduced the item with a summary of the additional information and analysis requested by the Committee, including examples of existing or potential regulatory conflicts from differing County and City ordinances.

- Sean Pittman arrived at this juncture of the meeting.

Chair Lindley outlined the four options presented to the Committee.

Ryan Ray addressed the topic of consolidation, observing that there is significant disagreement among committee members on the issue. He urged the group to proceed cautiously and avoid taking actions that could further erode home rule, which he remarked has already been under threat in recent years.

Ryan Ray moved for approval of Option #1, but it died for lack of second.

County Attorney O'Steen commented that, at their most recent meeting, the Board of County Commissioners directed county staff to prepare an analysis outlining the pros and cons of consolidation. She also noted that any consolidation effort would require action by the Florida Legislature, meaning it is not an issue this committee needs to consider for the 2026 ballot.

Slaton Murray requested clarification on the timeline for implementing an amendment.

Assistant County Administrator Ken Morris responded that the process begins with this committee reviewing the draft charter amendment, making any changes or recommendations, and then reporting it back to the Board of County Commissioners. After that, there will be public hearings in the summer prior to the final language being submitted to the Board of County Commissioners for consideration. Upon Board approval, the proposed charter amendment would be submitted to the Supervisor of Elections for placement on the ballot.

Anita Favors inquired about addressing issues without using a charter amendment.

County Attorney O'Steen responded that both the City and County can address issues without a charter amendment if they so choose.

Sean Pittman mentioned the issue of annexation, and whether the county should have some say in how that works.

County Attorney O'Steen stated that annexation is heavily dictated by state law, but there are some areas of flexibility.

Sean Pittman moved, seconded by Howard Kessler, to request additional information regarding annexation, including any applicable state preemption, and to examine the statutory processes related to annexation and the flexibility the County has in addressing annexation.

The motion carried 20 – 0 with Committee Member Temple Robinson not present.

Max Herrle moved, seconded by Joey Davis, to accept the report and have information brought back on solutions outside of the Charter to address the street renaming/addressing issue.

Bruce Strouble, Jr. offered a friendly amendment to invite the City for insight.

Anita Favors questioned how amendments will be presented on the ballot.

County Administrator Long responded that any proposed amendments, as approved by the Board of County Commissioners, will appear individually on the ballot.

Max Herrle moved, seconded by Joey Davis, for Option #4: Committee Direction to accept the report and have staff bring back information to resolve street renaming/addressing outside of the Charter with a friendly amendment, as introduced by Bruce Strouble, Jr., to invite City to provide insight.

The motion carried 20 – 0 with Committee Member Temple Robinson not present.

Max Herrle introduced the concept of consolidated law enforcement in the County.

Max Herrle moved, seconded by Slaton Murray, to have the Leon County Sheriff's Office (LCSO) present information about the potential consolidation of LCSO and the Tallahassee Police Department.

The motion failed 14 – 6 with Joey Davis, Liz Ellis, Max Herrle, Bruce Strouble Jr., Barry Wilcox, and Vice Chairman Chauncy Haynes in favor of the motion. Committee Member Temple Robinson was not present.

Committee Discussion on Proposed Charter Amendments

Nicki Hatch provided a brief outline of the two-step process for Committee's proposal and consideration of charter amendment proposals. First, members will have the opportunity to propose a broad concept to be added to the list of proposals on screen. Once all proposals are listed, the proposing member will have the opportunity to briefly explain their proposal and answer any questions. Following discussion, the Committee will take a vote on whether to have staff bring back additional analysis on the proposed concept.

Nicki Hatch explained that the on-screen list has been prepopulated with proposals raised by members at the previous CCRC meeting (November 6th) to be introduced and considered as part of the two-step process. The pre-populated list of proposals raised during the November 6, 2025, CCRC meeting include:

1. Establishment of an Office of Inspector General, Proposed by Howard Kessler
2. Voting Threshold to Select or Terminate the County Administrator, Proposed by Max Herrle
3. County Commission Compensation, Proposed by Max Herrle
4. Funding Mechanism for Affordable Housing, Proposed by Max Herrle
5. Funding Mechanism for Fire Services, Proposed by Max Herrle
6. Leon County Bill of Rights, Proposed by Max Herrle

Chair Lindley welcomed members to offer additional charter amendment proposals to be added to the list for consideration by the Committee.

The following proposal was added to the list for CCRC consideration:

7. Prioritization of Food Security, Proposed by Bruce Strouble, Jr.

The following proposals were explained for CCRC consideration:

1.) Establishment of an Office of Inspector General

Howard Kessler explained that his proposed charter amendment would create an independent Office of Inspector General to strengthen oversight, avoid conflicts of interest, and align Leon County's practices with national Inspector General standards. His proposal would shift ethics and compliance functions away from the County Administrator, provide separate legal counsel, require a supermajority for removal of the Inspector General, and extend oversight authority to Blueprint-related entities.

Ryan Ray inquired about how the proposed Office of Inspector General would interact with the City's existing oversight structures.

William Smith inquired about the current set up.

County Attorney O'Steen explained the County Attorney's role in enforcing the Code of Ethics, noting that general enforcement is carried out through the Human Resources Director in coordination with the County Attorney's Office.

Darryl Jones moved, seconded by Sean Pittman, for an agenda item to bring back an analysis for establishing an Office of Inspector General.

The motion carried 20 – 0 with Committee Member Temple Robinson not present.

2.) Voting Threshold to Select or Terminate the County Administrator

Max Herrle explained that his proposal would revise the Charter's current two-step process for selecting or removing the County Administrator by lowering the vote threshold from a majority-plus-one Commissioners to a simple majority. He noted that the proposal would retain the requirement of a second vote at a subsequent meeting, and that his intent was to align the process more closely with practices used in other charter counties.

Darryl Jones discussed how school boards across the state function and how having a higher threshold makes the process less arbitrary.

Vice Chairman Haynes requested historical context on the matter and commented that if such requirements were revised for the County Administrator, it should likewise apply to the County Attorney.

Vice Chairman Haynes moved, seconded by Joey Davis, to extend the meeting to 2:00 p.m.

The motion failed 18 – 2 with Vice Chairman Haynes and Joey Davis in favor of the motion. Committee Member Temple Robinson was not present.

County Attorney O'Steen clarified that the voting threshold to select or terminate the County Attorney is not in the Charter, but in County Ordinance.

Max Herrle moved, seconded by Joey Davis, for an agenda item to brought back on a charter amendment lowering the threshold to select or terminate the County Administrator.

The motion failed 17-3 with Joey Davis, Max Herrle, and Jarrett Terry in favor of the motion. Committee Member Temple Robinson was not present.

Darryl Jones stated the concept would codify community values regarding government transparency, public participation, and citizen protections.
County Attorney O'Steen provided an explanation of the legal process and implications associated with adopting such a provision.

Joey Davis noted that these sorts of provisions are generally meant to fill gaps in existing regulations.

Max Herrle moved, seconded by Darryl Jones, for information to be brought back on bill of rights established in other county charters in Florida.

The motion carried 12 – 7 with Committee Members Linda Bond Edwards, Liz Ellis, Henry Lewis, III, Ryan Ray, Shamarial Roberson, William Smith, and Chair Mary Ann Lindley in opposition. Committee Members Slaton Murray and Sean Pittman were not present.

8.) Community Restoration for Historic Harm

Bruce Strouble, Jr., introduced a proposed charter amendment aimed at addressing historic inequities in housing, environmental exposure, and neighborhood investment. The initiative would build on the Board of County Commissioners' February 2024 apology for harmful policies made in the past and would establish structural authority for programs to mitigate documented historic harms. He also provided a handout to be electronically distributed to the CCRC regarding the topic.

Heidi Otway asked for specific examples of historic harms that the proposal seeks to address.

Bruce Strouble, Jr., referenced urban renewal efforts, including the displacement of residents from Smokey Hollow. He noted that the intent is to identify what harm has been done, what the causes of those harms were, and what can be done to mitigate the issues.

Katina Tuggerson asked whether the proposal could also be adapted to address harms experienced by displaced businesses.

Bruce Strouble moved, seconded by Temple Robinson, for analysis on a proposed charter amendment to build on the Board of County Commissioners' February 2024 apology for harmful policies and establish structural authority for programs to mitigate documented historic harms.

The motion carried to 19 – 0 with Committee Members Slaton Murray and Sean Pittman not present.

12.) Funding Mechanism to Expand Primary Healthcare Access to Low-Income Residents

Temple Robinson introduced expanding access to primary care services for low-income residents.

Temple Robinson moved, seconded by Henry Lewis, III, for an item exploring funding mechanisms to expand access to primary healthcare services for low-income residents.

The motion carried 19 – 0 with Committee Members Slaton Murray and Sean Pittman not present.

5.) Funding Mechanism for Fire Services

Max Herrle proposed examining alternative funding mechanisms for fire services amid current city-county disagreements over fire services assessments.

County Administrator Long provided an overview on fire services and noted that this is actively being examined by staff.

Henry Lewis, III, recalled challenges in the 1980s when the City and County were unable to reach agreement on fire services and highlighted how a resolution was ultimately achieved.

Joey Davis recommended tailoring the proposal to focus on a specific area of need.

Max Herrle confirmed that the intent is to examine a fire services district.

County Administrator Long added that establishing such a district may require legislative approval.

Howard Kessler asked for clarification on what the CCRC could include as a charter amendment, listing an example of potentially setting millage rates through the Charter.

County Administrator Long clarified certain budgetary limitations that exist, but noted that it is very context specific and would be addressed further in items brought back.

Max Herrle moved, seconded by Joey Davis, to table the proposal for a charter amendment related to funding mechanism for fire services.

The motion carried 19 – 0 with Committee Members Slaton Murray and Sean Pittman not present.

Agenda Item #1: Status Report on Annexation Procedures and Processes

County Attorney O'Steen introduced this item which provides information and analysis on annexation processes and procedures, as requested by the Committee at the November 20, 2025, meeting.

Max Herrle asked for an explanation on the difference between voluntary and involuntary annexation.

County Attorney O'Steen explain that a voluntary annexation occurs when property owners petition a municipality to be annexed, triggering county review and an opportunity to object, while an involuntary annexation is initiated by the municipality without a request from the affected property owners.

Ryan Ray moved, seconded by Henry Lewis, III, for Option #1: Accept status report and take no further action.

The motion carried 19 – 0 with Committee Members Slaton Murray and Sean Pittman not present.

Agenda Item #2: Additional Information Regarding Separate Jurisdictional Standards for Street Renaming

County Administrator Long introduced this item. He stated as requested at its November 20, 2025 meeting, this item provides additional information to unify the street renaming process outside of a charter amendment.

Ryan Ray moved, seconded by William Smith, for Option #1: Accept report and table this issue.

The motion carried 18 – 1 with Vice Chairman Chauncy Haynes in opposition. Committee Members Slaton Murray and Sean Pittman were not present.

Anita Favors recommended that the City and County Commissions work collaboratively to establish greater uniformity in street renaming practices, with input from law enforcement, fire, and emergency services.

Anita Favors moved, seconded by Ryan Ray, to provide a policy recommendation to the County and City Commissions encouraging the two entities to consider alignment of street renaming policies to prevent public safety and emergency services-related issues due to lack of uniformity among street names.

The motion carried 19 – 0 with Committee Members Slaton Murray and Sean Pittman not present.

A draft policy recommendation will be brought back to the Committee for consideration in February.

General Business:

Item #1: Status Report on City-County Consolidation in Florida

Assistant County Administrator Ken Morris introduced the item, noting that the remaining three items would be presented by Shington Lamy and Abby Thomas, who can speak on human services trends, community needs, the CHSP process, and County and City investments. Ken Morris stated that the human services items were grouped together to provide the Committee with a comprehensive understanding of service delivery, gaps, and coordination between public and nonprofit agencies. He also noted that after discussion of the agenda items, there will be another opportunity for Committee members to offer additional Charter amendment concepts for future consideration.

Ken Morris explained that in November the Board of County Commissioners requested a status report on City and County consolidation, including how the process would work and general pros and cons. That item was prepared for the Board's December 9 meeting. At the Committee's prior meeting, members requested that the same materials be presented for review and discussion. Therefore, the Board agenda materials were included in the Committee's packet. He provided an overview of the consolidation process, noting that consolidation would require development of a comprehensive consolidation plan, adoption by the Legislature through a special act, and approval by voters via referendum. He explained that a consolidation plan would need to address numerous issues including governance structure, staffing, salaries, contracts, unions, retirement benefits, and debt. On December 9, the Board directed staff to bring back draft language for a non-binding straw ballot question for the November 2026 General Election to gauge community interest in consolidation. Based on the Board's action, he stated that no action by the Committee was recommended at this time, but staff welcomed feedback and questions.

Sean Pittman asked whether the County considered potential savings for the community which would be important in drafting ballot language.

Ken Morris clarified that the item focused on the consolidation process, and that any cost or savings analysis would occur during development of a consolidation plan. He further clarified that this is a non-binding straw ballot intended to assess public interest.

Barry Wilcox asked for clarification regarding next steps should the straw ballot indicate support for consolidation.

Ken Morris explained that following a favorable vote, the County Commission would need to determine whether to proceed jointly with the City or independently engage the Legislative Delegation. Mr. Morris noted that a fully executed consolidation could take several years as it requires the development of a consolidation plan, approval by the Legislature, approval by voters, and a transition period.

Ryan Ray commented that, given current community needs and broader governance challenges, consolidation was not advisable at this time. He expressed concerns about limiting local capacity and involving the Legislature in local governance decisions.

Max Herrle inquired about the items that will come back to the Board regarding consolidation. He also asked about the Board's voting threshold for placing this topic on the ballot.

Ken Morris responded that an item discussing draft language for the ballot will be presented to the Board in the spring. A simple majority vote of the Board is needed to place the straw ballot question on the ballot.

Barry Wilcox commented on the concept of functional consolidation. He asked whether functional consolidation between the City and County had been examined to identify duplicative efforts and inquired about the process for evaluating such consolidation.

Ken Morris clarified that functional consolidation can be implemented through an interlocal agreement between the City and the County.

Vice Chairman Chauncy Haynes moved, seconded by Ryan Ray, for Option #1: Accept the report and take no further action.

The motion carried 18 – 0 with Committee Members Anita Favors, Slaton Murray and William Smith not present.

Item #2: Food Insecurity Provisions

Assistant County Administrator Shington Lamy introduced the item, noting that Leon County established a department dedicated to food security efforts in 2022. He also noted that no other county charters in Florida include the specific issue of food insecurity. Mr. Lamy outlined options for the Committee, including encouraging the Board to continue its commitment to reducing food insecurity through a recommendation in the Committee's final report, or moving forward with a Charter amendment.

Darryl Jones stated that food security has long been a County priority and remarked that a government's values are reflected in how it allocates funding. He expressed that codifying these values in the Charter could protect them from changes resulting from elections or political shifts.

Linda Bond Edwards expressed concern regarding the apparent disconnect between information presented by staff and testimony provided by public speakers. She noted that despite existing efforts, food insecurity persists, suggesting that the overall structure may require further evaluation.

Shington Lamy stated that the County does not have authority to mandate actions by entities such as Leon County Schools and that a Charter amendment would replicate authority that the County already has.

County Attorney O'Steen directed the Committee's attention to Article IX, Section 4 of the Florida Constitution, noting that counties lack authority over school districts. She explained that prior County actions, including mandatory mask requirements, explicitly excluded schools due to this limitation. She further discussed Charter provisions related to funding, noting that while some charters require funding for specific purposes, they typically avoid prescribing exact dollar amounts and instead leave discretion to the governing board. She also explained that proposed charter amendments in other jurisdictions to limit a county's revenue generation have been preempted by Chapters 129 and 200, Florida Statutes, and that there is no case law supporting Charter-mandated funding.

Bruce Strouble, Jr., provided a separate handout to the Committee and commended the efforts of the County's Office of Human Services and Community Partnerships. He emphasized that food insecurity increased significantly during the COVID-19 pandemic, particularly among vulnerable populations. He cited examples of bodies created by other jurisdictions to address this issue, including New York City's Offices of Food Policy and Urban Agriculture as well as Philadelphia's Office of Sustainability.

Bruce Strouble, Jr., moved, seconded by Heidi Otway, to direct staff to bring back charter language establishing a County duty for food access and food system resilience, creating an office of food systems under the executive branch to monitor efforts, and requiring a countywide food systems plan, annual reporting, countywide minimum standards, and that an ordinance be made within 12 months of a charter amendment being passed.

The motion was not voted on.

Shamarial Roberson raised concerns regarding fiscal impacts, adjacent programs, and federal regulations. She questioned how a Charter amendment would address these complexities and suggested a policy-based approach focused on measurable outcomes, a countywide plan, and a coordinating committee.

Katrina Tuggerson noted the involvement of the Capital City Chamber of Commerce in recent food system initiatives and referenced ongoing coordination with County staff to secure grants and address service gaps.

Heidi Otway highlighted that beginning in October 2026, Florida will assume responsibility for SNAP administration and urged prioritization of food security in advance of these changes.

Chair Lindley asked whether a policy recommendation would allow for a more timely response.

Nicki Hatch stated that the March 2026 County Commission meeting would include all proposals and policy recommendations for the Board's consideration.

Darryl Jones distinguished between Charter language and strategic planning, emphasizing that Charter provisions should empower rather than constrain, and cautioned against overly prescriptive language that could affect voter support.

Vice Chairman Chauncy Haynes made a substitute motion, seconded by Liz Ellis, for Option #2: Direct staff to include a recommendation encouraging Leon County to continue its long-standing commitment to reduce food insecurity in the community as part of the Citizen Charter Review Committee report.

The motion failed 11 – 7 with Chair Mary Ann Lindley, Vice Chairman Chauncy Haynes, Linda Bond Edwards, Liz Ellis, Heidi Otway, Shamarial Roberson and Barry Wilcox in favor of the motion. Committee Members Anita Favors, Slaton Murray and William Smith were not present.

Bruce Strouble, Jr., stated that any proposed structure would be subject to annual appropriation and would establish minimum standards rather than fixed funding amounts.

Darryl Jones made a substitute motion, seconded by Jarrett Terry, for Option #3: Direct staff to draft a proposed charter amendment on food insecurity as determined by the Citizen Charter Review Committee.

The motion carried 18 – 0 with Committee Members Anita Favors, Slaton Murray and William Smith not present.

Max Herrle asked whether items not yet discussed could be modified based on stakeholder input and whether attachments could be submitted.

Nicki Hatch confirmed that stakeholders may submit materials through public comment. She explained that they would take up remaining items during the Jan 8, 2026 Committee meeting.

Committee Discussion on Proposed Charter Amendments
(Final Opportunity for Introduction of New Proposals)

Nicki Hatch shared that this would be the final opportunity for the introduction of new proposals for charter amendments. She provided a recap of the two-step process to introduce charter amendment proposals. Members first presented broad concepts to be added to the list of proposals. Once listed, proposing members had the opportunity to briefly explain their proposal and answer any questions before the committee vote on whether to have staff bring back additional analysis on the proposal. She also noted that if a member has more than one idea, then the order in which all of the ideas are considered will be handled as it has been previously with each member explaining one idea at a time in a round-robin fashion.

Chair Lindley welcomed members to offer additional charter amendment proposals to be added to the list for consideration by the Committee.

The list of proposals previously raised during the CCRC's 2025 meetings include:

1. Establishment of an Office of Inspector General, Proposed by Howard Kessler.
    a. Advanced for analysis at the November 20, 2025 meeting.

    a. Advanced for analysis at the December 4, 2025 meeting.
    b. Advanced to Decision Agenda meeting (to consider ballot language) at January 8, 2026 meeting.

The following proposals were added to the list for CCRC consideration during the meeting:

11. Joint City-County Land Development Code, Proposed by Barry Wilcox.
12. Recognizing Community Values of Diversity, Equity and Inclusion, and Local Business Preference, Proposed by Darryl Jones.

The following proposals were explained for CCRC consideration:

11.) Joint City-County Land Development Code

Barry Wilcox proposed exploring a joint planning approach between the City and County to avoid jurisdiction shopping, including the feasibility of a unified land development code. He explained that such an approach could reduce duplication, allow the use of a single consultant, and serve as a form of functional consolidation rather than full governmental consolidation. Mr. Wilcox clarified that while a joint code could provide uniform rules countywide, it would still allow for different standards in urban and rural areas within the same framework. He further noted that building departments could remain autonomous while sharing a common guiding document. Mr. Wilcox requested an analysis to determine whether this concept would be appropriate for Charter consideration or better addressed through intergovernmental action.

Katrina Tuggerson questioned the necessity for the proposal and emphasized the importance of ensuring equity considerations within land development codes, noting concerns that certain developers could receive preferential treatment under existing plans.

Ryan Ray commented that residents currently choose to live in either the City or County with the understanding that each jurisdiction has different rules and cautioned against complicating that distinction.

Max Herrle provided contextual clarification, distinguishing between comprehensive plans as broad policy documents and land development codes as more detailed regulatory tools. He also inquired whether changes to a joint land development code would require ratification at joint City–County public meetings and questioned whether the issue rose to the level of a Charter amendment.

Henry Lewis raised concerns that the proposal could impose a higher burden on certain groups and later asked for clarification regarding the potential impact on impact fees.

County Administrator Long provided context, explaining the existing hierarchy of land-use regulation, including state requirements, the joint comprehensive plan, and separate land development codes. He noted that City and County codes are becoming more closely aligned but explained that full alignment would require extensive review of jurisdiction-specific details such as setbacks, lighting, and statutory timeframes imposed by the State Legislature. He also indicated that such an approach could require consideration of a joint Development Review Committee.

Anita Favors asked whether the intent was to create a single comprehensive document governing all land development matters.

Barry Wilcox clarified that impact fees could remain separate for the City and County and noted that Leon County's fees are relatively low compared to other Florida jurisdictions. He also clarified governance issues related to comprehensive plan amendments and explained that both governments already must approve certain text changes.

Barry Wilcox moved, seconded by Howard Kessler, to request an item to be brought back with analysis to determine whether a joint City-County land development code would be appropriate for Charter consideration.

The motion failed 7 – 8 with Vice Chairman Chauncy Haynes, Anita Favors, Max Herrle, Darryl Jones, Henry Lewis, III, Ryan Ray, Shamarial Roberson and Temple Robinson in opposition. Committee Members Joey Davis, Linda Bond Edwards, Liz Ellis, Slaton Murray, Sean Pittman and William Smith were not present.

12.) Recognizing Community Values of Diversity, Equity and Inclusion, and Local Business Preference

Darryl Jones proposed developing Charter language recognizing community values such as diversity, equity, inclusion, and local business preference. He referenced practices in other communities and emphasized that such values remain important to Leon County despite shifting political environments. Mr. Jones clarified that the request was for staff analysis of potential language reflecting community values, not a directive that would conflict with state law.

Temple Robinson inquired about potential ramifications related to state and federal funding.

County Attorney O'Steen advised that the proposal, as described, would focus on values-based language rather than enforceable mandates and therefore would not necessarily create state law preemption issues.

Darryl Jones moved, seconded by Ryan Ray, to direct staff to bring back an analysis of potential charter language recognizing diversity, equity, and inclusion and local preference as community values for the Committee's consideration.

The motion carried 13 – 2 with Committee Members Heidi Otway and Shamarial Roberson in opposition. Committee Members Joey Davis, Linda Bond Edwards, Liz Ellis, Slaton Murray, Sean Pittman and William Smith were not present.

Item #1: Funding Mechanisms for Affordable Housing

Assistant County Administrator Shington Lamy delivered a presentation outlining funding mechanisms for affordable housing. The presentation detailed a wide variety of potential funding sources and discussed options to increase County investment in affordable housing, including the use and expansion of the existing Housing Trust Fund.

Henry Lewis III thanked the Board for its ongoing efforts related to affordable housing. He provided additional context regarding affordable housing needs, discussed the relationship between market-rate and affordable housing, and encouraged continued County investment in this area.

Henry Lewis, III, moved, seconded by Vice Chairman Chauncy Haynes, for Option #2: Direct staff to include a recommendation encouraging Leon County to continue its long-standing commitment to increasing and preserving the stock of affordable housing in the community as part of the Citizen Charter Review Committee report.

The motion was not voted on.

Bruce Strouble, Jr., asked how many of the proposed units would be considered affordable for very low-income residents and whether that data is tracked.

Shington Lamy responded that all 1,200 units referenced would be designated for low-income households, noting that the units would fall into different affordability categories. He further explained that annual funding contributions would continue to build capacity for affordable housing over time.

Max Herrle distributed a handout outlining potential dedicated revenue sources and permissible uses for an affordable housing trust fund, including examples of similar measures in Alachua, Brevard, Broward and Orange Counties.

County Administrator Long reminded the Committee that the County has already established a Housing Trust Fund.

Max Herrle made a substitute motion, seconded by Bruce Strouble, Jr., to direct staff to review the distributed handout and committee feedback and bring back options for Committee consideration, including potential charter amendment language and other related recommendations to support affordable housing.

The motion carried 12 – 3 with Chair Mary Ann Lindley, Darryl Jones and Henry Lewis, III, in opposition. Committee Members Joey Davis, Linda Bond Edwards, Liz Ellis, Slaton Murray, Sean Pittman and William Smith were not present.

Item #2: Funding Mechanisms for Healthcare Access for Low-Income Residents

Assistant County Administrator Shington Lamy provided a presentation on funding mechanisms for healthcare access for low income residents. He highlighted the healthcare responsibility of the federal and state governments, and the County's dedication to ensuring access to high quality healthcare for more than two decades. He also noted the County's annual investments and leveraging of funds.

Temple Robinson addressed the Committee regarding the importance of access to local healthcare, noting that global health organizations consistently recognize its role in improving workforce participation and productivity while reducing overall healthcare costs. She noted that access to healthcare remains a challenge for many residents and emphasized that her request was not focused on specific funding levels or implementation methods, but on ensuring healthcare access is recognized and upheld as an ongoing policy priority.

Shamarial Roberson highlighted additional concerns regarding the burden placed on Federally Qualified Health Centers (FQHCs), noted challenges faced by rural residents currently served by the Bond Community Health Center, and emphasized the importance of considering ongoing changes within the insurance landscape.

Temple Robinson moved, seconded by Darryl Jones, to direct staff to draft a proposed charter amendment affirming Leon County values access to primary care as a leading determinant of economic vitality and community well-being.

The motion carried 15 – 0 with Committee Members Joey Davis, Linda Bond Edwards, Liz Ellis, Slaton Murray, Sean Pittman and William Smith not present.

Max Herrle asked what occurs when a vacancy arises on the Board of County Commissioners and requested information on the costs and benefits of holding a special election, noting that election costs could range from approximately $150,000 to $200,000.

County Attorney O'Steen responded that statutory requirements govern vacancy procedures and timelines and indicated that the issue is largely preempted by state law.

Ryan Ray raised concerns that existing districts, originally drawn to defend minority representation, have more recently resulted in limited representation of minorities among certain districts. He suggested consideration of electing all commissioners at-large.

Henry Lewis III responded that district-based elections have provided consistent representation for historically underrepresented communities and that maintaining both district and countywide perspectives has value.

Ryan Ray decided not to make a motion on this topic.

Chair Lindley noted that at-large elections typically involve higher campaign costs, which could deter potential candidates.

County Administrator Long advised that changes to the election structure would constitute a typical Charter issue for the Committee to consider.

Max Herrle referenced a Florida Statutes provision allowing counties to opt into supporting a property tax exemption for economic development projects, subject to renewal by the Board of County Commissioners every ten years.

Max Herrle moved for an agenda item to be brought back on information related to Florida Statutes providing counties a local option property tax exemption to support economic development projects, subject to renewal by the Board of County Commissioners every ten years.

The motion failed for lack of a second.

Darryl Jones asked if ensuring safe access to schools for children is a County priority or required by Florida Statutes.

County Administrator Long clarified that both are the case as the County secures state funding specifically to construct sidewalks in close proximity to public schools.

Chair Lindley thanked staff and reminded the Committee that there were three meetings remaining.

Nicki Hatch shared that the Inspector General agenda item would be provided during the February 5, 2026 CCRC meeting so that the proposer of the charter amendment, Dr. Howard Kessler, could be present.

Motion to adjourn:

Max Herrle moved, seconded by Ryan Ray, to adjourn the meeting.

The motion carried 15 – 0 with Committee Members Joey Davis, Linda Bond Edwards, Liz Ellis, Slaton Murray, Sean Pittman and William Smith not present.

- Slaton Murray and Sean Pittman arrived at this juncture of the meeting.

Public Comment:

- Melanie Andrade Williams, 3349 Argonaut Drive, addressed the Committee in support of a proposed charter amendment related to the restoration of communities from historic harm. She stated that historic public policies, including segregation-era decisions related to zoning, housing, education, healthcare, and infrastructure, contributed to long-standing disparities in neighborhoods such as Frenchtown, Bond, Griffin Heights, Providence, and South City. She noted that the amendment would not mandate spending or raise taxes, but would establish a framework requiring consideration of historic public policy impacts and urged the Committee to advance the amendment for charter drafting.
- Stephanie McMillon spoke in support of an amendment for restoring communities, stating that historic public policies shaped neighborhood outcomes and current disparities.

- Serenity Williams, 4011 Elder Lane, spoke in support of an amendment to restore communities, stating that disparities were the result of intentional policy choices and that the charter is an appropriate vehicle to address structural issues. She urged the Committee to advance the amendment to allow the community the opportunity to vote.
- Bill Lowaman, 3742 Dorset Way, commented on the discussion around President Lincoln and civility. He also spoke on denying race and the federal government requiring identification by race. He suggested getting rid of those discussions and focusing on the restoration of human beings.
- Mary Miaisha Mitchell, 1009 Ellington Court, addressed the Committee regarding historic displacement and the need for diversity, equity, and inclusion. She referenced the impacts of displacement in the Smokey Hollow community and discussed the elimination of DEI-related policies, noting the effect on public health equity efforts. She urged the Committee to consider Charter language that supports long-term resilience and accountability.
- Joey Davis arrived at this juncture of the meeting.

Agenda Item #1: Comparative Analysis of Bill of Rights Provisions in County Charters

Assistant County Administrator Ken Morris introduced the item, noting that the Committee requested a comparative analysis of county charters with a Bill of Rights. He explained that a Bill of Rights is intended to express fundamental community values and may be adopted through a charter, ordinance, or resolution. He noted most are adopted by Ordinance or Resolution. Leon County's Charter includes a Preamble reflecting community values. Among Florida's 20 charter counties, staff identified 4 charters with Bill of Rights provisions (Miami-Dade, Broward, Orange, and Pinellas) done in two different ways. Miami-Dade and Broward have sections with an extensive list of "rights" defined in detail. Orange and Pinellas have succinct sections and direct the BOCC to further address issues by ordinance. He reminded the Committee that anything included cannot conflict with state or federal laws and noted that many listed rights in the four examples discussed overlap with existing protections addressed in county policies and requirements under state and federal laws. He noted that staff recommended Option #1: Accept the report and take no further action.

Max Herrle asked whether the proposal would be legally binding.

Assistant County Administrator Morris responded that Miami-Dade County includes provisions with specific remedies; however, he clarified that Bill of Rights provisions are value statements.

Max Herrle stated that he would like to review Miami-Dade's language and consider implementing similar language in Leon County.

County Attorney Chasity O'Steen cautioned that the County does not have the authority to waive its sovereign immunity through a charter amendment or ordinance, and that any effort to create an enforcement mechanism exposing the County to liability would require action by the Florida Legislature or a constitutional amendment. She noted that limited waivers of sovereign immunity exist only where expressly authorized by state law, and that courts have rejected local attempts to expand liability beyond those statutory limits.

Darryl Jones stated that he has been clear regarding the Charter. He expressed interest in language that esteems shared humanity, whether placed in the Preamble or a Bill of Rights, stating that such language would communicate that neighbors have value.

Joey Davis offered a friendly amendment requesting staff bring back draft language reflecting the rights listed in the Miami-Dade and Broward charter examples as a working framework for Committee consideration.

Max Herrle accepted the friendly amendment.

Linda Bond Edwards asked whether there would be the same legal effect from changes to the Preamble or the creation of a Bill of Rights section.

County Attorney O'Steen stated it would depend on the language used and that intent must be clear that the statements do not create a cause of action.

County Administrator Long explained that the Charter Preamble is where most counties articulate broad community values, including home rule, equity, responsiveness, efficiency, and the ability of residents to effect change in their government, and noted that the Committee may choose to further articulate aspirational values either within the Preamble or through a separate bill of rights. He encouraged the Committee to consider the distinction between aspirational value statements and the County's adopted core practices, emphasizing that both what government says it values and what it does in practice are important considerations.

Max Herrle moved, seconded by Bruce Strouble, Jr., for Option #2: Direct staff to prepare a charter amendment providing a Bill of Rights for Leon County citizens with a friendly amendment, as introduced by Joey Davis, to request staff bring back draft language reflecting the rights listed in the Miami-Dade and Broward charter examples as a working framework.

The motion failed 5 – 9 with Vice Chairman Chauncy Haynes, Linda Bond Edwards, Liz Ellis, Darryl Jones, Slaton Murray, Shamarial Roberson, William Smith, Jarrett Terry and Barry Wilcox in opposition. Chair Mary Ann Lindley, Howard Kessler, Henry Lewis, III, Heidi Otway, Sean Pittman, Ryan Ray and Temple Robinson were not present.

Darryl Jones moved, seconded by Linda Bond Edwards, to direct staff to prepare a charter amendment revising the Preamble to reflect the esteemed humanity among residents of Leon County.

The motion carried 15 – 0 with Chair Mary Ann Lindley, Howard Kessler, Henry Lewis, III, Heidi Otway, Sean Pittman and Temple Robinson not present.

Agenda Item #2: Considerations for Addressing Poverty and Racial Inequity in the County Charter

Assistant County Administrator Shington Lamy introduced the item, stating that at its December 4, 2025 meeting, the Committee requested an agenda item to consider amending the Leon County Charter to address communities and neighborhoods impacted by poverty and racial inequities. He summarized existing County and partner investments, and cautioned that adopting charter language tied to race or Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion (DEI) concepts could jeopardize state and federal funding. He noted that staff recommended against further consideration, offering an alternative option for a policy recommendation affirming the County's existing data-driven approach.

Bruce Strouble, Jr., commented on the options staff listed in the item.

- Liz Ellis left at this juncture of the meeting.

Vice Chairman Haynes reminded the Committee of the County's civility expectations, emphasizing respectful engagement even when there is disagreement.

County Attorney O'Steen discussed legal considerations related to DEI. She cautioned that charter language explicitly tied to race and gender could be legally problematic.

Linda Bond Edwards asked whether proposed charter language would address issues already identified by the County. She questioned whether the primary challenge was a lack of resources or a lack of awareness of resources.

Katrina Tuggerson asked how the County can continue current efforts in a changing legal and policy environment. She asked, as a community, how the County can "work with what we have" given ongoing changes.

County Attorney O'Steen referenced a document issued by the Florida Attorney General on January 19, 2026, noting that concerns about constitutionality are being raised more frequently. She reiterated the County's current approach is data-driven and intended to remain compliant with state and federal law.

Anita Favors asked Bruce Strouble, Jr., to clarify whether the Committee was considering a policy recommendation or a charter amendment.

Bruce Strouble, Jr., clarified the proposal was a charter amendment.

Slaton Murray asked Bruce Strouble, Jr., how he envisioned funding would work.

Bruce Strouble, Jr., stated the framework would allow restoration actions if grants or other external funding sources become available. He stated it would not require establishing a new department.

County Administrator Long explained that staff highlighted the charter preamble because, in many charters, it is the primary location for aspirational and values-based language, rather than highly specific or enforceable provisions. He noted that the Leon County preamble already emphasizes: home rule and local decision-making; service to the people of the County; government reflecting the community it serves; responsiveness and efficiency; and the ability of residents to effect change in their government.

He stated that if the Committee wished to add additional aspirational language, such as language discussed by Committee Member Jones, that could appropriately occur in the preamble. He cautioned the Committee to distinguish between values statements and operational practices, noting that "core practices often outweigh core values in daily governance." He referenced the County's adopted core practices and beliefs, including language affirming that County government exists to serve residents and demonstrate accountability for tax dollars. He reminded the Committee that while values are important, implementation through policy and practice is equally critical.

Bruce Strouble, Jr., stated the County has not formally acknowledged certain historic public policy harms at the charter level and reiterated why the Charter is the appropriate vehicle for this framework.

Anita Favors asked whether the Committee was directing staff to develop draft language, as reflected in the motion.

Bruce Strouble, Jr., moved, seconded by Max Herrle, to direct staff to prepare draft language for amending the Charter to require the County to assess and address persistent disparities resulting from historic public policy decisions.

The motion carried 13 – 0 with Chair Mary Ann Lindley, Liz Ellis, Howard Kessler, Henry Lewis, III, Heidi Otway, Sean Pittman, Temple Robinson and Barry Wilcox not present.

Agenda Item #3: Community Value of Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion

Assistant County Administrator Lamy introduced the item. He stated at its January 8, 2026 meeting, the Citizen Charter Review Committee requested an agenda item to consider amending the Leon County Charter to adopt a community value statement in support of diversity, equity, and inclusion.

Darryl Jones motioned, seconded by Slaton Murray, for Option #1: Accept the report on a community value statement in support of diversity, equity, and inclusion and take no further action.

The motion carried 13 – 0 with Chair Mary Ann Lindley, Liz Ellis, Howard Kessler, Henry Lewis, III, Heidi Otway, Sean Pittman, Temple Robinson and Katrina Tuggerson not present.

Vice Chairman Haynes reminded the committee of the need for civility in discussions, and the significance of ensuring policies address both current and historical community needs without conflicting with federal and state guidelines.

He acknowledged all staff and departments involved in supporting the Charter Review Committee's work.

Motion to adjourn:

Vice Chairman Haynes adjourned the meeting at 1:13p.m.

- Tiffany Hill, 1401 Lola Drive, spoke in support of Option 2 on Agenda Item #4, stating housing issues are regional and affect workforce stability and community health. She supported the option as a balanced approach that creates a permanent fund while preserving the Board of County Commissioners' budget flexibility and encouraging City-County collaboration.

- Peter Butscene, 2358 Carefree Ct., spoke in favor of creating an independent Office of Inspector General, emphasizing it as a preventative measure to deter future corruption and strengthen public trust despite no current scandals. He stated existing ethics safeguards are weak, and the cost of the office would be minimal compared to the potential consequences of misconduct.
- Ernie Paine, 2006 E. Indianhead Dr., supported establishing an Office of Inspector General as a proactive step to prevent future problems and demonstrate the County's commitment to transparent and ethical government. He noted the Charter sets priorities rather than budgets and argued independent oversight protects economic reputation and public confidence.
- Ben Wilcox, 1719 Old Fort Dr., spoke in support of placing a charter amendment establishing an independent Inspector General before voters, stating independence is essential for investigating fraud, waste, and abuse. He expressed confidence the measure would receive public approval and stated anti-corruption reforms should be decided by the community.

Agenda Item #1: Consideration to Establish an Office of Inspector General in the Leon County Charter

Nicki Hatch, Assistant to the County Administrator for Legislative and Strategic Initiatives, introduced the item and summarized that an Office of Inspector General (OIG) generally exists to detect, investigate, and prevent fraud, waste, abuse, mismanagement, and misconduct, and reviewed how independent OIGs are structured in four Florida charter counties (Miami-Dade, Broward, Jacksonville-Duval, and Palm Beach), including typical functions such as complaint investigation, auditing, and contract oversight. She noted that most complaints in peer OIGs result in no action or referral elsewhere and that these offices are not small, with staffing and budgets varying significantly by jurisdiction.

County Attorney Chasity O'Steen provided clarification on Leon County's ethics enforcement framework, distinguishing state-level complaints filed under Chapter 112 with the Florida Commission on Ethics from complaints made under the County's Code of Ethics. She explained that the County Code includes provisions addressing investigations and prosecution of alleged violations and referenced the ordinance-based penalty structure applicable to violations of the standards of conduct.

William Smith requested examples of what would constitute financial mishandling.

County Attorney O'Steen explained that allegations of financial impropriety may be reported to the Clerk of Court, which maintains an independent office, or submitted through the County's Fraud and Abuse Hotline, in which case, the Human Resources Department would lead the investigation.

Henry Lewis, III, inquired about the total number of cases that have come before the County.

County Attorney O'Steen responded that there had been one such case, which was resolved through the County's waste, fraud, and abuse process.

Max Herrle referenced the City's process regarding petty cash.

County Administrator Vincent Long explained that the County undergoes an independent audit conducted by the Clerk's Office, which focuses on internal controls. He noted that the audit findings are presented to the Board along with a corrective action plan.

Sean Pittman stated that he was interested in the fiscal implications of the proposal and noted that, based on what he had observed, the associated costs could be significant.

Mrs. Hatch referenced the Office of the Inspector General in Duval County, noting that their Charter requires minimum funding of $400,000; however, their recent adopted budget was $1.5 million.

Linda Bond Edwards inquired about the County's responsibility to consider fiscal impacts and whether a cost analysis would be included as part of the ballot process.

County Attorney O'Steen addressed the use of departmental language regarding fiscal impacts and explained that it had been determined that fiscal impact information could not be included on the ballot.

Chair Lindley asked who would be responsible for hiring the Inspector General.

Mrs. Hatch stated that the matter would depend on the structure adopted and could require approval by the Board.

Darryl Jones commented on the current structure and safeguards already in place and explained the School Board's process as a point of reference.

Mrs. Hatch recalled that there are existing processes already in place, including the Fraud and Abuse Hotline administered by the Clerk's Office.

Shamarial Roberson inquired whether the Office of the Inspector General would consist of a single individual or include staff. She spoke on the importance of autonomy for the position and emphasized the integrity of the program.

Howard Kessler requested the Chair allow Ernie Paine to address questions from the Committee regarding the purpose and structure of his proposed Office of Inspector General. Chair Lindley concurred.

Ernie Paine stated that, while he understood the role of the Clerk's Office in addressing issues related to fraud and financial matters, he believed there should be a dedicated office where complaints could be submitted. He discussed the importance of having appropriate infrastructure in place to handle such matters.

County Attorney O'Steen explained that the County does not have authority over the Clerk, noting that both the County and the Clerk retain a statutory auditor. She referenced corrective updates and findings that are addressed through the Clerk's audit process. She shared an update that the audit will be coming back to the Board at the next BOCC Meeting scheduled for Tuesday, February 10.

Howard Kessler moved, seconded by Bruce Strouble, Jr., to direct staff to prepare a proposed charter amendment to establish an Office of Inspector General with funding determined by County Government.
The motion failed 4 – 14 with Chair Mary Ann Lindley, Chauncy Haynes, Linda Bond Edwards, Liz Ellis, Anita Favors, Darryl Jones, Henry Lewis, III, Heidi Otway, Sean Pittman, Shamarial Roberson, Temple Robinson, William Smith, Jarrett Terry and Katrina Tuggerson in opposition. Committee Members Joey Davis, Slaton Murray and Barry Wilcox were not present.

Darryl Jones called the question since there was confusion on what the previous vote was for.

Agenda Item #2: Consideration of a Policy Recommendation on Unified Street Renaming

Mrs. Hatch introduced the item and explained that, at the Committee's request, staff prepared a draft policy recommendation encouraging the County and the City to work together to align street renaming policies and procedures in order to prevent public safety and emergency service issues. She noted that, if approved, the recommendation would be included in the Committee's status report to the Board in March and in the Committee's final report later this summer.

Vice Chairman Haynes moved, seconded by Temple Robinson, to approve Option #1: Approve the draft policy recommendation encouraging unified street renaming policies and procedures.

The motion carried 18 – 0 with Committee Members Joey Davis, Slaton Murray and Barry Wilcox not present.

Agenda Item #3: Consideration of Revision to the Preamble in the Leon County Charter

Mrs. Hatch introduced the item and explained that, at the Committee's request, staff prepared proposed charter amendment language revising the Preamble of the Leon County Charter to reflect the shared humanity among County residents. She noted that a simple majority vote would be required to recommend the amendment to the Board of County Commissioners and, if approved, the Board would consider whether to advance it to a public hearing later this summer.

Darryl Jones moved, seconded by Vice Chairman Haynes, to approve Option #1: Approve the proposed charter amendment for recommendation to the Board of County Commissioners, revising the Preamble to reflect the esteemed humanity among residents of Leon County.

The motion carried 18 – 0 with Committee Members Joey Davis, Slaton Murray and Barry Wilcox not present.

Agenda Item #4: Consideration to Establish an Affordable Housing Trust Fund in the Leon County Charter

Assistant County Administrator Shington Lamy introduced this item. As requested by the Committee, this item provides a proposed amendment to the Leon County Charter with ballot language to establish an affordable housing trust fund in the Charter.

Vice Chairman Chauncy Haynes moved, seconded by Liz Ellis, to approve Option #1: Approve a policy recommendation encouraging the Board to continue the County's longstanding commitment to increasing and preserving the stock of affordable housing in the community.

The motion was not voted on.

Bruce Strouble, Jr., commented on what he described as the affordable housing crisis within the County and emphasized the importance of protecting residents through structural and sustainable measures.

Max Herrle discussed elements he believed were not fully reflected in the County's proposed language and raised concerns regarding governance and structural oversight provisions.

Henry Lewis, III, inquired whether there were any affordable housing funds currently available that the County was not drawing down.

Mr. Lamy responded that staff continuously pursues available funding opportunities, including programs through the Federal Housing Administration (FHA), and confirmed that the County actively seeks and utilizes available funding sources.

County Attorney O'Steen addressed the Committee regarding potential modifications to the existing Trust Fund framework. She emphasized the importance of drafting language that would codify the fund while preserving sufficient flexibility for the Board of County Commissioners to modify or adjust the fund structure in the future as circumstances evolve.

Bruce Strouble, Jr., made a substitute motion, seconded by Max Herrle, to approve Option #2 as amended: Approve the proposed charter amendment for recommendation to the Board of County Commissioners to ~~establish an~~codify the Affordable Housing Trust Fund in the Leon County Charter.

The motion carried 12 – 6 with Vice Chairman Chauncy Haynes, Linda Bond Edwards, Liz Ellis, Darryl Jones, Howard Kessler and William Smith in opposition. Committee Members Joey Davis, Slaton Murray and Barry Wilcox were not present.

Agenda Item #1: Consideration of Language Affirming Leon County's Commitment to Healthcare in the Leon County Charter

Mr. Shington Lamy, Assistant County Administrator, introduced the item which provided a proposed charter amendment revising the Preamble of the Leon County Charter with language that affirms Leon County's commitment to healthcare access. He shared that no other charter counties in the State of Florida include healthcare in their charters, and a similar commitment is already expressed in the Leon County Strategic Plan, which envisions a community that is safe, healthy and vibrant. Therefore, staff recommended Option #1: Approve the draft policy recommendation encouraging the continuation of Leon County's long-standing commitment to ensuring healthcare access for low-income residents and thereby supporting an equitable, safe, healthy, and vibrant community.

Temple Robinson expressed concerns that the options presented did not fully reflect her intended direction. While she described the proposed language as well written, she stated that it does not convey the strength of the message the Committee sought to communicate.

Shamarial Roberson sought clarification from staff regarding potential state and federal policy changes, asking whether the proposed language could have implications for the County's ability to access state or federal funding related to healthcare.

County Attorney O'Steen explained that some concerns relate to a federal executive order tied to grant funding that requires entities to certify they do not operate Diversity, Equity and Inclusion (DEI) programs that violate federal anti-discrimination laws or provide preferential treatment based on protected classes. She also informed the Committee that a bill currently moving through the Florida Senate broadly defines diversity, equity, and inclusion and could restrict counties from funding or promoting such programs if enacted. She noted the bill has advanced through committees and could still be amended. She concluded that the proposed language is permissible under current law, though future interpretations could depend on whether the pending legislation becomes law.

Anita Favors asked for clarification regarding what additional language Temple Robinson believed should be included to better reflect the Committee's intent.

Temple Robinson stated that the intent was to include clear language affirming the County's commitment to access to primary care, including for uninsured and underserved residents, as an enduring statement of the County's values.

County Administrator Long explained that the proposed language was intentionally drafted to be broad and inclusive rather than focused on a specific program or policy area. He added that the County addresses health in many ways, including infrastructure, parks, emergency services, and primary care initiatives, making it difficult to highlight a single area within a value statement. He stated that staff would revise the language based on the direction of the Committee.

Darryl Jones suggested that the originator of the idea, Temple Robinson, provide guidance on how the Committee might proceed considering the discussion. He expressed interest in hearing further recommendations from members with public health expertise before determining a final recommendation to the Board of County Commissioners.

Chair Lindley stated that, at that point in the discussion, no specific alternative language had been proposed by the Committee. She noted that the Committee still had additional agenda items to address and emphasized the need to move the discussion forward. C hair Lindley indicated she would be willing to entertain a motion if members wished to approve or reject the proposal or offer specific language revisions.

Vice Chairman Chauncy Haynes moved for Option #1 as amended: Approve the draft policy recommendation encouraging the continuation of Leon County's long-standing commitment to ensuring ~~healthcare access for low-income residents~~ access to public healthcare and thereby supporting an equitable, safe, healthy, and vibrant community.

The motion failed for lack of a second.

Temple Robinson requested that the item be temporarily postponed, asking that the Committee return to the matter later in the meeting to allow members time to consider the discussion and develop a motion.

Chair Lindley entertained discussion on temporarily postponing the discussion.

Howard Kessler moved, seconded by Henry Lewis, III, to table Agenda Item #1 for the time being.

The motion carried 19 – 0 with Committee Members Liz Ellis and Slaton Murray not present.

The Committee later returned to Agenda Item # 1 after the conclusion of Agenda Item #2.

Temple Robinson moved, seconded by Howard Kessler, to bring Agenda Item #1 back for discussion.

The motion carried 19 – 0 with Committee Members Liz Ellis and Slaton Murray not present.

Temple Robinson read her proposed ballot language.

Vice Chairman Haynes requested a five-minute break to allow staff to place the proposed ballot language on the screen. He explained that displaying the language would ensure clarity and prevent any confusion or debate about the exact wording of the motion that had been read aloud.

The proposed revision to the Preamble included the CCRC's previous recommendation from its February 5, 2026 meeting, regarding the esteemed humanity of all residents of Leon County in the Preamble (bold), with additional language (bold and underlined) to reflect the Committee's request to affirm the County's long-standing commitment to ensuring healthcare access for low-income residents and thereby supporting an equitable, safe, healthy, and vibrant community.

Temple Robinson moved, seconded by Howard Kessler, to accept the proposed Preamble language as amended*: We, the citizens of Leon County, Florida, united in the belief that governmental decisions affecting local interests should be made locally, rather than by the State, and that County government should be reflective of the people of the County and should serve them in achieving a more responsive and efficient form of government,* hereby affirm the esteemed humanity of all residents of Leon County. We recognize in every person a shared dignity, not granted by government, but inherent and deserving of consideration in our ~~public affairs~~ effort to create a community that is safe, vibrant, and provides access to healthcare for all citizens.

The motion carried 19 – 0 with Committee Members Liz Ellis and Slaton Murray not present.

Agenda Item #2: Proposed Charter Amendment on Food Insecurity

Mr. Lamy introduced the item which discussed a proposed charter amendment establishing an Office of Food Systems to address food insecurity. He noted that no Florida county charters address food insecurity and that the Board of County Commissioners already has the authority to address these issues without a charter amendment. He highlighted new and existing initiatives of the Leon County Office of Human Services and Community Partnerships (HSCP) addressing food insecurity, as well as ongoing coordination through a food council led by Florida A&M University (FAMU). He also noted that the Charter cannot require participation from independent organizations, and that current collaboration efforts are voluntary. Therefore, staff recommended Option #1: Approve the draft policy recommendation encouraging the Board to continue the County's long-standing commitment to reducing food insecurity in the community.

Bruce Strouble, Jr., stated that community feedback indicates residents often lack awareness of available resources and that services can be improved. He noted that the County is in a unique position to organize and centralize these efforts. He also suggested including annual reporting and a countywide food systems plan.

Bruce Strouble, Jr., moved, seconded by Howard Kessler, for Option #2: Approve the proposed charter amendment for recommendation to the Board of County Commissioners to address food insecurity in the Leon County Charter.

The motion was not voted on.

William Smith asked for clarification regarding the difference between the proposed Office of Food Systems and the office that is currently addressing food insecurity and related services.

Mr. Lamy explained that the proposed office would perform the same functions currently carried out by HSCP.

Shamarial Roberson asked whether there is currently an annual plan or report related to food access or food systems that is publicly released. She also requested clarification on the current organizational structure within HSCP related to food insecurity efforts.

Ms. Abigail Thomas, Director of the Office of Human Services and Community Partnerships, explained that staff previously provided a report to the Board in the fall regarding food insecurity in the community, which highlighted current initiatives and provided general information about food insecurity. She noted that agencies funded by Leon County, such as Second Harvest, Elder Care Services, and Good News Outreach, are required to submit quarterly and annual reports because they receive County funding. She added that staff is currently preparing a Human Services report that will include FY 2025 data for programs funded by the County.

Mr. Lamy explained that the County created a Neighborhood Engagement position following community meetings held in 2021 across ten neighborhoods identified as having high food insecurity rates based on Feeding America and Second Harvest data.

Anita Favors stated that she supported the intent of the proposed Charter amendment but raised concerns about the potential cost of establishing a new Office of Food Systems. She asked whether the Committee's intent would allow the County Administrator or Board of County Commissioners flexibility to reorganize or combine existing functions rather than create a completely new office, to avoid significant administrative costs and ensure that resources are directed toward addressing food insecurity in the community. She asked Dr. Strouble to expound.

Barry Wilcox stated that while he supports the idea of coordinating food insecurity efforts and producing annual reports, he believes establishing an Office of Food Systems should be done through a recommendation to the Board rather than through a charter amendment. He suggested the office could be created within the existing Office of HSCP, like other divisions such as housing or veterans services.

Barry Wilcox made a substitute motion, seconded by Vice Chairman Chauncy Haynes, to approve a policy recommendation to the Board of County Commissioners encouraging the establishment of a Division of Food Systems under the Leon County Office of Human Services and Community Partnerships.

The motion carried 12 – 7 with Committee Members Max Herrle, Howard Kessler, Ryan Ray, Shamarial Roberson, Temple Robinson, William Smith and Bruce Strouble, Jr., in opposition. Committee Members Liz Ellis and Slaton Murray were not present.

Agenda Item #3: Proposed Charter Amendment on Persistent Disparities Resulting from Historic Public Policies

Mr. Lamy introduced this item which provided a proposed charter amendment and corresponding ballot language to address disparities resulting from historic public policy decisions. He stated that there are no county charters in the State of Florida that include language related to disparities from historic public policies. He also explained that adoption of the proposed amendment into the Charter could put the County's federal and state funding in jeopardy, as well as result in legal challenges against the County. Therefore, staff recommended Option #1: Approve the draft recommendation encouraging the Board to continue the County's long-standing commitment to addressing poverty and inequities in the community.

Bruce Strouble, Jr., acknowledged the concerns raised by County staff about legal risks related to addressing historical harm in a charter amendment. He explained that, after discussions with the County Attorney, he prepared alternative language that removes references to race while still addressing the lingering impacts of historic unconstitutional policies. He distributed a handout with his revised alternative language and stated that this approach would avoid potential conflicts with federal and state laws while still addressing disparities caused by past policies. He then made a motion to recommend his revised language to the Board of County Commissioners.

Bruce Strouble, Jr., moved, seconded by Howard Kessler, to recommend to the Board of County Commissioners a proposed charter amendment and ballot language (as distributed by Mr. Strouble during the meeting) to require the County to assess persistent disparities resulting from historic public policy decisions and establish a framework for addressing those impacts, including periodic audits and potential restoration strategies.

County Attorney O'Steen explained that the revised language removes explicit references to race or DEI, but potential legal risks remain. She noted that if any programs or policies developed under the amendment were ultimately based on a protected class, such as race, gender, or national origin, they could be subject to strict scrutiny under the U.S. Constitution. She added that case law on programs addressing historic wrongs is inconsistent, with many recent federal programs being struck down in court. She cautioned that such programs could also jeopardize federal funding depending on their structure and target population.

- Joey Davis left at this juncture of the meeting.

William Smith asked for clarification about the funding referenced in the proposed charter amendment, specifically regarding the creation of a restoration fund.

Bruce Strouble, Jr., explained that the proposed charter amendment would create a restoration fund, but it would not specify the funding sources within the charter itself. Instead, the County Commission would have discretion to determine how the fund is financed. He also questioned the legal concern raised by the County Attorney, asking how the County could conduct any data-driven programs if identifying disparities among protected classes automatically creates legal risk.

County Attorney O'Steen explained that the County's current programs are legally defensible because they rely primarily on socioeconomic data rather than targeting protected classes directly. While such programs may indirectly benefit individuals who belong to protected classes, the benefits are not explicitly tied to race, gender, or other protected characteristics. In contrast, the proposed amendment references historical policies like segregation, which specifically impacted certain protected classes. If programs are created based on that rationale, they could raise legal concerns because the benefits would be directly connected to a protected class, potentially violating anti-discrimination laws.

Vice Chairman Haynes asked the County Attorney what her professional recommendation would be to the Board of County Commissioners regarding the proposed ballot language.

County Attorney O'Steen stated that the proposed charter language itself is legally acceptable but federal and state constitutional and statutory restrictions could limit what the County is able to do in practice, even if the amendment was adopted.

Chair Lindley asked whether placing the language in the charter now, despite the current legal risks, could still be valuable because future circumstances might change. She suggested that even if the amendment cannot be fully implemented today due to legal constraints, a future County Commission might be able to act on it more freely if laws or policies change, since the language would already be embedded in the charter.

County Attorney O'Steen noted that the proposed charter language might have little practical effect right now due to current legal limitations, but future legal changes could either expand or further restrict what the County could do.

Henry Lewis, III, warned that the language might be used to challenge or dismantle single-member districts and other programs created to address past disparities.

Vice Chairman Chauncy Haynes made a substitution motion for Option #1: Approve the draft recommendation encouraging the Board to continue the County's long-standing commitment to addressing poverty and inequities in the community.

The motion failed for lack of a second.

Linda Bond Edwards asked the County Attorney for further clarity on the viability of using economic data for related programs.

County Attorney O'Steen cited the County's MWSBE (Minority/Women-owned Small Business Enterprise) program as an example, which is based on a third-party disparity study showing a need for corrective action. She noted that similar programs across the country are currently being challenged in court, so the legal landscape is still evolving. She emphasized that legal risk increases when a program explicitly targets a protected class, because that triggers strict scrutiny under constitutional law. In contrast, policies based on geographic need or general socioeconomic data—such as addressing food access in an underserved area, are more legally defensible, even if they indirectly benefit members of a protected class.

Sean Pittman stated he would support the proposal, but suggested that the structure might be better implemented through an ordinance rather than a charter amendment.

Bruce Strouble, Jr., moved, seconded by Howard Kessler, to recommend to the Board of County Commissioners a proposed charter amendment and ballot language (as distributed by Mr. Strouble during the meeting) to require the County to assess persistent disparities resulting from historic public policy decisions and establish a framework for addressing those impacts, including periodic audits and potential restoration strategies.

The motion failed 9 – 9 with Vice Chairman Chauncy Haynes, Linda Bond Edwards, Anita Favors, Darryl Jones, Henry Lewis, III, Heidi Otway, Shamarial Roberson, William Smith and Barry Wilcox in opposition. Committee Members Joey Davis, Liz Ellis and Slaton Murray were not present.

Chair Lindley thanked Committee Members for their time, thoughtful participation, and respectful discussion of complex issues. She noted that their work helped the community better understand how local decisions are made and expressed appreciation for everyone's effort. She shared that she had been invited to speak to the League of Women Voters in March to provide an overview of the Committee's work. She also thanked County staff for their support and dedication throughout the process.

Darryl Jones asked whether the two recommended changes to the Preamble of the Leon County Charter, related to esteemed humanity and affirming access to health care, would be presented separately to the Board of County Commissioners.

Mrs. Nicki Hatch, Assistant to the County Administrator for Legislative and Strategic Initiatives, clarified that proposed amendments would be presented separately.

Linda Bond Edwards made a special announcement congratulating the County Attorney for recently receiving the Martha Barnett Outstanding Attorney Award from the Tallahassee Women Lawyers. She thanked County Attorney O'Steen for her professionalism and for patiently addressing the Committee's many questions during the meeting.

Sean Pittman congratulated the County Attorney on receiving the Martha Barnett Outstanding Attorney Award, noting that it is a significant honor given Martha Barnett's reputation. He also thanked Chair Lindley for her leadership in guiding the Committee through the process and expressed appreciation to the staff, particularly Mrs. Hatch, for their dedication and hard work.

County Administrator Long thanked the Committee Members and Chair Lindley on behalf of County staff for their work and participation. He also noted that the Board of County Commissioners will formally recognize the Committee in the future and that staff will notify members when that occurs.

Antonaccio.

Absent Members: Anita Favors, Heidi Otway, Sean Pittman, and William Smith.

Call to Order and Opening Mary Ann Lindley, Chair

Chair Lindley called the meeting to order at 11:30 a.m. and asked County Administrator Long to provide a brief overview of the meeting.

County Administrator Long recapped the Committee's previous consideration of a proposed Charter Amendment addressing historic harmful public policy decisions, which failed to advance on a 9 – 9 vote. He explained that the Board of County Commissioners subsequently requested additional analysis related to Senate Bill 1134 and recent federal actions and directed staff to develop a legally compliant, geographically based framework for addressing the effects of historic public policy decisions.

County Administrator Long noted that the agenda materials summarized the County's existing geographically focused programs, investments, and initiatives supporting vulnerable communities. While the Board did not advance a Board-initiated Charter Amendment, it referred the matter back to the Committee for further consideration and possible recommendation.

Chair Lindley stated that the consideration of advancing a proposed Charter amendment addressing historic harmful public policy decisions would be the only issue for consideration by the Committee during the special meeting.

Public Comment:

- Darchelle Pickett, a District 2 resident, spoke in support of the proposed amendment, stating that public policy decisions can have lasting community impacts. She cited Smoky Hollow as an example and described the proposal as a geographically based framework for assessing community conditions.
- Bryan Stringer, 8479 Southern Park Drive, spoke in support of the proposed amendment, stating that the proposal would establish a long-term framework for transparency, accountability, recurring community impact assessments, and public reporting without creating spending mandates, quotas, or race-based preferences.

Agenda Item #1: Consideration of Advancing a Proposed Charter Amendment Addressing Historic Harmful Public Policy Decisions

Nicki Hatch introduced the item, which requested the Committee's consideration of whether to advance a proposed Charter Amendment addressing historic harmful public policy decisions. As directed by the Board of County Commissioners at its May 12, 2026 meeting, the proposed amendment would use a geographically based framework rather than protected-class criteria and would be developed consistent with applicable state and federal law without jeopardizing state or federal funding. Staff presented the following options: (1) accept the report and take no further action; or (2) advance a proposed Charter Amendment for consideration at the Committee's first public hearing on June 30, 2026, at 6:00 p.m.

Bruce Strouble, Jr., presented a revised charter amendment proposal developed in response to concerns raised by staff and legal counsel. He distributed handouts with his revised proposal and explained that the proposal removed references to protected classes and funding requirements, instead establishing a geographically based framework for recurring assessments of the impacts of historic public policies and governmental practices. He stated that the proposal was intended to promote accountability, transparency, and public reporting rather than create mandates or race-based programs.

Slaton Murray moved, seconded by Howard Kessler, to open the item for discussion.

The motion carried 17 – 0 with Committee Members Anita Favors, Heidi Otway, Sean Pittman and William Smith not present.

Slaton Murray asked who would oversee the framework and whether a new board, committee, or governmental function would be required. He also asked whether implementation would create financial obligations for the County.

Bruce Strouble, Jr., responded that the proposal intentionally leaves implementation details to County staff and the Board of County Commissioners. He explained that the framework would require a formal assessment every four years, with findings presented to the Board for public review and consideration. The Board would then determine how to respond to the findings and whether the information should be incorporated into County decision-making. He emphasized that the proposal itself does not create automatic expenditures and leaves any financial commitments to the discretion of the Board.

County Administrator Long advised that if the Committee wished to advance a Charter Amendment, it would need to specify the language it intended to recommend before taking final action.

Bruce Strouble, Jr., moved, seconded by Howard Kessler, for Option #2: Advance a proposed Charter Amendment addressing historic harmful public policy decisions for consideration at the Committee's first of three public hearings on June 30, 2026, at 6:00 p.m.

Joey Davis questioned why the proposed language applied countywide rather than to specific geographic areas and asked how the proposed assessment and reporting process would differ from existing County evaluations and reporting practices.

Bruce Strouble, Jr., explained that the proposed language was intentionally broad to allow the framework to address community concerns throughout Leon County, including issues that may emerge in the future.

County Administrator Long stated that while the County conducts numerous program-specific evaluations and reporting activities, it does not currently have a single, comprehensive process for assessing historic harms as illustrated in the proposal.

Barry Wilcox requested a practical example of how the proposed framework would work.

Chair Lindley invited Commissioner Bill Proctor to respond to Mr. Wilcox's question.

Commissioner Bill Proctor cited examples of annexation, infrastructure, and service disparities in certain communities, stating that such issues illustrate the types of historic public policy decisions that could be reviewed under the proposed amendment.

Vice Chairman Haynes stated that he would oppose the amendment, arguing that the County already addresses historical inequities through existing programs and investments. He expressed concern that adding the issue to the Charter could expand it beyond its intended role. He then questioned whether similar charter provisions exist elsewhere and expressed concern that the proposal could be perceived as a DEI initiative. He also questioned the need for recurring assessments focused on historical harms.

County Administrator Long responded that such provisions are generally uncommon.

Slaton Murray noted that ongoing Blueprint investments are helping address infrastructure and equity concerns in underserved communities and praised the County's existing efforts.

Henry Lewis, III, proposed a friendly amendment revising the ballot title to "Affirmation of County's Commitment to Historically Underserved Areas and Vulnerable Populations in Our Community" and removing the phrase "later determined to be unlawful or unconstitutional" from the amendment language. He stated that the changes would provide greater clarity and broaden the amendment's scope.

Bruce Strouble, Jr., accepted the friendly amendment.

Joey Davis proposed a friendly amendment to remove the word "historic" from the charter language, arguing that the amendment should address both past and future policy impacts and remain relevant over time.

Bruce Strouble, Jr., accepted the friendly amendment.

Shamarial Roberson stated that removing the word "historic" would make the amendment more relevant to current and future issues. She also sought assurance from legal counsel that the revised language would not conflict with state or federal law before supporting the proposal.

Deputy County Attorney Norton stated that she could review the proposed language for potential conflicts with applicable law but could not predict the legality of future actions or policies that might result from the amendment.

Linda Bond Edwards stated that the phrase "adverse community conditions" would provide flexibility and allow residents to raise concerns about the impacts of County policies or actions. She argued that the amendment could benefit any resident affected by such conditions.

Deputy County Attorney Norton cautioned that the term "adverse community conditions" may be too broad and undefined, potentially creating ambiguity about what issues would qualify for review under the amendment.

County Administrator Long advised that removing limited language could make the amendment difficult to implement by creating uncertainty about which policies, actions, or conditions should trigger an assessment.

Deputy County Attorney Norton added that any approved charter language would need to be sufficiently clear because the charter does not contain a general definitions section.

Bruce Strouble, Jr., cautioned that removing the word "historic" could make the proposal overly broad and weaken its original purpose. He requested that Joey Davis withdraw his friendly amendment.

Chair Lindley supported retaining the word "historic," stating that it better reflects the amendment's intent and provides greater clarity for voters.

Joey Davis withdrew his friendly amendment.

Vice Chairman Haynes offered a substitute motion, stating his preference for using the Charter Preamble to affirm the County's existing commitment to historically underserved areas and vulnerable populations without establishing a new Charter-based assessment process.

Vice Chairman Chauncy Haynes made a substitute motion to adopt the ballot title and ballot language presented by staff in the agenda item, which would amend the Charter Preamble to affirm the County's commitment to addressing the needs of historically underserved geographical areas and vulnerable populations of the community while preserving the County's existing framework for local self-governance, community values, and citizen empowerment.

The motion failed for lack of a second.

Shamarial Roberson asked whether Leon County has a defined meaning for "historic public policies" or any formally identified unlawful historic policies.

Deputy County Attorney Norton responded that the County does not have a specific definition or formal classification for historic public policies.

Bruce Strouble, Jr., requested to proceed with the vote.

Vice Chairman Haynes questioned how Committee members could evaluate the proposal without a clear definition of "historic public policies".

Committee members sought clarification on the motion.

Ms. Hatch explained that the motion consisted of three components: the proposed ballot title, ballot language, and charter amendment language as revised by the Committee. It was also confirmed that the proposed charter amendment language would be revised to reflect the changes made by the Committee to the ballot title and ballot language.

Bruce Strouble, Jr., moved, seconded by Howard Kessler, for Option #2, as amended: Advance a proposed Charter Amendment addressing historic harmful public policy decisions for consideration at the Committee's first of three public hearings on June 30, 2026, at 6:00 p.m. based on the Ballot Title and Language as amended and approved by the Committee as follows:

- Proposed Ballot Title (As Revised and Approved by Committee): "Affirmation Of County's Commitment To Historically Underserved And Vulnerable Populations"
- Proposed Ballot Language (As Revised and Approved by Committee): "Shall the Home Rule Charter of Leon County, Florida be amended to provide for a recurring Community Impact Assessment process, public reporting, and Board of County Commissioners' review and response regarding adverse community conditions related to historic public policies or governmental practices?"

The motion carried 14 – 3 with Vice Chairman Chauncy Haynes, Slaton Murray and Shamarial Roberson in opposition. Committee Members Anita Favors, Heidi Otway, Sean Pittman and William Smith were not present.

Ms. Hatch announced public hearings on June 30, July 16, and July 30, advising that the Committee's attendance was required and that votes would be taken at each hearing. She noted that additional revisions to the language could be considered and that, if approved, the proposal would advance to the Board of County Commissioners in August of 2026.

Committee members acknowledged the complexity of the issue, noting that questions involving historical inequities and governmental authority present significant legal and policy considerations.

Commissioner Proctor thanked the Committee for its work and described the discussion as one of the most thoughtful public policy conversations he had witnessed during his tenure.

Committee members expressed appreciation for the respectful and professional dialogue throughout the process despite differing viewpoints. Thanks were extended to the Chair, legal counsel, the County Administrator, and supporting staff for their assistance throughout the review process.
